May Providence multiply their numbers, subtract from their sorrows, divide their cares and add to their comforts, and close up life's accounts with an honest balance on the right side of the ledger.

The Manchester Dispatch, A. J. Hoyt's greenback organ, is dead.

It will be remembered that foolish parties were started some days since relating to the soundness of the Amoskeag Savings Bank, of Manchester. The Trustees and Bank Commissioners have just completed a very thorough examination of the securities of the bank, and the following is the result, the securities being figured at their market value: The assets of the bank are found to be $1,-999,788.26; there is due depositors $1,-819,323.55, leaving a surplus of $180,-864.71,-or nearly ten per cent.; interest is due depositors from July 1, amounting to about three per cent., then leaving a surplus of about $127,352. The Commissioners regard the bank as one of the soundest in the State. Depositors withdrawing their funds leave an interest balance of seven per cent. that remaining depositors have the benefit of. The panic has wholly subsided and the bank is doing business as usual and paying without notice. The money withdrawn during the excitement is being returned, and notices to draw at the end of thirty days are being in many cases cancelled.

William Marshall, formerly a merchant of Concord, died recently in Florida, aged 47 years.

William White, a greatly esteemed citizen of Wilton, died a few days since, aged 67 years, after a brief illness of paralysis. The only son of the deceased was foreman of the locomotive "William Sturgis," and was killed at the explosion of that engine in Lowell in 1868.

Over $5000 has been subscribed at Colebrook, and a similar amount at Canaan, Vt., for the extension of the Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad into Coos county.

The charity ball given at White's Opera House, Concord, Monday evening, 4th inst., in aid of the New Hampshire Centennial Home for the Aged, was one of the most brilliant and fashionable assemblies that has ever been held in Concord.

John M. Barron, a prominent citizen of Concord, died on Wednesday of heart disease, aged fifty-nine years. He was engaged many years at Concord in the flour and grain business, and at the time of his death was President of the National State Capital Bank, Treasurer of the Loan and Trust Savings Bank, Trustee of the State Insane Asylum and Director of the Michigan Central Railroad. He leaves five children.

—William Kendrick and John Ellington played poker in Dalton, Ky. Ellington thought that Kendrick cheated and stabbed him in the arm; but after a satisfactory explanation the cut was plastered up and the game resumed. Soon Kendrick accused Ellington of cheating, knocked him off his chair and stamped out three of his teeth. There was another explanation, after which the play was continued amicably for awhile. At length Ellington was unmistakably caught at stocking the cards, and Kendrick shot him through the shoulder. That ended the game.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; then renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, whether it be gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hair resumes their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft — under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so efficacious, or desirable.

Dr. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D.

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

"SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the strong-r kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and sprained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. (tmay)

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, Mass., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 30 years I was troubled with the worst of catarrh. The usual passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "sneeze," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff at the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tenant for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for m-ny successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of sm ll and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen-ths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it wi h Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second—or in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I w s relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or when there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, and taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassa and Iron, makes a most efficacious cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels those humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Erysipelas and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leuchorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE AND UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction AND Equipment

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of 10 ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, as the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six months tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the hard nodules in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and expect evidence such as my cure is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and nostrum that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that, also taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

BOSTON, Feb. 23, 1878. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many years been troubled with a very painful shoulder, caused by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used every prescription and liniment known, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them invaluable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, Mrs FRANCES HARRIMAN.

OAKLAND, Me., April 25, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and soreness of the Throat and Lungs, we believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a light Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

BLUE ARMY BLOUSES.

WE have just received a few more of those BLUE ARMY BLOUSES, which have been in such demand for the last twelve months.

C. E. MYERS & CO.,

No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

[Communicated.]

"New and yet Old."

As time is hurrying us onward to a focal point, and I have not met with the person unknown to me that I referred to a few days since through the press, as he suggested some thoughts to me in his article which I believe to be fatal to any person who teaches those principles, I wish to say for his benefit, or others' in like position of mind, that I find a wide difference in many of the teachings of the biblical theological schools, as is taught by those who go to them and the Holy Bible teachings. It is not surprising to me that a boy twelve years old, while doing the will of Him that sent him, could confound the doctors of the law 1800 years ago in answering and asking questions of them; and on another occasion in the temple, in that memorable sermon as recorded by St. Matthew, 21st chapter, 23d verse, and onward to the 24th chapter. I wish all would criticise that sermon in which he rebuked the same class of biblical theological teachers (23d chapter, 2d verse,) saying, you sit in Moses' seat. Moses never was in that temple or the one that stood before that. Christ shows them that they assumed the position that God had called Moses to fill, as a leader and a teacher, telling that class of teachers what burdens they had laid on men's shoulders, which in our days is not very much unlike those days, by men who are our servants, who compel us to bear heavy burdens to get money to pay into the treasury to support the biblical theological institutions all over the land where wrong principles of interpretation are taught, which are not in harmony with the truths in the Bible. Persons who go to those institutions to get their learning, when finished come out and teach the same doctrine that they learn in whatever institution they go to and by so doing the land is full of isms, babels, confusions, so that a person does not know what to believe, which was the cause of making myself an infidel. I do believe it has been the cause of making more infidels in the world than all other means. I well understand why all the human machinery of this world is out of joint, so that the wise, prudent business men of this world are perplexed to know what course to take, in manufacturing and purchasing goods so as to meet these liabilities at the present time. The remedy is too late now. I will advise every person to get a book called Cruden's Condensed Concordance first, with the Bible; these two books are all the library any person needs to find out the mind of God as revealed in His word. Then ask God for His spirit that it may lead you into all truth and bring all things to your remembrance that He has said in His word, and show you such things as He has revealed in His word, which are to come; when you get the spirit it will be the same spirit that holy men of old wrote the bible under its influence. The spirit and the word always agree. Whenever any man or angel teaches or does anything contrary to the teaching of the word, you may know at that time you are not under the influence of the spirit of God. When Christ says to you, search the Scriptures for light and knowledge, he does not mean to doctor this one, or professor that one, but do what he saith to you in his word, and if you do it you will be wiser than most of your teachers. Timothy 2d epistle, 3d chapter, 15th, 16th and 17th verses. The holy scriptures which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is Christ. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness that the man of God may be thoroughly furnished unto all good works. With this information no person need to resort for light outside of the Bible for help; when the Bible teaches you the dead do not know anything, believe it, it does not teach the opposite; when the Bible tells you that Christ shall judge the living and the dead at his appearing, believe it, it is not at some other time; when it says the saints of God shall not all sleep or die, but they shall all be caught up in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air, and the earth shall cast out its dead, believe it; when it says the righteous shall inherit the land and dwell therein forever, the meek shall inherit the earth, believe it,—it is not somewhere else; that the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, believe it; when it tells you the earth that now is is reserved unto fire against the day of judgment or perdition and destruction of the ungodly, believe it. I want you to read Psalms, 37th chapter, as being a literal thing; when it says it is appointed unto man once to die, and after this the judgment, believe it; and the sinner shall die the second death, believe it; and at the time the earth is cleansed, when it tells you that those who do make a feast, call in the poor, blind, halt and lame, they shall have their reward at the resurrection of the just, when it tells you that the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him, believe it; and when it says the new Jerusalem or holy city, or the camp of the saints or the beloved city, or the city of the great king, which is all to be one literal thing, which is to be the capital of the new earth which will come down from heaven, after the celebration of the marriage supper of the lamb upon Mount Zion in Asia, which must be cleansed first, and when the city is located there the rest of the earth is not cleansed. Sinners will be all around the city, and they can see Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of God, but the sinner cannot go into the city; then the parable of the rich man and Lazarus will be fulfilled. I believe, then, the sinners will be thrust out of the earth, by the cleansing of the earth by fire; then the wicked will be ashes under the soles of the righteous' feet on the new earth. I believe the whole earth will not be cleansed before the year 1880. WM. S. WILLEY.

THE STATE SENATE.

A year ago the republicans carried eight of the twelve Senatorial Districts, the democrats carrying the 1st, 6th, 8th and 12th. The 11th district was wrested from them by the strength of the republican candidate, James W. Johnson of Enfield, by a very small majority; and as the district is usually democratic they hope to recapture it this year. Should they do this the Senate would stand seven republicans to five democrats, allowing all the other districts to go as last year; and the carrying of one other district, in addition to those carried by them a year ago, would make a tie in the Senate. Under these circumstances it is of more importance for the republicans to redeem the first district, which is naturally republican, than it was for them to carry it last year; and if they do not redeem it by the election of Emmons B. Philbrick, it will be because they choose to deliberately throw the election away. Last year they had an immense opposition to contend against; Frank Jones was running for Congress—and everybody knows what that means; Daniel Marcy was the gubernatorial candidate—and everybody knows what that means, too; and Marcellus Eldredge, another wealthy brewer, was candidate for Senator. Yet with all the disadvantages under which the republicans labored, Mr. Eldredge's majority was only 154—a majority that can easily be overcome this year, that should be overcome, and that we believe will be overcome. The republican candidate is a practical farmer and a working man, intelligent and of irreproachable character, and in every respect (except in point of wealth) better fitted to represent the district than is the democratic candidate. If fitness for the office counts, Mr. Philbrick will be elected beyond a doubt; if the possession of money entitles a man to the Senatorship Mr. Eldredge will get it.

News and Notes.

The Chicago Board of Trade has sent to Congress a remonstrance against transferring the life-saving service to the Navy Department.

Henry Schmidt, of New York city, poisoned his wife, mother and daughter on Friday by putting arsenic in the milk they were using for tea. The two women will die, but the child will recover. Schmidt is under arrest.

A man named Daniel Armstrong was found dead in the upper part of a house in Eaton court, Boston, on Wednesday morning, lying on a bench. Medical Examiner Harris made an autopsy of the body and discovered a quid of tobacco lodged in his throat in such a manner as to cause death by strangulation.

At the wedding reception of Rev. J. H. Ross (pastor of Prospect street church) and wife, at Newburyport, Mass., on Tuesday evening, there was a narrow escape from a serious disaster. The reception was given at the house of Captain Charles M. Bayley. Some boys got possession of a gun, and while they were toying with it, not knowing that it was loaded, it was fired, and sent a charge through the ceiling, to the great alarm of the party, the house being crowded. This is the third accident of the kind in Newburyport within two months. One killed a little girl, the second sent a shot into a bed on which a sick woman was lying, and it seems a miracle that no one of the crowd was injured in this case.

The first attempt ever made in Sherman, Me., to put a teacher out of school was not a success. One big boy was knocked seneless on the floor and three others thought it prudent to escape through the windows.

Capt. Charles Boyce, a well known English naval officer, died recently, aged ninety-one years. He was an active officer in 1815, and on June 30 of that year he was obliged to surrender to Capt. Warrington of the American corvette Peacock on account of superior force. This occurred some months after the conclusion of the war.

A woman, who gave her name as Mrs. Tom Collins, created quite a sensation in Bayonne, N. J., Thursday evening. She had been drinking deeply, and four stalwart officers undertook to conduct her to the Police Station, when she resisted them, and in the struggle that ensued every stitch of clothing was torn from her body. In this condition she was taken to the station, followed by two women, who tried to cover her with the remnants of her clothing.

Some time since a woman left a basket at the residence of a Portland clergyman without speaking a word, and vanished speedily out of sight. The basket contained a lovely little child, with a nameless and dateless letter, stating that ample remuneration should be forthcoming. But the little fragile thing soon withered and died, and the sexton bore her to the grave. The minister, his wife and two others were all that went to the burying-place, and on arriving at the grave the weeping mother was already there.

The barn of Erastus Chase at Calais, Me., is infested with savage rats, which attack his cattle and eat holes in their hides. The other night a young heifer was seen to plunge madly about, and examination revealed an enormous rat on its back, contentedly sucking from a hole which it had made in the animal's hide. Poison and other methods have been resorted to, but without avail, and the depredations of the rodents have increased to such an extent that Mr. Chase fears that he will have to give them the entire use of the barn in order to save the cattle.

New Hampshire Items.

The evidence in the case of John Q. Pinkham, arraigned before the Supreme Court at Dover on a charge of murdering Mrs. Mariam Berry of New Durham, was finished on Friday, and the arguments were begun Saturday morning. The defence is insanity. Whether insane or not, it is evident that Pinkham is a man of very little intelligence and no education.

Mrs. Johnson, a well-known teacher of Carroll county, has just completed her fifty-eighth term of school at Melvin village.

A car-load of beef, numbering 160 quarters and ten tons in weight, consigned to gentlemen in Nashua from Chicago, and forwarded from that city on the 20th of February, is almost a total loss, owing to the want of customers. It was shipped to Lowell Friday.

Hanover is to have a soldiers' monument, to be erected in the centre of the town, made from New Hampshire granite, the estimated cost of which is between two and three thousand dollars. Mr. J. William Beal of South Scituate is engaged upon the design, and hopes to have it completed by Decoration Day.

Political.

The Boston Post's Manchester correspondent on Saturday elected McKean governor; two councillors certainly, three probably, and four possibly; six senators certainly, and probably seven; and carried the legislature for the democracy. He says: "The prohibition party has hardly been heard of since the campaign began, and will not cast 150 votes. The greenback ticket is of no account, and will have next to no following."

It is stated that the Louisiana Supreme Court will soon set aside the proceedings against Anderson in the lower Court, based upon the false findings of Judge Whitsker, and a new trial and Anderson's release will follow.

The South Carolina democrats having secured the conviction of L. Cass Carpenter, to satisfy their hatred of him as a republican, are now aiming to secure a reputation for great magnanimity by signing an application for his pardon. It is stated that every member of the Legislature now in Columbia has signed the petition for pardon, and that Governor Hampton will without doubt, act favorably upon it. This is the regular programme in the South. The chief desire is to attach a stigma to the names of active republicans, and then cut off all further proceedings by a pardon.—Bangor Whig.

The silver bill has riveted the six per cent. load upon the country. The bondholders will get six per cent. in silver upon their bonds instead of four per cent. in gold, and the groaning industries of the country must make up the difference. When cool heads, ten years hence, come to look at this great opportunity lost, they will call the silver bill the most amazing folly that ever misled a great and intelligent people.—Baltimore Gazette (dem).

If frauds were perpetrated in Louisiana, they were attempted in Oregon. If Wells altered returns in Vernon parish, somebody at Gramercy park used the telegraph freely to purchase a republican elector in Oregon. The man who attempts but fails to accomplish fraud is not in a position to hurl the charge at others.—Memphis Avalanche (ind dem.).

Sharp competition is the order of the day, among the first-class hotels in New York. With one or two exceptions, they are trying to keep their old trade while adhering to their previous high rates. The Grand Central has reaped much benefit from this, by quietly "cutting" the rates from one to two dollars per day.

Don't pay 50 cts. and $1.00, when you can buy an article like Adamson's Botanic Balsam for 25 cts. It cures Coughs, Colds, and all Pulmonary Complaints. 25 and 75 cts. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

Reflect that in every cemetery one-half of the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and Colds; and if you are thus afflicted, avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. Sold by all Druggists.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. It is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial as being the most reliable preparation ever used; it is particularly adapted to lung and throat affections in children. Try one bottle. tmch23

THE CITY.

Mr. Chase, the prominent greenback advocate, will address a public meeting in Franklin Hall this evening.

Blue-birds, robins, black-birds, yellow-hammers and sparrows, in large numbers, and some wild ducks, have already arrived in this vicinity.

Sunday was a pretty fair June day, lacking the green of the trees and grass. The robins and blue-birds sang merrily in the early morning, and the thermometer was above seventy degrees in the shade, shortly after noon.

In our report of the republican caucuses, in Saturday's CHRONICLE, we printed the name of one of the nominees "Benjamin F. Curtis." It should have been Benjamin W. Curtis; "B. F." was the great jurist; "B. W." is the "great medicine."

Hon. Samuel Flint, of Lyme, the greenback candidate for governor, in a letter to Geo. E. Hodgdon, Esq., and others, accepting the nomination, received in this city on Saturday, says: "Success would ruin me, but I can bear defeat like a martyr!" Mr. Flint is secure from ruin this year, at any rate.

Remember: As goes the State in March, so it will undoubtedly go in November. This election settles the political status of the State for two years, and probably for a decade. Is it the time for the old reactionary Bourbon party to triumph? Let us save the honor of the State, which has stood nobly redeemed for two years.

Is your name on the check-list? If not, and it has a right to be there, see that it is put on to-day. The Board of Inspectors will be in session from nine o'clock to noon, and from two o'clock to five in the afternoon, to revise the lists. And while you are there, see that the names of your republican friends are on the lists as well as your own.

Isn't it about time for "Du-da," of the Times, to write another of his spicy attacks (in the red-oak knee line) upon Naval Constructor Wilson? When he can gratify personal spite and at the same time make political capital (for a brief period) for the democratic party, he ought to keep his pen going—particularly as it pleases "Du-da" and the Times, and don't hurt Constructor Wilson any.

Last year the friends of Frank A. McKean were so incensed against Hon. Daniel Marcy for his refusal to take himself out of the way of the "young democracy" at the State convention, that many of them cut Mr. Marcy on election day. Wonder if any of the Marcy men will return the compliment in kind this year, as not a few of them threatened to do a year ago in return for the throwing over of their candidate?

The friends of Naval Constructor Wilson, of the Kittery navy yard, will be glad to learn that he has made a satisfactory defence before the House naval committee to the charge that he was receiving red oak knees in the navy yard, and using them in rebuilding the Ticonderoga. Constructor Wilson swore that not one red oak knee had been used, and in this he was sustained by Wm. F. Fernald, John Neal and Aaron Frost, all prominent shipbuilders, who made a critical examination of the Ticonderoga.—Army and Navy Journal.

On Sunday afternoon a double team owned by Mr. Charles Cottle, of Kittery, which had been hired by Mr. Frank Allen for a drive to this city with a lady, started from in front of the Kearsarge House just as Mr. Allen was getting into the buggy, in which the lady was already seated, Mr. Allen throwing the reins to the lady on finding he could not hold them. The horses turned up Vaughan street, struck the hydrant and threw the lady out, injuring her severely, though she was able to be taken home. The horses ran into Deer street, and struck a tree in front of Mr. S. W. Clarke's residence, breaking it short off, smashing the buggy and throwing themselves down, when they were at once secured. One of the horses was badly cut on the leg.

What became of the "three persons" that the Times said the republican city committee decided "should be allowed to make the nominations for all the wards?" We didn't hear of their being around to any great extent with their lists of nominations at the republican caucuses on Friday evening. When we questioned the appointment of such a triangular set by the republican city committee, on the perhaps puerile ground that there was no republican city committee in existence, the Times man incontinently squelched us by remarking that he was posted and we were not. What became of your three wise men, George?

The new Piscataqua Savings Bank is to open on the first Tuesday in April. The Trustees have voted to receive deposits in sums of from $3 to $1000. Interest will be paid at the rate of four per cent. per annum, commencing the first day of the month next following the date of the deposit. Dividends will be declared January and July of each year, and every three years extra dividends of the surplus earnings.

Last year at the State election the democratic slogan was "Old White Oak." This year it has been—in this vicinity at least—"Old Red Oak!" And all it cost the government for the services of the seven witnesses summoned from this city to Washington, by the democratic campaign organization jocosely termed the House committee on naval affairs, to prove that white oak knees are not made of red oak, and that knees which the government refuses to accept, it does not have to pay for, was $366.80.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

Ward one—Winthrop Hoyt, Nathan Whalley, Wm. S. Hadley.

Ward two—Wm. Marvin, Jr., Andrew P. Wendell, John S. Montgomery, John L. Frisbee.

Ward three—Andrew Sherburne.

Ward four—Mercer Goodrich and Henry F. Wendell.

THE RED-OAK WAR ENDED.

Some two weeks since we published the following, taken from the Washington despatch of the Boston Herald:

Two reputable citizens of the vicinage have made affidavit to the fact that a considerable quantity of red oak timber has been received into the yard, and that a quantity of red oak knees have been put into the Ticonderoga. The men who made this statement are Daniel Littlefield of Portsmouth and David Badger of Newington; they are men of the best reputation for veracity, and their testimony cannot be doubted. Their affidavit, which was on file at the Navy Department, has been forwarded to the House committee, and Constructor Wilson will be summoned here to explain this action on his part. It is well known that red oak knees last only a brief period, and for any constructor to use them in a United States vessel is gross impropriety. It is simply a deliberate attempt to bring the vessel back to the stocks for repairs at the earliest possible opportunity, and the men who are familiar with the facts in the case say that a court martial ought to be ordered for the men who are responsible for it.

Commenting upon this charge, we remarked that we had never supposed Mr. Wilson "to be either an incompetent constructor or a fool, so it was difficult for us to credit the story;" but that "on the other hand both Mr. Littlefield and Mr. Badger ought to know what red oak is." Now that the true inwardness of this attempt to gratify personal dislike, (we do not refer to Messrs. Littlefield and Badger,) and make political capital for the democracy at Constructor Wilson's expense, is made known, it seems that our estimate of the constructor was correct, while we were widely in error in assuming that Messrs. Littlefield and Badger "know what red oak is" when they see it. Here follows the proof:

In December last Mr. George A. Hammond, of Eliot, who had been awarded the contract for furnishing the eight-inch and nine-inch white oak knees to be delivered at this navy yard, (on Requisition No. 28, dated Bureau of Construction and Repair, Oct. 22d, 1877,) forwarded to the Secretary of the Navy a request "to be allowed the same privileges in filling said requisition which have been extended to other contractors, * * who are allowed to put in a proportion of red oak, * * being led to make this request at the present time because I notice that among the oak knees now in the navy yard at Kittery, some of which have recently been delivered, there is a large proportion of red oak. I also notice that red oak knees are being worked into the U. S. Ship 'Ticonderoga,' now undergoing repairs at said yard."

Jan. 3d, 1878, Admiral John C. Howell, Acting Secretary of the Navy in the absence of Sec. Thompson, addressed a letter of enquiry on the red oak subject to Commodore Guest, commandant of the Kittery yard, who of course at once called on Constructor Wilson for information, receiving in answer the following communication, dated Jan. 5th:

In reply to the Bureau's letter of the 3d inst., with regard to the character of the knees required, and being received under Requisition No. 28, of Oct. 5th, 1877, I have to state that no knees have yet been accepted on this requisition from either Mr. Jewett or Mr. Hammond, and none but white oak knees will be received. There are a number of red oak knees among those that have been offered for inspection, but they will all be rejected, and contractors held to both the letter and spirit of the requisition.

On the 2d inst. Mr. Wilson was summoned to appear before the House naval committee, and took along with him a few affidavits bearing on the questions of receiving red oak knees, and putting them in the Ticonderoga. One of them, dated Feb. 26th, 1878, is subscribed and sworn to by E. H. Jewett, and in it he states that he has a contract to furnish 342 seven-inch white oak knees on Requisition No. 28, and adds: "I have delivered and offered for inspection a number of these knees, but up to the present time the Inspecting Board have neither inspected or passed one of them." Another statement, dated Feb. 27th, signed and sworn to by Comdr. Henry Erben and Pay Inspector Edward May, of the navy, the official Inspection Board of the yard, is as follows:

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that up to the present time we have not been officially notified to inspect any oak knees delivered by E. H. Jewett on Requisition No. 28, dated Bureau Construction and Repair, Oct. 5th, 1877, consequently have neither inspected or passed any knees on said requisition.

This was reasonably good evidence that no red oak knees had been accepted under this contract; but there was still the charge of putting red oak knees into the ship, to be met. This charge, originally made by Mr. Hammond, had been backed up by the affidavit of David Badger and Daniel Littlefield, both ship builders, in which they state that on Dec. 29th, 1877, on visiting the navy yard they noted several lots of knees, three lots being near the Franklin shiphouse; in the first lot, of sixty-three knees, eight were red oak; in the second, of eighty-two knees, thirty-eight were red oak; in the third, of eighty-three knees, thirty-two were red oak. Of a lot in the timber dock, estimated to contain two hundred knees, they "found in sight twenty-four knees of red oak." And on boarding the Ticonderoga they "saw workmen at work fastening one red oak knee, while four were already fastened." To refute this charge several experts were called to view the new work of the vessel, and gave sworn statements as follows:

Wm. A. Fernald, foreman shipwright on the yard, Wm. F. Noyes and Mark C. Fernald, quarterman shipwrights, and Daniel Perry, leader of shipwrights on the yard, with E. G. Pierce, ex-ship builder, certify that they "carefully examined, by cutting and otherwise, the thirty-six new oak knees in the U. S. S. 'Ticonderoga,' and find them all good and suitable," and "there are no red oak among them." A similar statement, and almost in the same words, is made by Charles A. Wendell, foreman spar-maker on the yard, Augustus Stevenson, foreman boat-builder, and Aaron Frost 2d, a ship builder of Bath, Me. Mr. Wm. D. Fernald, the well known Portsmouth ship builder, certifies that he "carefully examined the thirty-six new oak knees" in the Ticonderoga; that "there is no red oak among them," and "they are suitable for the purpose used." Mr. John Neal, the Kittery ship builder, says: "Having personally, critically examined the thirty-six oak knees now in the deck frame of the U. S. S. 'Ticonderoga', I have no hesitation in stating that there are no red oak among them, and that those used are good and suitable for the purpose." Andrew P. Wentworth certifies: "I have been an outboard joiner for more than thirty years—joinered all the ships built by the late Samuel Badger for twelve years—been employed on navy yard some fifteen years, principally as quarterman of joiners, having charge of the outboard joiners—personally joinered the thirty-six new oak knees placed in U. S. S. 'Ticonderoga,' and there is not one red oak among them, but to the best of my knowledge and belief all are white oak as classed under the general term." Fortified with these affidavits, Mr. Wilson proceeded to Washington, whither also went Messrs. Hammond, Littlefield, Badger, and other witnesses in the case.

Before the committee, Mr. Hammond testified that he never purchased any red oak knees; he offered the Bureau "to furnish some white and red oak, and Bureau stated they declined to purchase them as they were not used." He "took Badger and Littlefield to the yard to get their opinion of the character of the knees, as he thought they knew more than he did about it."

Mr. Littlefield testified that the knees referred to "are what are called 2d growth red oak," being closer grained than forest red oak. In answer to the question, "Is there any more than one kind of oak that you ship builders class as red oak?" he answered: "Yes, sir; yellow oak. We like the same better; it sounds better in building a ship for a man to say he is putting in yellow oak than red oak." Question—"That is a more deceptive sound, as red oak is notorious for not being good timber?" Answer—"It hews easier." Mr. Littlefield further stated that Mr. Hammond had no contract.

Mr. Badger testified that "he knows that the knees lying near the shiphouse were being used on the vessel under repairs on the ways." Also that formerly no oak was used in building ships but white oak, but some twenty years ago the builders got to putting in red oak and calling it yellow oak. Considered red oak and yellow oak all one thing, though yellow oak, growing on high ground in pastures, was much closer grained than the red oak of the forest. In answer to a question as to how much red oak was now put into ships, he said, "We do not intend to build our ships of it totally, but then we have to use some of it for this reason, we cannot buy a man's timber without getting red oak;" it comes in loads, and the red has to be bought with the white; it is also much cheaper than white oak.

The explicit statements of the affidavits offered by Mr. Wilson showing conclusively that the knees near the Franklin shiphouse—which Mr. Badger knew were being used in the Ticonderoga, and which may or may not contain red oak among them—have not yet been accepted by the government, and that there is no red oak among the new knees put into the vessel, the only point in the case remaining to be answered is as to the red oak knees seen in the timber dock (and which of course have been accepted) by Messrs. Badger and Littlefield. As to this, it may be suggested that men who are mistaken as to the wood of which knees are composed, when they are hewn and finished off and stuck up in the air where a full view of them can be had from a point as near as may be desired, quite possibly might be mistaken as to other knees lying in the muddy bottom of a dock many feet below the inspectors' standing place.

The matter now rests in the hands of the committee, Messrs. Whitthorne, Frank Jones of New Hampshire, and Hanna of Indiana; and their report will be looked for with much interest.

THE VICINITY.

The Hampton Falls check-list this year contains one hundred and twenty-five names, including twenty-one Browns, eleven Sanborns, eight each of Chases and Prescotts, seven Peveares, but not a single Smith!

On Monday, the 4th inst., Mr. Samuel A. Dixon, of South Eliot, shipped to Boston by express 1421 dozen eggs, a large proportion of which were laid by the twelve hundred hens kept by Mr. Dixon, and the rest purchased of parties in the immediate vicinity.

The winter terms of the South school in Rye, Miss A. Goss teacher, and the Centre school, taught the last part of the term by Mr. Arthur G. Hoyt of Newington, have closed. Mr. Nathan R. Goss has opened a private school in the town hall, commencing with seventeen pupils.

Mr. Frank Philbrick is putting on the Farragut House, at Rye, an addition of thirty-two by seventy-two feet on the ground, and three stories high, with a mansard roof; the first story is fifteen feet, the second and third nine feet each. Mr. George G. Lougee is to build a house and barn on the Philbrick place, now owned by him, this spring.

In North Hampton, the past year, John F. French has collected 87,000 cans of milk, which he delivers to parties in Boston. He keeps constantly employed six men and six horses, collecting the same. W. H. Chase & Co., of Lynn, Mass., also collect 28,000 cans yearly. The price paid is twenty-five cents per can of eight and one-half quarts. John and Charles Batchelder have bought 5000 bushels of potatoes for the Boston markets.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.
Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition will turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; restores it to its youthful growth; and always surely restores its color, vigor, and beauty.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, as discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D.
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Fletcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. Gmayl

NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated, beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's 8 standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foote up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embalm a similar cure in my papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such preparations. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which gives the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my system, and also keep my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.
Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect a complete cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and a loomy foreboding, irregular appetite and bowels costive, you are suffering from torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Irregular Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

The attention of the trave ling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the safety only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and right-bed combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen:—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucous from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped in a few days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to be a source of annoyance. The scrofula across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my scales of scaling and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that predisposed my system to the ravages of grave disease by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent specialists of the day. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, caused by a chronic pleuritic affection and by a former injury to the chest, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the best medicinal cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and sore ness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do my living. I consider them inestimable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 27, 1875.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 75 CENTS.

Be not confounded these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

A WONDERFUL INVENTION.

The "Phonograph."

NEW YORK, March 11th.

The great discovery of Prof. Thos. A. Edison is but little known to the public, and yet is such a success that its demonstration produces conviction in less than sixty seconds of operation. The "Phonograph" as he calls it, is one of the most wonderful of inventions, and opens such a vast field for practical use that the imagination cannot easily grasp its possibilities. The writer had read in New York papers of Feb. 22d, a description bordering so much on the unreasonable as to lead to the belief that it was a huge and adroitly written hoax. That an instrument, simple in construction and requiring very little mechanism, could be used to record and reproduce every word spoken to it and every sound whispered in its mouth-piece, seemed absurd, and a careful re-reading of the article only convinced the reader of its utter impracticability. It chanced that a distinguished ex-medical director of the confederate army, now resident in this city, had received a cordial invitation to attend a public exhibition of the "Phonograph" at Rev. Dr. Armitage's church, and declining, had induced his wife to attend. She did so, and was so enchanted with the performance that her husband was persuaded to visit the factory of the inventor in company with your correspondent, last Saturday.

Armed with the proper credentials of introduction we found Prof. Edison "at home," at his factory, as he usually is; for although surrounded by luxury in his spacious mansion a gun-shot away, at Menlo Park, N. J., (twenty-four miles from this city,) he spends more than two-thirds of his time night and day, at work with the wonderful inventions he has produced, neglecting sleep, rest and appetite for the one absorbing pursuit of the secrets of Nature. We were kindly received and found Prof. Edison a young man in years (his age is about thirty-one,) with an intense mental activity, keen gray eyes set in a head which is compactly formed, and a beaming intelligence of countenance rendered all the more evident by a slight deafness which showed all his faculties alert to catch the views of those to whom he willingly exhibits the workings of his "Phonograph." This man was formerly an employe of the Western Union Telegraph Company. Now he receives weekly from the same corporation the sum of $200 for the use of one of his inventions, the quadruplex and sextuplex dispatchers, by which several messages can be sent at the same time over a single wire. He is already the patentee of more than two hundred of his own inventions, among the most prominent of which are the automatic telegraph, the carbon telephone, the electric pen, the stock indicator, the marvellous phonograph, the electro-motograph (by which telegraphing is done without electricity,) and a wonderful instrument called the airophone, not yet perfected. The factory is a laboratory in which electrical instruments and hundreds of bottles of chemicals line shelves and floors. Telegraph wires lead direct to the building, and here with a half-dozen experts, this indefatigable toiler conducts his experiments, day and night, catching a brief half-hour's sleep at intervals when nature insists that she must not be continuously neglected. His talk is the talk of common sense, and he wastes no words as he proceeds to show the workings of the "Phonograph."

Ordering the engine started (the machine talks more regularly by steam than by hand power,) the Professor shows us a mouth-piece of gutta percha, a sort of speaking tube. Pressing the tube against a hollow brass cylinder around which a sheet of tin-foil is neatly wrapped, into the mouth-piece he whispers, shouts, talks, whistles and sings, as the cylinder revolves. The cylinder, (about four inches in diameter and fifteen inches long,) is grooved spirally. The mouth-piece is an artificial diaphragm with a thin disc of metal at the bottom, having in its centre a fine steel point. When the talking commences the disc vibrates, the steel point punctures the tin-foil and the record commences. When the tin-foil has registered the conversation, it is found punctured with dots (as in the specimen herein enclosed.) This is the matrix. Now for the most remarkable part of the exhibition. The mouth-piece is replaced at the left of the cylinder, (as at the commencement,) the operator places a tin tunnel against the mouth-piece, with the large end outward, presses it again against the matrix covering the cylinder—and out of the tunnel comes speech, song, whistle and all the noises recorded in the first place. That is all! The tone of voice is exact, the modulation is perfect, the words distinct, the music without a break or want of harmony.

But how can it talk? What produces the sound? Prof. Edison explains. It requires about the power of thirty pulsations or puffs per second from the larynx of a man to produce articulate sound. Fifteen puffs are scarcely discernable to a listener. A full tone requires a power represented by 500 puffs from the larynx. The pressure (though light) of the mouth-piece upon the matrix covering the revolving cylinder, as the steel point sinks into and follows the dots and lines, is equal to the power by which the original record of the sound was made by the "Phonograph." We gaze half incredulously into the eager eyes of the inventor and see that he is in dead earnest. We remember that a celebrated scientific journal but ten days ago pronounced the phonograph "an impossibility," and here we are face to face with it and its inventor, see its faithful working and listen to its patient author, half doubting that it is not all a dream, and the scientific editors correct in their statements. But "seeing is believing," and there is positively no room for doubt.

Prof. Edison sings "Mary had a little lamb" into the instrument, which faithfully reproduces the song. Then he recommences, singing with it. He gets a half-note behind toward the close, which is hardly noticeable until he places the mouth-piece once more at the left end of the cylinder and we all listen for the effect. It grinds out the following:

"Mary had a little lamb
Whose fleece was white as snow,
And everywhere that Mary went
The lamb-lamb was sure-sure
To-go-go!"

We surrendered, and let imagination have full sway. Our thoughts are interrupted by the enthusiastic inventor, who says he can register on that small cylinder 48,000 words, by increasing the number of spiral grooves. He mentions a singular discovery. The most harmonious tunes of the day registered by the "Phonograph" can be reversed by means of the machine, and new tunes are the result, perfect in harmony and delightful to the ear. Prof. Edison is now perfecting an imitation of the roof of the mouth and hopes ere long to be able to register all the conversation taking place in a room where the instrument is placed. In some cases this might be far more than desirable, but the fact that it can be done shows to what extent the "Phonograph" will be used.

The Kiralfy Brothers have visited the inventor, and desire to make arrangements by which they can give a grand performance in Booth's Theatre by the use of a Baxter steam engine and matrices on which gems of the opera shall be registered, so that the voices of Patti, Kellogg, Aimee, Brignoli, and other world famous singers may be reproduced in concert from matrices taken weeks and perhaps months before. As a means of amusement the "Phonograph" seems to be inexhaustible. A gentleman separated from his family, instead of writing letters to them, may talk into one of these machines, send the matrix by mail to them, they can attach it to another phonograph and have it talk to them in the tones of and with the recognizable voice of the head of the family. Confidential communications may be made by the machine (which, by the way, is to be run by clock-work and can be carried comfortably in the hands) and left for hours, for days, weeks, months and years, and then produced and reproduced until the matrices of tin-foil are worn out. Phonographic writing will become less needed and amanuenses unnecessary, except as copyists. The testimony of witnesses in court will only be spoken to be taken down in tone and word correctly (for the "Phonograph" can make no mistake,) and in case of a re-hearing, or the death of witnesses, be made to reproduce even the accent and emphasis of men and women who may have for years rested in their graves. The precious words uttered by the living in families and in close relations of life, may be reproduced long after the lips of the speakers are closed for this life.

The discovery of this machine was the result of an accident while Prof. Edison was experimenting on another idea. He spoke into a mouth-piece and the steel-point pricked his finger. He thought then that it would puncture tin-foil and was correct. By his alrophone he promises to make locomotives whistle the names of railroad stations, so that they will be audible to passengers on trains, and declares it possible for two sea-captains to converse at a distance of twenty miles, by the manufacture of matrices to be inserted in steam whistles. The new machine (the "Phonograph") will be placed on sale at $100 each in about two months, and it bids fair to create a great sensation as its merits become generally known. G.

—"My dear Madam, do you know you possess one of the best voices in the world?" said a saucy fellow to a woman. "Indeed, do you think so?" replied she, with a flush of pride at the compliment. "I do most certainly," continued the rascal, "for, if you hadn't, it would have been worn out long ago." For the first time in her life that woman had not a word to say.

News and Notes.

Gold, Monday, 100 7-8.

A despatch from Victoria, Vancouver's island, says the wreck of the steamer Cordelia, of San Francisco, has drifted ashore on the west coast of the island. The machinery is not to be found, and it is supposed from the appearance of the wreck that the vessel must have capsized in crossing the bar of the Coquille river, to which port she runs from San Francisco, and that the machinery dropped out. No bodies were found on board.

At Harrison, Ohio, Friday night, at a Town Hall meeting, a new gasoline machine exploded; F. Rapp, member of the Council, and a little girl were instantly killed. A. Probst and F. Fisher were dangerously injured, and many others slightly. The flames spread and the wildest confusion ensued, but the fire was got under control and the building saved in a damaged condition.

Daniel McFarland, who was tried and acquitted in New York eight years ago on a charge of murdering Albert D. Richardson, is or was recently an employe in a wagon factory at South Bend, Ind. He is said to be a hard drinker and of vagabondish propensities.

Ship Azor, at Charleston, is about loaded with provisions, agricultural implements, dry goods, boots, shoes, etc., and will soon take 250 colored people to Monrovia, Africa. It is said that 25,000 colored people in the South are to follow them this summer, and over 160,000 are enrolled in an Association for emigaation to Liberia. No white man has any connection with the exodus.

Jerry Tullis, of Cincinnati, a miser, said to be worth nearly $3,000,000, died Friday night, from sickness caused by his own neglect and exposure, induced by his miserly habits. He might have died long before without harming the world any.

Two negroes had a fight in Baltimore, Friday night, over the possession of two cents; one was fatally wounded, and the other badly hurt.

Stephen R. Potter, of Dartmouth, Mass., was called out of the house of a widow in that village recently by a party of young men, and tarred and feathered.

The heaviest snow-storm of the season, in Washington Territory, Colorado and Nebraska, occurred on Friday and Saturday. Railroad communication was entirely stopped.

Never too late to mend. Rev. Job Washburn, of Rockport, Maine, ninety-two years of age, has just left off using tobacco, after using it three-quarters of a century.

Steam for street cars does not appear to be a success outside of Philadelphia. The Brooklyn City Railroad Company's experiment with it has been a disastrous failure. The steam gives out, the cars get out of coal, and there are other vexations. The same result is reported from experiments on the Newport and Dayton, O., line.

James O'Neil, a railroad engineer, whose bravery in the Say Bridge disaster a year ago, was published and praised, was murdered recently in Bloomington, Ill. There was no clue to the identity of the murderer, until Mrs. Catherine Wheaton, at the grave of O'Neil, in a melodramatic manner denounced her husband as the guilty man. Wheaton has been arrested and the evidence is strong against him.

The experienced officers of the Secret Service Division of the Treasury say that the new silver dollar will scarcely be in circulation before it will be extensively counterfeited. It will be much easier and less expensive to counterfeit the silver coin than the greenbacks and the bank notes. There is a large amount of counterfeit subsidiary coin in circulation now, principally of the larger denominations.

Rear-Admiral George H. Preble was at Punta Arenas, Straits of Magellan, with his flagship, the Omaha, on the 27th of January. He will reach Hampton Roads some time in April, touching at Rio Janeiro and St. Thomas on the way. The visit to Rio Janeiro will be only long enough to receive the ship's mail, as yellow fever now prevails there. In the Straits the Omaha passed the German corvette Leipzig, now on a two years' cruise around the world, with thirty German and eight Japanese midshipmen on board.

Mr. F. Hans, the reporter of the New York Star in the State Assembly, was, by a vote of that body, excluded from the privileges of the floor, for using indecent language toward a member.

A despatch from Trieste to London, dated March 9th, says the Austrian steamer Sphinx, from Cavallo, with 2500 Circassians on board, caught fire and went ashore near Cape Ella. Five hundred lives were lost. A despatch of the 10th to the London Standard, from Constantinople, states that 700 Circassians perished on the steamer.

It is rumored that Rear Admiral Trenchard will be relieved of the command of the North Atlantic squadron April 1st by Rear Admiral Howell, now chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, and that Rear Admiral C. P. R. Rodgers will be ordered to the command in the North Pacific.

An ex-member of Congress from Louisiana writes to Washington that he knows by authoritative information that the Returning Board prosecutions will be stopped, and that Gen. Anderson is to be pardoned.

The Senate Committee on Commerce has agreed to report a bill complying with James Gordon Bennett's request that his new purchase, the steam yacht Pandora, may be allowed to sail for the North Pole under American colors, and that she be served by United States naval officers.

The Constitution.

When in the course of human events the constitution commences to break down, and the system becomes debilitated, is it not wise to know what to do, and in whom to trust? Many, through prejudice, refuse to hear or read anything concerning physicians or medicines, but when in need blindly and contentedly acquiesce in the choice of friends. Suppose an investment becomes jeopardized, involving a few hundred dollars, would you entrust its management to others with as little concern and thought as you would trust a physician with your life? The Family Medicines of Dr. Pierce of the Grand Invalids' Hotel, of Buffalo, have held the field for many years against all those of competing and rival manufacturers, and are to-day the standard medicines of America. His Golden Medical Discovery has no equal in purifying and enriching the blood, strengthening the stomach, and aiding digestion, and assimilation. His Pleasant Purgative Pellets act mildly, yet positively upon the liver, overcoming "torpidity" and probably and permanently curing constipation, while his Favorite Prescription is sold under a positive guarantee to cure the many ills and weaknesses peculiar to females. The Common Sense Medical Adviser is an illustrated work on Domestic Medicine, of nearly one thousand pages, replete with practical suggestions to old and young. Over one hundred thousand copies already sold. Price $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ward Three—Stephen P. Rhodes.

Ward Four—William H. Rollins, Ezra H. Winchester.

THE CITY.

This is election day.

The polls open at nine o'clock this morning, and close at six P. M.

Look out for spurious tickets having the name of ALDEN B. SMITH in place of FRANK P. CRAM for County Commissioner.

The republican ticket in full is printed at the head of this column—for State and County officers, and Representatives to General Court—so there is no need of any republican losing his vote, or any part of it, through the split-ticket swindle.

Let every republican who intends to vote to-day, vote early, and then go to work to get out those republicans (if there are such) who don't intend to vote. A rousing good vote in the early part of the day will have a good effect at dispiriting the democracy.

First Lieutenant Fred. L. Dodge, of the 23d Regiment of Infantry, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, is now at his home in this city for a few days, after an absence of eight years. He was called home by the sudden and fatal illness of his mother. Lieut. Dodge is looking remarkably well.—Journal.

Mr. Whitehouse, chairman of the committee on naval affairs in the House of Representatives, has introduced a bill to authorize the Secretary of the Navy to classify the navy yards of the United States and to determine the character of the work to be done in each. The bill has had two readings and been referred to the committee on naval affairs and ordered to be printed.

Let no republican to-day throw away his vote for State Senator—see that it goes for the republican candidate, EMMONS B. PHILBRICK. It is not a mere personal question, between Mr. Philbrick and Mr. Eldredge, as to which shall be elected; the political complexion of the Senate may depend on how the district goes, and if Portsmouth only does what it can easily do, the district will be redeemed and an important barrier to democratic supremacy in the Legislature set up.

At the time of the runaway of a double team on Vaughan street, Sunday afternoon, as reported in Monday's CHRONICLE, Mr. Walter E. Cochrane was driving leisurely up the street, and was surprised to see Mr. Thomas Watkins, who was walking along near Capt. Vennard's residence, suddenly grab up a little child and drop the same over a fence, at the same time looking down street in apparent disgust. Turning to see what displeased Mr. Watkins, Mr. Cochrane saw the flying team coming, and immediately "put on the string" on his own horse and scooted around the nearest corner, just getting clear and that was all. At the rate the frightened horses were running a collision would have made bad work for the single team.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. deRochemont of Newington are to celebrate their golden wedding on the 25th inst.

That "Old Guard Republican" appeal to the "stalwart" wing of the republican party, to rebuke Hayes by giving the control of this State to the followers of Boss Bingham and John G. Sinclair, was gotten up by the Democratic State Central Committee, and printed in the office of the Concord People, the organ of the Bourbon democracy. It was a very transparent fraud, and deceived nobody.

The U. S. S. Tallapoosa, McRitchie, arrived at the navy yard Sunday evening, from Washington via New York and Boston. The Tallapoosa on this trip towed the U. S. S. Portsmouth to New York, where she is loading exhibits for the French Exposition.

There was considerable of a "sell" on a large number of sight-seers on Sunday afternoon, when some three hundred or more people assembled on Noble's island bridge and in its immediate vicinity, to witness a baptizing, and after waiting with what patience they could command for an hour or more, dispersed without having witnessed the expected ceremony.

George W. Weston, of Windham, the present Register of Deeds, is the republican candidate at this election for the same office. An item to the effect that "George F. Weston" had been appointed postmaster at Exeter went the rounds some days ago, and led many republicans to suppose that George W. Weston was withdrawn as candidate for Register of Deeds; but no person has been appointed postmaster of Exeter, and Geo. W. Weston is the republican candidate for Register of Deeds, and not a candidate for any federal office whatever.

The roads in the surrounding country have the past week been in about as bad a condition with mud as has ever been known, in many places being almost impassable for loaded teams; but they are rapidly drying up, the frost being almost entirely out of the ground. In Biddeford the streets have been so bad that teams have taken to the sidewalks where they could get at them, badly damaging the walks. In this city, barring a slight surface coating of thin mud, the streets have been in capital order all the time.

Atkinson & Fillmore, of Newburyport, have contracted for a 1300-ton ship for parties in Boston, Portsmouth and Newburyport, to be built immediately.

The Times man still sticks to it that "the republican city committee" appointed "three men" to "make the nominations for all the wards," and that they did it! Well, that is as near as it usually gets to fact, in its record of republican doings. And the Times man further "declines to swallow any part" of our article of Monday morning, in relation to the false charges brought by active democrats against Naval Constructor Wilson. No wonder; it must be a bitter pill for the Times to "swallow," after the bitter partisan malignity it has exhibited in its treatment of the case.

That "Old Guard" musket flashed in the pan; but look out for bogus tickets and other similar frauds, from the same source.

It is stated that the Naval investigating committee have caused the proper officers of the law to take proceedings against the parties in Portsmouth, N. H., who so falsely accused Naval Contractor Wilson of using red-oak knees in the frigate Ticonderoga. It is held that it is as much the duty of the goverament to punish malicious false accusers of naval or other federal officers as it is to punish such officers if proven derelict of duty or collusive with naval contractors. It is believed, if the parties who accused Constructor Wilson are to be put on trial, that they will show by whom the false charges were incited, and thus reveal to the public a plot by which a gang of contractors, in collusion with retired officers, were endeavoring to ruin the reputation of Constructor Wilson in order that a pliant tool might have been appointed to his place in charge of Construction and Repair at the Kittery navy yard. It will be remembered that in his testimony, last year, before the naval committee, Constructor Wilson exposed a steal of $4000 alleged extra services in building the Enterprise by the order of then Chief Naval Constructor Isaiah Hanscom. The recent false charges against Wilson were undoubtedly an attempt by friends of Hanscom to punish Wilson for his honesty and faithfulness to the Government.—Post.

THE CHARITY CONCERT.

The sacred concert in Music Hall, Sunday evening, attracted a large audience and was in every respect a good concert. The orchestra performed, as an overture, a selection from Bellini's grand oratorio "Mighty Jehovah," with a precision and delicacy of execution evincing a true appreciation of the sentiment of the beautiful composition. The flute solo by Mr. J. D. Boothman, of Lawrence, Mass., entitled "Ye Olden Times," was executed in a manner which unmistakably ranks Mr. Boothman with the best soloists of the day. Mr. Ralph Reinwald sustained his well-earned reputation as an artist of rare merit. Miss Emma J. Flanders excelled all her previous public efforts, and competely enraptured the audience by her melodious voice and exquisite skill. Messrs. Lafayette Butler, L. V. Newell, D. H. Payson and J. C. Tilton, as a quartette, sang admirably their very appropriate selections. Miss Alice J. Hanscom presided at the piano, and executed her important and difficult task in a thoroughly accomplished and graceful manner. In fact, each and all merit only praise for the excellence of the selections and the artistic manner in which they were rendered. The benevolent object to which the proceeds were applied meets the hearty commendation of every one who has sympathy for the poor. The net proceeds were promptly turned over to the committee appointed to receive them.

THE BIBLE CANVASS.

The agent of the Bible Society, who has been engaged for four weeks in canvassing this city and Newcastle, furnishes us with the following statistics of the canvass:

Number of families visited	2120
Number of Protestant families found destitute of a Bible	23
Copies given away	125
Value of copies given away	$29.00
Number of copies sold	479
Value of copies sold	$246.00
Contributions to Bible cause	$160.47

Was kindly assisted by Rev. Mr. Owen, who visited one hundred and forty-five families, and called on the business men of the city for contributions. Also by Brother Loyne, City Missionary; for his untiring zeal and industry in helping me by prayer-effort and sympathy, his kindly words and actions I shall never forget. I was kindly received by all, and very courteously treated, even by the Catholics. May the seed sown prove a savor of life unto life. W. G. BROWN, Ag't.

Ward four—James Janvrin, Joshua Stackpole.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, March 11th.

The "Accounts of the Selectmen" and "Report of the Superintending School Committee," printed by Charles W. Spear, Rye Beach, came out on Saturday, and will thus afford an opportunity for all interested, to look them over, and form their opinions in regard to the doings of the Selectmen during the past year, before town meeting is organized. It seems that the debt of the town has been increased $2517.25, the cause being the building of new roads for which the present board of selectmen are in no way responsible, as said roads were laid out, and land damages, etc., awarded, by the previous board, either by vote of the town, or by decision of County Commissioners. The whole sum expended in this manner was $2829.30; and as the town raised no money for the purpose, of course it had to run in debt. Only $6000 was raised last year, and of this, $2000 was appropriated for the repairs of highways; and the puzzling that was caused by that little $2000, was settled in a manner that was not exactly understood by anybody, but under the circumstances was "fixed" by the selectmen so that the highways have been kept passable, and no law suit will result. This road-tax business is a question that no ordinary mind in this town can successfully handle or solve; neither can acute legal minds out of town give much of an opinion on some "votes" that have been passed in town meetings, relating to the working out of the tax on highways. It will probably be agitated in the usual lucid manner this year, but it is to be hoped that somebody can form and make a motion in regard to it, that can be understood by the moderator, and be plain afterwards to the selectmen.

Notwithstanding the reports by a few bilious individuals, about the general wickedness, cussedness and rum-soaked state of things in this town, it appears that the police expenses last year were only $15, and the poor expenses only $490.90; and all the demands against the town are held by residents, so that whatever interest-money may be paid, it all goes to towns-people. No discounts at banks for us—and no necessity for it.

"Union Exhibition" of the school children under the direction of Superintending School Committee John O. Drake, on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

The Reform Club had a meeting last Wednesday night, and Maj. Urch spoke to the audience about an hour, very acceptably. He was followed by Mr. Bowdish and Mr. Joseph Philbrick, the latter being the oldest man in town, who stated that he signed the pledge many years ago, but previous to that had indulged somewhat in the use of intoxicants. Some twenty-five names were added to the pledge, not many of them being voters. The petition for the enforcement of the "Liquor and Cider laws" is signed by nearly ninety voters out of the 322 in town.

J. W. Garland was nominated for Moderator, at the democratic caucus. G. H. Jenness, Esq., who has returned from Washington for a brief stay, was first proposed, but declined to serve; and the result will be that it will be doubtful if one afternoon will suffice to do up the town's business. NAT.

THE VICINITY.

The President on Monday nominated Ivory Lord to be collector of customs at Saco.

The private school in Greenland taught by Miss Merrill gave an exhibition at the town hall on Tuesday evening of last week, consisting of readings, dialogues, recitations, charades and songs,—all well rendered. The hall was filled.

New Hampshire Items.

The store of D A. Macurdy at Webster was burned Sunday morning. Loss on building and stock about $2500.

A fire in Central building, Great Falls, early Sunday morning, caused the following losses: J. Y. Wingate, druggist, stock destroyed, $7000; insurance $5700. On building, owned by estate of H. R. Roberts, $2000; insured. Dr. S. S. Hayes, office, $400; insurance $200. Dr. C. E. Swasey, office, $200; no insurance. K. E. Mullen, dressmaker, $100; no insurance. Wimpfherner & Co., dry goods and carpets, damage by smoke about $8000; insurance $12,000. M. Bates & Co., damage by smoke about $3000; insurance $6000. C. M. Jones, drug store, damage by smoke $200; insured. Total loss about $21,000; insurance carried by ten different companies. The fire originated near a stove in Wingate's drug store.

The Pinkham murder trial at Dover has closed. On Saturday James A. Edgerly concluded his argument in behalf of the prisoner; Attorney-General Tappan presented the case in behalf of the State; Judge Foster delivered the charge to the jury, occupying two hours and fifteen minutes; and the jury at five o'clock was placed in charge of Deputy Sheriff D. C. Wiggin, and came to an agreement just before twelve o'clock Saturday night, being out about seven hours. The Sheriff summoned the Judges, and at a little before one o'clock Sunday morning the Court opened. The foreman gave a verdict of murder in the first degree against John Q. Pinkham.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

Brig Coaj Carver, Joyce, from New York for this port, passed through Hell Gate on the 11th.

Sharp competition is the order of the day, among the first-class hotels in New York. With one or two exceptions, they are trying to keep their old trade while adhering to their previous high rates. The Grand Central has reaped much benefit from this, by quietly "cutting" the rates from one to two dollars per day.

Don't pay 50 cts. and $1.00, when you can buy an article like Adamson's Botanic Balsam for 25 cts. It cures Coughs, Colds, and all Pulmonary Complaints. 25 and 75 cts. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

Reflect that in every cemetery one-half of the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and Colds; and if you are thus afflicted avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. Sold by all Druggists.

Pikes Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute. tab

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. It is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial as being the most reliable preparation ever used; it is particularly adapted to lung and throat affections in children. Try one bottle. tmch22

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. eod&tiscpt15 7

CAUTION.

The great popularity of "ASTRAL" OIL has induced some unprincipled persons to sell worthless and dangerous imitations for "ASTRAL," while others palm off inferior oils, representing them as good as "ASTRAL." To prevent this fraud, purchasers should demand "ASTRAL" and take no other.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—At the conclusion of a festival last summer an excellent teacher, desirous of administering a trifling moral lesson, inquired of the boys if they had enjoyed the repast. With the ingenuous modesty of youth they all responded, "Yes, sir." "Then," asked the excellent teacher, "if you had slipped into my garden and picked those strawberries without my leave, would they have tasted as good as now?" Every small boy in that stained and sticky company shrieked, "No, sir!" "Why not?" "Cause," said little Thomas, with the cheerfulness of conscious virtue, "then we shouldn't have had sugar and cream with 'em."

—This story comes from Holyoke: A prominent physician was making an evening call on Mayor Whiting, when an alarm of fire was sounded. The first rumor located the fire in the opera house. The doctor asked if it was insured, and when the Mayor told him it was, he very coolly remarked, "Let the good work go on!" The next messenger from the fire announced that a certain shed was burning instead of the opera house, whereupon the doctor evinced no little excitement, exclaiming, "why, my sleigh was in that shed!" "Let the good work go on," quietly responded the Mayor.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.
Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, affirm the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately, often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus healthy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and exhausted; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and makes the scalp cool, clean and soft — under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and values for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur
Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar's worth of the Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D
It is a vegetable preparation as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
NINE—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 31may1

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES
Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the law by which vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKFORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and if any the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embrace a similar cure in their papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "vapors," "inhalations," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 128 hours. All sense of smell had left me, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. From my experience will inform other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.
A CLOUD OF WITNESSES.

Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors, Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples, and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Cough; and Chronic Laryngitis. Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, disturbed sleep, with nightmare, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite and costive, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leuchorrhœa arising from its or ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head, had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When friends had noticed this change, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I recovered gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my sense of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have given this explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

COLLINS'
VOLTAIC PLASTER
Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury to the side, and which I have tried in vain all kinds of liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them invaluable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs, as I believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are almost worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a light Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

BLUE ARMY BLOUSES.

WE have just received a few more of those BLUE ARMY BLOUSES, which have been in such demand for the last twelve months.

C. E. MYERS & CO.,
No. 5 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

—A great many newspaper men lie awake night after night, mentally debating whether to leave their property to some charitable institution or spend it the next day for something with a little lemon squeezed in.

—At Craftsbury, Vt., recently, a young son of John Anderson got about half an inch of a sewing needle into his side, near the short ribs, which a doctor failed to remove. A woman said that the tongue of a fox would extract it, and one was procured and applied, and the bit of steel was drawn out in about twenty-four hours.

—A stranger who applied at a house in the vicinity of Quebec for some slight favor recently, was met by an old gentleman eighty-five years of age, who hesitated for a moment and then said: "I'll go and ask father." Presently he returned with his father, Paul Leonard, who is asserted to be 107 years old. The latter owns all the property, looks after it, and gives his son orders as to what he is to do, and the son obeys as a dutiful child should.

—Five hundred and fifty million gallons of petroleum were exported from this country from 1866 to 1871, which brought an average price of thirty-four cents a gallon, amounting to $187,000,000. From 1871 to 1876, covering the same period of five years, there were shipped 1,100,000,000, or twice as much oil, which sold at the average price of fifteen cents per gallon, realizing $165,000,000. The increased exports netted less money by $22,000,000 than the shipments of the first-named period.

—The bread on the waters has returned to a young lady in Clappertown, Penn., after a few years. On December 28th, 1873, she met, on a railroad train, a lady who was very ill, and she kindly ministered unto her, taking care of her and accompanying her to her place of destination. When they parted the sick woman offered to reward the young lady for her kindness and attention, but she would take nothing. The old lady wrote down the name and address, nodded familiarly to her, and said, "You will be paid some day." The young lady never saw her chance acquaintance again, but the sum of $90,000 has recently been bequeathed to her. The old woman had no relatives in this country, and left all her money to the girl who had befriended her.

THE ELECTION.

While the returns received from the election are more meagre than usual, enough is received to show that the great democratic victory prophesied by the democratic press has not yet arrived. Though the latest despatches report Prescott 2000 ahead of McKean, the back towns will materially reduce this number, and we shall await further advices before we announce Prescott's election by the people. But the republicans have almost certainly secured a good working majority in the Legislature, which will prevent the democrats from carrying out any scheme for electing a U. S. Senator at the coming session, and go far to give the republicans the State in November. On the local page will be found the vote for Senator in this district, the city vote, and the returns from the neighboring towns so far as they could be procured. The following despatches give all the information from the State procurable up to the hour we got tired of waiting:

CONCORD, March 12th, 10:45 P. M.

Returns from one hundred and thirty cities and towns indicate that Prescott's majority will be about 2000, and the legislature about the same as last year.

CONCORD, 12th, 11:05.

Concord gives Prescott 825 majority. The republican candidate for Senator is elected in the third (Manchester) district, which the democrats hoped to carry.

CONCORD, March 13th, 1:15 A. M.

We make a slight loss in Keene on the governor vote, but have all the representatives, a net gain of two. One hundred and fifty towns (without Manchester or Exeter) give two thousand majority for Prescott. Seven republican senators are elected, and probably nine. Cannot get Manchester, but we have a large majority there.

CONCORD, 13th, 2 A. M.

We have a majority of three in the Senate, and about forty in the House. Manchester, about 500 republican majority.

Municipal Elections in Maine.

The republicans of Biddeford on Monday elected their candidate for mayor, and carried six out of seven wards. The vote was: republican, 1116; democratic, 968; greenback, 69.

The greenbackers carried the election in Lincolnville, Me., on Monday, by 150 majority.

The republicans elected the mayor in Augusta by 242 majority, but the democrats carried five out of seven wards, giving them control of the city government.

The republican mayor of Bangor was re-elected by a good majority.

In Stockton the democrats made a clean sweep.

In Belfast there was no choice for mayor, the republican candidate lacking two votes of a majority. The republican ward officers were all elected.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9th.

The President has tipped the fat all in the fire by vetoing the bill sent him to secure to the timber thieves immunity from punishment. What he has gained through twelve weary months of "conciliation" and by turning republicans out of office to put in democrats, he has lost in one short hour by refusing to extend to this class of public plunderers, the same grace that saved the thousands of political murderers in the South from the gallows which the enormity of their crimes had richly merited. Conciliated "erring brothers" are as a rule of the kind that haven't a word of commendation for the ninety and nine favors rendered, if the hundredth is denied. The abuse is just as rank, the ingratitude just as outspoken as though they had each and all been refused. If the republican persecutions throughout the reconstructed South since "pacification" was first inaugurated and the whiskey war on the Revenue officials all through that region are not enough to prove the general feeling of hatred and hostility still cherished against the Government and those who contributed to defeat secession, the new outbreak in behalf of the timber thieves ought surely to be sufficient. The whole gulf coast is virtually in arms against the Government because it would protect its own. And the insolent speeches of "lost cause" representatives in Congress, and their supercilious manners toward republicans and their spineless apologists are a constant rebuke to those who have labored, under the guise of friendship, to manacle the loyal element in and out of Congress and to rehabilitate the southern braggart of his whimpering northern lick-spittle.

One of the appropriation bills has got through at last. But the Ship of State was brought up all standing yesterday by a proposition of the economists to make past alleged republican corruption and extravagance a pretext for appointing to fat places, a half dozen more of the loafers and dead beats hanging about town. The pretext was the need of that amount of "experts" to Glover's committees in search of partisan capital. Polk, with all his ingenuity, was unable to provide for all of these long-haired, whiskey-guzzling hangers-on. They are generally constituents of the chivalric members from the South, or the old chronic democratic office-seeker of Washington. They can turn their hand to almost anything except honest labor. They hang about hotels by day or around the Capitol, subsisting on free lunches. KNOX.

News and Notes.

Gold was sold at a premium of but seven-eighths of one per cent on Monday. The premium is so low that speculators, instead of buying, are selling; and while Congress wastes the time of its session in endeavoring to expand the currency, the business of the country seems unmindful of the unhealthy legislation, and hastens to the hour of resumption. When Congress legislates that resumption cannot be brought about, resumption may perhaps have occurred.

The South Acton (Mass.) powder mills blew up on Tuesday, and Lowell Foster and a Mr. Turpentry were killed.

The Naval Appropriation bill was reported in the House on Monday. It recommends the appropriation of $13,993,760, or $345,409 less than was appropriated for the current fiscal year. This makes the fifth of the regular appropriation bills reported to the House.

A most revolting and cruel murder was committed on board the steamship Ilo during a recent voyage. Shortly before her arrival at Iquique, Peru, two stowaways discovered on board were placed in irons on the main deck and fastened to a stanchion at the after part of the vessel. A deck trader, a Chilian, early one morning approached the prisoners, and accused one of them of stealing. The man protested his innocence, stating that it was impossible for him to do it, being in irons. The trader persisted in accusing him, drew his knife and cut the man's head off. The other prisoner was helpless, and too terrified to call for assistance. The brutal murderer then attempted to throw the body overboard, but, finding it fast by the wrist he cut around the wrist, and freeing the body, threw it into the water. The murderer was handed over to the authorities in Iquique.

While Elizabeth Frantwain, aged eleven, was attempting to start a fire with kerosene, in Baltimore, Friday, her clothing took fire. The child ran into the street, where she was met by Geo. T. Leach, who threw his overcoat about her and extinguished the flames. The unfortunate girl is fatally burned.

The New York Tribune calls Fernando Wood "a handsome old rebrobate!"

A terrible tornado struck Atlanta, Ga., Sunday morning, while the churches were filled with worshipers. One church was completely demolished and strange to say no one was killed, although about eighteen were more or less seriously wounded by falling timbers. The church is an utter wreck, and great damage was done to private residences and stores throughout the city.

The United States Senate, Monday, passed the resolution calling for the correspondence relative to the Halifax Fisheries Commission. Senator Blaine delivered a long speech in opposition to the payment of the award, and stated that this country is to pay a million dollars per annum in coin for the privilege of fisheries, the entire value of which is less than $400,000 per annum. He pronounced the treaty a mockery of justice, which is destroying one of our great interests, essential to our success as a great naval power.

In New York, on Sunday evening, Mary Powelka, aged three and a half years, and Joseph Parina, aged six years, were left alone at the residence of the girl's parents. Joseph found a revolver in a drawer, and while examining it it was discharged, the bullet entering the girl's temple, wounding her fatally.

Ninety-eight families were rendered homeless in Jersey City Monday night by the burning of a block of tenement houses.

Charles O. Hale grossly insulted the members of the Stevenson family in West Haven, Conn., where he boarded, Monday evening, and then attacked Stephen A. Richards, who shot him with a small pistol, killing him almost instantly.

The lady who had her mare shod with golden shoes is not an American heiress, after all. She is a Scotch lass, the daughter of the late George Thomas, Surveyor of Taxes, Dumfries. Her vagaries in Spain attracted the attention of the British Consul, and she was finally sent home, with her mare, to her friends. She is now an inmate of the Royal Lunatic Asylum, near Glasgow.

The steam tug Aid, owned in Biddeford, went up the river Saturday night and anchored just below the Narrows, one mile from that city. Sunday morning she was discovered on fire, and was burned to the water's edge. Loss, $18,500; insured $10,000.

An Alabama paper says that there was a negro marriage in Talladega a few days ago, and a few minutes after the ceremony had been performed a rejected suitor of the bride threw his arms around her neck and in the presence of a number of persons inflicted upon her eight or nine stabs, from which she died almost instantly. He then mounted the court house steps and proclaimed, "I done it; hang me, or kill me, just as you please, only bury me by Liza's side."

New Hampshire Items.

Enoch G. Adams' house and barn in Franklin, with nearly all their contents, were burnt Monday morning. Loss $3000; insurance $2500. The fire was caused by a lantern in the barn.

La Page, the murderer of Miss Josie A. Langmaid of Pembroke in October, 1875, will be executed at the State Prison at Concord on Friday.

John Q. Pinkham, the New Durham murderer, was sentenced to be hung March 14, 1879.

The affairs of the Somersworth Savings Bank having been thoroughly investigated by the Commissioners and the Court, Judge Shepley has decided that the deposit shall be scaled twenty per cent.

A California "Cloud-burst."

A cloud burst struck the town of Camanche, Cal., on the afternoon of the 3d inst., causing the death of ten Chinese. A correspondent of a San Francisco paper says: "Four tunnel-shaped clouds, dark as night, apparently about 500 yards apart, with their apex trailing the ground, were observed passing in a northeasterly direction, and it was apparent that there was a very heavy precipitation of rain. Soon the slopes of the hills were covered with torrents of water, which carried with it brush, fences, and even rocks, to the gulches below. In a few minutes Camanche creek, already carrying its maximum of water, was vastly increased in volume, so as to overspread the flats on either side, and fences, hen-coops, and the litter about the houses in Chinatown began to move. A bank of murky water several feet in height, bearing brush, fences, debris of all kinds, cattle, horses and pigs, was hurled forward with fearful momentum. As it struck Chinatown, built on the Creek, the low, shabby tenements gave way with a crash. A Chinaman, with his wife and child, who had mounted a roof, were borne past, vainly appealing for aid it was impossible to give. In a few minutes another house yielded to the mad torrent. As it fell and parted, I had a momentary glimpse of its half-dozen inmates, including a woman and her new-born babe, when the roof closed down, burying all beneath the flood; only one man arose to clamber upon the roof, where he retained his position until out of sight. He was finally rescued by seizing a bush and dragging himself out."

Improvement of the Navy.

The recommendations of the board of officers to the Secretary, for the improvement of the American navy, contain the following suggestions:

To finish the five iron-clads, whose construction was suspended some time ago for want of funds, two in the shipyard of John Roach, one at the yard of Harlan & Hollingsworth, one at the yard of Cramps, and the other in California.

To finish the "New York," at New York, as a flag ship.

To rebuild the "Lancaster," now at Portsmouth, N. H., also to be used as a flag ship.

To build one ram, and to improve a torpedo for harbor and coast defence, and other purposes.

The system of torpedo boats to which Admiral Porter has pinned his faith for offensive and defensive purposes, is not generally approved, for the reason that they cost too much, and are easily destroyed. The Alarm cost $500,000. The common tug boat will answer the same purpose, and twenty of them can be built for the price paid for the Alarm.

It is desired to bring the torpedo as near perfection as possible.

The majority of naval officers believe that all naval vessels constructed in the future, should be of the ram pattern.

FARM AT AUCTION.

THE FARM situated in Newington, about a half-mile south of the town house, owned and occupied by DAVID MUSSEY, will be sold at Public Auction on TUESDAY, MARCH 26th, at ten o'clock in the forenoon. The Farm contains twenty-one acr s of LAND, with a HOUSE and BARN thereon, the house nearly new. It is well watered and has some fruit, and about six acres of young growth pine. Also, at the same time and place, all the PERSONAL PROPERTY on the place.

Newington, March 11, 1878.

Special Notice.

ANY MAN with from $200 to $400 can make $150 to $300 per month, without risk, as our sole agent in any city in New Hampshire, in a legitimate, permanent business. Full investigation solicited. BOTKIN & VAIL, 225 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

THE ELECTION.

The campaign was closed in this city on Monday evening by a lively meeting in Franklin Hall by the greenbackers, the only party that had any speaking, or seemed to put much life in the campaign, in this vicinity; though the democratic "still" hunt has been industriously prosecuted, and the republicans have put in a good deal of hard work during the last week. [On the afternoon of Monday it was currently reported that the greenback managers had sold out the party to Eldredge, and that his interests were to be looked after carefully by the new "national" party, but this was flatly denied by them.]

When the polls opened, Tuesday morning, the old political fuglers of both parties were all at sea in their ideas as to the possible result of the day's voting, and could not be induced to give a more definite answer than "I don't know," when asked their opinion as to how it would turn out. Voting began lively in all the wards; and it was early evident that if the political workers had been very quiet hitherto, they were going to make up for it as far as possible by extra activity on election day. A republican split in ward two was early reported, though it does not show much in the returns; a democratic split was also reported in ward four, and the returns show that in old Sebastopol the democratic representatives barely saved their bacon. But the fight of the day was made in ward one, where beer was poured out like water and money like beer, to defeat the republican nominees, and with the result that only one representative was elected, the meeting adjourning sine die at six o'clock—so the ward will have but one representative this year.

The footing up of the governor vote of the city shows a falling off of 174 votes from last year, when Prescott's majority was 21, and his plurality 31; this year he has a plurality of 60 over McKean, but the greenback and scattering vote "sends him out of the city" with a minority of 29.

The vote for Senator shows a falling off of 165 votes from last year, when Eldredge had a plurality of 68 over Philbrick, and a majority over all of 63; this year Eldredge's plurality over Philbrick is but 28, while the greenback vote of 62 sends him out of the city in a minority of 34—notwithstanding the "sell" perpetrated on the republican greenbackers. The net loss to Eldredge in the city is 97; and as he lacks (as per table in another place) but 51 of a majority of all the votes cast, the republicans of Portsmouth may lay the flattering unction to their souls that they have this year defeated—if they last year elected—the democratic candidate for senator. The election now goes to the legislature; and at the present writing (eleven o'clock P. M.,) the indications are that the legislature will have a good working majority for the republicans, in which case, of course, Mr. Philbrick will be elected.

The greenbackers in wards two and four seem to have stuck to their ticket pretty well; in wards one and three it is evident from the returns that the reported "sale" of the party to Eldredge was really effected. There was a great deal of drunkenness in sight during the day, particularly in ward one—ward four being unusually free from it—but there was no fighting so far as we heard.

Representatives elect: Edward S. Ryden, ward one, T. Salter Tredick, Thomas E. Call, Benj. W. Curtis, Samuel Adams, ward two, republicans, five; Andrew Sherburne, ward three, Mercer Goodrich, Henry F. Wendell, ward four, democrats, three.

NEWCASTLE.

In Newcastle, in the early part of the day, the republicans were far from confident of being able to elect their candidate for representative, the democrats having nominated Mr. John Albee, a republican, in opposition to Mr. John Amazeen. What partisan advantage the democrats hoped to gain by the election (if they could accomplish it) of so very independent a republican as Mr. Albee, we cannot understand; they probably went on the "Anything to beat Grant" principle. But the republicans stuck to their colors, and made a clean sweep of everything. For Senator, Eldredge, democrat, had 85; Philbrick 90. For representative—Amazeen 98, Albee 76. On all the rest of the ticket the vote was—republican 92, democratic 82; and there were three greenback tickets thrown, two of them (and possibly all three) by former republicans. The republican majority in Newcastle on the governor vote last year was fourteen.

NEWINGTON.

Prescott 32, McKean 75; Willard 33, Fowler 75; Smith 33, Fowler 77; Buffum (for senator) 33, Carpenter 77; Weston 33, Treadwell 75; Lane 33, Hoyt 75; Cram 34, Smith 75.

RYE.

Prescott 104, McKean 189, greenback 3; Willard 104, Fowler 189, greenback 3; Smith 104, Carpenter 180, greenback 3; Philbrick 115, Eldredge 172, greenback 1; County ticket—republican 105, democratic 88, greenback 3. Representative elect, Moses Clark, democrat.

NORTH HAMPTON.

Prescott 94, McKean 137; Philbrick 95, Eldredge 134. Representative elect, Reuben L. Moulton, democrat. Moderator, E. L. Dalton; clerk, Jona. Rollins; selectmen, John S. Hobbs, Jacob E. Brown, Charles C. Barton; collector, John S. Hobbs; supt. sch. com., John W. Berry.

HAMPTON FALLS.

Prescott 104, McKean 48; Willard 104, Fowler 48; Smith 101, Carpenter 47; Philbrick 100, Eldredge 52; Weston 104, Treadwell 48; Lane 104, Hoyt 48; Cram 116, Smith 36.

SEABROOK.

Prescott 125, McKean 213; Philbrick 137, Eldredge 212. Representatives elect, Charles Fogg, J. F. Locke, democrats.

NEWMARKET.

Newmarket elected one republican and one democratic representative, the republicans electing the selectmen. Prescott had 230 votes, McKean 170; scattering four. Philbrick 250, Eldredge 270.

SOUTH NEWMARKET.

Prescott 161, McKean 60; Willard 162, Fowler 57; Smith 162, Carpenter 57; Philbrick 162, Eldredge 59; Weston 162, Treadwell 57; Lane 162, Hoyt 57; Cram 161; Smith 58. Representative elect, Daniel Wiggin, republican. The prohibition candidates had three votes.

STRATHAM.

Stratham chose Bart. Wiggin, republican, representative. Philbrick, for senator, had 104 votes; Eldredge 100.

DOVER.

Dover's vote this year is: Prescott 1140, McKean 948. Last year—Prescott 1187, Marcy 885.

THE CITY.

Rev. S. E. Quimby is to deliver the fourth lecture in the Methodist church course this evening.

Mr. Woodbury Locke is to erect a brick residence on the lot owned by him in the rear of the lately burned National House.

It was the Revenue Cutter Dallas, and not the Tallapoosa as reported, that arrived here on Sunday evening from Boston.

Ship Granite State, Ross, sailed from Rio Janeiro Jan. 27th (before reported sailed Jan. 23d) for Montevideo, to load cargo of condemned ship Golden Fleece.

The new ship Gov. Goodwin, at San Francisco March 3d, from Philadelphia Nov. 2d, was off the port Feb. 27th. The "Governor" was one hundred days to 23 north, in the Pacific.

A correspondent asks: "Can it be that the recent confession of the builders of merchant vessels upon the Piscataqua as to the use of red oak, has induced Portsmouth parties to go to Newburyport for a second vessel? Once Newburyport came to Portsmouth to build ships."

Mr. Casper Achorn, of Kittery, made the run from Provincetown to this harbor in his new fishing boat, the Rambler, in sixteen hours, during two of which he lay becalmed. He arrived Sunday morning. The Rambler is of eight tons burden, and will be employed in off-shore fishing.

An Eliot correspondent insists that the reason the ship-builders at Portsmouth were so anxious to attempt to fasten upon Constructor Wilson the use of red oak knees, was to have such knees offered for sale by the contractor, as builders were waiting to purchase them for use in other vessels, as had been the custom in times past.

The New York Tribune publishes a list of the American exhibitors at the Paris Exposition. The list takes up about three columns of small type, but we do not find in it the name of any New Hampshire man or firm. The Granite Agricultural Works, of Lebanon, should have sent over some of their famous horse-rakes in charge of C. B. Mahan, to astonish the Frenchmen and swindle them out of their money.

Miss Garrie E. Randall, who is to give the closing lecture of the Portsmouth Lyceum course at Franklin Hall, is the author of many pleasing contributions to the magazine literature of the day. She is a graceful and accomplished writer of prose and poetry and the productions of her facile pen grace the columns of many popular publications. Her "Gleanings from the Field of Thought" will without doubt prove an intellectual feast for the company she will entertain on next Monday evening.

THE LIFE SAVING SERVICE.

Mr. Editor: I copy the following from the Washington despatches of the 5th inst. to the Boston papers:

The introduction of the bill providing for the transfer of the Life Saving Service from the Treasury to the Navy Department has been the cause of flooding the Senate with petitions, from the State of Maine to the Pacific coast, and from the States of the Northwest to the Gulf of Mexico, protesting against such transfer. Among those presented to-day was one signed by many citizens of the seaport towns of Maine.

Why is not some such remonstrance sent from this district? This is a seacoast district, and there are scores of old seamen here, who, well qualified to judge of what would be the effect on the Life Saving Service of making it a tail to the navy, would gladly sign a protest against any such action on the part of Congress. And unless I am much mistaken the editor of the CHRONICLE would sign such a petition himself, with right good will. HANDLEAD.

[Note. "Handlead" has gauged our feeling in the matter exactly. It is not at all likely that we shall ever personally need the assistance of a life-saving crew, as we had had all we wanted of a life on the ocean wave when we left it years ago—and had had all we wanted of it years before that, too; but if another vessel ever should take the notion to play us the trick that a couple of them did at different times ere we gave up feeling around in deep water, and go to pieces under our feet, we had rather trust our rescue to a surf-boat's crew of Isles of Shoals-men, or Rye Beach or Hampton fishermen, than to the whole United States navy, with the Secretary thrown in. We know what we are talking about, when we say that deep-water sailors are very poor boatmen, and in a surf are hardly worth the salt water it takes to wet their shirts through; and this, too, though they may be very good oarsmen. We can pull an oar ourself—had three years of it, once, in the Arctic Ocean and Ochotsk Sea—but we have seen the Shoals fishermen poking around the rocks in cockle-shells of dories, and making nothing at all of it, when the surf was running in such a style that we should not have cared to face it just for the fun of the thing in a well manned whale-boat. We should like to sign a remonstrance against the proposed injury to the Life Saving Service, and would willingly pay for our own ink.—Ed.]

Coercing Voters.

The death of Mr. Benjamin Weeks at Portsmouth, recently, recalls an anecdote wherein was imputed to him the first attempt to coerce voters. He was the Superintendent of a body of men—if not all—at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, many years ago, and shortly previous to the election of Jackson, second term, he got the men together and told them that he expected every man to vote as he did; and further, that if they did not they should be discharged. He was noted as a joker, and they looked in his face to see if they could detect a joke in this; but he was as serious as the Old North Burying Ground. They discussed the matter among themselves, and worked themselves up to a fever heat about it, held meeting after meeting, passed resolutions and went through all the motions of indignation, as is customary with the sons of freedom, settling down with the determination that they'd be d—issected or d—rawn and quartered before they'd submit; but thought it best, before they did their worst, to call upon their tyrant to get the precise facts in the case, and learn if he stuck to his first proposition. They accordingly waited upon him, by committee, and asked him if he was serious in what he had told them. Never more so, he informed them; and repeated what he had said, laying particular stress upon the penalty for their refusal to comply. The Committee returned with their report, when the caldron boiled right over, and resolution hardened into purpose to resist to the bitter end, though resistance might be like striking their fist against a stone wall standing in their way. They went to their work surlily, and thought of nothing else but the impending election and the invasion of their rights. The Superintendent, from being a great favorite, had fallen in their estimation till Nero was an angel by comparison. And now they formed a new determination to call upon him in a body and endeavor to overawe him by the moral force of numbers. Let him look them in the eye, if he could, and then bid them vote any other way than they as American freemen should decide for themselves. They would see how he could stand this! So they went, and he calmly looked upon their faces; and in reply to their question (repeated) regarding his tyrannical requirement, said he had not changed his determination, but that if they voted differently from what he did, out they should go. This was a crusher; when one of the spokesmen remonstrated, saying it was deemed hard that men—freemen—should be served in this way, and by a man, too, whom they had so long respected, and concluded by regretting that they must part, as they had agreed to go together. After a brief conference among themselves, one of the weak ones, who hadn't said anything, whispered, "Ask him how he is going to vote?"

"Well, sir," asked the leader, "How are you going to vote, as we want to know all about it?"

"I'm going to vote just as I darned please," replied he, "and if you don't I'll discharge you."

As soon as they could take in his meaning, and saw that they had been pleasantly humbugged, his own broad face beaming on them with a funny triumph, they gave him three cheers, and, when election day came round, it was laughingly said among them that they were going to vote as the Boss did, and they went almost to a man for Old Hickory. This is the first instance of Navy Yard influence in politics.—Cor. Boston Post.

—A Maine liquor dealer has fitted up a room for the business in his garret. A sort of dram-attic club room.

—Six months ago a party of young men left Burlington for the Black Hills. From time to time they have written back that they were well. But last week one of them wrote to his father he would be home Wednesday evening, and added: "meet me on the Agency road at dark, just out of town, and bring a blanket or a whole pair of trousers with you. I have a hat."—Burlington Hawkeye.

—A writing telephone is suggested by the Abbe Labord. He proposes to separate the recipient, and to fix one of the conducting wires to an iron plate and the other to a stylus slightly rounded at the extremity. Between the plate and the point, which are intended to complete the circuit, a paper band, properly prepared, it caused to move when the telephone is in operation, and the black marks made upon the paper will denote what the sound at the transmitting end conveys.

NEW ORLEANS, February 19, 1878.

THE undersigned certifies that he held for collection for account of P. W. Arnold, at Palmetto, Campbell county, Ga., one half of Single Number Ticket No. 9066, Class "D," in the Louisiana State Lottery, which drew the First Capital Prize of THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS on Tuesday, February 12, 1878; said ticket having cost the sum of One Dollar, sent by the home office of the company at New Orleans, La., through correspondence, in reply to a letter by mail with one dollar enclosed to "M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans," and that the amount was promptly paid by a check on the Louisiana National Bank, on presentation of the ticket at the office of the company.

The railroads are now at peace, and the hotels have had their "war." The result of this recent cutting of first-class hotel rates in New York leaves the Grand Central in the lead, with rates one and two dollars per day lower than the rest.

The best men in the country use Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Governors, Bankers, Clergymen, Physicians, Lawyers, Merchants, Mechanics, the high and low, the poor as well as the rich, all testify to its remarkable curative powers in Coughs, Colds and all Lung Diseases. Price 25 cents.

Thousands of persons have their eyes turned towards Wall street. That is where thousands of dollars are made daily from investments ranging from $50 to $250. The reliable brokers, Alex. Frost Ingham & Co., 12 Wall st., N.Y., send their Financial Report free,—which explains fully. 13

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. It is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial as being the most reliable preparation ever used; it is particularly adapted to lung and throat affections in children. Try one bottle. tmch23

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and render of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrowed; falling hair stayed; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and painless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for their soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER,

This standard article is compounded with the utmost care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and healthy.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and makes the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as efficacious as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be given by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

MINE—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil, it is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caused Bunions, etc., is the Centaur Liniments. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the strong red kind, which is yellow in color, is for mankind, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics for the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated, beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and prosperity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot stand against a superior article. By reason of superiority, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars annually, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Seeing your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," as I did fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" nostrums (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embalm in a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The usual passages became comple ely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," would do well, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, oily shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen-fifths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and in it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydro-pulmonic process, the only way I ever found with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES.

The following named parties are among the thousands who have been cured of catarrh by the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy:

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequalled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and as Tonic properties are imparted, it cures efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

When combined with Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or giddiness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms, if any, are noticed. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose sustenance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their unparalleled health returns.

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my ears were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused a hoarseness and a tendency dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I be gan to improve rapidly. The first dose relieved my deafness and my head as I had not known it to be for years. I improved gradually to attest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and ulcerating of my tonsils to that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of a grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I saves en a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months suffered with a very painful side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a forming abscess in the brain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called Rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your Collins' Voltaic Plasters, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them inestimable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to my friends. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

COLUMBUS, Mo., April 21, 1877.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation of Throat, Pain in the Chest and Lungs. I believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Anecdote of Peter the Great.

Peter of Russia, or Peter the Great, as he is commonly called, was a man of remarkable qualities of mind, and though very arbitrary, was still kind and considerate to those who deserved encouragement. One day a young recruit was standing guard before the door of the entrance to Peter's private chambers in the palace of St. Petersburg. He had received orders to admit no one. As he was passing slowly up and down before the door, Prince Mentchikoff, the favorite minister of the czar approached, attempting to enter. He was stopped by the recruit. The prince, who had the fullest liberty of calling upon his master at any time, sought to push the guard and pass him, yet the young man would not move, but ordered his highness to stand back.

"You fool!" shouted the prince, "don't you know me?"

The recruit smiled and said: "Very well, your highness, but my orders are peremptory to let nobody pass."

The prince, exasperated at the low fellow's impudence, struck him a blow in the face with his riding whip.

"Strike away, your highness," said the soldier, "but I cannot let you go in."

Peter, in the room, hearing the noise outside, opened the door and inquired what it meant, and the prince told him. The czar was amused, but said nothing at the time. In the evening, however, he sent for the prince and the soldier. As they both appeared, Peter gave his own cane to the soldier, saying:

"That man struck you in the morning; now you must return the blow to that fellow with my stick."

The prince was amazed. "Your majesty," he said, "this common soldier is to strike me?"

"I make him a captain," said Peter.

"But I'm an officer of your majesty's household," objected the prince.

"I make him a colonel of my lifeguards and an officer of the household," said Peter again.

"My rank, your majesty knows, is that of general," again protested Mentchikoff.

"Then I make him a general, so that the beating you get may come from a man of your rank."

The prince got a sound thrashing in the presence of the czar, the recruit was next day commissioned a general, with the title of Count Oroinioff, and was the founder of a powerful family whose descendants are still high in the imperial service of Russia.

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1878.

Sunbeams From Cucumbers.

The Boston Post, (whose New Hampshire correspondents before the election so faithfully followed the orders given by John G. Thompson to the Ohio democratic press some time ago, to "claim everything, and with the utmost confidence,") on the morning after the election says:

The democrats of New Hampshire are to be congratulated upon the accomplishment of a good work. They have not elected their candidate, but they demonstrated the healthy growth of sound democratic ideas among the people, and have so far reduced the republican majority as to prove that the State is theirs with proper efforts, when larger issues shall again array the united democracy against the divided and discordant republicans. Gov. Prescott's success is in the nature of a defeat. He secures the office to which he was nominated, but by a majority so reduced as to indicate it to be the result of inertia rather than active vitality in his party. The comparative figures which our despatches give illustrate the decadence of republicanism in New Hampshire. At this rate, the party will be wiped out in November. * * In other parts of the State a similar gratifying revival of democracy is apparent. It is, after all, a substantial victory, although the opposition forces camp on the field.

What "larger issues" than the prospect of securing the spoils—including the United States Senatorship—can "array the united democracy," etc., is not hinted at; but the Post's claim of a substantial democratic victory shows that it is as able a hand at extracting sunbeams from cucumbers, after election, as it is at carrying elections democratic before the voting commences. The democrats of New Hampshire (unless the Post's correspondents lied awfully) fully expected to secure control of the Council and Senate, and (according to the Post's Concord correspondent, three days before the election,) "confidently expected to elect McKean and carry the Legislature, and the best judges seem to concur in it." The republicans were demoralized, and apathetic or absolutely opposed to a republican victory; the republican leaders had no money, and could not get any; the wildest enthusiasm was felt for McKean by the democrats, and all together the radicals were pretty well whipped before the battle begun. And yet, when these lofty democratic hopes are dashed by the triumphant re-election of Prescott, and a sufficient working majority of the Councillors, Senators and Representatives, by the republicans, the Post calls it "a substantial victory" for the democrats! The New Hampshire democracy have been winning just such substantial victories for twenty years, and would be pleased to try a new variety.

How much consolation the democrats can get out of the "decadence of republicanism" illustrated by the "substantial democratic victory," we cannot say. That Prescott's majority would be less than last year's was to be expected, for Mr. Marcy's vote in 1877 fell off about 1500 from his vote in 1876, many democrats refusing to vote; so that if McKean got only the same vote as Marcy did in 1876, and Prescott polled his vote of last year, (which the republicans by no means anticipated,) the republican plurality would be cut down to about 2500. If the democrats have reason to be pleased, the republicans are pleased, so the election is a satisfactory one all 'round.

As to the republican party being "wiped out in November," we do not pretend to be a prophet; but it is certain that the first great battle in the November campaign has already been fought, and the republicans are more than satisfied with the result.

Latest News of the Election.

The news of Wednesday forenoon was that in 155 towns and cities Prescott has 32,044, McKean 28,464, scattering 578; a republican net loss of 1655. It is certain that Prescott is elected by the people, the republicans claiming from 2500 to 3000, and the democrats conceding from 1000 to 1500 majority. The republicans have elected three of the five councillors, and claim a fourth; seven of the twelve senators, with a tie in one district; and a majority of forty or fifty in the House. The counties are divided, each party having carried five.

In Nashua, the residence of Mr. McKean, the democrats made a sweep on governor and mayor. Elated by their success, the democrats held a meeting in Franklin Hall, and were addressed by the mayor-elect and others. The returns were read from the rostrum as fast as received, amid the wildest enthusiasm. The despatches sent from Nashua in the evening by some sanguine democrat said: "The republicans are despondent in the extreme;" and later: "The democrats are hopeful of a small majority in the State, although the republicans are unwilling to admit that there is a chance of defeat." It was a good thing that the Nashua democrats had their love-feast when they did, or they wouldn't have had it at all.

Ex-Senator Patterson was elected representative from Hanover, by one majority.

A despatch from Concord, Wednesday evening, says the latest returns indicate that Gov. Prescott will have 1800 majority over all. The Council stands 4 republicans and 1 democrat. In the Senatorial elections the republicans have carried 7 districts and the democrats 2. There will be a majority of 50 in the House of Representatives.

New Hampshire Items.

The buildings of the county farm of Merrimack county, at Boscawen, were burned on the 12th inst.

The Manchester correspondent of the Boston Post, a day or two before the election, said: "Another fact in favor of the democrats is the absence of the large corruption fund which has every year been used by the republicans in buying voters, and through which they were enabled to regain control of the State in 1876. This year they have no money. The Custom House rings and Washington corruptionists were appealed to in vain. No money could be raised."

Hazing has been revived at Dartmouth College. Early Monday morning the sophomores intruded upon the freshmen. About two o'clock next morning the freshmen broke into a room in Thornton Hall, occupied by a sophomore and his brother, a senior. Both were unmercifully beaten with bottles, and disfigured. Two of the assailants were arrested for assault with intent to kill. President Bartlett, whose administration has been the best and most quiet, thinks an enforcement of the law is a needed remedy.

Two very distinct shocks of an earthquake were felt in Milford at nine o'clock on the morning of the 12th inst.

Commander Richards, of the Grand Army of the Republic, suggested in his recent address the expediency of establishing a Soldiers' Home in New Hampshire. The proposition meets with much favor and steps will soon be taken to carry it into effect.

The Post of Monday, March 11th, speaking of this State, said: "The outlook for Tuesday continues to grow brighter and brighter for the democracy, and unless all signs fail the Hayes republicans will be treated to a grand surprise party next Wednesday morning." So they were; the most sanguine of "Hayes" or "stalwart" republicans anticipated nothing like what did come.

A Woman Tarred and Feathered.

Some time ago a poor frail waif of humanity drifted into Canton, Pa., in the person of a young woman. She has lived around nobody knows how, sleeping at night, it is said, over the boilers in a mill in order to keep warm. A few nights ago from twenty to thirty young bloods of the town assembled together, and at night seized her, stripped her naked, and proceeded to treat her in an outrageous manner, tarring and feathering her, burning her flesh, and finally thrusting her into the street in a cold night without a particle of clothing. Several hours after she made her way to a negro's house, where the poor creature, more dead than alive, was kindly treated, showing that in spite of his black skin he had a whiter heart than the others. One of the young men has turned State's evidence, and disclosed the names of the perpetrators of the act, and lo! they were the big ones—the "I am holier than thou." Some of the leading citizens of the town have, in the name of outraged humanity, taken up the case, and will prosecute it to the bitter end.—Elmira Advertiser.

—A Boston shopkeeper sued for damages because his store was shortened twenty feet by the widening of a street, and in the trial was asked whether he had not thus obtained a better and a stronger light. He answered that he had. "Then why do you claim damages?" "Because," was the reply, "in this locality, the quality of goods sold requires the poorest light."

Facts.

People are no longer content with guess work and conjecture. They demand the facts. Formerly, if the skilled and aged mariner stated that there were ten fathoms of water below the craft, all accepted it as true, while now each person wants to throw the line over, and see for himself what the plummet tells. The Family Medicines manufactured by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., have been thoroughly tested for many years by the afflicted, and found to possess the merit claimed for them. His Compound Extract of Smart-Weed is unsurpassed in curing dysentery (bloody-flux) and the cholera morbus, while many physicians prescribe it for the relief and cure of the painful irregularities peculiar to women. His Favorite Prescription is the best tonic and nervine known, and is endorsed by the first ladies of the land. In reading the testimonials of those cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery some wonder how one remedy can cure so many diseases. Suppose the foot be injured, and you become sick at the stomach, dizzy-headed, and faint, do you fancy yourself attacked with three or four different diseases? And would it not be an insane physician that neglected the foot and administered to the stomach or head? So, catarrh, bronchitis, consumption, scrofulous sores, ulcers, blotches, pimples, and eruptions, are universally dependent upon, and caused by, impure blood, and can only be cured when it is corrected. Is it not, therefore, plain to see why the Golden Medical Discovery, which is the standard blood-purifier, alterative, and tonic medicine, in the market, effects the speedy cure of so wide a range of diseases?

THE CITY.

Fishermen getting ready for trips to the Banks will find something of interest to them in C. E. Myers & Co.'s advertisement this morning.

DeWitt Clinton Commandry of Knights Templar, of this city, will pay a visit to Trinity Commandry, of Manchester, on Friday. After the exemplification of work the visitors will be treated to a collation.

The Manchester Mirror, in noticing an entertainment to be given by the pupils of Mr. B. F. Dame, formerly of this city but now Principal of the Lincoln street grammar school in Manchester, says: "Mr. Dame's abilities are quite well known here, and he has met with flattering success as a teacher of elocution. The entertainment will undoubtedly be exceedingly interesting."

We notice among the curious plants in bloom in the conservatory of Mr. C. A. Hazelett, on Winter street, a rare, Brazilian orchid, or air plant. Unlke other flowers it is not planted in soil but receives its nourishment from moist air. From the base of one of its few leaves it has thrown out a fine wiry stem eighteen inches in length, from the end of which depend a dozen curious shaped, brown and yellow flowers.

Steamer Major, Capt. Robinson, will not run between Portsmouth and the Shoals the coming season, having been chartered by the Philadelphia and Atlantic City Railroad (narrow gauge,) for seven months, to make four trips per diem over a two-mile route from Camden to Philadelphia, carrying passengers over the new route. Her popular commander is very enthusiastic over the speed she is capable of making since the machinery was overhauled, and has taken her to Philadelphia far repairs and re-painting. Her "going" capacity is now thirteen knots, and "Cap." handles her like a toy. The river thieves robbed the vessel of bed-clothing, crockery, table linen and other articles, last week, while at her dock in Brooklyn. She left for Philadelphia on Saturday night, carrying Messrs. Harry Aiken and Joseph N. Odiorne for ballast, and officered as follows: Captain, William Robinson; Chief Engineer, William Gertin, (both part owners;) Mate, George H. Smart; Fireman, James Riley. Mr. Gertin, who resumes his position on steamer Appledore next summer, will be succeeded on the Major by Mr. Lem. Wyatt.

THAT RED OAK.

The Boston Herald, in the course of some editorial comments on the red-oak-knee business, says: "But, in the course of the investigation, one little piece of intelligence crept into the evidence, which some maritime men standing about curiously noted. Experts, called as such, testified under oath that, in the building of merchant ships in their sections, red oak, both knees and planks, is largely used, particularly in the bottoms. This they again and again reiterated and repeated unblushingly. Perhaps some one will say, What then? merchant ships are not supposed to be so carefully constructed as national war vessels, which should be representative in character. Yet, when it is considered that, with every one of these merchant vessels launched, constructors appear before a Board of Admiralty and testify minutely to the fact that not a piece of red oak is used in their composition, and that only upon the strength of such testimony is a 'rating' for a dozen years granted, a glimmer of light breaks. These witnesses (builders) testified that always red oak is mixed with white in the construction of merchant ships, and that lots were bought cheaper because of this fact. So it is possible that out of this case, which was simply a matter of spite and persecution, there may arise a little information for the people, which will tend to illustrate a good many other points in due time."

HOW IT HAPPENED.

The Boston Post of Monday, the day preceding our State election, contained the following from a Portsmouth democrat, explaining how it was that the democrats were going to beat the republicans. It was very good reading then, and is quite interesting now:

"The well-informed citizen in this part of the State can easily understand why the republicans are so disheartened and the democrats so confident of winning a victory Tuesday. It is well known in this region that the republican leaders have invariably depended upon the use of money and navy yard patronage. There are scores of men in this city who vote the republican ticket when they are paid for it, and will not vote at all if they are not paid, either with cash or promises of a job in the navy yard. This year the republican leaders have no money, and the voters only laugh at them when they talk of jobs in the yard. The facts are that the republicans realize that their strength is gone from them. They have no substantial aid from Washington as in years gone by when Senators and Representatives sent them thousands, and hundreds of voters were turned out on the navy yard at the expense of the United States Treasury. The rank and file are demoralized by the greenback party and the temperance reform clubs. The democrats are happy over the split-up condition of the other party, and are putting in solid work, which will be likely to tell in a strong vote. Never have democrats been more fully aroused. The Chandler faction of the republican party in this vicinity is quite strong, and they express the hope that the democrats will carry the day, and some threaten to stay away from the polls."

RYE ELECTION.

Rye town officers; Moderator, Joseph W. Garland; town clerk, Oren S. Green; selectmen, Elvin Rand, Nathaniel Marden, Emery C. Jenness; sup. sch. com., Nathan R. Goss. On the article in the warrant relating to enforcing liquor and cider laws, the vote stood: yeas 66, noes 105. The democrats made a net gain of five on the governor vote, and Philbrick for Senator made a net gain of five on his vote of last year. The meeting adjourned until Wedesday at one o'clock, there being several articles on the warrant remaining to be acted upon. NAT.

News and Notes.

Miss Dickey, the heroine of the recent remarkable breach of promise suit in Cincinnati, has been church-mauled for her misdoings. She won her case and $6000 damages from her faithless suitor, Tytus, but before the Baptist church, of which she was a member, her fate was far different. That body appointed the pastor and his wife a committee to visit her and listen to what she might say. She made a pitiful plea for forgiveness, saying she had keenly felt the loss of friends, character and reputation, and passed many sleepless nights in prayer for mercy and forgiveness of the sin committed under solemn and persistent promise made by Tytus of honorable marriage. This appeal for forgiveness was read to the church, and then a motion to withdraw the hand of fellowship was carried without opposition.

On and after April 1st the light at Eastern Point (entrance to Gloucester harbor) will be changed from fixed white to fixed red.

A sweet seeding orange tree in Hernando county, Fla., bore two genuine lemons in a crop of oranges this season. The tree had not been grafted with lemon, and the phenomenon is attributed to the fecundation of the orange blossoms with pollen from lemon blossoms.

It is said that Senator Lamar will, at the expiration of his term, reside in New York.

A Jacksonville, Fla., business man offers to run the city government for two-thirds of what it now costs, and says that, if at the end of a year the people are not satisfied with his administration of affairs, he will pay all the bills himself.

It is a rather remarkable fact that the editor of the Wheeling (W. Va.) Register, in a letter to his paper from Hot Springs, Ark., written six days before the great conflagration which has just swept through the place, stated that its great need was a Chicago fire, which should destroy all the miserable rookeries, which constituted the business portion of the town, preparatory to a new growth in the right direction.

The Victoria Mills at Newburyport, which have been idle since last July, will be set in operation on the 1st of April, which will give employment to about 250 operatives. All the cotton factories of the city will then be in operation.

Capt. David Harmony, commanding U. S. steamer Plymouth, at Norfolk, received peremptory orders to put to sea as soon as the ship was out of the machinists' hands, and defer all other repairs until her return. He is ordered to proceed direct to St. Domingo, the disturbances on the island having caused the American Consul to be thrown into prison and imperilled the interests of American citizens.

Mr. Beard has secured for his bondsmen Hon. Henry L. Pierce, Hon. John B. Alley, Hon. John M. Forbes and Hon. John Cummings.

A terrible colliery explosion occurred in Unity Brook pit, Kearsley, near Bolton, England, at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the 12th inst. The mouth of the pit was blocked until six o'clock, when the explorers succeeded in entering, and in a few minutes they had found sixteen corpses. About forty men were working in the pit at the time of the explosion, and it is certain that all perished.

The President sent the following nominations to the Senate on the 12th inst.: Naval Constructor John W. Easby, to be Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair, and Chief Constructor, with the rank of Commodore; Pay Director George F. Cutler to be Chief of the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, and Paymaster-General, with the relative rank of Commodore.

Charles Parkman, aged twelve years, deliberately murdered Robert McAdams, of the same age, in Philadelphia on the 11th inst. Parkman demanded a piece of candy the other boy was eating, threatening to shoot him if he refused. McAdams refusing, Parkman then, without further warning, deliberately drew from his pocket a small revolver, and advancing close to his little companion, placed the muzzle near his forehead and fired. The boy dropped to the pavement and died almost instantly, with a bullet in his brain. The young assassin dropped his pistol and fled as his victim expired, the youthful witnesses having been too nearly paralyzed with fear to interfere.

The steamer Shannon, from Ouachita river, with 900 bales of cotton, at three o'clock Sunday morning collided with the monitor Canonicus, at New Orleans, and sunk in a few minutes. Captain DeHart thinks no lives were lost. The Canonicus is at anchor in the river at the foot of Canal street. This is the second steamboat sunk by collision with her. The steamboat owners claim that the light displayed by the monitor is insufficient.

—Col. Ingersoll has spoken disrespectfully of Portland, Me. He caught a bad cold there, which induced him to describe it as a city "where you can't tell where the fogs ends and the sea begins."

Portsmouth Chronicle

—In an Irish breach of promise case recently tried at Dublin, an Armagh curate was the defendant. The testimony showed that after his appointment as curate he wrote to the plaintiff describing a wedding, and adding, "I assisted at a funeral the same evening, so you see I had a very agreeable day altogether. I hope people don't die often here, as the graveyard is an immense distance from town; besides it is awfully cold standing with the head uncovered." Again he wrote: "I am paying a round of visits to my parishioners. They are a very stupid lot, principally old maids; but this is what I am paid for; and the sweet comforting thought that I am making money cheers me in the discharge of my duty." It does not seem as though the young lady lost much in losing this fellow, but the jury awarded her $2500.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most efficacious cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from fatal results, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The perfect chemist does not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
IT IS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; it often restores its growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, nourished and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, and humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for lady's hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
STRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the strong, rich, dark red, yellow in color, is for sprained, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES
Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific for the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated that the strongest and most thoroughbred in the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the annual exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKFORD, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could claim a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "asthma," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for months, successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and test it. The Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way comparable with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over three years. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples and Eruptions. Its tonic virtue is its general properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. The Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it will effect perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassa and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, arising from lurking ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their separate health returns.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

"Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. During these years I received the ablest medical advice, but it seemed gradually to attract the disease. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I lost my head as I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noise in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I am well aware of a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following their use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury, I obtained, for which I took many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, at your advice I recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my business ever since, without the least pain or ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

Daily Chronicle.

An American Dish.

An amusing story is told, of which it is averred that no less a personage than the late George Peabody, the celebrated American banker, was the hero. It appears that Mr. Peabody had invited three Englishmen to meet two Americans at dinner, and on this occasion, having received as a gift ten ears of green corn, determined to renew the recollections of his youth, astonish his English and please his American guests by having it served up in the well-known American style. Accordingly at a proper time, plates of butter and salt were placed before each guest, and the banker, with something of an air of mystery, announced that he was now about to treat his guests to a well-known and delicious American dish of food cooked in the American manner. It would be no novelty to his American guests, but the Englishmen must watch how it was disposed of by them, and follow their example and manner in disposing of it. Then, at a signal, entered a stately butler, bearing a large covered dish, which he deposited solemnly before Mr. Peabody. In a moment more, in obedience to the banker's nod, he whisked off the cover, and there before the astonished guests was displayed a pile of ten boiled corncobs! The banker gazed for an instant in mute horror and dismay, and then found voice to demand an explanation, which was finally reached when the cook was summoned—a fellow who had never before seen an ear of Indian corn in his life. He replied that he had followed his master's directions to "strip off all the outside before boiling," which he had done most faithfully, not only the husks, as was intended, but kernels also, so that the banker had only what is, in America, the plate evidence of the feast, to indicate what were his good intentions to his guests.

A Butter Joke.

Mr. Atkinson is a farmer, and very fond of a joke. Recently he wrote to a business house in Boston, with whom he is on terms of intimacy, as follows: "I will send you the finest butter next week you ever saw. The first lot will weigh about sixty pounds. Will divide the proceeds of sale with you." Encouraged by the liberal terms of the offer, the firm advertised extensively that they were prepared to fill orders for dairymen and produce merchants for the finest butter ever sent to market. At the appointed time the consignment failed to arrive, so the merchants telegraphed up to Mr. Atkinson, and received the reply that the butter would be down by the first train the next morning. The butter arrived as promised, but was in the form of a most ferocious goat of enormous size, who was no sooner liberated from the crate than he commenced a career of the most unbridled villainy ever witnessed. He knocked the senior partner into the corner, and butted three of his ribs out; the junior partner took refuge on the top of some bales of wool, but the goat jumped after him and butted him off on to the floor, and prodded him with his horns until he was insensible. After knocking about things generally, so that each member of the firm looked as if he had been invited to a first-class massacre, he wound up by a determined assault upon a threshing-machine. This "first-class butter" was at last caught with a rope and sent to the city pound.

A Big Clock.

The clock in Trinity Church (New York city) tower is the heaviest in America. It might seem that in its construction an effort had been made to ascertain how much metal could possibly be planted in a clock. The frame stands nine feet long, five feet high, and three feet wide. The main wheels are thirty inches in diameter. There are three wheels in the time train, and three each in the strike and the chime. The winding wheels are formed of solid casting, thirty inches in diameter and two inches thick, and driven by a "pinion and arbor." On this arbor is placed a jack, or another wheel, pinion and crank, and it takes 850 turns of this crank to wind each weight up. It requires 700 feet of three-inch cords, and over an hour for two men to wind the clock. The pendulum is eighteen feet long, and oscillates twenty-five times per minute. The dials are eight feet in diameter, although they look little more than half that size from Broadway. The three weights are about eight hundred, twelve hundred, and fifteen hundred pounds respectively. A large box is placed at the bottom of the well, that holds about a bale of cotton waste, so that if a cord should break the cotton would check the concussion.

—"Will the coming woman lecture?" asks a contemporary. If she marries she will.

Daily Chronicle

FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1878.

The Election.

Wednesday night all but eighteen towns had been heard from. These towns last year gave Prescott 1045; Marcy, 1397; scattering, 5. Should the vote come in as last year Prescott will have a plurality over McKean of 1556, and a majority of 1017. Prescott's majority in the towns heard from is 1374. The list of Representatives returned is as follows: republicans, 202; democrats, 141.

Gen. Gilman Marston of Exeter and Gen. Aaron F. Stevens of Nashua are chosen to the legislature. [Gen. Stevens and Mr. J. E. Balcom were elected from ward six, Nashua, on Wednesday, at an adjourned meeting.] It is possible that Marston and Stevens had themselves elected with a view to watching the Senatorial chances.

Hon. Amos Tuck, of Exeter, who stigmatised Wm. D. Chandler as "a political tramp," was a candidate for nomination before the republican caucus in that town. He received twenty-five votes in town meeting.

The republicans of Deerfield redeemed their town, electing Joseph H. Veazey and Samuel Woodman representatives, and giving nine majority on the State ticket.

Opinions.

The Post reporters have been interviewing prominent politicians of both parties as to the causes and meaning of the republican victory. Hon. Wm. E. Chandler says "it is a republican triumph, and has no more to do with Hayes than with the Man in the Moon. The merits or demerits of Hayes were in no way involved in the canvass,"—and that is where Mr. Chandler is right.

Col. John H. George "expressed the opinion that the Hayes and anti-Hayes quarrel did the republicans far more good than harm. The Hayes men were allowed to think that they were really endorsing Hayes, and the anti-Hayes fellows, conscious that they themselves constituted nine-tenths of the party, kept them undeceived, and in that way presented a united front. Now that the victory had been won, the Hayes republicans would be sent to the rear and made to understand that they are in a mighty small minority." Col. George says "it is easy to criticise now that the battle has been lost, but as for himself he thought the 'still hunt' policy pursued by the democrats a mistake. He had found in his experience that an open, bold and aggressive fight accomplished the best results."

Hon. Charles Levi Woodbury told a Herald reporter that in his opinion the "still hunt" policy was a mistake. "I never knew," said he, "any good to result from a 'still hunt,' and there never will be, to my way of thinking." There is nothing personally objectionable in Mr. Prescott, and this fact, taken in connection with the apathy in the democratic ranks, turned into a defeat what might have been a victory.

The New York papers exhibit their usual sapience in regard to New Hampshire politics.

The Sun, of course, is utterly disgusted.

The Tribune evidently regards the great republican victory as little better than a defeat, and says: "The fomenting of quarrels and the building up of factions will soon convert yesterday's losses into a rout."

The Herald, Mail, Express and Post all speak as if the victory was won by "the policy" in opposition to "stalwart republicanism." [If we were to refer to those papers as "fools," with such an adjective profixed as we should like to use, we are afraid our orthodoxy might be questioned.]

The Graphic says the election was "not decisive of anything"—pretty nearly correct, so far as national matters are concerned.

The Times says "the State has been saved by the stalwart republicans, and to them alone the credit for the victory is due."

The republican papers throughout New Hampshire generally agree that the victory was due to the judicious sinking of personal preferences and prejudices by both wings of the party, particularly by the "stalwarts."

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11th.

Officials, as well as the lay brethren of Washington society, appear to have just waked up to the fact that we are stuck for the little trifle of $5,000,000, in the matter of our "down east" fisheries, unless we elect to back out of a bad bargain through the loop-hole of a technicality. Now that we have fairly turned our attention to the little matter, it becomes painfully evident that "Brother Jonathan" acted in the matter without his usual caution and clear-headed forecast; and it is so patent to every one taking the trouble to investigate that he was overreached, that no attempt at denial is heard. It would be hazardous to predict what Congress will do in the premises; but it is entirely safe to say that the feeling is almost universal about the Capitol that the utmost advantage has been taken of our error in accepting as third referee a man so gangreened with prejudice in favor of the British side as to have been utterly unable to grasp the equities involved, even admitting the correctness of Mr. Fish's estimate of his honesty. The consideration that will appeal most forcibly against any appropriation to pay the award is the fact that its payment would not be any bar to other claims, quite as absurd as those on which the award was founded. For the past few days since the settlement of remonetization gave time to consider other matters, this business has been uppermost in some circles, and from all that can be gathered it would appear prudent for our Canadian cousins not to count too confidently on immediate payment.

The Republican of this morning gives another instance of "Civil Service Reform," the increasing frequency of which threatens to bring the whole business into disrepute and to cover with derision the pretenses that have been put out during the first year of Mr. Hayes' administration. At Sterling, Ill., Mr. Burchard's district, Mrs. Electra E. Smith, widow of a soldier, was post-mistress. A special agent sent to investigate her administration highly commended it, notwithstanding which she was removed and one Patterson given the place. Mrs. Smith came here, saw the President, who declined to interfere on the-ground that the change had been recommended by the member from that district and that they were usually allowed to say who should fill the minor offices of their districts. The member in question informed her that her administration had been wholly satisfactory, but that it was deemed necessary to have an active political worker in the place, and that as her sex debarred her he had been constrained to ask for her removal. The case is so specifically stated that it can be readily disproved if false.

The retirement of Guthrie and the investigation of Moore have brought out some other items of information relative to the arbitrary rule of the little autocrats of the Treasury Department. One to this effect is told. A lady, just appointed to office and before she had become familiar with the advantage that was very likely to be taken of any infraction of rules that she might inadvertently be guilty of, was late several mornings during her first month, but never more than fifteen minutes. When the time came about for her to apply for the annual leave granted all clerks, she learned that for each late arrival she had been docked an entire day, the time being deducted from her leave, and upon inquiry this was found not to be an isolated case. KNOX.

Gospel Temperance Rally.

Gospel Temperance Meetings will be held in the Tabernacle, Tremont street, Boston, Wednesday, March 20th, at 10 A. M. and at 3 and 7:30 P. M. Testimonies from men who have been delivered and kept from the captivity of strong drink by the power of the Gospel, will be the prominent feature of these meetings. Mr. D. L. Moody will preside; Mr. Ira D. Sankey will sing; and a full chorus under the direction of Dr. E. Tourjee, will assist in the service of song. It is hoped that all churches, Young Men's Christian Associations, and other organizations throughout New England in sympathy with the Gospel Temperance movement, will be represented. The doors will be opened forty-five minutes before the commencement of each meeting. All seats will be free, no tickets being required at the morning, afternoon, or evening service. Communications relative to the above meetings may be addressed to "Rev. D. W. Waldron, Com., Tabernacle, Boston."

Reward of Bravery.

The Secretary of the Treasury has transmitted to Captain Charles H. Smith, master of the light-house tender Rose, at Philadelphia, Pa., a life-saving medal of the second class, awarded to him under the act of Congress, for bravery in rescuing persons from drowning, which he did under circumstances of peculiar danger on the 11th of September last, at Wilmington, Del. Similar medals have been presented to Captain Corbell, of life-saving station 5, on the coast of North Carolina, and Edward Nordall, of the revenue steamer Tench Coxe, for like service.

News and Notes.

Mrs. Rallings, a fashionable dressmaker of New York, was a passenger from Europe on steamer Adriatic, and had with her two big trunks, which were seized on Wednesday and found to contain about $4000 worth of smuggled goods.

J. H. Hargreaves, proprietor of a hair factory at London, Ontario, has been arrested for excessive cruelty to young apprentices, male and female. Implements of torture, consisting of ropes and pulleys, leather thongs, padlocks and gags were produced in court. One of the victims, Annie Sparks, related the cruelties practiced on her by Hargreaves and his partner, Jarvis. She has been repeatedly left suspended by the hands from the ceiling of a dark room, one time for four days. Hargreaves would slacken the rope at dinner time, and hoist again at night. She described the gagging and flogging processes as applied to herself and several others. Hargreaves was committed for trial. His foreman has been arrested for complicity, and Jarvis, the partner, has absconded. At the close of the court the police had difficulty in keeping Hargreaves from the mob.

An earthquake was felt at Columbus, Kentucky, at four o'clock on the morning of the 12th inst. It awoke residents, and created considerable consternation. Bedsteads were rolled across the floors of rooms, and bureaus and presses thrown down and broken. A portion of the Mississippi river bank caved in near the town, leaving one house hanging over the bluff. The movement was so violent as to ring bells on locomotives standing in sheds at the depot. The rumbling lasted only a few seconds.

A petition of Robert Ingersoll and others has been presented in the U. S. Senate, asking the repeal of some parts of the law for suppressing obscene literature, as it was used for the purpose of moral and religious persecution.

A brig entered the port of Baltimore a few days ago as the Alexis, from Porto Cabello, with a cargo of coffee and hides. She proves to be the British brig Alice, of St. John, N. B., which was loaded at Porto Cabello for Hamburg, where her cargo is insured for $92,000. A man calling himself Kinnear has been endeavoring to sell the cargo, which has been stored, and tried to obtain a cash advance of $60,000 thereon, but failed to get over $1000. The brig has been seized by the British consul, she being found without a soul on board, her captain (Williamson,) mates and seamen all having fled. The manifest and other papers all prove to have been forgeries of Kinnear, and her name had been changed.

The storerooms in course of erection at the Woolwich (England) dockyard, covering an acre of ground, suddenly collapsed on Wednesday while the laborers were at work. Hundreds of the workmen were buried in the debris. All were quickly rescued, but many of them were seriously injured. No deaths have occurred, though several cannot survive.

The Department of State has received from Constantinople official intelligence of the discontinuance of the blockade of Russian ports on the Black Sea. The note of the Turkish Government contains the first official information of the armistice of Adrianople, signed January 31st, and announces the raising of the blockade during the period of such armistice for vessels under the Turkish, Russian or a neutral flag, between Turkish ports and those belonging to or at present militarily occupied by Russia.

Newburyport has a strange case, a prominent sea captain being charged with insanity by persons who doubtless would be glad to have him in an asylum. Fearing that some attack may be made on his liberty, he has been to New York and Boston experts on insanity, and obtained their certificates of his sanity.

A firm in Belfast, Me., received last week a letter which, four months ago, was deposited in the New York Post Office, without the addition of the word "Maine," to the superscription. It has crossed the ocean to Belfast, Ireland, made the tour of Europe, and come back spotted all over with a rare assortment of post-office inscriptions.

The double postal card will probably be adopted, as the House committee has reported favorably. This card has two stamps, one on either side; and one person having a question to ask of another at a distance will now have the privilege of furnishing both stationery and postage. And still the telephone would do quite as well.

General Grant will return to this country some time in the coming autumn, and it is proposed in Philadelphia to give him an enthusiastic greeting. A committee has been appointed, which is quietly arranging the details. He is to be met in the bay by distinguished men from all parts of the country, and all his officers and soldiers who can go to Philadelphia are to welcome him to shore and attend him to his temporary residence. The money necessary has already been subscribed by eminent citizens, and although the ceremonies are to be conducted in the name of the Commonwealth, the city will not be asked for contributions.

The Five Cents Savings Bank of Newburyport has suspended business.

Thirty-six excursionists attending a fair at Brest, France, were drowned Thursday by the capsizing of a barge.

Caleb Cushing has just got a fee that ought to keep him awhile—nothing less than $100,000, for recovering the estate of a Cuban which the Spanish government had seized, with a good chance for a much bigger pile if he wins another promising claim for $2,500,000 he has now taken up.

Ex-Governor Washburn, of Wisconsin, is said to have been grieved by the State's refusal to accept his Edgewood estate for the establishment of a girl's industrial school. So the Senate has concluded to take the house and use it as a charitable institution, its object to be agreed upon hereafter by the Legislature and the donor.

Colonel John W. Forney recently delivered a lecture at Liverpool on "The Character of Abraham Lincoln, the Martyr President of the United States." The Liverpool Express says he thoroughly charmed his audience by his thoughtfully-arranged discourse and the brilliance of his language.

Four Glover, Vt., school-boys, who attacked and expelled their teacher recently when he was punishing one of their number, were taken before a justice, and their fines and costs for assault and disturbance amount to about $60 apiece.

A resident of Woolwich, Me., eighty-three years of age, recently offered a young lady who is about sixty years his junior $1000 if she would become his wife. She consented.

The students of Dartmouth college have passed resolutions strongly condemning the recent riotous conduct on the part of a few of their number, and demanding its prompt punishment.

Gov. Prescott has appointed P. Brainlard Cogswell, Esq., and Col. Charles H. Roberts to serve as Honorary Commissioners for New Hampshire at the Paris Exposition.

The stores of L. S. Richardson, clothing dealer, and C. S. Eastman, druggist, in Concord, were entered Tuesday night by burglars, who stole from the former clothing, etc., to the amount of about $300, and from the latter stamps and money to the value of some $15.

The United States Mail Transportation Company have sold the contract for carrying the mail from Plymouth to Littleton to the Pemigewasset Stable Company, alias the Boston, Concord & Montreal Railroad, for the price received from the Government, giving security for the payments. The contractors carried the mail the last nine months in buggies, at a cost of two dollars where they received one.

Horace A. Brown, Mayor-elect of Concord for the ensuing political year, is a native of Cornish, where he was born Oct. 3d, 1823, and is consequently in the fifty-fifth year of his age. He has been connected with the New Hampshire Statesman, in the press department, for twenty-six years. He has had no inconsiderable experience in city and legislative affairs. He has served as Assessor, Alderman and as Representative in the Legislature for the years 1875-6. He is prominently identified with the Masonic and Odd Fellow fraternities.

—The father and the widow of James Fisk, Jr., disagree about his estate. She says that the bequests exceed the value of the property, and that she is therefore unable to comply with the will. The father has sued her in Brattleboro, Vt.

Special Notice.

ANY MAN with from $200 to $400 can make $150 to $300 per month, without risk, as our sole agent in any city in New Hampshire, in a legitimate, permanent business. Full investigation solicited. BOTKIN & VAIL, 226 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

THE CITY.

We are indebted to Senator Rollins for valuable public documents.

Schooner Mary S. Hontvet has arrived from her second trip to George's, with a fare of 35,000 lbs. of fish.

The masts were taken out of the U. S. S. Kearsarge at the navy yard on Thursday, preparatory to a survey.

Ensign William Winder is detached from the frigate Colorado, and ordered to duty on board the Constellation upon her arrival in New York.

DeWitt Clinton Commandry of Knights Templar will leave this city this (Friday) evening at ten minutes past five, for Manchester, having accepted an invitation from Trinity Commandry of that city, to become its guests.

J. Carl Cheney, of Vermont, a temperance lecturer who comes well endorsed by those who have heard him, will speak upon the subject of temperance in Mechanics' Hall on Sunday evening. Admission five cents. Doors open at 7; praise service at half-past 7.

"A Celebrated Case" is to be presented at Music Hall on the evening of April 3d by the Union Square Theatre Company of New York, Sheridan Shook, proprietor. The play is to be produced with the same cast and accessories that gave such a remarkable run to it in the Empire State and elsewhere.

Mr. Geo. H. Ham, mason, of this city, has just returned from St. John, N. B, where he has been at work for several months. Mr. Alberto C. Fernald, architect, of this city, is also engaged there in designing and drafting buildings, and has recently made a brief visit home. Hon. Albert Blaisdell, the well-known contractor, has also spent the winter there.

An old "Kittery friend he doth appear" to us and says their late Town Collector muleted his bondsmen in $1052.26, taxes collected and not accounted for; and the previous Collector "covered into" his own private funds $3000 or $4000 of the old town's money, in the course of two or three years, most of which the town has lost—but they still have some left! He thinks they ought to pay the Collector more, and get a competent and honest man—but it is not those who are paid most, that are most sure to be honest. —Weekly.

A very pleasant evening was passed at the house of Mr. George Humphreys, 109 Water street, on the 13th, it being the 80th anniversary of the birth of his father-in-law, Mr. William Gray, a gentleman well known to most Portsmouth people. The occasion was enjoyed by quite a large number of relatives and friends, some of the former coming from quite a distance and representing four generations. After a bountiful repast and a social hour, an elegant easy chair was presented to the octogenarian, with a few remarks from his pastor, Rev. Mr. Owen, which, with prayer and singing, closed the exercises of the evening, save the reading of an original poem. Altogether, it was an enjoyable affair.—Times.

POLICE COURT.

Thursday, March 14th; Batchelder, J.

Charles Fernald, John Farrell and George Chamberlain, three "simple drunks," were before the Court. None of them happening to have the desired $9.90, all three were sent into the country to help Mr. Pollard do the spring work on the County Farm.

THE CHARITY CONCERT.

The committee appointed to distribute the avails of the Sunday evening sacred concert, met at the house of Hon. Wm. Simes on Wednesday evening, March 13th. Present, Hon. Wm. Simes, Thomas E. O. Marvin, Charles W. Gardner, Stephen W. Clarke, Arthur F. Pfeiffer, Moses Plummer and John H. Locke. On motion of Mr. Marvin it was voted that Mr. Simes be appointed chairman; and Mr. Marvin was elected secretary. Mr. Marvin reported that the donation received from Harlow's Orchestra amounted to $50.39; and it was voted unanimously to divide the sum in equal parts between the Howard Benevolent Society, the Home for Indigent Women, and the Children's Home.

Number of cases investigated during the last month, fifteen, viz.: Using old and worn out horses, five; starving horses and hogs, one; various acts of cruelty to dogs, cats, etc., seven. Injured animals killed by Society's order, two. Horses found exposed to cold, and blanketed, three. Exposed horses put in stable, one.

The Society gratefully acknowledges the receipt of fifteen dollars as a contribution to its permanent fund, from a friend of the Society.

MORE HOME TALENT.

We have been felicitating ourselves over the possession of enough talent within our own borders to furnish the community with entertainments of the highest order in the drama and in elocution, and now we are promised a lecture from a gifted and highly educated young lady, Miss Garrie E. Randall. We have known this lady as a graceful and pleasing writer, but this is her debut on the lecture platform, and her subject, "Gleanings from the fields of thought," presents so wide a range that we may feel sure of gaining pleasure and profit from the lecture, which will be the last of the Lyceum course at Franklin Hall, Monday evening, March 18th.

THE VICINITY.

Maj. David Urch delivered a temperance lecture in the Methodist vestry at Kittery on Saturday evening, 9th inst., which was well received, and is spoken of as having been eloquent to a rare degree.

A thief broke into Warren J. Conlon's shoe store in Biddeford, Wednesday morning shortly after midnight, and took out about $50 worth of goods, which were found scattered along the street near the store at daylight, the thief having probably been frightened into dropping them by the approach of an officer.

There were two fires in Wells on the night of the 12th inst. Early in the evening the "Warwick Hobbs" house on Main street, a large, old-style building erected over a century ago, owned and occupied by Mrs. Harriet W. Hobbs, together with a barn, paint shop, etc., were burned to the ground. Loss about $3000; insured $1250. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been incendiary. Later in the night the buildings of William G. Rankins, situated about a quarter of a mile distant from the Hobbs house, took fire from the breaking of a lamp, and were destroyed. The house was comparatively new, and was insured $2400. The furniture was insured $300.

HAMPTON ELECTION.

After sixteen ballottings on Tuesday and Wednesday, John H. Fogg, democrat, was elected representative; Sewell W. Dow, republican, moderator; John M. Akerman, republican, town clerk; selectmen, Jacob T. Brown, Christopher G. Toppan, Henry J. Perkins, democrats. The meeting at half-past five o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, adjourned to one o'clock on Thursday.

The railroads are now at peace, and the hotels have had their "war." The result of this recent cutting of first-class hotel rates in New York leaves the Grand Central in the lead, with rates one and two dollars per day lower than the rest.

The best men in the country use Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Governors, Bankers, Clergymen, Physicians, Lawyers, Merchants, Mechanics, the high and low, the poor as well as the rich, all testify to its remarkable curative powers in Coughs, Colds and all Lung Diseases. Price 25 cents.

Thousands of persons have their eyes turned towards Wall street. That is where thousands of dollars are made daily from investments ranging from $50 to $250. The reliable brokers, Alex. Frothingham & Co., 12 Wall st., N. Y., send their Financial Report free, — which explains fully. 13

Large sums of money have been made in Wall street by persons shrewd enough to invest at the right time. The old house of Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 12 Wall st., N.Y., is entitled to absolute confidence. Their customers are frequently rewarded by large returns. Send for their Financial Report, free. 12

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. It is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial as being the most reliable preparation ever used; is is particularly adapted to lung and throat affections in children. Try one bottle. tmch23

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. eod&uteept57

Portsmouth Chronicle

—The world still needs two or three new kinds of patent medicines before death can be perfectly abolished.

—Three Welsh pilots, by whose forethought, skill and arduous exertions nine men were rescued from the masthead of the steamer Pioneer, off the coast of Wales, in January last, on being asked by one of Lloyd's agents what they wanted or expected for their services, immediately replied, "We have had what we wanted—the lives of the men."

—Thirty relatives met in a New York court the other day to contest the will of a dead aunt. It turned out that she had left them each $20,000, whereupon they gave way to their delight and hugged and kissed all round, congratulated themselves and one another, and went away wreathed in smiles and chatting and laughing like school children.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual conquests of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.
Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either thin it or bleach it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expressing; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, disease of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the delicate and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, feeling and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur
Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unrivalled. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experience by the celebrated Samuel Pitcher, M.D.
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and stiffened horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tawly1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. These sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported looks up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
BUCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I mean the "snuff" and "inhaling-tubes" makers (more dollars-and-cents-wise) would be glad if they could embalm a similar cure in the papers. For 25 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "douse," "douches," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered, or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, oily abundance and weakness, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to release me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and try it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and it convinced me I was positively cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have a yellow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternate with hot flushes, low spirits and a loamy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who a substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leuchorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

THE

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had hurring in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils to that degree consistent with comfort. The screens across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my sense of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by physicians Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a severe injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended use of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and sore ness almost immediately, and I have found it to be so in my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them inestimable, and shall will ingly recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ROLLAND, Me., April 22, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases o these parts.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinar Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutel worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Force with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout th United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

REV. DANIEL AUSTIN'S WILL.

Made at Kittery, March 23d, 1871.

Be it remembered that I, Daniel Austin of Kittery, in the County of York and State of Maine, being of sound disposing mind and memory, deeply impressed with the uncertainty of life and the propriety of thus preparing for its termination,—grateful for the Divine Goodness to me and mine, particularly in the bestowal on me of a late consort of noble spirit and the most cordial and enduring affection; grateful for the kindnesses of numerous friends; do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made. I do now proceed to dispose of my own, and the worldly goods which my late beloved wife's unsolicited generosity has so largely added to my comparatively slender means, confidently trusting that in case this will should lack aught of legality in any way, my heirs and legatees will take no exceptions to the fulfillment of its provisions, and that they will rest satisfied with their respective apportionments:—

To the President and fellows of Harvard College, $7000, for some good College purposes, at the discretion of the Government.

To Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, $5000, if adhering to the principles of government established by the late Horace Mann, in regard to color and sex of students, and the non-use of premiums or awards.

Austin Academy, So. Strafford, N. H., $500.

Dartmouth College, $2000, to procure modern books not theological, but on moral subjects morally treated.

South Parish Sunday School, Portsmouth, $1000, the income to furnish lectures on reverence, purity, honesty, good manners.

Cambridge Divinity School, $1000.

Overseers of Poor in Portsmouth and successors, $500 in trust, the income to furnish the colored population (at this time about 27 persons) the means of effectively celebrating the anniversaries of "Emancipation Day" proclaimed by Pres. Lincoln, in 1863, to be expended under direction of the Overseers or a committee thereof.

Mercantile Library Association, Portsmouth, $500.

W. R. Preston, Portsmouth, apothecary, and his successors, $150, in trust, the income in August, annually, to supply the medicine chest before given to the permanent residents on Smith's Isles, vulgarly called the Isles of Shoals.

Grand Lodge of Masons in Massachusetts, $100; North Star Lodge of Lancaster, N. H., $50.

West Parish Society, Boston, $50, in acknowledgement of pecuniary aid to that amount rendered me while a student of divinity at Cambridge, by the late Rev. Dr. Lowell, pastor.

Mrs. Arabella Bowen, wife of Prof. B., of Cambridge, $5000, also half of my wife's wardrobe, jewels and laces. To Prof. Bowen, $1000, due me for housekeeping. To Charles C. Bowen, son of Prof. B., $1000.

$500 each to Wm. H. Rollins, Portsmouth, to the daughters collectively of the late Joshua Loring, Newton, Mass., Joseph H. Foster, Portsmouth, (also my imported German microscope).

$300 each to Col. Wm. W. Brown, Providence, R. I., and Mrs. Ellen H. Brown his wife; Wm. R. Preston, Portsmouth, (also my chair in a cane;) Mrs. Emily P. Smith Rogers, wife of Gen. Horatio, Providence; A. J. Penhallow, Portsmouth, Miss Abbey Pickering, Portsmouth.

$200 each to Dr. John H. Boardman, Portsmouth; Miss Sophia Langdon, Cambridge, (and silver snuff-box should she survive Judge Phillips;) Miss Elizabeth Merrill, Hollis, N. H.; Joseph B. Upham, Jr. Portsmouth.

$150 each to Willard Quincy Phillips, Cambridge; Dr. Robt. O. Treadwell, Vevay, Switzerland, (and chamber medicine-ch.)

$100 each to William H. Baldwin, Boston; each of five children of Levi Barnard of Lancaster, N. H.; Mrs. Ellen Bohonnon, Peterboro', N. H.; Charles Bridge, Hampton Falls, N. H.; Mrs. Harriet Foster Chevey, Brighton, Mass.; Beverly Decatur and Maria Decatur, children of Com. Stephen D., Boston; Rev. James DeNormandie, Portsmouth; Mrs. Susan L. Dunkle, N. York; Mrs. John W. Foster, Portsmouth; Timothy Hall, Boston; Winthrop Austin Harvey, Boston, (son of C. C. Harvey;) Rev. Thos. Hill, Waltham; John P. Hopkinson, Cambridge; Mrs. Sally Houghton or heirs, Brighton; Benj. P. Mann, Cambridge; Mrs. Elizabeth Merrill, Hollis, N. H.; Rev. A. P. Peabody, Cambridge; Deblois P. Penhallow and Eliza W. Pennallow, Portsmouth; Henry Austin Peterson, Kittery; Miss Lucy Sewards, Portsmouth; Miss Sarah Shepburne, and Miss Sally Shores, Portsmouth; Dr. Phineas Spalding, Haverhill, N. H.; Mrs. Mary Stone, Lyndon, Vt.; Reuben J. Todd, Whitestone, N. J.; (also his note to me for $300;) Mrs. Annah Todd, wife of said Reuben J., (also inlaid chess-stand, and half my wife's jewels, laces and wardrobe;) and Joseph B. Upham, Portsmouth.

$50 each to Rev. Adin Ballou, Meadow, Mass.; Jas. P. Bartlett, Portsmouth; Geo. Austin Bebee, Gosport, Shoals; Mrs. Jane E. Chapman, Boston; Mrs. E. L. Cushing, Brighton; Miss Mary Cutts, Brattleboro', Vt.; Miss Emery (daughter of Shem,) Portsmouth; Warren Fernald and Robert F. Gerrish, both of Kittery; Frank Goodwin, Cambridge; Charles H. Gould, Portsmouth; Miss Georgie Halliburton, Portsmouth; Edgar P. Hanscom, (son of John F.) Kittery, to be expended in books for study; Miss Caroline Huntress and Miss Elizabeth Jackson, Portsmouth; Hiram Knapp, Boston; Albert Laighton, Portsmouth; Geo. M. Marsh, Portsmouth; each the two grand-daughters of Mrs. Mellen, Cambridge; Mrs. John Morrisson; Mrs. Odell, (mother of Lory;) Mrs. Stanton Parker, Portsmouth; James B. Parrott, Portsmouth, (also share in Portsmouth Athenæum;) Miss Adeline Sherburne, Miss Elizabeth Spalding, Lyman D. Spalding, Portsmouth; John Stearns, Washington, D. C.; Jacob J. Storer, N. York; Samuel Storer, Alaska Terr.; Dr. J. H. Thacher, Portsmouth; Mrs. Nancy Tobey, Kittery; and Mrs. Ann Whidden, Portsmouth.

Mrs. Dr. Adams, Waltham, Whitney's commentary, two volumes, formerly of Mrs. Mary Faneuil, and mahogany wardrobe.

Samuel Batchelder, Jr., my glass cane and glass pipe, and if he survive Judge Phillips, my umbrella-cane.

Hon. I. Goodwin, Portsmouth, gold-headed cane.

Rev. Richard M. Hodges, Cambridge, elegant extracts, prose, six vols.

Charles H. Joy, Boston, Joy coat of arms.

Rev. Wm. Newell, Cambridge, Lodge's Portraits Br. Nobility, eight vols.

O. W. Penhallow, his uncle Samuel's spectacle-case, and my E-scritoire.

Peirce W. Penhallow, Penhallow arms and family pictures.

Thomas W. Penhallow, my barometer and green silk screen.

Willard Phillips, Cambridge, silver snuff-box and umbrella-cane.

Mark H. Wentworth, and George J. Wentworth, Portsmouth, each one of my ancient Wentworth chairs.

Having heretofore from time to time made advances of real and personal property to John B. Trefethen, which he has in writing acknowledged, stating that he considers them to have been "generously and amply remunerative" of his long services in my behalf, over and above his wages, and that he is "gratefully and amply satisfied therewith," I omit his name from the list of beneficiaries in this will.

Executors to reserve and invest sufficient sum of money to produce net annual income of $400, and pay same in quarterly payments of $100 to Mrs. Mary Emery, wife of F. C. P. Emery of Neponset, Mass., during her life; at her death to revert to my residuary estate. [Which provision will postpone the settlement of the estate indefinitely, if this woman is living.] $500 to each executor, in addition to legal fees.

All bequests to individuals not living at his decease, unless especially provided, to form part of his residuary estate. All remaining estate, whatsoever and wherever, he bequeaths as follows:

One-third to Brighton, Mass., to increase Holton Library.

One-third to Kittery, Me., income to be annually applied to make best road possible in District No. 7. [In which he resided.]

One-third to city of Portsmouth in trust, to be paid a year from my decease, (or as soon as amt. can be ascertained,) provided said city shall at date have laid out the field on the westerly side of the South Mill-pond, formerly called Governor's field, as a Mall, and built a bridge across said Pond, and laid out a street on the westerly side of the Court House leading to said Mall. But if said purpose shall not have been accomplished at the expiration of one year from the time of ascertaining amt. of my residuary estate, then I direct my executors to securely invest and hold said third of my residuary estate for the further term of one year, and at expiration of said term to pay over the same, principal and interest, to the city of Portsmouth, if the above purpose shall in the meantime have been carried into effect as aforesaid;—but if the aforesaid improvements shall not at that date have been completed according to the true intent and meaning of the above provisions, I direct my executors to pay over the said third part of my residuary estate, principal and interest, to the Portsmouth Athenæum, to be used for enlarging the accommodation for their Library.

The Executors are Samuel Batchelder Jr., Cambridge, and Charles U. Cotting, Brookline; and it is requested that they be excused from giving any bonds. They are directed to sell all real and personal estate not enumerated and devised in the will, to carry out and fulfil the provisions of the same.

CODICIL, SAME DATE.

To W. Parish Soc'y, Boston, $50 more; $50 each to daughters of A. Peabody.

Miss Mary Dalton, Portsmouth, $100 besides her wages; Miss Sarah Peirce, $50; Miss Sarah Worcester, Boston, $50; Col. Clement March, formerly of Greenland, $50.

To John B. Trefethen, Kittery, my horses, buggy, India writing-desk, and the gold watch given me by my late wife, and the sum of $2400 in cash.

Edwin Austin, Boston, Austin Arms.

Rev. F. A. Whitney, Rev. Thomas Finneiry and Geo. Brooks, Esq., all of Brighton, $50 each.

Mrs. E. A. Wadsworth, Boston, silver sugar-urn, family bible and family records.

Mrs. Arabella Bowen, my late wife's gold watch and chain.

Mrs. Charles H. Joy, Boston, equal share with Mrs. Wadsworth, of my blue and gold India china tea and coffee sets.

To Maine Hist. Soc'y, two picture panels, formerly belonging to Gov. Hutchinson's house sacked in revolution.

The witnesses both to the will and codicil are John M. Batchelder, H. B. Macintosh, Henry S. Rowe.

SATURDAY, MARCH 16, 1878.

La Page Executed.

La Page, the brutal murderer of Josie Langmaid, was successfully put out of world he disgraced by his vile presence, at eleven o'clock on Friday. The night previous to his execution he confessed the murder of Miss Langmaid and of Marietta Ball, the school teacher who was murdered at St. Albans, Vt., some years ago. The wretch gave full particulars of both crimes. He was arrested for the murder of Miss Ball at the time, but was sworn off by several of his French Canadian friends. He was simply a ruffian, with an intellect but little above the brutes, and moral sentiments far beneath them; and the world is well rid of a monster in the guise of a human being. When thinking of such a bloodthirsty and licentious wretch, it is hard to believe there is no such thing as eternal punishment.

News and Notes.

The House bill relative to witnesses in the United States courts, passed the Senate on Thursday. It provides that in the trial of all indictments, informations, complaints and other proceedings against persons charged with the commission of crimes, offences and misdemeanors in the United States courts, Territorial courts, and courts martial, and courts of inquiry in any State or Territory, including the District of Columbia, the person so charged shall at his own request, but not otherwise, be a competant witness; and his failure to make such request shall not create any presumption against him. This is the law as now administered in most of the State courts.

Fishing schooner Carrie P. Morton, of Gloucester, has not been heard of since Jan. 3d, and is no doubt lost with all on board. Her crew numbered fourteen men, at least five of whom leave widows and orphans.

There was great excitement at a recent government sale of smuggled liquors at the custom house in Eastport, Me. The liquor was bought by temperance people, and spilled in the presence of a large crowd.

A despatch from Chicago says the reduction of the Fire Department by order of the Mayor, by retiring seven engines and about 100 firemen, and the reduction of the police force by 100 men, occasions considerable uneasiness there in insurance circles.

An affray between students at Princeton College Wednesday night resulted in one having his nose broken and being otherwise badly injured. There were six arrests. One was dismissed from the college Thursday. The others are held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

It is thought in Baltimore that Kinnear and others on the brig Alexis murdered the captain of that vessel (Campbell), but by some it is thought that Williams may have been an assumed name for Campbell. Advices from Nova Scotia will settle this fact. The cargo is to be sent to Hamburg.

Mrs. Leggett, a wealthy widow of Yonkers, N. Y., was shot dead by Theron Merritt on Thursday, in her own house. Merritt then went to his own house and shot himself through the heart, in presence of his mother and a grown-up daughter of Mrs. Leggett. The murdered woman was about forty-five years of age, fine looking, and moved in the best society. The murderer was about forty, and had a wife and family. Mrs. Leggett's friends say she was a woman of blameless character, but others assert that Merritt had long been entirely supported by her for reasons that would not bear a strong light. She leaves an estate of half a million. Her former husband, Samuel Leggett, shot himself in his barn a few years ago.

A Boston jury has given a twelve-year-old boy $330 damages for a bite from a dog. The owner of the dog contended that the boy was a trespasser on his premises, and was worrying the dog at the time of the injury.

Capt. Jacob B. Brown, a wealthy and respected shipmaster, of Newburyport, barely escaped imprisonment in an asylum this week on some domestic trouble. Two physicians gave certificates of his insanity without a proper investigation, and the Judge of the Probate Court issued papers for his commitment. Before they could arrest him he personally presented their Judge the evidence of his sanity, and the papers were recalled. The case causes some excitement in Newburyport, as well it may, and the end is not yet.

Pinkham, the New Durham murderer, who was recently sentenced by the Court in Strafford county to be hanged on the 14th of March, 1879, was taken to Concord Thursday night and committed to prison. He was placed in the cell vacated by La Page.

Monetary.

The money market is very dull; good business paper in Boston goes at four and five per cent.; call loans at from three to four per cent.

Gold holds at 101.

The Boston banks have recently invested a million of dollars in the Government loan.

It is contended that the Newburyport Five Cent Savings Bank, by stopping now, can pay all its depositors in full. The bank had loaned $200,000 on mortgages on estates around Boston, on which there will be a loss. The deposits are $1,063,305. There has been a slight run on the Boston Five Cent Savings Bank. Its deposits are about twelve millions, and although it has many mortgages, the institution is considered sound.

Political.

Beverly Douglass, a democratic member of Congress from Virginia, went into the House noisy drunk on Wednesday, kicked up a row, insulted the Speaker, and resisted the Sergeant-at-Arms when the latter, in obedience to the Speaker's order, attempted to put him out. This was not gentlemanly conduct at all; but how hard up for news the Washington correspondents must be, when they telegraph all over the country that a democratic member of Congress got drunk.

Acton, Me., which has heretofore been a republican stronghold, and Parsonsfield, always strongly democratic, have been carried by the "greenbackers" by decided majorities. In Waterboro' the democrats and republicans combined and defeated the greenbackers.

Party lines are shattering everywhere—nowhere more rapidly than in Mississippi. The genuine conservative elements will be compelled, sooner or later, to make common cause with all other disaffected, non-recognized elements, against the office broking cliques who demand that all classes shall aid them to win victories at the polls, but that only one class shall be represented in public positions of honor and profit.—Memphis Avalanche (Ind. dem).

After all the talk, there is little prospect for any legislation bearing upon the improvement of the common school system of Kentucky this year. This leads the Courier-Journal to remark: "One-third of the entire voting population of Kentucky cannot read the ticket they vote, and 150,000 children are growing up in ignorance of the mere elements of an English education."

HALL'S

Air Draught Carpet Sweeper.

Your attention is respectfully solicited to a NEW and RADICALLY IMPROVED CARPET SWEEPER, which from its PECULIAR SCIENTIFIC CONSTRUCTION is a SIMPLE and EFFICIENT action and FREED M from all objections of either BROOM or BRUSH makers it PAR SUPERIOR to any known device for removing the DUST or DIRT from the SURFACE of the CARPET.

Among the MANY advantages it possesses are the following:

It contains not her BRUSH or COG-WHEEL.
It removes the dust FROM the CARPET instead of INTO it.
It does NOT make any DUST in the room.
It will remove the DUST from the CORNERS and sides of the ROOM.
It will NOT wear the carpet.
It is almost NOISELESS.
It is NOT liable to get out of order.
A rotating CURRENT of AIR is passed over the Carpet, taking with it any Dust, Dirt, Papers, Feathers, Canary Seeds, Crumbs, Pins, Thread or Lint with which it may come in contact, and depositing them in a receptacle from which they can be removed at pleasure.
The NEATNESS with which this little Machine does its work, and the ease with which it is operated, will be appreciated by every housekeeper who examines it.

BALM IN GILEAD.

"Marcellus exiled more true pleasure feels,
Than Emmons with a senate at his heels."

THE CITY.

Five persons will be baptised into the Advent church on Sunday at 12 o'clock.

The first cargoes of brick for the season, from this port, left on Friday in schooners Satellite and D. K. Ham, for Boston.

Two vessels of Doane's fishing fleet were hauled out from their winter quarters on Friday, to prepare for the spring fishing.

The person who took Vol. 9 of the Colonial Records from the residence of a gentleman at the west end is advised to return the same and save himself from possible trouble, as he is known.

The original poem entitled "Watchman, What of the Night?" which Miss Spalding read so effectively before the Lyceum audience three weeks ago, was written by Miss Garrie E. Randall, the blind poet, who is to make her debut on Monday evening as a lecturer.

Rev. Dr. Alden is to deliver on Sunday evening the third lecture in the course suggested by his travels in the East. Subject: "Alexandria as it was and as it is." These lectures are full of interest, and a cordial reception will be given to any one who may desire to hear them.

The High Sheriff of Rockingham county appears in a brand-new tile since election. A newspaper man of this city also sports a new hat; he is a most worthy and meritorious person, and deserved (some folks say badly needed) a new hat; the native modesty common to the profession prevents us mentioning his name.

The Methodist society of Newarket, through their pastor, Rev. Henry Dorr, return thanks in the Journal to "the Methodist people of Portsmouth and also to Hon. Frank Jones, Mayor Broughton, Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett and Ex-Gov. Goodwin for a donation of $100, which enables the Methodist society of Newmarket to meet a proposition of their creditors, by which they will be relieved of an embarrassing church debt of $18,000."

On Thursday evening some person took from the bakery of Mr. George Rice, on the corner of Ladd and High streets, the money drawer, containing about ten dollars. The drawer was found Friday morning in the yard back of the Athenæum; its ownership being found out by some tickets on which was Mr. Rice's name. This is not the first loss by thieves that Mr. Rice has suffered, a silver watch, money, and other articles having been previously stolen. The matter is now in the hands of the police.

One of the handsomest cases of stuffed birds we have seen for a long time is exhibited at the Central Oyster House kept by Mr. John S. Sides. The birds are twenty-four in number—twenty-five, if a bat is a bird—all procured in this vicinity, and including a most beautiful specimen of the wild pigeon, a scarlet tanager, a rare species of red-headed woodpecker, sea paroquet and sea pigeon, little auk, snipe, kingfisher, winter yellowlegs, partridge, golden robin, etc., all set up in the best manner and in positions true to nature. Mr. Adolph Nelson, well known as a successful sportsman, prepared and arranged the birds, most of which were procured by himself.

There are many people who enjoy a beef-steak, and at the same time fail to appreciate how much more savory is this delicious and health-giving food when by rapid broiling the flavor and juice of the meat are retained. We have made a practical test of the Standard Broiler, which is manufactured only by Messrs. D. Arthur Brown & Co., of Fisherville, in this State. It is a simple affair, afforded at a low price, and yet seems indispensable in a well arranged kitchen, and will prove an economical and judicious investment. The broilers are made to fit the holes of stoves and ranges of any size, and can be used alike over hard or soft coal or wood fires. Our personal experience warrants us in saying that like Sam Slick's clocks, once in the house the good housewife can never do without the Standard Broiler.

POLICE COURT.

Friday, March 15th; Batchelder, J.

Bertha Stetson, drunk, fine $3, costs $5.76. City Farm for one.

John J. Hayes, James Hammill, Michael E. Goodman, all marines, all drunk, and all fined; $9.90 each.

John J. Hayes, arraigned on a complaint charging him with an assault on Albert Goodwin, was discharged.

NAVAL MATTERS.

Lieut. Comdr. Augustus G. Kellogg, ordered to this navy yard, has reported for duty.

Lieut. Comdr. Benj. P. Lamberton, who has been detached from the navy yard and ordered to the Alaska, left with his family on Thursday.

Ensign John F. Parker, also recently detached and ordered to the Constellation, left on Friday.

The President on Thursday nominated Assistant Paymaster George A. Deering, of Biddeford, Me., to be Passed Assistant Paymaster.

The naval appropriation bill will contain several new features as to pay of officers on different duty, etc.

THE MERRILL WILL CASE.

George Merrill, the principal contestant of the will of Mrs. Caroline A. Merrill, has made a new move in the proceedings, and commenced another suit in the Supreme Court of New York. The papers were served on Thursday. The ground on which this new trial is based is that the wills of 1856 were mutual wills between Mrs. Merrill and her husband, and therefore could not be revoked by her alone. The counsel for George Merrill are confident that they can make a successful fight on this point. The suit is entered against all the beneficiaries, and Roswell G. Rolston individually and as special administrator of Mrs. Merrill's estate. The attorneys of Cardinal McCloskey and the Bishop of Portland have been served with summons and complaint.

THE VICINITY.

Mr. Charles W. Cottle, of Kittery, arrived home from Canada on Monday, 11th inst., with twelve fine horses. That night a valuable horse belonging to him got east in the stall and died of its injuries.

Rev. G. W. Ruland, pastor of the Methodist church in Greenland, has sued the town of South Newmarket to recover damages for personal injuries sustained by his horse backing off an unprotected bridge.

Ex-Congressman William B. Small is seriously ill at his home in Newmarket, from the result of injuries received at Rochester some days since, by falling upon the railroad track of the Dover & Winnipiseogee road while on his way to Ossipee to visit a sick brother.

The total valuation of Seabrook, April 1st, 1877, (including polls) was $268,684. The amount committed to Mr. Robert Collins for collecting the past year (ending March 1st,) was $4,956.17. The amount expended for the support of schools was $1,276.25; the amount paid as a bounty for foxes, $1.50; for hawks, $4.80. Poll tax for the past year was $1.83; for the year ending March 1st, 1877, it was $2.25.

From the town book of York, just printed, it appears that the town debt has been reduced from $10,322.86 to $7,703.57, a reduction of $2,619.29. The town has taken up $2,656.68 of its outstanding notes, and paid $992.54 for interest during the past year. G. W. F. Putnam, Esq., has been town auditor for the past five years, and his annual report of the town affairs has been clear and acceptable to all the inhabitants.

A correspondent of the News-Letter, writing from Greenland, says that election day "general intoxication prevailed, and the most disgraceful of drunken rows, shameless acts and language, were the spectacles to meet the eye and greet the ear at every hand's turn, in our streets and public buildings. It is seldom that Greenland, even on election day, presents such a show of beastly depravity." The town voted to fund its debt, which amounts to about $16,500, by issuing bonds of the denominations of $500 and $100. Eleven of the former, the balance in the latter; interest to be paid semi-annually, and $500 to be paid every year on the debt until clear. The democratic majority was about forty.

Congressman Blair has presented the petitions of T. V. Haines, Mary T. Haines and forty-six other citizens of North Hampton, and of Hon. Natt Head and eighty-seven others of Hooksett, in favor of a proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture, sale, etc., of distilled alcoholic liquors except for medicinal and scientific uses, after the year 1900, and for a commission of inquiry; while Mr. Willis, of Kentucky, kindly obliges both interests in the whisky manufacture, by presenting a petition from one set that no extension of bonded period be granted for manufactures after Jan 1, 1878, but that immediate relief be extended where whisky in bond was made during 1877, and another petition that the bill for extending the bonded period be passed. It seems that the whisky interest is not united upon the question of desired legislation.

At the Advent church, services at 10:15 A. M., 2:45 and 7:30 P. M. Elder George W. Brown, of Eliot, will preach.

At the Freewill Baptist church, on Pearl street, services at 10:30 A. M. and 2:45 P. M.; Sabbath school at 11:30 A. M. Preaching to-morrow by Rev. E. Owen, the pastor.

At the South Parish, morning service, at 10:30, vespers at 7:30. Sunday school at 2:45 P. M. Preaching by Rev. Jas. DeNormandie, the pastor.

At the Methodist church, preaching at 10:15 A. M. and 2:45 P. M. by Rev. James Noyes, the pastor.

J. Carl Cheney, of Vermont, a temperance lecturer who comes well endorsed by those who have heard him, will speak upon the subject of temperance in Mechanics' Hall on Sunday evening. Admission five cents. Doors open at seven; praise service at half-past seven.

—Gov. Vance recently replied to a request of Col. Bradley T. Johnson of Virginia to allow the Walker Light Guard to pass through his dominions to Charleston, as follows: "Permission granted to pass through North Carolina with your command. Be virtuous and you'll be happy—but you won't have much fun."

—"Mary, my love, do you remember the text this morning?" "No, pa, I never can remember the text; I have such a short memory." "By the way, did you notice Susan Brown?" joined in Mary's mother. "Oh, yes, what a fright! She had on her last year's bonnet, done up, a pea-green silk, a black mantilla, brown boots, an imitation of Honiton collar, a lava bracelet, her old earrings, and such a fan!" "Well, my dear, your memory is certainly bad."

The railroads are now at peace, and the hotels have had their "war." The result of this recent cutting of first-class hotel rates in New York leaves the Grand Central in the lead, with rates one and two dollars per day lower than the rest.

The best men in the country use Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Governors, Bankers, Clergymen, Physicians, Lawyers, Merchants, Mechanics, the high and low, the poor as well as the rich, all testify to its remarkable curative powers in Coughs, Colds and all Lung Diseases. Price 25 cents.

The majority of Wall street houses and men are as honest as their neighbors, and many of them have a world wide reputation for scum, ness and honesty. The old house of Alex. Frothingham & Co., Brokers, 12 Wall st., N. Y., is entitled to absolute confidence. They state that an investment of about $100 made recently returned over $1,000 in less than 60 days. Send for their circular, free. 14

Reflect that in every cemetery one-half of the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and Colds; and if you are thus afflicted avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. Sold by all Druggists.

CAUTION.

☞ The great popularity of "ASTRAL" OIL has induced some unprincipled persons to sell worthless and dangerous imitations for "ASTRAL," while others palm off inferior oils, representing them as good as "ASTRAL." To prevent this fraud, purchasers should demand "ASTRAL" and take no other.

A Buried Town Brought to Light.

An interesting archæological discovery has just been made in Italy—that of a buried town, a new Pompeii, unexpectedly found near Mandfredonia, at the foot of Mount Gargano. A temple of Diana was first brought to light, and then a portico about 20 metres in length, with columns without capitals, and, finally, a necropolis covering 15,000 square meters, (about 3 3-4 acres.) A large number of inscriptions have been collected, and some of them have been sent to the museum at Naples. The town discovered is the ancient Sipontum, of which Strabo, Polybius and Livy speak, and which was buried by an earthquake. The houses are 20 feet below the surface of the soil. The Italian Government has taken measures to continue the excavations on a large scale. Every day some fresh object of interest turns up. The latest are a monument erected in honor of Pompey after his victory over the pirates, and a large number of coins in gold and copper.

Death in His Favorite Robe.

The mortuary statistics of the whole civilized world show that about one-fifth of all mankind die of consumption alone, and the number of deaths due to consumption bears a greater ratio to the whole number than that of any other three diseases together. Moreover, investigation proves that this ratio is steadily increasing. Its increasing prevalence has led to the popular belief that consumption is incurable. Every year hundreds of these sufferers seek, in the sunny retreats of Florida or the dry atmosphere of Colorado, for health—and find only a grave. The influences of the atmosphere—the only remedial agent that Florida or Colorado can afford the consumptive—is at best only palliative. The cure of consumption depends upon two essential conditions: 1st, the arrest of the abnormal breaking down of the tissues, which prevents emaciation, and 2d, the restoration of healthy nutrition, in order to stop the formation of tuberculous matter. Fulfill these conditions, and consumption is as curable as fever. To fulfill these conditions the required remedy must increase the appetite, favor the assimilation of food, and enrich the blood, thus retarding the development of tubercules. To accomplish this, a more powerful alterative than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has never been discovered. At the same time, it soothes the irritation of the nervous system produced by violent coughing, which in its turn so often leads to more serious results. The use of "expectorants" in consumption is absolutely suicidal. For while removing the tubercles already formed, they produce yet more serious results by inflaming and destroying the sound and healthy tissues. Consumption requires a remedy that will act, while it relieves; harsh medicines, but add fuel to the flame that already threatens to consume the system. The Golden Medical Discovery fulfills these conditions, and has been pronounced the best remedy yet discovered to allay and arrest consumption.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. Most of the more prominent cures of Coughs Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill, indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL, has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of insecurity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Except by its use for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or silky hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin, weak, and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, and all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or elegant.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human race, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cures-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experience by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIR—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Cazed Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and crippled horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmayl

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior article supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's 8 analrd Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (once doubtful members) would be glad if they could embalmzen a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The usual passages become complete dry closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "articles," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh remedy, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, only shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.

Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula, or Kings Evil; Tumors, Ulcers or Old Sores; Boils; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or when there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have a sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, but taste in the mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humers in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Erysipsas and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leuchorrhea arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of 70 to 100 ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the points of suffocation, would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head hadde irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I witnessed a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that advice, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by me a chronic rheumatism, I was induced to try an injury and strain, and for which I used many prescription and remedies, but as the so-called rheumatism cures, without the least benefit. Your friends recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Yielding Relief, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

C. E. MYERS & CO.,

No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

The Heinousness of Pecuniary Crime.

The murderer must have a cause for murdering, the brute must have a victim near, the ravisher needs opportunity, but the forger or the swindler or the cheat is always provoked and always ready. There is always property to be obtained, and he is always wanting it.

This reason is unanswerable, and is always quoted by statesmen as sufficient answer to any plea for reducing the penalties on pecuniary crime, but it is not, as some writers of recent letters seem to fancy, the only justification for the laws. They forget, or have never thought, what a scoundrel an educated thief, whatever branch of thieving he pursues, must necessarily be. He, almost alone among criminals, must perform his crimes in cold blood. He must, whether he is forger, embezzler, or only cheat, plan his crime down to its smallest details, coolly, soberly, with deliberation, and with all his faculties at their utmost stretch.

A man cannot forge in a passion, or under terror, or when nearly blind with drink. He must carefully foresee the consequences of his act, must be careful to avoid all haste or passion, and must be utterly indifferent to any suffering he may inflict, however disproportionate the gain to himself. The larger his operations, the greater intellect they require, the more cool and composed must be his judgment, and the greater the amount of torment the innocent will suffer. The defaulting banker, the lawyer who bolts with his clients' money, the forger who ruins a firm, the embezzler who destroys a family, constantly inflicts as much suffering as the most violent of the brutes whom the magistrates, moved by some reasoning we have never been able to follow, so frequently let off with inadequate sentences.

We abhor the brute who half murders his wife, but he is scarcely more cruel than the defaulter who deliberately does acts which send whole families previously decent and respectable to the workhouse or the asylum. We detest the brutal rough, but is he more brutal than the agent who quietly swindles an aged clergyman out of his all, and sends him to die and his children to live as paupers upon public charity? We are all agreed to hang the murderer, but is he so much worse than the man—we have known the case—who for years deliberately eats up old servants' savings and leaves them, in dozens at a time, to suicide, starvation, or the union?

There is not a criminal lawyer in the country who does not know of cases where swindlers have destroyed whole families, have wrecked the happiness of dozens of persons, and have inflicted sufferings which in their long duration are as much worse than physical pain as misgovernment is worse than war, merely that they themselves might lead lives a little easier than they otherwise would have done. A fraudulent banker, a swindling attorney, a successful forger, scatters misery broadcast, misery as acute as any ever inflicted by the rough who kicks his wife half dead, or beats a casual passer-by into a long and dangerous illness.—London Spectator.

State Dinners.

At state dinners and other ceremonious occasions at the White House there is the strictest observance of the rules of official etiquette, as regards the order of precedence. The Secretary of State and his wife rank next the President and his wife, when the Vice President is unmarried. As Vice President Wheeler is a widower, the two ladies of highest rank among the guests at the dinner table on the 29th were the wife of the Secretary of State and the wife of the senior Justice of the United States Supreme Court; so these two ladies sat on either side of the President, the most honorable positions at table for ladies.

The two gentlemen of highest rank were the Vice President and Secretary Evarts, so the former sat on Mrs. Hayes' right and the latter on her left. She went to the table with the former. To avoid confusion, a small envelope is handed every gentleman when he enters the cloakroom before dinner on these occasions. In these are two cards. One has a diagram of the table, with his own name and that of the lady he will escort to dinner, written opposite the numbers at the seats they are to occupy. On the other card is the name of the lady he is to escort.

There is always a little excitement about opening these envelopes, of the same description as the tremor of expectation which seizes one on opening a prize package. And well there may be, for three hours is the usual duration of a White House state dinner, and to be bored for three hours is no joke, and the little envelope contains the solution of the problem each man has anxiously asked himself on the way to the scene of the feast, "Am I to have an agreeable partner, or not?"

Daily Chronicle

MONDAY, MARCH 18, 1878.

How they lost a Vote.

The Worcester (Mass.) Gazette of March 15th tells the following:

Among the prisoners transferred from the station-house to the House of Correction, yesterday, was a man who hailed from Westfield, Mass., who was unable to pay the fine of $3 and costs imposed by the court for drunkenness, and was committed to serve thirty days for non-payment. When searched by the keeper a letter was found addressed to him from Franklin, N. H., and signed by the chairman of the State Democratic Committee, with which had been enclosed a pass over the various roads to go and return, and a $5 bill. The letter desired him to come to Franklin and cast a democratic vote and use the $5 to pay expenses with, but also said if he could not go, to return the money at once to the headquarters. The man evidently started with good intentions, but when he arrived in Worcester, he got drunk on the money and when arrested was 'broke.' By his arrest and detention the democracy of New Hampshire lost one vote, but as the republican majority was about 1200 his vote will not be missed."

A Very Common Affair.

Captain Thomas Peabody, of Bath, Maine, has been arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Hallett, at Boston, charged with causing the death of James H. Elwood, one of the mates of the barque C. O. Whitmore, on the voyage from Cardiff to Hong Kong in the fall of 1876. Elwood was literally tortured to death because, being less brutal than Peabody, he refused to abuse the men so much as Peabody desired. When the C. O. Whitmore arrived in Hong Kong the British and American residents caused the captain's arrest for the murder, but it was just then that the muddle over the extradition treaty occurred and he escaped for the time being, though the U. S. S. Kearsarge laid off the port of Hong Kong and searched the barque for Peabody as soon as she got to sea. The story of Elwood's murder, as told by the entire ship's company, is horrible; but it is nothing more than is daily occurring on board of scores of American ships. The titles of "blood boats" and "floating hells," almost universally applied to American ships in foreign ports, have been well earned.

News and Notes.

The Secretary of State has addressed a letter to our Ministers abroad, instructing them to invite other Governments to join the United States in a conference to adopt a common ratio between gold and silver, for the purpose of establishing internationally the use of bi-metallic money and securing a fixity of relative value between those metals.

The first of a series of three games was played between "Yank" Adams, the finger billiardist, and William Sexton, champion billiardist of the world, at Gilmore's Garden in New York, Friday night. The conditions were that Adams was to make 2000 points with his fingers while Sexton made 1000 with a cue. The match was won by Adams in the thirty-first inning, leaving Sexton with 834 points. Adams' largest run was 1119, and Sexton's 147.

An interesting piece of statistical information places the value of the egg crop last year at $180,000,000, to say nothing of those that are bought for special purposes where bouquets will not serve. In view of this fact the Washington Post suggests that it would be better to stamp our coin with the effigy of the wealth-producing hen than with that of the piratical eagle. As the intent of those who were instrumental in making the silver dollar legal tender was to rob every holder of a nominal dollar of eight cents, perhaps the design of the new coin is the most appropriately typified by the thieving eagle.—Boston Post.

A despatch received at Washington, Friday, from the United States Consul-General at Havana, announced that Hon. John Edward Leonard, Representative from Louisiana, died on the morning of that day of yellow fever. Mr. Leonard had engaged passage to return to New York on the 9th instant, but was taken ill the same day of yellow fever, which terminated fatally. Mr. Leonard, it will be remembered, was recently sent to Cuba by President Hayes to investigate the alleged kidnapping of colored men from Florida and their sale into Cuban slavery.

The house of Henry Grazer, four miles west of Fort Madison, Iowa, was burned Thursday night, and next morning the bodies of Grazer and his wife were found in the ruins. There is little doubt that they were murdered, and the building robbed and set on fire.

Mrs. Cynthia George, a stitcher in a shoe shop in North Adams, Mass., died on Wednesday from poison, contracted from the fancy colored leather on which she worked, and which a chemical analysis showed contained considerable arsenic. The first indication was a slight eruption about the face, which in a few days was terribly swollen, and grew worse rapidly, until, at the time of her death, her features were scarcely recognizable.

William E. Hyde, a divinity student at Lawrence, Mass., has been held for trial for indecent exposure.

There were runs on all the Boston savings banks on Friday, and the Franklin took advantage of the sixty days rule.

The steam yacht Estelle, at Bristol, R. I., seized several months ago on behalf of the Spanish Minister to Washington, on affidavits that he believed she was destined to Cuba as a filibuster, will soon be released, the Spanish Government having proclaimed that peace reigns in Cuba.

First Lieut. Russell Glover of the Revenue Service has been detached from the Dallas at Portland and ordered to command the W. H. Crawford at Key West. Lieut. Thos. S. Smyth has been ordered to the Dallas.

Naval Affairs.

Capt. Homer C. Blake is ordered to the command of the Hartford on the South Atlantic station.

Assistant Paymaster John W. Jordan has been commissioned a Passed Assistant Paymaster from Sept. 27th, 1877.

Comdr. E. O. Matthews is ordered to duty as Inspector of Ordnance at the New York navy yard.

The Marion arrived at Piræus, Greece, Feb. 1st.

The Tallapoosa arrived at Norfolk on Friday, to tow the Constellation to New York, where she is to load goods for the Paris Exposition, going as near Paris as her draft of water will permit.

U. S. S. Omaha is to proceed, on her arrival at Fortress Monroe, to New York, to take a portion of the goods intended to be shipped by the Constellation, which is unable to convey all that was projected. It was seem from the number of vessels required to freight the American goods to the exposition, that Uncle Sam will make a respectable showing after all.

The sloop-of-war Constellation, which was recently designated by the Secretary of the Navy as the third ship for the service of taking to the French Exposition the works of American exhibitors, is one of the fine old-time sailing-vessels, and it is expected she will be able to make the voyage, discharging either at Havre or Romen, and be back again at Annapolis in season to make the "Practice-Cruise" June 25th.

The Hawaiian Gazette, of Jan. 23d, says: "A splendid entertainment was given on board the U. S. S. Pensacola, flagship of Rear Admiral Murray, now lying in the harbor, on last evening. The invitations were sent round on Monday morning, which gave ample time for invited guests to make full preparation for the event. The entertainment was gotten up in the best style, with everything in abundance that could be desired, to produce comfort, ease and delight. Indeed there was not anything lacking, that could in any manner contribute to the comfort of the guests. The exercises included dancing, which was indulged in by the young folks to their utmost bent. Rear Admiral Murray is entitled to the gratitude of our citizens for this delightful treat. We understand it is the intention of Rear Admiral Murray to give two entertainments each month on board the flagship during his stay in this port. The ship is a model of neatness, the admiral and his excellent lady the soul of jollity and mirth, and the officers the most genial set of men that can be scared up anywhere. The men are happy and well cared for, and all goes 'merry as a marriage bell' on board the Pensacola. While we looked on the scene of mirth and good cheer that pervaded the assemblage on board the flagship last night, and noted the delight depicted in every eye, from the jolly rear admiral down to the humblest man on board, we could not help saying, who would not wish to be identified with such a ship and crew, under the care and command of such a man as Admiral Murray?"

New Hampshire Items.

Hon. Daniel H. Buffum, of Somersworth, is prominently mentioned as the coming President of the Senate. He is admirably qualified for the position.

George H. Sanborn, of Rochester, a student in the law office of his father, C. K. Sanborn, Esq., is a candidate for Assistant Clerk of the House of Representatives, and is a young man of promise, and what is sometimes rare in an assistant clerk, is said to be a good reader.

The town of Kensington in 1877 paid bounties on seven foxes and twenty-four hawks, amounting to $8.50. The superintending school committee of Kensington does not seem to have a very exalted opinion of some of the scholars and parents, for in his official report he says: "If matters go on from bad to worse, in the way we have seen of late, about the only qualification the teacher will need, will be to know how to use a shotgun to good effect on both scholars and parents."

Political.

The papers of mild republicanism outside of New Hampshire are still referring to the republican victory in this State as "a rebuke to Bill Chandler," an "endorsement of the Administration," etc. It was neither a rebuke to nor an endorsement of Chandler or Hayes, nor a rebuke to anybody or anything else except modern democracy. Mr. Chandler contributed liberally to aid the good cause, and worked with interest and effect to secure a victory for the republican party—and that is just what was secured.

The House committee on civil service reform has voted, seven to three, to abolish the office of doorkeeper of the House, and place all subordinate officers under control of the sergeant-at-arms. It was shown before the committee that many of the extra (and illegal) appointments were made on the importunity of democratic members of the House, who promised appropriations of money to cover all deficiencies occurring from such appointments. What a glorious "reform" institution is this "democratic House!" And what a glorious prospect there is of "reform" in national affairs coming through a national triumph of a party that cannot find a man in its ranks to honorably fill the office of doorkeeper of the House, and therefore has to abolish the office!

The Dean-Field case was called up in the House on Friday, but postponed on account of the announcement of the death of Congressman Leonard of Louisiana. This case is attracting more than usual interest in consequence of the division of parties and the uncertainty of the issue. Both the principles and their friends are sanguine of success.

THE CITY.

An Ex-Senator of this State received a severe passing shot from one of our city pulpits on Sunday.

There will be Bible Reading this (Monday) evening, in the chapel at Faith Home, at half-past seven o'clock; subject, "Rest."

We learn by a despatch that the ship Coldstream, commanded by Capt. Harry Salter of this city, arrived in New York yesterday afternoon from Shanghai.

Jeff. C. Rowe, the hero of Revere, is to start a coupe as soon as the travelling settles. It is hinted that the rates of fare are to be lower than the prices charged by hackmen.

The adjourned law term of the Supreme Court will be held at Concord on Tuesday. The United States District Court and the Probate Court will be in session in this city on that day.

The new barque Harvard, built at Atkinson & Fillmore's yard in Newburyport for Capt. John S. Pray and others, and to be commanded by Capt. Samuel Pray of this city, will be launched on Tuesday.

The old National House, or what is left of it, was sold on Saturday by Auctioneer J. P. Morse for $69, to Mr. B. F. Webster, the building to be removed prior to the 1st of May. There was an unusually large attendance at the sale, probably four hundred persons being present.

The examination of the Woodbury School under Thomas K. Shannon, was held on Friday afternoon, Messrs. Wendell and Hackett of the Committee on Suburban Schools, with many of the parents and friends of the scholars being present. The result of the examination shows that the school has maintained its standard of excellence acquired under its present efficient instructor.

Harper's Magazine for April contains twelve illustrated articles and over one hundred illustrations—poems, sketches, historical and industrial articles, stories, and the special departments (including the ever-popular Editor's Drawer) of literary and scientific information, etc. It is equal in point of merit to its predecessors. Ready for delivery at Moses Brothers' and W. G. Myers' bookstores.

A large number of persons assembled in the vicinity of the north millbridge at noon on Sunday to witness the baptism into the Advent church of six persons, viz.: Nellie Winchester, Alice Cate, Carrie E. Kiernan, John H. Carlton, Wm. G. Wetherell and Frederick Holmes, by Elder Jere. Hill of Goodwin's Mills, York, Me. There was also an impromptu immersion of two men and four boys, occasioned by the breaking of a rotton wharf timber on which they were standing, which called fourth the unseemly mirth of the unregenerate who witnessed it.

The very agreeable course of entertainments afforded by the ladies of the Temperance League will terminate this (Monday) evening with a lecture by Miss Garrie E. Randall, entitled "Gleanings from the Field of Thought." This is the only lecture that has been offered in the course, and from the talent and education of the lady we are sure to have a rich literary treat. We hope that a full house will testify the appreciation the public feel for the efforts of this lady in behalf of popular entertainment and instruction. Miss Randall has been the leading spirit in getting up the lyceum course which closes with this lecture. Tickets 20 cts.

THE TEMPLARS' VISIT.

The visit of the Knights Templar of De Witt Clinton Commandry of this city to Manchester on Friday evening last, by invitation of Trinity Commandry of the latter place, was one of much pleasure and interest. The reception was hearty, hospitable and decidedly complimentary. Horse cars were in waiting at the depot on the arrival of the visiting Sir Knights to convey them to Masonic Hall on Spruce street, where were some two hundred or more of the Manchester brethren in Commandry regalia, ready to welcome their guests. The Grand Commander of this State and other officers from the Grand Commandry, were present, together with Grand Commander Dean of the Grand Jurisdiction of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, and a number of Eminent Commanders from several bodies of Knights Templar in New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

The work of conferring the degree of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross was performed in a highly creditable manner, the several officers of Trintiy Commandry evincing a knowledge and intelligence in the performance of their respective parts that was very gratifying to the lookers-on, and enjoyable as an entertainment. After the completion of the work, the whole company ascended to the large banquet hall above, where a sumptuous repast had been prepared by one of the most celebrated caterers of Boston, and for whose culinary art and judgment both hosts and guests seemed to exhibit the highest appreciation. The bill of fare was printed in an elaborate and skil'ful manner by Livingstone, (one of the best printers in Manchester, and whose imprint is found on nine-tenths of the good specimens of book and pamphlet work from that city,) having the red cross on a gold ground printed in the middle of the first page, or cover, giving it an illuminated appearance beautiful in effect and design. "Banquet complimentary to De Witt Clinton Commandry by Trinity Commandry, Friday evening, March 15th, 1878," was tastefully printed around this cross, the whole forming a rarely beautiful title page. The tables were loaded with everything the season affords in the shape of food, and delicious teas and coffees for drink; but not a drop of wine or liquors of any kind disgraced the feast, and altogether it was the most creditable affair of the kind that we ever attended.

Of course, speeches followed the supper. The good natured, whole-souled and popular Bunton, the Eminent Commander of Trinity Commandry, set the ball in motion by making one of the best impromptu speeches of welcome that we ever listened to, introducing at the close, his Prelate, Patterson, as Master of Ceremonies. Then one after another was summoned forth until some twenty or more had contributed to this part of the entertainment, but whose remarks, as we took no notes at the time must be forever consigned to the buried past for all that we can do to restore them, even had we time to do so, or space to record them. It must be said, however, that, as a whole, the literary part of the banquet was very enjoyable, and drew forth an amount of talent that the order of Templar Knighthood need not be ashamed of. The meeting broke up about one o'clock on Saturday morning, and after pleasant interchange of personal courtesies the visitors bade adieu to their hosts and sought their quarters at the Haseltine House, from which they took the early train home in the morning.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE.

As the train from Concord for this city approached Epping, Friday evening, when about a mile from the station and running at twenty miles an hour, the engineer, Mr. Wm. E. Littlefield, to his horror saw a little girl about five years of age between the rails and but a few rods ahead of the engine. Of course it was impossible to even partially check the speed of the train in so short a distance, and the child was struck by the cow-catcher and thrown some twenty feet into a ditch beside the track. The train was stopped as quick as possible and Mr. Littlefield hastened back to pick up the lifeless body of the little girl, but before he reached her he was equally astonished and rejoiced to see her pick herself out of the ditch; and wonderful indeed to relate, she was found to be almost entirely unhurt. The child is a daughter of Mr. Hunt, formerly station agent at Epping; and when Mr. Littlefield stopped his train, when bound up Saturday morning, to enquire for her welfare, he found her as lively as a cricket, and apparently none the worse for her terrible adventure. There are few people living who have had a collision with a locomotive and escaped without injury.

THE VICINITY.

S. Gilman Folsom, Esq., postmaster at Greenland Depot, had a paralytic shock on Thursday, and is in a critical condition.

Mr. Charles D. Weeks, of Spruce Creek, Kittery, while chopping wood recently cut his foot with an axe, severing cords, etc. The injury is said to be severe.

United States Marshal Marble was in Biddeford on Friday, looking up parties who sell liquors without license. Margaret Norton only was secured, and taken to Portland for examination.

A French boy, fourteen years old, named Philip Jacque, was killed in Biddeford on Saturday afternoon, by falling down an elevator well in one of the mills, a distance of four stories to the floor.

During the storm on Wednesday, the 13th inst., a man passed through Salisbury with a wheelbarrow, on which were seated two children, and by his side walked his wife leading a child. They represented that their house was burned in Seabrook on the previous Saturday, and they were en route for Newburyport. They were properly cared for. It was a sad case of poverty and destitution.

The Congregational Society at Hampton gave their annual levee on Wednesday evening in the town hall, and realized about $80, which sum is to be used towards purchasing an organ for the Sunday School.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, March 14th.

At the adjourned town meeting, held Wednesday afternoon, it was voted to raise five thousand dollars by taxation, and of this amount twelve hundred dollars (including the Literary Fund, about one hundred dollars) was appropriated for schools. Fifteen hundred dollars was voted to be raised for highway tax, the same to be a "labor tax" and to be worked out before the 1st of November.

The collecting of taxes was set up at auction, and was bid off at thirty-five dollars; and then a collector was voted for, which resulted in the choice of John O. Foss by almost an unanimous vote, the bidder who bid the sum named not getting a single vote. Then Mr. Foss declined taking the position at that price, but claims that as he was voted in he is entitled to collect the taxes at his own bid, which was fifty-eight dollars. The moderator ruled that he must collect it for thirty-five dollars; and so, there being no one who could solve the problem, it was voted to leave it with the selectmen.

It was voted not to accept the act relating to exempting money let to the town by townspeople at five per cent., from taxation.

It was voted to indefinitely postpone the article in relation to building a new road from Charles Garland's to the south school house.

The tariff for the Town Hall was fixed at two dollars per night for townspeople, and five dollars for outsiders. A. H. Hodgdon was re-elected janitor.

Charles Greene, Joseph Philbrick, Capt. Daniel Lord, and John Foye, the oldest men in town, were out on Tuesday, and voted.

After the crushing rebuke administered to the Weekly agitators on Tuesday, it seems cruel to take any further notice of them; but there is a communication in the Weekly to-day from "Edd," written before town meeting, in which he says that the agitators will show themselves at that time, and be "backed by a large part of the voters of Rye." Let us see: The petition for the enforcement of the liquor and cider laws had on it the names of about ninety voters out of the whole number, 325. When it came to a vote only sixty-six voted "yes." Does "Edd" call that being backed by a large part of the voters of Rye? Even one-third of those who signed the petition, failed when the time came, to back him. Now the writer of this is neither getting ashamed of what he has written or done about this matter, nor are the correspondents of the Weekly "getting too hot for him;" and he does not ask or require any sympathy. His only purpose is to defend his town, his friends and neighbors, from the libels that have been circulated by these so-called reformers; and that his course is approved by a large portion of the inhabitants of the town was proved by the vote taken on Tuesday, which was by no means a vote for "free rum," but a vote to rebuke those "agitators" and so-called reformers for their base and uncalled for libels on the town. —Every dove has a cote, and every dog pants.

—What is that from which if you take the whole some will remain? Wholesome.

—A Springfield young man, recently married, who has been an enthusiastic collector of coins, found the other day that his new wife, with the charming freshness characteristic with brides, had been drawing on his cabinet for change, and among other things had passed out an old penny, for which he paid $8.50, for a cent's worth of yeast. He coined some new words for the occasion.

—A gentleman, whose proboscis had suffered amputation, was invited out to tea. "My dear," said the good woman of the house to her little daughter, "I want you to be very particular and to make no remark about Mr. Jenkins' nose." Gathered about the table, everything was going well; child peeped about, looked rather puzzled, and at last startled the table: "Ma, why did you tell me to say nothing about Mr. Jenkins' nose? He hasn't got any!"

HALL'S Air Draught Carpet Sweeper.

Your attention is respectfully solicited to a NEW and RADICALLY IMPROVED CARPET SWEEPER, which from its PECULIAR SCIENTIFIC CONSTRUCTION, is a SIMPLE and EFFICIENT action and FREED ?M from all objections of either BROOM or BRUSH renders it FAR SUPERIOR to any known device for removing the DUST or DIRT from the SURFACE of the CARPET.

Among the MANY advantages it possesses are the following:

It contains neither BRUSH or COG-WHEEL.
It removes the dust FROM the CARPET instead of INTO it.
It does NOT make any DUST in the room.
It will remove the DUST from the CORNERS and sides of the ROOM.
It will NOT wear the carpet.
It is almost NOISELESS.
It is NOT liable to get out of order.

A rotating CURRENT of AIR is passed over the Carpet, taking with it any Dust, Dirt, Papers, Feathers, Canary Seeds, Crumbs, Pins, Thread or Lint with which it may come in contact, and depositing them in a receptacle from which they can be removed at pleasure.

The NOISELESS with which this little Machine does its work, and the ease with which it is operated, will be appreciated by every housekeeper who examines it. dieb28mch2-5-16

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and render of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the fading of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; the hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hair resumes their natural color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all dandruff, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing it has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Ez. J. Spurlin, while for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, writes of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniments. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outstripped all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKFORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 22 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became comple.ely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, voice shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way it can reach with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who so substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leuchorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S

VEGETABLE SICILIAN

HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so efficacious, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purpose."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, the buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated nostils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep my throat free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my nostrils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consuming disease. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose opened the tubes as my head as I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my sense of smelling and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that case, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, caused by my physical calling, I was induced to try a Voltaic Plaster and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and remedies, as well as the so-called miraculous cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able so to tend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1875.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a slight Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

A Family of Physicians.

From an unpublished genealogy I have selected the following statistics of physicians in the Dearborn family. Many of the persons here named have been quite eminent in the profession, others of a respectable and fair standing, and still others have their reputation yet to establish. This list may not be complete, as some branches of the family are but imperfectly known to the writer. As the list stands, thirteen of the thirty-three are deceased, and the remaining twenty are supposed to be living and practicing, or perhaps in a few cases, partially retired from practice. In these sketches the names are not arranged according to any system of dates, but by their respective places in the genealogy:

1. Benjamin Dearborn, born Dec. 15, 1725, in the part of Hampton which in 1745 was incorporated as North Hampton. He settled in practice at Portsmouth, and died there April 9, 1755.

2. Levi Dearborn, a brother of the preceding, born at Hampton, March 7, 1730, settled in practice in his native town, where he died March 28, 1792. His professional reputation was of a high order, excelled, probably, by no physician of his time in New Hampshire.

3. Henry Dearborn, born at North Hampton, Feb. 23, 1751. In 1772 he settled in practice at Nottingham Square. In 1775, on the breaking out of the Revolution, he quit his profession; and his subsequent reputation as an officer of the Revolution, Secretary of War, Major General in the War of 1812, and as Minister to Portugal, belongs to the history of the country. He died at Roxbury, Mass., June 6, 1829.

4. Edward Dearborn, born at Chester, July 16, 1776, and settled at Seabrook, where he held a high rank in his profession for fifty years. He died March 6, 1851.

5. Cyrus Dearborn, brother of the preceding, born at Chester, Aug. 27, 1785, and settled at Salisbury, Mass. He was at sometime an army surgeon in the War of 1812, and was a practitioner of good standing during his long life. He died Aug. 3, 1872.

6. Ebenezer Dearborn, brother to the two preceding. He was born at Chester, July 30, 1793, and setted at Nashua. He has been a leading member of the New Hampshire Medical Society, and is still living.

7. Jonathan Dearborn, born at Northfield, July 15, 1802, resided first at New Lebanon, and subsequently at Mt. Sterling, Ill., where he died, March 15, 1875.

8. John Dearborn, a Botanic Physician, lived at Chester, and died there, June 24, 1875.

9. Henry Sewall Dearborn, born at Wakefield, March 10, 1813. He settled in practice at Amesbury, Mass., where he now resides.

10. Asahel Dearborn, born at Effingham, May 6, 1 98, practiced extensively in his native town, and vicinity, and died Oct. 14, 1848.

11. Jonathan Dearborn, nephew of Edward, No. 4, above, born Sept. 22, 1804. His father Richard removed from Chester to Hill, where Jonathan was born. He succeeded his uncle Edward in practice at Seabrook, where he died, Dec. 12, 1877,—"fell dead," while waiting for a train at the depot of the Eastern R. R. at Seabrook.

12. Josiah Dearborn, born Feb. 4, 1805, in New Hampshire, but in what town the writer is not informed. He belonged to the Chester branch, settled at Clinton, Mich., and died there Jan. 22, 1860.

13. Ebenezer B. Dearborn, born at Corinth, Vt., Dec. 7, 1820, and died in Cole Co., Missouri, July 8, 1851.

14. Samuel G. Dearborn, born at Northfield, Aug. 10, 1827, and is in practice at Nashua. He was an army surgeon during a part of the civil war.

15. Henry G. Dearborn, born at Northfield, Sept. 18, 1835; is a brother of Samuel G., preceding; has been in practice at Milford, and is now at Nashua.

16. Thomas B. Dearborn, born at Northfield, Sept. 25, 1838, and is settled in practice at Milford. He is brother to Nos. 14 and 15, preceding.

17. Jonathan Dearborn, born probably at New Lebanon, Sept. 29, 1825. He is son of Jonathan, here numbered seven, and is in practice at Mt. Sterling, Ill. He is cousin to the brothers Nos. 14, 15 and 16; and his wife is their sister.

18. Abraham D. Dearborn; he was born at Hampton, Sept. 15, 1802; was a member of the Massachusetts Medical Society, and died at Malden, Mass, Dec. 2. 1871.

19. Geo. L. Dearborn, born Sept. 1, 1824. He had a diploma as a physician, but adopted the business of apothecary, and is settled in that business at Newmarket.

20. Geo. Sumner Dearborn, born July 2, 1834, at St. Albans, Me., and is in practice at Oxford, Warren county, N. J.,

21. John Geo. Dearborn, born at Meredith, May 27, 1835, was two years assistant surgeon in the U. S. Navy during the Civil War, and is now in practice at Charlestown, Mass.

22. Alvah Burton Dearborn, born at Topsham, Me., Aug. 3, 1842; practiced first at Salisbury, Mass., after the death of Dr. Cyrus Dearborn, No. 5, and is now in practice at Newburyport, Mass.

23. Jesse Dearborn, born at North Hampton, Feb. 12; 1807; settled in practice at Palmyra, Mich., and died there, June 10, 1848.

24. Nathan L. Dearborn, born at Wakefield, May 22d, 1849, and is in practice at Dover.

25. Alfred R. Dearborn, born at Pembroke, Oct. 10th, 1843, and is in practice at East Weare.

26. Henry M. Dearborn, born at Pembroke, Nov. 19th, 1846, is brother to No. 25, and is in practice at South Boston, Mass.

27. Reuben F. Dearborn, born at Salem, N. H., May 13th, 1850, and is, or has been, in practice at Lynn, Mass.

28. Darius S. Dearborn, born at Northfield, Jan. 4th, 1834, and is in practice at Brookline, N. H.

29. David P. Dearborn, born at New Hampton, N. H., Oct. 21st, 1836. His practice is at Brattleboro', Vt.

30. Frederic M. Dearborn, born Feb. 28th, 1842, and is son of Dr. A. D. Dearborn, here numbered eighteen. Since 1875 he has been a surgeon in the U. S. Navy, having previously passed through the subordinate grades. His shore residence is Malden, Mass.

31. Jeremiah W. Dearborn, born at Parsons field, Me, May 24, 1832, practiced at Effingham, N. H., and has since returned to Parsonsfield.

32. Brainard Dearborn, born at North Hampton, March 31, 1842. Residence and practice at Portsmouth.

33. John J. Dearborn, born Dec. 19th, 1850, and is in practice at Hopkinton. —E. B. DEARBORN, in Boston Traveller.

Our New York Fashion Letter.

SPRING MILLINERY.

New flowers in millinery are the oldest looking things imaginable. Go in your garden on some October or November day, and look at the sad colored roses, wistfully hanging pale heads; perhaps half despoiled remnants of departed flowers, or "gone to seed" pods and berries of all kinds, rattling dolorously, and you have an idea of what we think exceedingly lovely in millinery, just now. They are lovely because they are fashionable, and because they have a new name. These uncertain, washed out colors are Havane shades, "cigar" colors, in other words,—brownish gray, grayish brown, and the like. Nature is in no wise consulted, and we have brown and gray daisies, buttercups and hyacinths, besides roses and a long list of other flowers. Mixed in with such "waste of dullness" however, we find the gayest of poppies, the freshest of blossoms, the greenest of leaves; so after all, there is room for choice.

Shapes are modest, the three most prominent being the Marie Stuart, the Normandy, fitting like a child's cap, and a shape with falling coronet brim in front. But trimmings are bold, and bonnets are made conspicuous by flaring rosettes, enormous Alsatian bows, and ornamentations massed. Satin is in high favor, but the newest thing is watered ribbon. Rough and ready straws will be popular for general wear, while for dress, we have chips, either black or white, and Tuscan and Leghorn braids.

MATERIALS. COSTUMES.

It is bourette here, there, and everywhere, and tuftings and knottings swarm not only on semi-transparent goods, but on grenadines and gauzes. Even the new percales are stamped in imitation, but the surfaces of course are smooth. For general wear, we find serges and debeiges in soft shades of gray or brown, but in black, the Grand Opera cashmeres and alpacas, beaver mohairs, and Turkish brilliantines are both durable and handsome.

Costumes are devised on the principle of "letting well alone." There are no special changes, nor should there be, when the princess with its graceful sweep, is all that can be desired. Then for out-door wear, we have the short walking skirt, and cut away jacket. Mark the phrase, it is a masculine one, but it is both appropriate and expressive. For these little jackets are really jackets, and furthermore, have vests to match. Then in finish, comes the turned up collar and tie,—both just as mannish as can be.

In writing that there are no special changes in costumes I have written truly, but nevertheless, we have stylish modifications adapted to the spring, of which mention may be made. The Sylphine polonaise is very becoming to slender figures, and with a blouse waist, is made tight fitting by a belt. The Felisa and Seraphine are also distinguished polonaises, while in the way of a walking skirt, we have the Adriana, with Cameron blouse, and Antoinine cut away jacket.

TRIMMINGS, GLOVES, PARASOLS.

Bands and fringes lead, and so we have them in all degrees, both high and low. Then again, you may trim with the material, and here we still see knife plaitings, or shirrings, but the latter are made like gathered tucks. Buttons are used in profusion, and the drapery is also sometimes also caught by buckles.

"Bouquet embroidered" gloves are extremely pretty, showing a bouquet on the back of the hand, finely wrought in silk. Soft shades of gray or brown are worked in two tones of the same colors, or black gloves are charmingly relieved by bright embroidery. But the self-stitched gloves are also fashionable, and here the Harris seamless is most elegant in fit, and also durable. The Victoria, costing somewhat less, is an excellent glove, and the Donna Maria may likewise be recommended. For evening, and full dress, the Harris Prevost side cut glove is preferred, and comes in white and all pale shades.

In parasols the "canopy" is succeeded by the "bell" top, and we find black silk, and Levantine brought forward to an unusual extent. The edges are finished by bound scallops alternating with ribbon loops, and effects at once tasteful and rich are produced by harmonizing and contrasting colors. A long ribbon loop and ends to match those on the edges, is pendant at the top. Handsome fringes are also employed in ornamentation. Other stylish parasols are of pongee in the new Havane shades trimmed with fringe, or with bound scallops, and loops of ribbon. New handles are of ebony, mounted with numerous rings of ivory, or are wrought in Japanese designs. Sizes are eighteen inches. Children's parasols are cunning imitations, but oftentimes are of lighter colored silk, and the scallops sometimes alternate with tassels. Dogs heads are carved in bamboo handles of sun umbrellas; glass beads simulate eyes, and a silver collar and bell passes around the make believe neck. LUCY CARTER.

Heavy Robbery.

At a few minutes before two o'clock, Saturday afternoon, a gang of four robbers, three men and a woman, by a stroke of bold management took from the open safe of the Lechmere National Bank of East Cambridge, Mass., in money, bonds and negotiable paper, about fifty thousand dollars, and made a successful escape with their plunder. The business of the bank was over, but the funds had not been put in the safe, when the president, Mr. Hall, who was alone in the bank, was called out by a gentlemanly appearing man, who said a woman in a carriage, wished to do some business with the bank, but was unable to come in on account of rheumatism. Mr. Hall went out, and the woman asked for a check on Providence for $100, and taking out a roll of bills began counting them, hesitating a little as if unaccustomed to handling money. Mr. Hall told her he could not wait while she counted the money, but she could send it into the bank by the gentleman with her. Mr. Hall then returned to the bank, after an absence of less than two minutes, and resumed his writing. At this time he had no suspicion of anything wrong, but, as minute after minute passed, and the man did not come in with the money, he looked out of the window and saw that the man and woman had driven off. This exciting suspicion, he turned to the place where the cash box usually stood and discovered that it had been taken away. Immediately opening the cash drawer, the further discovery was made that the money had been taken from there, and further investigation revealed the fact that while the bank was deserted, confederates of the woman in the carriage had effectually robbed it.

The Eastern War.

The news from Europe is very unfavorable to a peaceful settlement of affairs. Russian troops have occupied important positions near Constantinople, and all the nations are busy with preparations for war. Some of the European newspapers consider the situation as very alarming, and assert that the congress will not be held, and that a peaceful settlement of the differences between England and Russia is very improbable. The main question of war or peace cannot much longer be delayed, and Russia's army movements about the Turkish Capital tend to hasten a solution of the problem in favor of active hostilities.

Naval Affairs.

Commodore John H. Graham, of the Navy, died suddenly of apoplexy at his residence in Newbury, N. Y., on Friday evening, at the age of eighty-five. In the war of 1812 he was a midshipman under Commodore Chauncey, on Lake Ontario. He was a native of Vermont, and had been Commodore for twelve years. He was retired several years since; his last cruise was made in 1816, and his original entry in the service was with Commodore John C. Long, June 18, 1812.

The U. S. ships Portsmouth and Wyming completed the loading of their cargoes of exhibits for the Paris exhibition on Saturday, at New York, each vessel having about five hundred tons on board. They sailed for Havre Saturday evening. The Constellation will sail on Saturday, the 23d, from New York. The New York and Washington offices will be kept open one week after that date, when they will be finally closed and the clerks leave for Paris. After a complete measurement of the produce in bond to be sent to Paris, it was ascertained that the Constellation, which was ordered to take over all left by the other vessels, was unable to perform that duty, and the Omaha was detailed to take over all that was left. This makes six vessels ordered to this duty, viz.: the Supply, Wyoming, Constitution, Portsmouth, Constellation and Omaha.

The Secretary of the Navy thinks that steam launches and cutters furnished to naval vessels hereafter should be principally employed for towing and other ships' purposes and not for the exclusive use of officers, and he has issued an order to that effect.

Assistant naval surgeons hereafter will not be examined for promotion until they have served two years on board a naval vessel of the United States.

New Hampshire Items.

Ladies and gentlemen numbering sixty or more assembled in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Plymouth Saturday afternoon, and tendered a surprise to Rev. James G. Smith and lady, it being the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Rev. J. E. Robins, in behalf of the friends, made a few remarks and presented a purse of money.

The funeral of Lewis Woodman of Claremont, aged eighty years, took place Sunday afternoon at the Universalist church. The deceased was one of the very few at the opening of the Masonic Lodge at Claremont through the trying times of anti-Masonry, from 1833 to 1840. He held many important positions in several organizations of Masonry, and was an honorary member of Sullivan Commandery at the time of his death.

News and Notes.

A young fellow named Charles Bancroft on Sunday night burglarized the house of Dr. James W. Bartlett of Newton, Mass., but all he got was one bullet in his back and another one in his leg, from a revolver, and a subsequent lodgment in jail.

William M. Tweed's daughter sues the Knickerbocker Life Insurance Company on a ten years' endowment policy on his life for $10,000. The company claims that Tweed's flight to Spain forfeited the policy.

The grand jury at Rockland, Me., returned five indictmebts against Nathan F. Hart for the murder of Mrs. Sarah Meservey, at St. George, in December last. Hart is a cousin of the murdered woman, who was found dead in her house, having been strangled for her money.

O'Donovan Rossa has been invited to lecture in Toronto by the Catholics, but the Orangemen and Young Britons threaten to mob him if he comes there. Serious trouble is apprehended if Rossa persists in speaking there, which he says he will do.

Chicago, impecunious and bankrupt, has held a hard-money meeting. Chicago bonds on a soft basis go hard, and the necessity of a change of the "base" is felt at home.

A miser in Cincinnati, worth from two to three millions of dollars, died from sickness, caused by lack of food and neglect, recently. The lawyers of the Queen City of the West are not smart, if they do not set at work upon his estate at once.

Political.

The foreman of the jury which convicted Anderson has addressed a letter to Governor Nicholls, asking him to pardon Anderson. The letter is plentifully sprinkled with Scriptural quotations and pious declarations, and the Governor is besought to grant the pardon, because the late foreman is "strongly impressed with the feeling that our Mighty King above, the Great Ruler of Heaven and earth, willis that this appeal should be granted." The petitioner also informs the Governor that he asks the pardon as an "humble follower of the son of God." All this exuberant piety is sandwiched in with the most reckless charges against Anderson and his associates, and also against President Hayes. The letter is the unmistakable product of a cheap hypocrite, and no man can read it without sympathizing with a prisoner whose fate hung in the hands of a jury presided over by such a fellow.

The "democratic House" of Representatives, having expanded all its contingent fund, has voted $30,000 more, and all of this is already anticipated. Their economy goes only to the extent of crippling the Government.

Gen. Butler, who predicted a democratic victory in New Hampshire, says that the people of his State do not understand the question of finance. It is a mercy to the rest of mankind that their understanding of this difficult—not to say dangerous—problem, is not of the Butler kind.

A New Orleans despatch of the 18th says that in the case of the State vs. Thomas C. Anderson, appeal for a new trial, the Supreme Court has reversed the verdict of the jury and ordered the prisoner to be released. So all the race ly rulings of "$600,000-deficiency Wolttaker" really amount to nothing at the last.

—A course remark—"Who won the race?"

—Apothecaries are laying in a fresh supply of arnica—the baseball season is at hand.

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

Mr. Joseph N. Odion, of this city, is now night clerk of the Colonnade Hotel in New York.

Sunday was Saint Patrick's day, and of course inclined to be stormy, as was also Monday, the day celebrated in honor of Ireland's great missionary teacher.

The lyceum lecture advertised for Monday evening at Franklin hall by Miss Randall, was postponed on account of the storm. It will be given as soon as the weather will permit, probably early in the present week.

"The Lobby," that peculiar and rather unhealthy excrescence on American legislative bodies, is treated vigorously in a paper by Arthur G. Sedgwick in the April Atlantic. This will be good reading for members elect of the Legislature.

The advice of Dr. Peabody, of Harvard College, for the acquisition of literary style, might safely be commended to others than those to whom it was originally addressed. The doctor recommended the students to read the Bible more and slop novels less, if they would have a good English style.

At some time Sunday night some person entered the house on Islington street occupied by the family of Capt. Henry Libby, two large panes of glass in a bay window being broken to effect an entrance. The occupants heard nothing of the noise that must have been made, the storm no doubt drowning it. Nothing of value was taken from the house, though the room into which the rascal got was found in great disorder.

We were recently shown a letter from a gentleman in New York, (who has been an annual summer visitor at Portsmouth,) in which he expresses the opinion that summer visitors will give Portsmouth a wide berth during the present season, as he understands that no means have been taken or are in contemplation to abate the intolerable millpond nuisance with which Portsmouth has been afflicted for the past few years.

From a report of the Secretary of the Treasury we learn that the compensation of collectors at the following-named ports for the last fiscal year were: A. F. Howard, Portsmouth, $948.50; Israel Washburne, Jr., Portland and Falmouth, $4994.50; Lot M. Morrill, Portland and Falmouth, $1005.50; Moses Lowell, Saco, $304.58; J. W. Sargent, Kennebunk, $245.59; E. A. Bragdon, York, $258.43; W. H. Huse, Newburyport, $3117; W. A. Simmons, Boston and Charlestown, $8000.

The schooner Active, lying at Pier wharf, is undergoing thorough repairs under the supervision of Hon. John R. Reding, her principal owner, and with a new coat of paint will look as fresh as when she first plowed the waters. The Active was built at the South end ship yard by Mr. David D. Badger some twelve years ago, and was then considered one of the staunchest built vessels that ever floated on the Piscataqua. She is about two hundred and forty tons register, and has been employed in the coasting trade, mostly as a collier. Having been under good management she has yielded a handsome income to her owners.

On Sunday morning Rev. James W. Hubbell preached a sermon in the North church on the evidence of God's existence, taking as a text the last clause of the 24th verse of the 9th chapter of Job. The following is a brief abstract of the sermon; If God be not God, who is? If not, who and where is he? The burden of proof is thrown upon those who deny His existence. Who made and rules the universe? Intelligent reason answers, the God of the Bible, and not blind chance. The fool alone says there is no God. Job saw, and we see, trouble and disorder in the world; but God is not the author of evil, though He permits it. He rules by general laws, by a great plan, and for the best good of the whole, though some suffer. Death follows disease, and disease infringement of law. The Bible, nature, and cause and effect, all declare a God. Though evil and suffering exist, there are compensations; trials strengthen character; there will be a better outcome for the existence of evil. The mysterious laws of nature prove a God, as the multiplying of the seed into an abundant harvest, no less than the feeding of the multitude with a few loaves and fishes.

[Communicated.]

THE MARGINAL ROAD.

PORTSMOUTH, March 18th.

Mr. Editor: If the advocates of the proposed road around the South Millpond, or the City Councils, had examined the site to-day, they might have been led to doubt the wisdom of building it; to question how long the semi-liquid filth of which it is to be made would remain as a road; and whether the remedy won't prove worse than the disease. Every foot of the road-bed that is to be, or that is staked out, is at this moment (noon) under water, and the water covers all the vacant land inside the stakes. This happens many times each spring and fall, and to build the proposed road is simply to squander money,—will not cure the trouble, and will prove far more costly than buying the privilege and keeping the pond flooded. Even if temporarily successful, the snake will only be scotched; the excavation will only be a hole for stagnant water, holding upon its surface at low tide the most deleterious drainage of the sewers, and form another bank on its borders. The editor of the Weekly offered to build this road for (I think) $5000, claiming that no one could do it so cheaply; what will it cost built by the city? And what is worse, what good will result?

VIGOROUS VOTING.

There was an odd bit of fun in Stratham on election day. After the vote was taken on the State and county tickets, the town business came up; a moderator was first chosen, then a republican selectman, and then a democratic selectman; and then a vote was taken for a third selectman, and the democratic candidate was declared elected. It seems they do not use the checklist in Stratham in voting for town officers; and when the declaration of the last vote was made a republican on the floor called the moderator's attention to the phenomenal feature of it, which was that the total vote as announced exceeded the number of voters in town by eighteen, and that as at least two qualified voters were absent from town meeting, there were twenty more votes cast than there were voters to cast them! By unanimous consent it was agreed "some one had blundered," and another ballot was had; and as the republicans kept a sharp lookout to see that only one vote at a time went into the hat on this occasion, the ballot resulted in the choice of a republican for third selectman. The democratic brethren of Stratham at the last overloaded their Tammany gun, and it killed at the wrong end.

A GOOD LOCAL SECURITY.

The town of Greenland, at the recent annual meeting, took a sensible course in relation to the town debt, which is about sixteen thousand dollars. The town voted to fund the debt, issuing fifteen thousand dollars of town bonds in denominations of one hundred and five hundred dollars. Of the whole indebtedness five hundred becomes payable annually. Interest is to be allowed at the rate of five per cent. per year, to be paid semi-annually. The selectmen have invited proposals for any part of the loan, at bids not less than par. Greenland's debt is for municipal purposes only; it is a wealthy town, and can surely pay its yearly installment of debts as proposed. For persons desiring a safe time investment at the moderate rate of interest which characterizes good security, it would seem that there can be nothing better in these times than the Greenland bonds; and we have no doubt the security will be readily taken by her own residents or by her near neighbors.

KITTERY PUBLIC LIBRARY.

From the report of William H. Hackett, Esq., Secretary of the Free Public Library at Kittery, established by the legacy of Miss Arabella Rice of this city, made to the Board of Trustees at their meeting on Saturday, we are able to furnish this extract. It will be seen that our transPiscataqua neighbors are eminently a reading people and have found out to no inconsiderable extent the benefits of a free public library in the times of leisure while their great source of employment, the Navy Yard, is almost at a stand-still:

"During the past year there have been added to the Library, since the publication of the catalogue, fifty volumes. The number of books taken from the Library during the past year is 44,200.

The newspapers and periodicals reported as taken for the use of the room last year, are continued, with the addition of Lippincott's Magazine, in the place of Scribner's, discontinued, and Harper's Weekly.

During the past year fifty-nine volumes of books have been rebound.

The demand for books seems to be unabated, and the taste for reading shown to be so unflagging by the public in the community where the library is located, leads us to believe that in the future selection of books for the library, works of a more solid and substantial character will be appreciated.

I would suggest that in the selection of books, for which there is now quite a fund available, histories, works upon mechanical subjects and scientific treatises are likely to be appreciated.

It seems fully demonstrated that the people of Kittery have a fondness for books, and they employ much of the leisure time in reading, and many of the works called for show a refined taste on the part of the visitors to the library, which is exceedingly gratifying to observe, and which should be encouraged by a corresponding care in the selection of new books for this class of readers.

The interest in this institution shown by the people of Kittery seem not only to be unabated, but to increase steadily, and with the addition of new books, the purchase of which awaits the direction of the Trustees, we trust that the estimation of this timely bequest of Miss Rice will continue to increase."

THE VICINITY.

City of Dover six per cent bonds, due in 1893, brought 104 1-2 in Boston last week. Great Falls Manufacturing Co. sold at 98 3-4 to 98 7-8, a decline.

The late Congressman Leonard, who died in Cuba last week, received his early education at Phillips academy, at Exeter, afterward attending Harvard college.

At the town election in Eliot, Monday, the democratic candidates for selectmen, Cole, Jenks and Fernald, were elected. The meeting was very thinly attended, and was held in the barn of Mr. Red Oak Hammond, there being no town hall and the church people refusing to allow town meetings to be held in the church.

The students of Exeter academy were visited on Saturday by a Harvard man who went to Exeter to arouse enthusiasm upon the boating question. It is impossible for Harvard college to maintain its repute for proficiency at the oar, unless the coming students now fitting at Exeter and elsewhere are well drilled in boating, and that is what most of the boys go to college for.

A Campaign Slander.

When Dr. R. V. Pierce was a candidate for State Senator, his political opponents published a pretended analysis of his popular medicines hoping thereby to prejudice the people against him. His election by an overwhelming majority severely rebuked his traducers, who sought to impeach his business integrity. No notice would have been taken of these campaign lies were it not that some of his enemies (and every successful business man has his full quota of envious rivals) are republishing these bogus analyses. Numerous and most absurd formulas have been published, purporting to come from high authority; and it is a significant fact that no two have been at all alike—conclusively proving the dishonesty of their authors.

The railroads are now at peace, and the hotels have had their "war." The result of this recent cutting of first-class hotel rates in New York leaves the Grand Central in the lead, with rates one and two dollars per day lower than the rest.

The best men in the country use Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Governors, Bankers, Clergymen, Physicians, Lawyers, Merchants, Mechanics, the high and low, the poor as well as the rich, all testify to its remarkable curative powers in Coughs, Colds and all Lung Diseases. Price 25 cents.

Judicious speculation in stocks is as legitimate a business as any, and affords opportunities for large returns. But speculators need to employ brokers who are experienced and honest. We can unreservedly recommend Alex. Frothingham & Co., 12 Wall st., N. Y. Send for Financial Report, giving information free. 1

Astral Oil!

THE SAFEST AND BEST

ILLUMINATING OIL!

For Safety and for Excellent Burning Qualities, it is without an equal.

CAUTION.

The great popularity of "ASTRAL" OIL has induced some unprincipled persons to sell worthless and dangerous imitations for "ASTRAL," while others palm off inferior oils, representing them as good as "ASTRAL." To prevent this fraud, purchasers should demand "ASTRAL" and take no other.

Literary Theft.

A gentleman and lady go from home. Former acquaintances, having known their moderate circumstances as to property, are surprised at the richness of some of their clothing and ornament. They cannot well help asking where that nice shawl was obtained, also its price. The same of the gold chain, etc. The visitors are at once embarrassed and confused. They hardly know to say. The articles were borrowed. So they prove not enjoyable.

This illustrates another matter, worthy of attention and correction. The productions of some writers, and especially public speakers, are in some cases, and at least to some extent, borrowed. It is a literary theft, called plagiarism. I will not say there is much of it, yet too much to be honorable to those that do it, or beneficial to the public. It should be noticed just now, as in the great temperance movement, young persons write essays for club meetings, and some with small abilities and otherwise poorly qualified, attempt to give addresses. If they know to any considerable degree what they say, or as Cowper says, read what they never wrote as their own, those acquainted with them, or others who have read much, say, it was borrowed, or more properly stolen. A case or two of this kind has lately appeared. The course is to be condemned, as it is an attempt at deception. If not discovered, the public is deceived, and those who do it appear to possess abilities they do not.

Secondly, they appear with sentiments and language that do not fit them. They are like children in the garments of adult persons. They cannot fill them, so they appear awkward. Like young David in Saul's military dress and armor, which some put on him when he was to fight Goliath, he could not go with them as he was unacquainted with them.

Thirdly, the course is against the improvement and growth of their own intellectual powers. They who depend on the labors of others, do not exercise their own powers to growth and development. They will always remain about the same, intellectually weak.

As to the mortification and reproach that comes to them when it is known how and where they have obtained what they have offered as not their own, suffice it, that it is anything but enjoyable or respectable in the view of all right-minded persons.

I will now give a case worthy of being recorded. One who has spoken publicly as a religious teacher is near me as I write. He gives his testimony on this subject. He has spoken publicly for thirty years, and for half of that time, for the sake of health and the support of himself and family, worked hard on a farm. He has perhaps a thousand printed sermons or sketches of sermons in his library. He says, if all who have heard him had them, he would defy them to say that he ever used one of them or any part of them, not even an important idea or sentiment from them without having given credit. He has studied, but it has been amid the beauties and sublimities of nature, the singing of birds, the breezes of the atmosphere, the perfume of flowers, the murmur of waterfalls and the voice of general joy. He has "Found tongues in trees, books in running brooks, Sermons in stones, and good in everything."

H. N.

—The Dutch, if a pauper who is able refuses to work, put him into a deep cistern and let in a sluice of water. It comes in just so fast that by briskly plying a pump with which the cistern is furnished he keeps himself from drowning.

—A woman took her little one in her arms to hear a famous preacher. The loud voice from the platform awoke the child and made it cry, and its mother got up and was leaving the hall when the minister stopped her by saying: "My good woman, don't go away. The baby doesn't disturb me." "It isn't for that, sir, I leave," she replied, with a perfect unconsciousness of sarcasm: "It's you disturb the baby."

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.
Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and disfigure of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the in jury to the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and agreeable; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or hoary locks resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and healthy. Under which conditions diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the advantages of the great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy cross ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up by several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, Mass., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embody a similar cure in the power. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "salve," "inhaling-tube," and "sticks," would do no work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a veritable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydro-pressure, and the result was a complete cure with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over three months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach, and Dr. Pierce's Pellets to regulate my liver and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, such as Scrofula or Kings Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchitis, Throat and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties recommend it as a specific remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally conscious in curing Indigestion, Scrofula or Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, foul taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and you suppose you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the Vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a variety of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who's substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, sinking spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption; My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation, and would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about two months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils to that degree they ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my sense of hearing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I am familiar with the great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatise on Catarrh in a practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

BOSTON, Feb. 23, 1875. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

SUFFOLK, SS. FEB. 23, 1875.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, caused by my duties as a Public Speaker, and by a severe injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and mixtures, and tried the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Very respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Gum and Volatile Plaster with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

BLUE ARMY BLOUSES.

WE have just received a few more of those BLUE ARMY BLOUSES, which have been in such demand for the last twelve months.

C. E. MYERS & CO., No. 5 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

A Shocking Occurrence.

A shocking scene was recently witnessed in a church near Richmond, Ind. A murder had been committed, and the murdered man's body was lying in a church while the funeral services were being conducted. The officers arrested the supposed assassin and took him to look at the corpse. He evinced such agitation that the murdered man's sister screamed in affright. Instantly the crowd in the church made a rush upon the prisoner, whom they tried to force from the officers. Revolvers were drawn, the women screamed, the preacher leaped upon a chair and exhorted the crowd to keep the peace, and only owing to his influence were the officers able to remove the prisoner from the church. Upon the street the mob of several hundred made another rush upon the officers, demanding the prisoner, and crying, "Shoot the murderer," "Hang him," "Stone him to death," and such like expressions. The officers forced their way through the crowd with their revolvers, and took the prisoner to a justice's office, privately secured a hack, drove rapidly from town, and took the prisoner to Rushville, across the country nearly twenty miles.

—A Wyoming man won $10 in a wager by eating twenty pig's feet. This was a pig's feat, indeed.

—The dial of the old town clock in Lexington, Ky., has been used for a target until it is perforated like a sieve with bullet holes.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. (3may)

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1878.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15th.

Many instances of partial intoxication have been noted in both Houses of Congress during the present session. While it is patent that teetotalism is making gradual progress among the permanent residents of Washington and also among many brought here for the Congressional sessions by business or from social and political considerations, it is both humiliating and disheartening to know that the evil of dram-drinking and whisky-guzzling is as certainly on the increase among those entrusted with the enactment of National legislation, and who from their positions will be followed as exemplars, morally and socially as well as politically. The former excesses of members of Congress formed the basis of many of the scandals of Washington life; but up to a recent date there had been a steady amendment, particularly as regards drinking, according to the testimony of the oldest observers. Street and hotel brawls in which they figured as participants, had almost wholly, or entirely, ceased; and the scenes of violence in both Houses had become a thing of the past. Even during the turbulent and demoralizing years of the war such outbursts were rare, and the reputation of members of Congress was not much worse than that of the ordinary visitor to or resident of the Capital. But with the coming of the 44th Congress a reactionary sentiment seemed to assert itself, and it seems to have reached full flood tide since Congress convened in extra session last October. None have forgotten the many wordy personal rencounters of last session, and the present one has had its full share of indulgence in personalities and blackguardism that would have disgraced any groggery under whose roof they were permitted to occur; and it is too apparent to need substantiation that they nearly all were provoked by sneering or insulting insinuations or remarks from men whose passions were inflamed with alcohol. The disgrace is not exclusively chargable to representatives of either of the great parties contending here for national supremacy; but each must suffer in the estimation of an intelligent public just in proportion to the number of this character they have contributed. The inebriated condition of from half to a full score of Senators on the night of the passage of the silver bill has passed into the history of current events. The House on Wednesday added another to the many humiliating scenes enacted in it during the past two years; the offending member disgraced a Virginia constituency and forfeited the respect of every one whose good opinion is worth striving for. His drunken condition was noted by the temporary speaker (Cox, of N. Y.,) and with the best of intentions, no doubt, he refused to recognize him. But he was irrepressible and insisted upon making his condition known to all present. The admonition of the Sergeant-at-arms failed of any good effect, and he was finally hustled into a cloak-room where he was retained under surveillance till able to demean himself as a man.

No explosive hurled among the Burbons of the democratic side of the House this session, has proved one-half as disastrous as the hand-grenade, charged with the most deadly material from the rebel archives, which was shied into their midst recently by Willett. I will except the nitro-glycerine bust-up of poor Polk's department, which was rendered inevitable by the greed of Representative and Senatorial "reformers" who stuffed it so full of their men Fridays that the rotten shell was rent asunder, precipitating the wrangling, wriggling mass of dead-beats, stool-pigeons, utility men, vagrants and tramps right into the centre of the reform camp. But in this case the sufficient warning had been given of the impending storm to enable the more prudent to get out their anchors to windward, and in a measure to discount its most serious effects. But in the former instance it was like a thunder-bolt out of a clear sky. Reagan, the ex-rebel Postmaster-General, had just finished a most touching appeal for the payment of ex-rebel mail contractors, who were shown by Willett's document to have already been paid in full by Reagan himself! The effect was ridiculously dramatic. The tongue of reform cleaved to the roof of its mouth; every particle of superfluous wind was let out of democracy by this cruel stab, and it shriveled up into an inconsequential atom like a collapsed balloon. Reagan appeared as though overcome with confusion by the unhappy denouement, as though convicted of willful dishonesty instead of a very unreliable and altogether treacherous memory. Indeed, these archives have become an avenging Nemesis, a marplot, or a stalking-horse whose omnipresence seems a standing menace to the average democratic leader.

A newspaper engagement between Secretary Sherman and Mr. Kelley, member of Congress, is attracting some attention. Without prejudice to either side, I believe it will be the verdict of more than a majority that Mr. Sherman made many allusions that were undignified and unwarranted by good taste in the letter he is alleged to have written a Canton (Ohio,) paper, and which appeared at such date in the New York Post as to make it seem that the letter was sent hence to that paper for publication. A very sharp reply from Kelley, that must, seemingly, prove very galling to Mr. Sherman and Mr. Foster, an Ohio M. C., appears in this morning's Republican.

One of the most frequent inquiries by public men heard about town is for some one who can give definite information as to when that message on civil service reform, may be expected. It has been looked for a long time, but the hope cherished of its appearance seems of the kind that "maketh the heart sick."

Events in Congress the past two days have been of minor interest. Senators continue to wrestle with the problem of forcing Pacific Railroads to provide some means (a sinking fund is in greatest repute) for paying their indebtedness to Government, which it is asserted will amount to fully $120,000,000 when the loans shall have all matured.

There is a languid attempt to observe the letter of the Catholic and Episcopal law relative to the observance of Lent. But from the number of parties, kettle-drums, etc., and the number receiving and making calls, rather "on the sly," it is painfully evident that their spirit is ignored by many a beautiful, charming and altogether lovely (in the restricted sense above indicated) fraud. Weather a little more like March than heretofore, but still very enjoyable by everybody. KNOX.

Congress.

In the Senate, on Monday, Mr. Christiancy made a speech on the Pacific Railroad schemes, in which he said these corporations were so anxious to secure the Sinking Fund bill that they would gladly pay millions for its passage, though he did not mean to say they were paying for its passage; but the newspapers of the country, those manufacturers of public opinion, were just as ready in these hard times to advocate this or any other measure at very reduced rates.

Senator Edmunds, from the judiciary committee, reported adversely on the bill which provides that any woman who shall have been a member of the Bar of the highest Court of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia for three years may be admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the United States.

Senator Sargent submitted several amendments to the bill to organize a life-saving and coast-guard service. They provide that the Secretary of the Navy may accept the services of volunteer crews at any of the life-saving stations, who shall be subject, when on duty, to the rules and regulations of the service. It also provides for the drill of such volunteers once a month, and that each man shall receive three dollars per day for each drill, and in case of a wreck where said volunteers are instrumental in saving life, they shall each receive ten dollars, or when engaged in saving property they shall receive five dollars each for each day employed. Another amendment provides for the care of property saved, its delivery to owners, etc.

The Senate confirmed the nomination of Alanson W. Beard, Collector of Customs for the District of Boston and Charlestown, Mass., without the slightest opposition.

In the House, Mr. Springer moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill authorizing the coinage of silver on the same terms as the coinage of gold (without expense to the holder of bullion,) and also authorizing the issue of coin certificates on the deposit of silver bullion similar to those now authorized on the deposit of gold bullion. On a viva voce vote the yeas were in a decided minority.

The republicans were too strong for the democrats in the House, Monday afternoon. The bill to pay disloyal mail contractors was defeated, the enacting clause having been stricken out. An attempt was started to reconsider this action, but failed. The rebel archives have permanently defeated that job.

Rioting in Toronto.

O'Donovan Rossa delivered a lecture on "Ireland, her trials and her triumphs," in St. Patrick's Hall in Toronto, Monday night, to an audience of about a hundred persons. The press reports say: "The threatened riot did not occur, beyond a continuous volley of stones for an hour and a half at the lecture room, riddling all the windows. No damage was done. The streets in the vicinity of the hall were crowded by thousands of people, who apparently congregated to see a fight. Rossa, not being known, walked through the crowd to the hall unmolested. The lecture was brief and rather tame. At the conclusion the audience left by twos and threes, and Rossa again passed through the crowd unrecognized, and was driven off in a cab. At midnight the streets were still thronged with a disorderly crowd."

Shortly after midnight the mob attacked Cosgrove's Tavern. The crowd inside answered with revolvers and the rioters returned the fire. Hundreds of shots were exchanged here, and stones poured into the hotel until the window sashes and furniture were completely destroyed. The police, ninety strong, charged the mob and yielded their batons with great vigor, and four men were shot, one, a young Protestant named James Clegg, it is feared fatally. There were numerous other fights, but the police acted with great courage and finally quelled the disturbances. Rossa was safely driven out of town at about eleven o'clock at night.

News and Notes.

In the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, Monday, Peter Mahoney, the drunken rough who without any provocation murdered a respectable young Irish woman, Bridget Kennedy, at South Boston a few months ago, retracted his former plea of not guilty, pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree, and was sentenced to imprisonment in the State Prison for life.

The high tides of Sunday and Monday, prophecies concerning which created great consternation among the superstitious shore dwellers of Long Island and New Jersey, were not so high as on many previous occasions, and did no serious harm in any place, so far as is yet reported.

The Associated Press resolved almost unanimously, on Friday, that the collection and transmission of news by members of the association shall be suspended on Fast Day, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Another man (James Winter, of New York, this time,) has discovered how to make illuminating gas out of water, and money has been subscribed to build an experimental machine.

New Hampshire Items.

The passenger station of the Nashua & Worcester railroad at Nashua was broken into Friday night. The thieves did not succeed in getting anything of value, as the tickets were in the safe. They left after committing various acts of mischief.

E. S. Messenger, formerly treasurer of Stoddard, is alleged to have defaulted the town of $1300. Messenger was captured at Keene, Thursday, and imprisoned.

A telegram from Leavenworth, Kan., states that John W. Griffin, of Littlefield, N. H., suicided at the former place on Friday, by shooting himself with a pistol. The deceased was a commercial traveller for a Philadelphia house, aged thirty-two. The cause of the suicide is unknown.

Ex-Gov. Straw started for New Orleans on Monday. His trip is partly on business, and partly for his health.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. It is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial as being the most reliable preparation ever used; it is particularly adapted to lung and throat affections in children. Try one bottle. tmch23

The instances are frequent where a person sending two dollars addressed to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., has received promptly in return a ticket in the grand monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, entitling its holder to thirty thousand dollars without any deduction. Truly it is a golden opportunity for a fortune.

Probably no one preparation has received so much praise from its patrons, nor is so deserving of commendation as Hall's Hair Renewer! We but echo the voice of the millions who have used when we pronounce it the best Hair Dressing in the World! It stands unrivalled. Those who are affected with diseases of the scalp accompanied with itching or irritation, find relief and renewal in this invaluable remedy. When the hair is inclined to fall off, a moderate use of the Renewer will strengthen the roots of the hair, and preserve it, and if it exhibits a tendency to turn gray, it will restore the natural color.—Fulton (Mo.) Telegraph.

By the exercise of the most judicious management, the Grand Central Hotel, New York, has very cleverly turned the tide of trade in its direction, not less by the sweeping reduction of its rates than through its excellent management.

The age of miracles has passed, yet the cures made by Adamson's Botanic Balsam are more miraculous than anything that has existed in modern times. It cures Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Consumption. Price 25 and 75 cents.

Judicious speculation in stocks is as legitimate a business as any, and affords opportunities for large returns. But speculators need to employ brokers who are experienced and honest. THE CITY.

The second sacred charity concert for the benefit of the poor of the city, is to take place on next Sunday evening, in Music Hall. See announcement.

Orders were received at the navy yard on Tuesday, from the Department at Washington, fixing the hours of labor on and after the 21st inst. at ten hours a day.

One of the rules of a bank should be, "Never leave the bank alone, to go out and see a lady with a rheumatic affection in a carriage at the door, who wants to get a check."

Auction sale of household furniture,—bedding, carpets, stoves, sofas, kitchen utensils, etc.,—at House No. 10 School street, at ten o'clock this forenoon. Also, at same time and place, a chest of ship carpenter's tools. See advertisement.

Hon. James W. Patterson will on Thursday evening lecture in Music Hall, on the "Tour of Great Britain." Mr. Patterson's reputation as a scholar and a finished orator is established; he can make an uninteresting subject interesting to an audience, and a lecture from him on so interesting a theme as Great Britain and its people must be entertaining in the highest degree, as well as instructive. See Advt.

Several of the old-line democrats about town profess indignation at some of the younger legal lights of the democracy for voting the greenback ticket at the recent election, as if it were not part of the programme laid out by the wiser heads. The trouble is, that certain of the time-honored Bourbons were not consulted as to the step, and while the more active men of the concern were "Call-ed" to the front, it shows that "superfluous lags the veteran on the stage."

A large attendance of Rye people was in town on Tuesday at the trial of the action of Thomas Blake, one of the cable telegraph men, against Woodbury Dalton, for damages in not permitting Blake to have a horse and carriage for use on one fourth day of July, which he had previously engaged and paid for, Dalton declining to permit the team to go, for reasons that he deemed sufficient excuse at the time. The case was heard before Wm. H. Rollins, Esq., as referee.

Tobacco has hitherto been considered a disinfectant for most contagious diseases, but since the extreme competition for low prices many manufacturers in New York and elsewhere have sent their tobacco to workmen in tenement houses to be made into cigars; and absorbing more than any other ingredient, even good tobacco has doubtless spread disease from its manufacture in rooms where the workmen cook, eat, sleep and lie on the sickbed. The cigars offered by N. Samuel of Boston (see card in to-day's CHRONICLE) are made for first-class use, in a clean and well ventilated factory, from choice stock, by the best of workmen. Consumers at wholesale or retail will do well to inspect these goods.

THE MARGINAL ROAD.

PORTSMOUTH, March 19th.

Ed. Chronicle: We were very glad to see the communication in this morning's CHRONICLE with regard to the marginal road. We made nearly the same remarks as we looked yesterday, from our windows, upon the waves flowing over the fields, and submerging the stakes set to mark (Heaven save the mark!) where this road is to be. How any one, who lives within sight of the pond, can call the project other than crazy, we do not see. And in the same paper we see signs of what every one knows must take place, viz.: that our usual summer visitors are preferring to take up their quarters elsewhere, on account of the unmitigated nuisance of the ponds. Only last week, too, we heard of a valuable residence newly purchased by a gentleman in the vicinity of one of the ponds, offered for sale, because he would not allow his family to spend another summer here. Why our authorities have not done anything this winter, while people were starving for work, and being fed at the public cost, is best known to themselves. After the engineer's report last fall, we heard numbers of our sensible tax-paying citizens expressing their satisfaction, and their confident expectation that the matter would be proceeded with at once. But week after week passed, and nothing was done, till suddenly we found that this marginal road project was in progress. Will not every tax-payer protest against this wanton waste of money on the one hand, and disregard of the life, health and prosperity of the town on the other? TAX-PAYER.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

Tuesday, March 19; Clark, J.

The suits brought by C. H. Woodman, assignee of Adna Lane, against the Granite State Bank, Warren Brown and John Batcholder, to recover payments alleged to have been made by Lane in view of bankruptcy, were continued to June term. Stickney for Granite State Bank; Hatch for Brown and Batcholder.

The libel Thomas S. Gay vs. Benjamin C. J. Adams was entered "neither party."

Suit in equity of Alfred F. Howard, assignee in bankruptcy of Benjamin Cheever, against John H. Cheever and Edward P. Kimball, assignee of Rockingham Ten Cents Savings Bank, is brought to set aside a mortgage of store No. 38 on Market street, on the 24th of March, 1876, made to John H. Cheever for the sum of $3000, which Howard contends was without consideration, and was transferred to Kimball as assignee of the bank without proper consideration. The bill prays for a decree that the bank's assignee may have no claim upon the property, and for other relief, etc. The bill was taken pro confesso, and case stands open. H. S. Clark for complainant.

The Court in the forenoon adjourned without day.

PROBATE COURT.

At the Probate Court, before Judge Leavitt, on Tuesday, the following cases were disposed of:

Est. Robert W. Annable; Nancy A. Annable, administratrix; bond $1000.

Mary L. Garland, minor, Emmons Garland appointed guardian.

Elizabeth Russell, account settled.

Harriet B. Hatch, account settled.

Wm. M. Johnson, account of adm. settled.

John Stokell; adm. petition for license to sell real estate granted; allowance to widow granted.

Betsey Reynolds, petition for leave to sell share of bank stock and to reinvest proceeds by trustee, granted.

Hiram L. Clements, admx. account settled.

SENATORIAL VOTE, DIST. 1.

The returns from the 1st Senatorial District as published by us on the morning after election were very nearly correct, Mr. Philbrick's total being accurately given, and Mr. Eldredge's within a single vote. Having now the full returns from every town in the district, we republish the corrected table:

	Philbrick	Eldredge	Sent.
Greenland,	71	160	1
Hampton,	179	125
Hampton Falls,	100	52
Kensington,	81	73	8
Newcastle,	90	85	3
Newmarket,	241	270
North Hampton,	35	154
Portsmouth,	1064	1032	62
Ward 1,	260	391	17
Ward 2,	451	315	18
Ward 3,	82	133	3
Ward 4,	121	193	24 1
Rye,	115	175
Seabrook,	137	212
South Newmarket,	163	59
Stratham,	104	100
Total,	2379	2414	75

Eldredge's plurality 35; Eldredge's minority, 40.

This shows that Mr. Philbrick was a very strong candidate; for notwitnstanding the republican majority of last year throughout the State has been reduced some two thousand, yet Mr. Philbrick by his personal popularity has wiped out Mr. Eldredge's majority of 154, and left him in a minority of forty, thereby securing the election of Mr. Philbrick by the legislature, which is strongly republican. It is believed that Mr. Eldredge gave as general satisfaction to his constituency as any democrat could have done, and it is gratifying to know that nothing personal entered the campaign on either side.

MASONIC.

Winnicut Lodge, No. 92, A. F. and A. M., of Greenland, held their annual communication on Thursday, the 14th inst. The third degree was worked in an exemplary manner by the retiring master, H. C. Taft, after which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Edgar S. Taft,	W. M.
William O. Junkins,	S. W.
Nathaniel P. Ordway,	J. W.
William H. L. Brackett,	Treasurer.
John H. Brackett,	Secretary.
James Drew,	S. D.
Frank P. Philbrook,	J. D.
Albert W. Lane,	S. S.
Frank L. Widden,	J. S.
Rev. George W. Ruland,	Chaplain.
Carmi A. Norton,	Marshal.
Charles E. Hodgdon,	Tyler.
Hubert C. Taft,	Rep. to G. L.

The officers were then installed by Past Master Taft. Winnicut Lodge now numbers twenty members, having started about a year and a half ago with nine charter members.

POLICE COURT.

Tuesday, March 19th, Batchelder, J,

Thomas Davis, a transient person hailing from Portland, Me., pleaded guilty to a charge of the larceny of one pair woman's boots valued at $2, one pair ditto valued at $1.75, and one vest valued at $2, from John L. Pickering, and was sent to board at Sheriff Kent's hostelry for sixty days, costs being taxed at $8.04.

THE VICINITY.

Rev. J. M. Leighton of Biddeford, Me., has accepted a call to the Unitarian Church in Fairhaven, Mass.

The President on Tuesday nominated Osman B. Warren to be postmaster at Rochester; George S. Leavitt, postmaster at Exeter.

Stratham has voted to sell its town farm, a desirable piece of property containing about 125 acres of land, well watered, with good buildings, fruit trees, etc. See advertisement.

The Hibernians of Dover turned out on St. Patrick's Day, marching through the storm and mud, headed by a band, to the Catholic church, where appropriate services were held, the procession then reforming and marching to headquarters again. In the evening a promenade concert and ball were given by them in the city hall.

Mr. S. Gilman Folsom, of Greenland, has sold his store and dwelling house at the depot to Mr. H. C. Taft, who will use the store run by an agent in his interest,—his other business not allowing him to attend to it himself. Mr. Folsom opened this store about two years ago, and has met with good success, but was obliged to sell out on account of failing health.

The attempt of the Boston Advertiser to give the impression that the proposition to nominate Hon. Amos Tuck as a candidate for representative to the legislature from Exeter, was not a serious one on the part of Mr. Tuck's friends, hardly states the case fairly. The caucus was one of the largest held in that town for years, and there was a lively competition between the two Ex-Members of Congress, or at least between their friends, for the nomination. Mr. Tuck received 197 votes to 223 for General Marston. It was a regular "nip and tuck" contest.

From the Times.

Who Defeated Eldredge?

We have not as yet heard anybody give the proper answer to the question "Who defeated the Democratic candidate for Senator in the First District? Yet it is as easy to answer as to ask, the question. Joe Bradley did it! "But how?" asks an enquiring friend. We'll explain.

Portsmouth boasts of two young limbs of the law, 'Squire Hodgdon and 'Squire Call. One is accredited with being a "morsel" lazy and the other is noted for his ambition and for the recklessness with which he sometimes dashes off, with his pen, the word God with a little "g." One never objects to holding office, and the other, ever since he was "twenty-one," has longed and prayed for pap. And the latter came pretty near reaching the much-desired haven once upon a time, and but for Joe Bradley would have done so. But he didn't, and, that's what's the matter with Mr. Eldredge.

But to our little story. Something more than a year ago Sammy Tilden and Ruthy Hayes were rival candidates for the presidency, and Sammy was elected. 'Squire Call was tickled because of Sammy's election, and as he had labored hard in rural districts during the campaign, expounding the principles of the great Democratic party and exhorting everybody to fall into line and vote for Sammy, it was natural that the 'Squire should cast his eyes about, select some desirable position and demand appointment to the place of his choice as a reward for his labors. He did look around,—he settled upon the governorship of Washington Territory,—and shortly after the election prepared and circulated a petition which he induced some of our big guns to sign. The 'Squire was happy. He built a castle, and he kept adding story upon story until it was a monster edifice. In his mind's eye he was soon to be as big as anybody. He lay awake o' nights, mapping out his plans, and finally, satisfied with himself and his towering structure in the air, called upon 'Squire Hodgdon.

"George," said he, "I'm going to be governor of a territory!" And then he slapped his manly breast and gazed admiringly into the little 4x6 mirror which hangs in 'Squire Hodgdon's office. "Yes, sir, I'm going to be governor of Washington territory! Splendid country out there, George; and father'll go, too! Nice chance for him,—lots of lumber to speculate in, George!" And 'Squire Call walked backward and forward, gazing into the little mirror every time he passed it, and expatiated upon the beauty of the Western country and the fine prospects before himself and "father," while 'Squire Hodgdon sat and picked his proboscis and wished he was in 'Squire Call's shoes.

Finally 'Squire Call settled down into a chair directly opposite and facing 'Squire Hodgdon, and proceeded to tell just what had led him to drop in. "You know, George," said he, "that every governor has a private secretary, and of course I must have one. I offer it to you, and you'd better take it and go with me. You'd better, George, he repeated, "because I shan't hold the office long, and when I leave it to step up higher I'll recommend you as my successor,—you'll be sure to get the appointment on the recommendation of the retiring governor, and you'll be big man then, George!"

'Squire Hodgdon didn't exactly understand, and 'Squire Call proceeded to explain that he should, as soon as opportunity offered, become a candidate for the position of Delegate in Congress from the Territory, and, being governor, of course would succeed. Then the governor's chair would become vacant and of course his recommendation of 'Squire Hodgdon as "the right man in the right place" would be sufficient to secure 'Squire Hodgdon's appointment. 'Squire Hodgdon saw the point at last, and he entered into the scheme with his whole soul. He ordered a half-dozen new shirts, got his hair cut, bought a carpet-bag, and made ready to start at a moment's notice, and 'Squire Call a ed to his own supply of fine linen and counted the days to the 4th of March, when it was his purpose to be in Washington and present his claims and petition to Sammy Tilden in person, as soon as Sammy should be inaugurated.

But alas! for human ambition! Alas! for 'Squire Call and 'Squire Hodgdon! Somebody blundered, or somebody "traded,"—and there was the 8 to 7 commission. Joe Bradley was the 8th man, and he kicked over 'Squire Call's castle by counti ng-i Ruthy Hayes. Had Bradley voted to seat Tilden, 'Squire Hodgdon would not have been here to organize and command an "awkward squad" of Greenbackers with 'Squire Call training in the ranks as priv ate, at the late election. They would have been far away, browsing and fattening in other and more fertile pastures, and most if not all of the sixty-two votes cast in this city for Brown would have been cast for Eldredge, and Eldredge would have been elected.

We repeat, Joe Bradley defeated Mr. Eldredge.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—Sound travelled—Buying a telephone.

—A year ago a schoolboy in New York carelessly broke a pane of glass valued at ten cents. Three trials of a suit have resulted, the last decision reversing the other two and giving a judgment of $33.

—A countryman was carrying on a very simple process against a neighbor in one of the small courts of Germany. The attorney of the opponent pestered her with so much chicanery and so many legal subtleties that she lost all patience and interrupted him thus: "My lord, the case is simply this: I bespoke of my opponent, the carpet maker, a carpet with figures which were to be as handsome as my lord the judge, and he wants now to force me to take one with horrible caricatures, uglier even than his attorney. Was I not right in breaking off the bargain?" The court laughed at the comparison, the attorney was stupefied, and the woman won her suit.

—A gray-haired man appeared in an English court recently, suing for damages inflicted upon him by an accident on the North-western Railway. He created surprise by giving his age, in spite of his gray hair, as only thirty-six years. He was riding in the cars when they passed a freight train. By a great blunder in loading a lot of rails upon these cars, the iron was allowed to overhang the track on which the passenger train ran. The rails cut into the cars, jostled some of the people, including the plaintiff, more or less, and took the head clean off a woman sitting near him. The head rolled across his lap and out of the car, but the body he caught and saved. This indescribably horrible affair utterly unnerved the man. His hair turned white, and he was at once old and unstrung. He sued for damages from the shock and the jury gave him $3,250. What the husband of the dead woman got is not reported.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. Itself makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed those dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive trials, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; and that it does, in most cases, restore the color, when faded or gray, to its youthful vigor.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus, when thinning, it quickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established, thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis.

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated, beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? Does not inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outvalued all others. Other sales in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—I saying send in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh The usual passages became completely closed, "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, voice strange and weak, eyes, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, in a manner I comprehend with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me' in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than ninety minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or "King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or there there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a class of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leuchorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen.—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated nostrils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The mucus accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation, would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my voice was impaired and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—A deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose relieved my hearing so that I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. My voice is as good as ever, I reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils to their normal size, and my trouble in the sores across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my symptoms of acute and chronic hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave was disappointed by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I am seeing a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the medicines I recommend, as I have prescribed by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following the best advice, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them incomparable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the world. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Pleuritic Pains, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

The Law of the Postal Card.

The criticisms upon the rulings of the Post-office Department in reference to postal cards show many absurd things that it were better perhaps to revise. For instance, it is possible for one to write several thousand words on a card, and the cost is a cent, but if he pastes a printed slip containing a single word on the card the expense is six cents; one, paid for the card, and the other five collected from the card receiver, yet if words are printed on the card itself it is all right. If a person pastes a printed slip on a card, the size of a postal card, and puts the card and slip in an open envelope, the government will carry card, slip and envelope for a cent, yet it charges six cents for carrying a postal card and slip, without the envelope! Therefore, if you have occasion to paste a printed paragraph on a postal card, put it in an envelope and the additional weight will be carried four cents cheaper than the card alone goes. There may be good reasons for all this, but how ridiculous it looks.

There is renewed excitement at Dartmouth. On Tuesday, 19th inst., five more arrests were made, all the men being sophomores but one, who is a senior. About fifteen have been suspended from the college for various periods.

The huge, drastic, griping, sickening pills, compounded of crude, coarse and bulky ingredients, are fast being superseded by Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets. They are sold by druggists.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experience by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious and for Teething Children. Honey and Castor Oil is inferior to this taste, and Castor Oil is in its effects. It costs but 35 cents.

J. B. ROSE &

The latest, reliable remedy every one for Rheumatism, Caked Breasts, There are two kinds for the hurt, one is herbal, the other is a wonderfully greatest, and most powerful, put together by medical science. Wounds, Swellings, Burns, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. Two kinds. What the White Liniment is for man family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and horses and animals. Their effects are

THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 1878.

Congress.

In the House, on Monday, the 18th inst., Mr. Blair presented petitions from 197 people in Rochester, and from other citizens of New Hampshire, for the Constitutional amendment relative to the prohibition of the manufacture, sale, etc., of distilled liquors after the year 1900, and for a commission of enquiry.

In reply to an enquiry made as to the progress of the bill to repeal the bankrupt law, Senator Edmunds said on Tuesday that the judiciary committee is making progress, and a report may be expected very soon.

Secretary of the Treasury Sherman was before the senate committee on finance for two hours and a half, Tuesday, and made some remarkable statements. He declared that the silver bill had actually strengthened the public credit and would materially aid him in accomplishing specie resumption. The agitation of the subject had created a temporary panic in American securities, he said, but the few bonds which had come to this country had been taken up here eagerly and the Government credit was stronger to-day than ever. His declarations in regard to resumption fairly astonished the committee. He declared that he would be ready to resume July 1st if the banks would be ready. He thought they could not be ready by that time, but asserted positively that if Congress would let them alone both the Treasury and the banks would be ready to resume Jan. 1st. In answer to a question he further declared that he would be ready to receive legal tenders for customs due on and after Oct. 1st. There is little doubt but that Secretary Sherman's statement has killed the bill to repeal the specie resumption act.

The pension bill agreed upon by the House committee on appropriations, Tuesday, appropriates the gross sum of $29,286,574. One million and a half of this is made necessary by the act of March 8, 1879, for the payment of the survivors of the war of 1812. The bill provides for the payment of all pensions by the Secretary of the Treasury, thereby abolishing all pension agencies.

The majority and minority reports in the case of Doorkeeper Polk were made to the House on Tuesday. The majority report, signed by four republicans and two democrats, finds Polk guilty of gross irregularities and violations of law, and recommends his dismissal; the minority report, signed by five democrats, finds him a good fellow and square official, who has done nothing for which he ought to lose his place.

Naval Affairs.

The Senate committee on naval affairs has agreed to report adversely upon the nomination of Naval Constructor John W. Easby to be chief of the bureau of construction and repairs. The report will be held back to enable the President to withdraw the nomination.

In the naval appropriation bill just reported from the house committee the number of officers of each grade is stated, also the exact amount appropriated to each, the appropriations having been made heretofore in gross. Appointments from civil life to subordinate places are by this bill discountenanced. A line officer not above lieutenant is to be detailed as secretary, and one not above the grade of master is deemed competent to perform the duties of clerk, to a rear-admiral or commander, while an ensign is declared equal to the duties of clerk to a captain, or lieutenant commander, when afloat; and the appointment of those above that grade is prohibited. The amount of appropriation for each object is specified where that is possible, and no appropriation thus specified is to be diverted to any other object.

News and Notes.

The owners of the whaling schooners Ellen Rizpah and Rising Sun, captured on whaling grounds last season by Spanish cruisers, have been awarded $5000 each by the Spanish Government.

British steamship Astarte has been wrecked on the South American coast, and thirty-one lives lost. Two men were saved.

The silver kings are disgusted because the Secretary of the Treasury has been purchasing silver for coining from European dealers, at a lower rate than the bonanza men offered it.

Judge Noah Davis made his debut as a temperance advocate Monday night at a mass temperance meeting in Tammany Hall, and said he felt entirely justified, even in this place [laughter] to say to each one individually that it is his duty to act on behalf of temperance and against intemperance, for law, order and prosperity, against crime and its consequences.

A dispatch from Jonesville, Wis., says: "About twenty tramps took possession of a freight train at Clinton Junction Saturday morning, and came to this city. Arriving here they took possession of a vacant house near the Chicago and Northwestern wood yard, and sent out squads to pillage the village. Officers went down to arrest them, but they were driven off, and returning for re-enforcements they again attacked them. After a vigorous fight with pistols and stones, eight of the tramps were arrested and the rest scattered, taking to the woods around the city."

Kate Delancy, who squandered one or two fortunes in Boston, and who attempted suicide in miserable lodgings at Providence recently, has been made happy at last by marrying Albert Skinner of Hartford, a former lover, who is said to be in the paper business and quite wealthy, and they have gone to New York on their wedding tour.

It is noticeable that the shoulders of ladies who hold up one side of their dresses are becoming very uneven.

Henry Haynes was ordained rector of Trinity parish, Tilton, Thursday. Rev. Phillips Brooks of Boston preached the sermon.

Mrs. Robert Elliott of Rochester fell from a board which was put across a gutter or washout, and fractured a bone in one leg, and also badly injured her side.

The house of Thomas Cassidy, in Lancaster, was burned on the 19th inst., about midnight; cause, defective chimney. Loss $1200; insured $800.

Ex-Gov. Cheney has been in Peterboro' recently for a day or two, making arrangements to start up his mill, manufacturing pulp for paper from wood.

Thieves entered Alfred Quinby's periodical store at Manchester on the night of the 15th inst., and stole ever $400 in cash, and jewelry and goods amounting in all to nearly $600.

Old Mrs. Whitney, at "West Farms," Enfield, is the mother of twins, the grandmother of twins, and the great-grandmother of twins, just born to Mr. Leonard H. Clark; she is now, at the age of over eighty, taking care of her great-grandchildren. The old lady is in perfect health and with a fair prospect to live to see another generation of her descendants.

Croydon did not appropriate anything in 1877 for town expenses, and on the first of March, 1878, had $721 in the treasury, and no debts. Captain E. D. Cummings has been moderator for twenty successive years, Ruel Durkee a member of the board of selectmen for thirty years, and Alonzo Allen town clerk for eighteen years.

At a large meeting of citizens of Cornish, Parsonsfield, Lemington, Newfield, Baldwin and Porter, the Ossipee Valley Union Agricultural Society was organized, with Hon. Samuel D. Wadsworth, President.

The quarterly meeting of the New Hampshire Historical Society was held at the State House Tuesday forenoon, Hon. Charles H. Bell of Exeter, President, presiding. It was voted that inquiries be made as to what books and papers belonging to the late Gov. Plumer can be obtained. Resolutions were passed that Hon. G. W. Nesmith of Franklin be requested to prepare for publication personal recollections of Daniel Webster. A vote of thanks was passed to Hon. Oaslow Stearns for the gift of his portrait, to be hung in the library gallery. A committee on new members was appointed as follows: J. J. Bell of Exeter, S. C. Eastman of Concord, J. M. Shirley of Andover. A committee, of which President Bell is chairman, was appointed to consider whether it is expedient for the society to consider in connection with the coast survey the matter of nomenclature of places along the coast.

Political.

Governor Bishop, the democratic governor of Ohio, nominated Gen. Steedman to be Trustee of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home and the democratic Senate immediately confirmed the appointment. On the books of the treasury Gen. Steedman stands a defaulter to the tune of $600,000; but then he is a good democrat, and the Ohio legislature, which is very strong in the true "reform" democracy, has decided (in the case of the chairman of the House military committee, proved to be a traitor, a deserter from the Union army, and a perjurer,) that perjury and treason, when committed by a democrat, are merely "technical" faults, so Steedman's defalcation is of course a mere misfortune.

The New York World makes some very instructive and striking comparisons, which we commend to democratic shriekers about federal extravagance. In 1877, under Tammany, it cost the city of New York $1,187,825 for the judiciary, while the estimate sent to Congress by Attorney General Devens for the support of the judiciary system of the United States is only $391,000, or a little more than one-tenth of the expenditures of New York for the same purpose. To put in another shape, the annual cost of the whole diplomatic service, about which the democratic leaders of the House are exercised, only amounts to what the Tammany Government of New York expends on its judiciary!

The democratic Chicago Times says that "Political Brigadier-General Banning's malevolent scheme to emasculate the army is not gaining favor, and will hardly command even the united support of the paleozoic Bourbons in the House. Attempts to color national legislation with the anti-war feelings of the copper-bottomed party of 1864 have not succeeded well in this Congress, and do not appear likely to."

Frank Moses, the renegade ex-Governor of South Carolina and self-confessed thief and perjurer, continues to hold his own as the most reliable witness in behalf of the democracy in the country. He was long ago denounced by every respectable republican in the Palmetto State, and in 1872 Senator-elect Corbin led a justifiable belt in the interest of reform against his nomination to be Governor. This protest against "Mosesism" by republicans is carefully ignored by the democracy in their discussions of South Carolina affairs now-a-days.

The statement of the New York Tribune, regarding Southern demands upon the National Treasury, is of a rather startling character. It shows that prior to the holiday recess of Congress, bills had been introduced calling for not less than $150,000,000 in aid of various projects originating in the South, exclusive of private claims amounting to many millions more. And thus we have, as the first fruits of democratic ascendency, even in one House of Congress, appropriations for aid to the amount of at least $150,000,000, the granting of which is withheld only because of democratic inability to control the Senate wholly, and the fear of the effect to be produced upon the elections next fall and in 1880. Once give the democracy the Presidency, and ample working majorities in both Houses of Congress, and the country will be compelled not only to give the South the $150,000,000 already asked for, but to double the amount, and perhaps multiply it by three of four. And the great bulk of the contribution must necessarily be taken from Northern pockets. The entertainment to which the democratic party invites us is not exactly a pleasing one to anticipate.—Troy Times.

When the bibulous Virginian was escorted from the House by the sergeant-at-arms, he paused a moment in the cloak room and asked himself Websterially, "Where shall I go?" Then with a meaning smile he straightened himself up, knocked his hat on with a bim, and meandered over to the Senate chamber, where he sought to make himself congenially at home. But he got no sympathy there. "What a disgraceful spectacle," said the Roman Senators, sternly. "Drunk at noon. Shocking! Shocking! Now, if it were the middle of an all night session, why then, to be sure—but now there is really no excuse," and he was hustled out in no time.—Washington Star.

THE CITY.

In Boston, on Wednesday, $1000 of Portsmouth city 6's of 1893 were sold at 106.

"Washburn's Last Sensation" at Music Hall on Saturday evening. "No paper on the walls—show inside." See advertisement.

The lecture by Miss Randall, Tuesday evening, gave great pleasure to an appreciative audience. All were delighted with the clear, sweet voice of the speaker, and her calm and dignified manner. The sentiments of the lecture met the hearty approval of the audience, who were sorry only for the shortness of the lecture. The glee club added much to the pleasure of the evening by their excellent vocal music.

The lecture on "a tour through Great Britain" promised by Hon. James W. Patterson this evening, at Music Hall, will doubtless draw a full house; the attractiveness of the theme, the magnetic eloquence of the gifted orator and the cheapness of the tickets all combine to insure for him an enthusiastic welcome. Mr. Patterson as a graceful and powerful speaker has few rivals on the American platform, and all those who were so delighted with his recent lecture here are eager to hear him again.

The statement in the Times that Rev. James W. Hubbell, pastor of the Congregational church in this city, "has asked for an increase of $500 to his salary," that "he is unable to live on it," etc., is without foundation, and places Mr. Hubbell in a false position before the public. The salary ($2500) which he receives is perfectly satisfactory to him, and the most cordial good feeling exists between him and his parishoners. Mr. Hubbell will remain here another year, his reluctance to being installed depending wholly on private affairs.

Mrs. Frances M. Bartlett has accepted an invitation from the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to give an entertainment (aided by friends) at Music Hall on Wednesday evening, March 27th. This entertainment will embrace much that is amusing and agreeable, consisting of dramatic representations, declamations, and music both vocal and instrumental. Mrs. Bartlett has yielded to the solicitations of friends in presenting the Surprise Party which gave so much pleasure at the Lyceum this winter; in all other respects the programme will be entirely new, offering nothing that has yet been heard in public. Tickets thirty-five cents to all parts of the house; no extra charge for reserved seats, which will be for sale at Preston's on Friday, March 22d. First come, first served.

NORTH PARISH MEETING.

At a meeting of the North Parish, Tuesday evening, 19th inst., a letter was received from Rev. James W. Hubbell, the acting pastor, consenting to continue his relation another year. The parish voted him one month's vacation. It was also voted to adopt the envelope system of voluntary weekly offerings for the year; this system does not affect the pew rentals, but provides for a systematic way of contributing to the regular charities of the church, such as the different missions, church and chapel expenses, funds in the hands of pastor for parish work, and for whatever purpose desired; the grand principle of the system is for every one to do a little, so that five, ten or twenty-five cents a week will show a good result at the close of the year. A treasurer of this fund is appointed who is the only one in the parish that knows the sum any person contributes. This plan has succeeded well in other places, and will be watched with interest here.

The system of voluntary offerings which has been adopted by the Congregational church in this city is becoming popular among all societies. A package containing fifty-two cards is sent to each parishioner; the several objects to which the contributions are to be applied are printed in a list on each card, and the giver marks opposite either (or each) of the items the sum he is willing to contribute for that especial purpose; and the cards, enclosed in envelopes, are collected every Sunday by one of the wardens, selected for this purpose, the sum given and the name of the donor being known to him only. In some churches the system of pew rents, taxes, etc., has been entirely abolished, their support depending entirely on the voluntary offerings of the members.

MUTUAL RELIEF ASSOCIATIONS.

An interesting case is before the law term of the Supreme Court of this county, involving the question as between the family of a deceased man and his estate in the matter of the Odd Fellows' Mutual Relief Association. In the case referred to, the relief provided was to be given to the family in the order of wife first, then children, then father, next mother, and so on, unless otherwise ordered in writing by the deceased member. In the will of the deceased he gives "all the rest and residue of his property and estate, including the whole of whatever sum or amount may be due him or his executor from the Odd Fellows' Mutual Relief Association," etc., to his mother. The question presents itself, "is this fund assets in the hand of his executor, which can be used to pay debts of the deceased?" It is contended on the one side that the member has no power to direct that the funds shall be paid to an executor; that he had no testamentary power over the sum; that it is a relief, not an asset, going to the wife wholly unless the deceased member in his lifetime directed its payment to his father or other of the regular beneficiaries. The question involved is an interesting one to members of these associations, scattered all over the State, and the decision is looked forward to with no little interest by the friends of the order of Odd Fellows and their families.

[Communicated.]

THE MARGINAL ROAD.

Mr. Editor: Much has been said and written about the south pond, but nothing has been proposed that did not involve an enormous expense. The drainage system proposed is questionable in regard to abating the oppressive smell, besides being very expensive. Digging out the mud and building a road with it appears to me absurd. It would be much easier to obtain a privilege to fill in about two rods wide from the bank with the accumulations of coal ashes, dust and dirt of the city, commencing with sufficient width to drive on a cart and turn it round, and to gradually fill out, and above high water; and I have no doubt the owner of the mill privilege would be glad to have the pond deepened in payment for the area so used, and which can be done in the following manner, perhaps: The city to construct a small and flat-bottomed scow, drawing about one foot of water, with paddle wheels; hire a donkey engine of sufficient power to rapidly drive the scow, which should be fitted with drag rakes, which would so stir up the mud that when the flood gates were opened at ebb tide vast quantities of the foul sediment would be carried out into the river,—the gates to be opened only after the tide had fallen a foot or more outside, so as to create a rapid current out of the pond. Two men could manage the whole concern. Thousands of cart loads could be removed from around the margin, where the low tide exposes it on both sides of the pond to the hot sun's rays, while a road would only abate the obnoxious smell locally. Both ponds and puddle dock could be served the same way, at much less cost than the interest on the amount required for the system of drainage now under consideration; and once well done it would answer for years—and above all, it could be done now, before hot weather. I do not know as this plan is practical, but it appears so to me; therefore, having an interest in the public health and the taxpayers' welfare, I offer the foregoing for consideration.

SOUTH POND.

Mr. Editor: I see that some of your readers are disposed to condemn the proposed marginal road around the south mill pond, for two reasons, viz.: that it will be but a temporary abatement of the now widely-famous nuisance, and because the tide, when unusually high, flows over where the road is laid out, and far to the rear (inland) of it. As to the latter objection, it may be be said that when the road is finished the encroaching flow of the tide would be stopped; it is a matter of record that the waters of the river once flowed from the head of puddle dock across what is now Pleasant street to the south pond, at every tide—but it never flows there at all now, no matter how high the tide, nor has it for a great many years. The writer of this used to fish for sculpins, and catch them, too, from the sill at the head of puddle dock; now a sculpin would find himself high and dry long before he reached the spot where I used to fish for his ancestors, if indeed he did not get choked to death by the foul accumulations in the bottom of the dock before he got half way up. As to the other objection, it seems to me that the objectors are laboring under a misapprehension; as I understand the matter the marginal road is not in any sense intended to take the place of the proposed drainage system, but rather to supplement it. The drainage system, if effective, (as I believe it will be,) will but prevent the recurrence of the pond nuisance—not obviate that which already exists; the ponds are nuisances now, in hot weather, and some means must be adopted to abate the trouble; and this, I take it, is as far as the advocates of the marginal road claim it will go as a sanitary measure. The sewer system will cost heavily, and take time to finish; in the meantime let us have the marginal road, or anything else that will even temporarily cure the pond of being such a sink-hole of iniquity, malaria and profanity-inducing smells as it has been in summers past.

ROAD AND DITCH.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

Volunteer missionary Wm. A. Loyne acknowledges the receipt of $16.80, (one-third of the benefit money taken at the charity concert at Music Hall on the evening of the 10th inst.,) and furnishes the committee a detailed statement of the way the money has been expended. This gift has contributed to the comfort of eleven families, and seven individuals of other families. For calico, to be made into dresses by the Children's Sewing Circle connected with the Band of Hope, and presented to poor families, $3 was expended; $1.75 for yarn, to be knit into socks for poor children by the old ladies at Faith Home; and the balance for groceries and in small cash gifts. Mr. Loyne assures the committee and the people that the donation has been very gratefully received.

Miss Katie Green, Treasurer of the Children's Home, desires us to gratefully acknowledge the receipt of sixteen dollars and eighty cents from the committee for the distribution of the proceeds of the charity concert, this amount being one-third of the net sum.

ACCIDENTS.

On Wednesday morning a horse belonging to Mayor Broughton, which was standing in front of a house at the upper end of State street, took fright from a dog leaping over a fence and started off on a run, through several streets in that vicinity. Striking a lamp post he cleared himself from the buggy to which he was attached, the whiffletree dangling about his hind legs, which did not tend to decrease his momentum. He went up Middle street, probably intending to go to his stable, but was prevented by some boys who turned him into Cabot street, and in going over the cross-walk he slipped and fell on his shoulder, plunging some feet over the ground after falling. The injuries proved to be beyond the skill of the veterinarian, and the animal was killed in the afternoon. On examination his shoulder was found to be badly crushed. He was valued at $300.

Messrs. Charles H. Hayes & Son recently lost a valuable farm horse in a rather peculiar manner. The animal was taken sick, and veterinarians from this city and Boston agreed that the trouble was caused by some obstruction in the esophagus; and as it was evident the horse would die unless relieved, the Boston experts adopted heroic measures to clear the passage, running an ox-goad (with the end suitably guarded) down the animal's throat to his stomach. The horse died next morning, and a post mortem examination showed that a large piece of corn-cob had stuck in the lower part of the gullet, and become firmly fixed by the swelling of the adjacent parts; and the means taken to dislodge the obstruction, though failing to remove it, had ruptured the gullet and thereby hastened the horse's death.

THE VICINITY.

The Great Falls Post-office was broken into Monday night, 18th inst., and robbed of about $1.50 in stamps and change.

A consultation of physicians was held on the 19th inst. in the case of County Solicitor Small, the doctors of Newmarket, pronouncing his condition very serious. Concussion of the brain has placed him in a precarious state, and absolute quiet is enjoined. Even High Sheriff Kent, who called at his residence Wednesday morning, was not permitted to see him.

Several robberies were committed in South Berwick on the night of the 19th inst. The counting room of the Newichewannick Company was entered, the safe blown open and $325 taken. The thieves also entered the hardware store of McIntire & Davis, the drug store of Barrows & Eastman and the grocery store of Division 79, in which they succeeded in getting but a small amount.

Portsmouth Chronicle

A Rebel Brigadier's Shriek.

We declare, and hold ourselves ready to maintain, that a baser, viler, meaner spirit was never visited by the conqueror upon the conquered in any civilized country than that visited upon us by the republican party. * * * But we do owe to them ten years of persecution at Washington, and despotism in the Southern States, destroying the prosperity of a whole generation and taking a post-obit upon the credit and products of the next. No thanks to them, infamous as they are, traitors alike to free government and their race, for such gleams of leniency as have come to us.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Considering that the above is from the pen of a rebel colonel, who instead of being hung for his treason in fighting against his country was rewarded with a seat in its highest councils, (in which also sit the leading civil and military leaders of the confederacy,) it is pretty good talk. It is not enough for patriots of the Watterson brand that the men who fifteen years ago were in arms to destroy the Union, and their northern allies, today rule its destinies, while the men who saved the nation are ostracised in the "regenerated South," and listened to with scant respect at the National Capital; nothing short of the impoverishment of the North, and the condign punishment of every man who invaded the sacred soil of the confederacy, or advocated or contributed to the success of such invasion, will satisfy them. Anything short of this is persecution and despotism.

—"Roll on silver moon," warbled a youth beside the window of his loved one, when the queen of his thoughts softly raised the sash and murmured: "You had better roll on something better than a ninety-two cent moon, William, if you expect to get up to pa; he is hard money, he is." The window slid down, and the demoralized silver Bill slid off, coining execrations in the Bland atmosphere.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strong; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or treacherous hair resumes their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and healthy—upon which conditions diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported (note up to several hundred thousand more. The business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "asthma," "inhaling-tubes," and "relieks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours out of twenty-four. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by a mechanical process, the only way, it seemed, with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three months of a second or in one hour or month, but in less than three months I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, a few minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my system, and Dr. Pierce's Pellets to regulate my liver and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Nasal Catarrh. Its Chalagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties give it a decidedly efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternate with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassa and Iron, makes a most effectual cure a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear. Such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and, for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated nostrils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my locality were cleansed and so much inflamed that I had with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils to that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the burning noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were restored to their natural acuteness, and every symptom of disease had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

BOSTON, Feb. 25, 1875. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

SUFFOLK, ss. FEB. 25, 1875.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months been afflicted with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury, I tried your Plaster, and for which I used many preceptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and sore ness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them incomparable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Pleuritic Coughs Pleurisy and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

PORTSMOUTH THEATRICALS, Past and Present.

Now that Portsmouth has a building that serves as a theatrical establishment, by whatever name it may be called, to a higher degree than anything else of the kind that ever preceded it, it is interesting to look back upon the past and see what our city has had, at various periods, that has served for such purposes. While dramatic readings had been given in the "Long Room" (recently altered into chambers,) of Stavers' Hotel, still standing near the foot of Court street, anterior to that time theatrical representations occurred at the old Assembly House as early as 1788, and for many years afterwards, as will be seen in Brewster's Rambles, Vol. II., page ninety-four, where, in the old drama of "The Children of the Wood," the catastrophe was brought to a climax in the "carrying off, by a large serpent, of the cruel uncle!" Imagine the audience looking on with wonder-struck eyes! That "large serpent" is yet, perchance, prowling about the neighborhood of Raitt's court.

We also learn from the "Rambles" that a good sized two-story building, erected for a theatre, stood at the close of the last and the beginning of the present century, near the spot on Bow street now occupied by Gerrish's foundry; its scenery being furnished by a home artist. Included in the company, which consisted of literary young men from twenty to twenty-five years, were included the names of E. St. Loe Livermore, Charles Cutts, Samuel Elliott, George Long, George W. Prescott, Tilton, Haven, Cutter, Sheafe, and others. As there were no female performers, the most delicate-looking young men, in flowing robes and curls, had to fill their places. Occasionally they had assistance from regular professionals. It may well be doubted if the amateur acting of that time, although serving to amuse an idle hour, could have borne any comparison in excellence with that of the present time, such, for instance as we have seen here within the past few years. The theatre was burned in 1806, at the time of the destruction of the Episcopal church.

Until quite recent years, ladies and gentlemen were living, who, in recalling memories of their youth, would tell of the performances of the Boston theatre company at the Assembly House both in the last and the early years of the present century, and others yet survive who had similar enjoyments from the same company in later times, though it has been exeunt omnes with the latter for many a year. In the old files of the Gazette and Oracle may also be seen the advertisements of performances of the highest class both in tragedy and comedy, by the Federal street company of Boston, who made the Assembly House their summer quarters at frequent periods from 1789 to as late in the present century as 1819. On an evening in the summer of 1801, when they were to perform the tragedy of Richard the Third, a heavy rain storm commenced after the audience were assembled, accompanied by thunder and lightning of the most terrific description. The hall was illuminated by an almost uninterrupted flash of light, and the oft-repeated peals of thunder shook the building to its foundation. When the time for the rising of the curtain arrived, the manager came forward and stated that in consequence of the storm, if agreeable to the audience, as their hearing would be greatly disturbed, the performance would be postponed until another evening, when some one in the boxes, in rather an imperious tone, replied "go on," and as no one objected, the play began; King Richard, before commencing the opening soliloquy, taking the precaution to remove from his shoes, and throw into a dark corner, the shining steel buckles about which the electric fluid was performing some very fantastic tricks. In the battle scenes at Bosworth field, no other accessories were needed than such as nature afforded, the din of the elements supplying all the requisites for a battle scene of the fiercest description.

At the time of President Monroe's visit here in 1817, among the company from Boston then performing at the Assembly House, was the fair Mrs. Barrett, the name by which she was afterward known, with her first husband, William Charles Drummond. A more elegant pair, for the former was but in her seventeenth year, as Romeo and Juliet and Paul and Virginia, were never seen. While the whole corps were of the first-class, so especially popular were the former, flowers were sent to them daily from the gardens of Portsmouth, and a gentleman of the legal profession furnished them with a large boat and oarsmen for moonlight sails on the Piscataqua for the whole party, musicians and all, on evenings when they did not perform; on which occasions there were plenty of listeners on both shores of the river to the fine old operatic airs now about forgotten, or rarely heard.

On another evening, in the summer of 1819, just at the hour of starting for the theatre, a rain-storm occurred of such severity, that when the time for the performance arrived, only half a dozen ladies and gentlemen, who had taken an early start, were present. Manager Pelby came upon the stage, and in a few good-humored remarks, in which he alluded to the "crowded condition of the house," stated that although the company were ready to go on, he thought it would be most agreeable to both audience and actors if the performance were postponed to the following evening, when he hoped the weather would be more propitious. So reasonable a suggestion was of course acceded to, when their tickets were returned to them, accompanied by an invitation to await in the green-room the suspension of the rain; where they were soon joined by the members of the company—the green-room, as most people are aware being their place of rendezvous when not on the stage. A more favorable specimen, probably, of theatrical society, was never seen in private life, than Pelby's little company. Mrs. Pelby was a most estimable woman, and by her brilliancy and amiability won the admiration and esteem of all with whom she was thrown in contact; the class of the profession to which she belonged was necessarily intelligent and cultivated; Bray, the principal comedian, of the sterling English school of actors of the past, would alone have proved sufficient to make them forget the rapid flight of time, and while on their way home about ten o'clock, when the rain had ceased, "the audience" came to the conclusion that they had seldom passed so pleasant an evening, especially when they remembered the fine music, vocal and instrumental, with which they had been favored.

After an interval of seven years, a London actor of eminence, named Burroughs, fitted up the old temple of the muses as a theatre, and with a small but good company delighted the people of Portsmouth with a series of performances of some weeks' duration. Among the pieces enacted was "Tom and Jerry," that was then having a long run in Boston.

In the winter of 1829, the company of Gilbert & Trowbridge gave a series of performances at the Assembly House that were well attended. The bright particular star of the corps was Mrs. Gilbert; young, pretty, modest, and every way attractive, she was the favorite of all. Much of sadness was felt when Mrs. Ashley, another youthful member of the company, fell a victim to consumption, and was laid to rest in the North burying-ground; the novelty of a theatrical funeral, amid the stillness of a Sabbath afternoon, drawing together many spectators. A week previous to her death, while her husband was performing the part of George Barnwell, a thoughtless boy, who had heard such a story in the street, said to him as he was passing from the greenroom to the stage, "Mr. Ashley, your wife is dead!" The scene in which he was next to appear was that where Barnwell, to the sound of a tolling bell, goes forth to execution. The audience, at the time, little dreamed that nature, not art, gave the impulse for what they thought fine acting. He learned, before leaving the theatre, the falsity of the story, but rushing into the room, not far away in Vaughan street, where his wife lay in bed attended by a nurse, he bent over her, exclaiming with the deepest affection, "Dear, dear Kate, I have run all the way from the gallows to enfold you in my arms once more."

In 1830 the Methodist church in the rear of Vaughan street, adjoining the garden of A. W. Haven, Esq., was converted into what many remember as a perfect little gem of a theatre, and opened with a good company by Gilbert & Trowbridge on the 9th of February of that year. Some months later in the same year, it was opened by Mr. Wilson, a high-class actor, with an excellent company from the Boston Tremont theatre, among whom was the Count Joannes, then known as George Jones. After much good acting within its walls by professionals of merit, it was known as "The Cameneum," and served for lectures, public meetings, and other purposes, until, after passing through various transformations, it reached its present lowly condition. Looking upon it now, both in its interior and exterior, it is hard to realize that it was so tasteful a structure in itself, as well as being the arena of so many gay and festive scenes, and of happy hours that are well remembered.

The history of the Temple, where the grand opera from the New York Academy of Music was given, and Edwin Forrest was seen in his great character of "Richelieu, as well as other note-worthy attractions, it is not needful to repeat, so well is it known, and now that it is replaced by an edifice that does so much credit to Portsmouth. J. H. H.

—A naturalist now declares that the robin is not the robin, after all. They received this name from the early English emigrants, because of some slight resemblance to the English robin, which is a much smaller bird and entirely different in its habits. Our robin is known among naturalists as the migratory thrush.

The Election.

Returns have been received from all the towns in the State, and the vote foots up as follows: Prescott, 39,377; McKean, 37,863; Kendall, 251; Flint, 223; scattering, 99. Prescott's plurality, 1514; majority, 941. The house will stand: republicans, 205; democrats, 165. The majority for David E. Willard, Railroad Commissioner, is 1012. Prescott's loss from last year, 1376; McKean's gain, 1138; scattering gain, 174. The total vote in all the towns is 69 less than last year.

The Ninety-Cent Eagle.

The New York Post says the spread-eagle on the ninety-cent silver dollar is not a success, and it is already announced that search is to be made for a better one. The bird does not occupy an enviable position, and it should not be expected to make a very good appearance. The eagle of the old dollar had a broad shield on his breast, and this was declared to be contrary to all rules of ornithology. He bore also the appearance of a bird which was just settling down, and the designer thought it would be more appropriate to give him the appearance of rising for a new flight. This was a mistake. The ninety-cent eagle ought to be a very quiet bird, and it would not be inappropriate if he should have his head tucked under his wing. The new bird retains the arrows which the old eagle held in his claws, which is very considerate, because if ever an eagle seems likely to need means of defence, this is the one. What the new design is to be we have not yet heard, but if the silver certificate bill is passed, it will be well to put a waste-paper basket in the eagle's beak, to indicate the kind of pocketbooks that will come into use if paper representatives of uncoined bullion are to be made an unlimited legal tender.

Even out in Cincinnati, the new dollar does not seem to please them in its "make-up." The Gazette says the new silver dollar makes our inwards yearn the more for the dollar of our grandfathers. This illegitimate dollar commits an outrage on the American eagle, which is enough to make the bones of the fathers rattle in their narrow cells. The statement has been published that an artist from England was imported to engrave this coin. Thus an enemy hath converted our national bird into a goose. This will explain the base design which is patent on the face of the coin. This is not merely a matter of taste, but of physical possibilities. No eagle could fly with his wings in that posture. No eagle could place his wings in that posture. If caught stealing, and nailed by the tips of his wings to a barn door, he might be thrown into something near that shape. The tail is still more an impossibility. It hangs down far below, as the long train of a woman's dress might, if she were suspended by the neck. It curves in like a dog's tail, when cowed, only instead of curving between his legs, it curves around his feet, making a platform or forum for him to stand on. No eagle or other creature like this did ever exist. As great an outrage has been perpetrated on the head as on the other side of the coin. This head has no character, no force, no humanity, no fidelity. If it was designed for a head which can tell a person who has lent us 100 cents that if he gets 90 cents he may be thankful, it is a success. But this is not a typical head for the robust "Liberty of this country. Nor has the coin any beauty of finish to condone these faults in art and patriotism. Away with it, and give us back the dollar of the grandfathers.

The Philadelphia Bulletin finds on one side of the new dollar, "a fat British girl with a tremendous bang, and on the other a hen flying off her nest—probably frightened by the bang."

Says the Springfield Republican: "Nice looking girl on that dollar,—none of your pale 'graduates,' but a robust miss with tan on her cheek and briers and things wosped in her hair, as though she had just come in from berrying. But the 'blarsted Englishman' just wreaked his vengeance to the full on the eagle. Eight cents! We should think the whole Alabama award had been taken out of him. Let us put in a counter claim."

Chronicle Correspondence.

BOSTON, March 19, 1878.

Dear Chronicle: The weakest editorial that ever appeared in a Boston paper is this in the Boston Globe to-day. Mr. Bailey should be ashamed of himself:

The "Man Milliner" has appeared in Massachusetts politics, and is likely to make the republican party a good deal of trouble. * * When Hayes so unceremoniously and plumpity threw overboard the Chandlers and others who had made him President, the old line republicans of Massachusetts viewed his course with disgust and alarm, and since then they have lost confidence in him and his Administration. What increased their disgust was that a few hundred individuals who could never be depended upon to vote the republican ticket unless the nominees were their own personal friends, came to the front and loudly proclaimed that the republican party was corrupt and could not be trusted, hence they had come to the rescue just in time. * * About all the supporters the President really has in this State are the "man milliners," but they are so fastidious he hardly suits their notions. They are going to make trouble in the republican party this fall. * * The republican party is destined to be ruled this fall by the "man milliners," and it looks as though they would have to present Mr. Richard H. Dana, Jr., as their candidate. Mr. Dana is a man of irreproachable character, and taken all in all it seems as though Mr. Dana is about the only man who will suit the men who are in control the destinies of the republican party in this State this fall, and they will probably work vigorously for his nomination at Worcester.

Outside of Charles Francis Adams there is no man so unpopular in this State as R. H. Dana. Their character is irreproachable; they have never done anything but draw money as bloated bondholders or office-holders, that I can hear of. Brother Bailey failed in his attempts for U. S. Senator in Boston, and for Governorship in New Hampshire, and now he returns to Boston to try to crush out the Herald (his old paper,) which he disposed of to advantage to himself, but which has proved a perfect bonanza to his successor. ION.

News and Notes.

It is estimated that it will cost the Navy Department $300,000 to send the goods of American exhibitors to the Paris Exposition and bring them home again. There has been a lively demand on the part of naval officers to be assigned to duty on vessels bound for Paris.

About two months ago, Mr. Sheffield Smith, residing at 213 Smith street, in Providence, R. I., noticed that the water drawn from his well had a peculiar taste and putrid smell, and decided to obtain his water from some other source. Wednesday morning, while a gang of workmen were engaged in cleaning it out, one of them struck a substance which proved to be the dead body of a man. Letters found on the body indicate that he was an Englishman, well connected, who had drifted from home and become a travelling tinker. A letter from a sister in London seems to be signed "Jennie Ansley" or "Arasley."

Detective E. D. Wiggin of Boston has arrested in Connecticut one "Jemmie" Hope, alias James Watson, a notorious bank robber, charged with breaking into the Savings Bank at Dexter, Me., where the heroic cashier, Barron, was murdered. Hope is an old pal of George Miles, the Barre (Vt.) Bank robber, and was with Miles in the Milford (N. H.) Bank robbery in 1874; also in the Winthrop, Me., robbery in 1875. He escaped from the Delaware State Prison, where he owes eight years, and in 1872 he escaped from the Auburn (N. Y.) Prison, where he owes two and one-half years. If he is guilty of the crime now laid to his charge, it is a pity the law of Maine does not admit of hanging for murder.

Business is terribly prostrated in Spain. Nearly 120 factories have closed, and 9,000 are out of employment. It is suggested that Spain should remonetize a ninety-cent dollar, promptly.

Pennsylvania held a monster demonstration against the proposed tariff bill at Allenstown, Saturday, where 15,000 men, mostly blast furnace and rolling-mill men, formed in procession, and stirring speeches against the bill were made by Galusha A. Grow and others.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. THE CITY.

On the first page will be found the commencement of a very interesting article from the pen of "J. H. B.," on "Portsmouth Theatricals, past and present."

The Nashua Telegraph says: "Rev. James W. Hubbell, pastor of the North Congregational church at Portsmouth, has asked for an increase of $500 to his salary, which is at present $25000." The papers are setting Mr. Hubbell up steep, on salary.

The full bench of the Supreme Court has notified Hon. Charles H. Bell of Exeter of his appointment as County Solicitor for the county during the April term of the Court, on account of Mr. Small's sickness. While the duties of this appointment will be a serious personal inconvenience to Mr. Bell, it is understood that he will accept it.

The Reform Club will hold a temperance meeting in Mechanic's Hall Sunday evening, having engaged Mr. John A. Nicholls of England, a popular temperance lecturer, and Mr. J. Carl Cheney, who addressed the meeting last Sunday night. Both of these gentlemen come to our midst strongly endorsed, and if one-half of what is said of them be true, they will render effective service for the cause here. Admission free to all. Doors open at 7. Praise meeting at 7 30.

It seem as if Mr. Daniel Littlefield ought to know white oak; but a round stick of cord wood which Mr. Clare Walker kindly allowed us to select from the yard in his charge at the North End last spring, to make some tool handles, and which we both thought was fine white oak, was also approved as such by Mr. Littlefield, whom we met near by; but was immediately pronounced hornbeam by the carriage-maker to whom we took it to be worked, and who reminds us of the circumstance now. It may be that there is a beam in your eye in the late knee case at the yard.—Weekly.

We are pleased to place among the contributors to our advertising columns Mr. Daniel J. Spinney, Painter and Decorator, who has lately started in business at No. 13 Bow street. Mr. Spinney learned his trade twenty-six years ago, and his reputation as a thorough workman has never been questioned. He has been employed in houses and places where first-class work was required and appreciated, and has always given satisfaction. Several of the best signs in the city testify to his ability as a letterer, and in all the various branches of the trade he is superior. We have seen specimens of his talent and taste as a decorator, and any of our citizens desiring work of this kind done will find, by patronizing him, that his work is skillfully, tastefully and faithfully performed.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Mr. Thomas O. Rand, of this city, employed on the navy yard as machinist helper, was suddenly killed on Thursday morning. Mr. Rand's duties included oiling the shafting and machinery in the machine shop of the Department of Steam Engineering; his usual routine of morning work was finished, when he detected a slight noise in the gearing at one end of the room, and taking a ladder, he placed it against a partition about three feet from the shaft. The oiling is generally done from the floor by means of an oil-feeder attached to a pole, the ladder being used only in case of examining the machinery. It is supposed that while oiling or examining the works the ladder slipped and he fell upon the shaft, his frock entwining with it, in its revolution, carrying him around with it. One of the workmen who was near him heard the noise, and seeing the situation immediately gave signal for the engine (which was making 120 revolutions a minute) to stop, which was done almost instantly. It was about ten minutes before the body was disengaged, and life was then found to be extinct; the surgeon of the yard and Dr. M. F. Wentworth were called in, but Mr. Rand was beyond the reach of their professional skill. On examination of the injuries it was discovered that both legs were broken, the right one being completely crushed below the knee, the foot hanging by the skin; the left foot seemed as if doubled up; the hands were badly scratched and cut, but the rest of the body show no marks. This is accounted for by the fact that the body was held close to the shaft, the legs and arms only striking a beam in the floor above, which could not have been more than twelve or fifteen inches from the body. Mr. Rand was a worthy and respected citizen; his loss will be a severe affliction to his family, and they will find warm sympathizers in those who knew and appreciated the worth of the deceased.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

Petition for a sewer on Washington street from Pleasant street to Puddle Dock, was referred to committee on drains.

Joshua Stackpole asked leave to encumber Howard and Washington streets for building purposes. Alexander H. Ladd asked leave to open Market street, to lay drain from his house to the river. Mrs. Mary C. Salter asked leave to lay drain across Court street. All granted, with the usual restrictions.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to confer with the Gas Company in regard to the price of gas used by the city, reported that the Gas Co. had agreed to furnish gas for $2.80 per thousand cubic feet, and 1 1-2 cents per hour for street lights.

John A. Hammond presented a claim against the city for ten dollars for a flock of ducks killed by dogs.

Voted that the fire companies be paid.

Committee on school houses recommended that the request of the Board of Education be granted, for the use of the lower room in State street building, and the repairs asked for at the Manning school.

Committee on streets recommended that the petitioners for a cross walk across Summer street have leave to withdraw.

The committee appointed to assess land damages for the proposed new road asked for further time; granted.

The matter in regard to the gas light at the corner of Market street and Commercial alley was taken from the table, and the committee on gas lights recommended that it be lighted at ten o'clock and kept burning until daylight; accepted and adopted.

Voted that the committee on streets be empowered to have signs placed at the heads of streets where they are needed.

The committee who were empowered to sell the old hand engines and hose stated that they had been offered two hundred and ten dollars for them and the hose. The gentleman who made the offer made a statement that he would build a new hook and ladder truck for one thousand dollars and the old truck and engine; or he would build a new truck for $1800. No action was taken.

Adjourned for two weeks.

SUPREME COURT, LAW TERM.

The Court came in at the State House in Concord on Thursday. The Judges were all present, except Judge Doe, who was detained at home by indisposition. Judge Foster presided.

Upon the Rockingham docket, in No. 8, State vs. Lyman Cate, charged with selling peanuts, small beer, cigars and like merchandise near the Hedding Camp Meeting ground in Epping, an opinion was delivered by Stanley, J., overruling the demurrer and sustaining the constitutionality of Sec. 9, ch. 225, of the Statutes, under which the proceeding was commenced against Cate. Small for State, Frink for Cate.

No. 9. John S. Lamprey vs. Jonathan Sargent; replevin for brick on which verdict was given for plaintiff. Opinion by Bingham, J, giving judgment upon the verdict.

No. 10. Robt. W. Thomson vs. Philip Mayo; trespass to try title to a strip of land on an ancient private way in Derry, Opinion by Allen, J., overruled the exceptions. Costs for plff. up to time of amended confession; for defendent after. Judgment on verdict for amount confessed, with costs to be determined at the trial term.

No. 14. Wm. H. Leach vs. Republic Fire Insurance Co.; action on policy of insurance wherein the ownership of the property was not expressed in the written portion of the policy. Piff. shew that the Agent of the company knew of the ownership. Deft. claimed that plff. had forfeited his claim by false swearing in his proof of loss in his estimate of the property in which plff. had a life estate, and that plff. had not submitted the claim to arbitrators, as in the policy provided. The house was a hundred years old, and the referee found that Leach's interest in it at the time of loss was $600. The referee found the estimate of the plff. to have been too high, but not made with any fraudulent intent on the part of the plaintiff; and it could not have been honestly made if he had given it more attention; but the court held this to be a fraud upon the company. If the ignorance might have been avoided by care, etc., the plff. is responsible for its effect, and the claim of the plaintiff is thereby avoided, unless at a jury trial a different result can be shown. As to the stipulation for arbitration, it was indefinite in terms and could have no certain effect, and is not binding in this case. Judgment for defendant, unless plff. elects trial by jury.

No. 15. Wm. Solomon vs. Plumer H. Chesley; opinion by Foster, J. Judgment on the verdict, for the defendant. Bartlett and Hatch for plff.; Leavitt, Towle and Frink for deft.

No. 16. James S. Wiggin vs. Ann M. Wiggin; equity case as to title in South Newmarket; opinion by Foster J., overruling the exceptions. Case discharged.

No. 17. Sam'l R. Thompson vs. Chas. H. Williams; action for cows taken, alleged to have been sold on Sunday; opinion by Smith, J. The verdict was for the plaintiff at the trial term. The plff. cannot maintain the action, and the motion for a nonsuit should have been granted; there can be no legal remedy to enforce an illegal contract; the parties were in pari delicto. Verdict set aside; nonsuit ordered.

No. 18. James M. Meloon vs. Robert White and al.; dismissed.

No. 20. Edwin W. Cochrane vs. Wm. H. Allen; opinion by Clark, J. Action to recover certain sums alleged to be owing from one former partner to another. The parties were in livery business in Portsmouth, and divided profits weekly; and looked over accounts, and (as it was stated) agreed upon the balance due, on a settlement at termination of partnership. The jury found a balance of $302.66 due the plaintiff, and interest from date of writ. The Court instructed the jury that partnership debts could not be determined in this way, unless the plff. shew that the partnership matters had been agreed and settled by the parties, and the defendant promised the plff. to pay the sum due. The plff. was to have all the bills due the firm, and pay its debts. Judgment on the verdict.

No. 22. Portsmouth Trust and Guarantee Co. vs. Portsmouth; opinion by Foster, J. Case remanded to trial term.

No. 23. Abigail W. Webster vs. Amos N. Webster, admr. of Thos. Webster; opinion by Allen, J. Case discharged. C. U. Bell and Hatch for plff.; Bartlett for deft.

No. 24. Pettee vs. Dustin; replevin for stock of goods attached by a sheriff's deputy; question as to mortgage of the stock. Passed at request of defendant's counsel, after the delivery of the opinion had been begun.

No. 27. Hook vs. Nashua & Worcester Railroad; action for killing colt on Nashua & Rochester R. R.; opinion by Clark, J. Railroad not liable for accident to animals on track, unless by some proved negligence of the corporation. Such negligence will not be presumed, when sufficient fences have been erected and kept in repair, and bars and gates constructed for the convenience of land owners. Exceptions sustained, and verdict set aside. Hatch for plff.; Stevens for deft.

No. 28. Judge of Probate vs. Rice; opinion by Bingham, J. Question as to interest on legacy and er will of Arabella Rice; opinion in Rice vs. Society affirmed; exceptions overruled. Judgment on referee's report.

No. 31. John D. Ordway vs. Jonathan C. Saunders; case to recover for a money package, lost by a carrier. Question as to whether the package was delivered to a servant of Saunders, one Nelson, by whom it was stolen; opinion by Bellows, J. Judgment on the verdict. Hatch and Bartlett for plff.; Marston for deft.

No. 35. Messer vs. Smith, submitted. Opinions on Strafford County docket were delivered in the afternoon.

The Court has decided, during the vacation, fifty cases.

New Hampshire Items.

George W. Janvrin & Co., of Great Falls, wholesale dealers in country produce, have failed, with liabilities of nearly $10,000. The creditors are mostly Boston parties.

A dwelling-house and contents belonging to Martin O'Locklin at Laconia were destroyed by fire Thursday morning. Loss $1000; insurance $650.

A letter has been received by friends of Mrs. Ephraim Plimpton, who eloped from Manchester three weeks ago with H. P. Bean, stating her to be sick in bed, and that Bean had deserted her. She is believed to be in New York city. Bean succeeded in taking with him $4,000 in cash, borrowed from friends. Mr. Plimpton has filed a petition for divorce.

Quiet is restored at Dartmouth. Of the large number dismissed from college only two are expelled—Isaac G. Burnett, a junior from San Francisco, and John Crocker, a freshman in the Scientific Department, from Marion, Ill. The sophomores escorted their classmates to the cars.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—In a restaurant. A gentleman and a scrub are seated at the same table. The scrub is just finishing his dinner, the gentleman just beginning his. The scrub lights a cigar and blows a cloud of smoke over his coffee. The gentleman rises, and says in the politest tone: "Excuse me, sir; will it annoy you if I eat while you are smoking?"

—A man had rheumatism, and in half an hour he learned that the following will cure it: Iodide of potassium, quinine, glauber salts, onions, raw lemons, baked lemons, raw silk, oiled silk, gin and tansy, Turkish baths, a potato carried in the pocket, an eel skin tied round the leg, a suit of red flannel, chloroform liniment, hot water, cold water, hot lemonade, a trip South, a dry atmosphere, equable temperature, sulphur baths, mustard and hot water, camphor liniment, electricity—

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed those dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded. If the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have relieved more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Use as directed and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to taking as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay7

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often restores the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, healthy and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hair resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roof-bed—a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell what I know about catarrh, and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could unbosom a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "douse," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," would't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for advertisements. Gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 108 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over six years, which While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, such as Tumors, King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally conducive in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and bowels costive, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassa and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who's substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear. Such are the derangements of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, like Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, lothing and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so efficacious, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been terribly suffered. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep from choking. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the noisome matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to wrench the ulcerated tonsils, so my cough is three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my vision became clear, my hearing was completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had produced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

BOSTON, Feb. 25, 1875. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

SUFFOLK, SS. FEB. 25, 1875.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a forcing injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions with no result, and as it was called rheumatism, cured, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and sore less almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, Mrs. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs Irritations of the Throat and Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

☞ Not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

☞ Careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Plaster with a light Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Prescott's plurality over McKean, 1584;
Prescott's majority over all, 1018.

All the towns in the State are included in the foregoing table, except Easton, which last year gave Prescott 8, Marcy 78. Had Easton's vote been the same as last year, Prescott's majority would have been 948; but it seems there was a relative democratic gain of 7 in that town, for (though the vote is not given) it is announced from Concord that the "full vote of the State" gives Prescott 941 majority.

Daily Chronicle

SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1878.

Congress.

The House on Thursday passed the naval appropriation bill. The amount appropriated is $14,048,684, of which $3,698,750 is for the pay of officers of the navy, $2,400,000 for the pay of the men, and $645,400 for pay of the retired list. The bill provides that there shall be no appointments made from civil life of secretaries or clerks to commanders of vessels, but that a line officer, not above the grade of a lieutenant, shall be detailed to perform the duties of such secretaries.

A bill was reported to the House from the committee on commerce, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to establish a large number of life saving and life boat stations at exposed points on the Atlantic, Gulf and lake coasts. Accompanying the bill was an elaborate report against the transfer of the life-saving service from the Treasury to the Navy Department.

Naval Affairs.

The Secretary of the Navy has rescinded the order for the Omaha to load with goods for the Paris exposition. Such goods as remain after the sailing of the Constellation, will be sent by the steamship line. The school ship Constitution and the Portsmouth will remain to bring back goods, while the Wyoming and Constellation will return after discharging.

The U. S. S. Enterprise, at New Orleans, is under orders to proceed to the mouth of the Amazon river, and with the consent of Brazilian authorities make a track survey of the Amazon and Madeira rivers as far as navigable, then to touch at the Island of San Domingo and remain there if the troubles prevailing demand the presence of an American man-of-war in protecting our consul and citizens, after which she is to return to Hampton Roads.

It is said that the Secretary of the Navy has received a large number of applications from commanders, captains and other officer of lower rank in the navy to be detailed to the command of the James Gordon Bennett polar expedition, and for duty connected with that expedition.

Capt. Daniel L. Braine is detached from the command of the receiving ship Colorado and ordered to command the Hartford at the South Atlantic station.

The Newfoundland Seal Fisheries.

The seal fishers left St. John's on their hazardous voyage, the sailing vessels on the 5th of March, and the steamers at 12 o'clock Saturday night, March 9th. About the 15th of March the young seals are in the best condition for capture, and the winter has been so open that great hopes are entertained that the vessels, both sailing and steamers, will be able to move about freely in search of white coats. There has been great demand for "berths" upon the steamers this year, and very many men have been left behind. Twenty-six steamers have left in all, taking, with sailing craft, about 10,000 men. Most of the sailing vessels clear from the outharbors, so that correct returns cannot be given. The largest steamer fitted out from St. John's is the Arctic, belonging in Dundee, which took on board 303 men.

News and Notes.

A despatch received at St. Petersburg from Tiflis officially announces the death from typhus fever of Gen. John Loris Melikoff, commander of the Russian army in Asia Minor. He had greatly distinguished himself in the recent as well as in former campaigns in Asia.

Tom Allen and Jack Glennan fought thirty rounds in Greenwich, Conn., Wednesday evening. The latter was the victor.

Mrs. Cox, a passenger on the steamship Anglia, to New York, had her trunks seized on Thursday, having in them a large quantity of silks, velvets, laces, etc., smuggled. Mrs. Rallings, the milliner smuggler arrested some days ago, has been held in $3000 for trial.

A bold forger has been discovered at Memphis, Tenn., in the person of Miss Mary Hampton, for ten years a highly respected and esteemed teacher in the city schools. Her forgeries amount to over $3000, among her victims being the Emmett bank and some of the most prominent business men of the place. Since the detection of her crime she has resigned her place as a teacher and attempted suicide.

A dozen cows, in different herds, at Ferrisburgh and New Haven, Vt., have died within a week of some new and mysterious disease. In most cases the animals die instantly, or are found dead in the morning when they seemed all right the previous night. The examination of one victim showed a dark red streak running parallel to tee backbone from the neck to the rump, and when the hide was removed the flesh came with it, leaving the bones bare.

A young man in Sprague, Conn., who carries pistol cartridges in his pocket with his tobacco happened to get one in his pipe the other day and did not know it until a piece of his nose was blown off.

Sheriff Caldwell of the town of Hayward, near Deadwood, went to Custer City with a posse to arrest Dr. Flick, charged with larceny of the county records. Caldwell went alone to Flick's horse where the latter disarmed the Sheriff by strategy, and made him promise to go back to Hayward.

Before Commissioner Hallett, in Boston, Thursday, Capt. Thomas Peabody, of Bath, Me., was held in $10,000 on a charge of manslaughter in causing the death of the sailer, James H. Elwood, by tortures of the most inhuman character.

In Foster, R. I., Wednesday night, William Ide returned home drunk and badly beat his wife, who had also been drinking. After the husband fell asleep the wife took a double-barrelled shot-gun and killed him.

A family named Murray, in Newport, R. I., on Thursday had four children lying dead from diphtheria, with three others not expected to live the day out. The father was almost insane and threatened to shoot the undertaker, and a police officer was compelled to be in attendance. A child coming from New York is supposed to have brought the disease.

"Jimmie" Hope, the burglar arrested for breaking into the Dexter (Me.) Savings Bank, is not suspected of the murder of Cashier Barron, as he was in jail in Connecticut at the time of the murder. He is accused of burglarizing the bank on the night of July 20, 1875.

George Wallace and his brother, living near Wheeling, West Virginia, murdered Wallace's wife and infant, and outraged and murdered a niece of Mrs. Wallace. The ruffians are under arrest, and a heavy guard is stationed over them to prevent the incensed people from lynching them.

New Hampshire Items.

Ex-Mayor George A. Pillsbury and family have left Concord for Minneapolis, Minn., where they are to reside.

The Manchester Base Ball Club, as engaged for the season of 1878, are: Snigg and Leary, p.; Rowen and Kelley, c.; Coggswell, 1b.; Hawkes, 2b.; Woodhead, 3b.; Dailey, s. s.; O'Rourke, c. f.; Martin, l. f. The grounds have been inspected and will be put in order immediately.

Midshipman Charles A. Gove, United States Navy, of Concord, arrived home from San Francisco a few days since, and is awaiting orders.

Charles M. Cooke, ringleader in the recent hazing at Dartmouth College, and held in default of $1000, escaped from custody Wednesday night. President Bartlett issued circulars Thursday morning, offering $100 for Cooke and $100 for Isaac G. Burnett, who fled Monday night to escape arrest. Cooke comes from Norwich, Conn., and Burnett from San Francisco.

John F. Pattee, of Manchester, twenty years old, committed suicide in Boston on Wednesday.

On Wednesday night unknown persons attempted the murder of some member of Oliver Dodge's family, near Nashua, by firing through the window, and afterwards with a club demolished two front windows of the house. Mrs. Dodge and her two daughters were alone in the house.

The office of the Nashua Telegraph was entered again Thursday night by unknown parties. The money drawer was broken open with an iron bar. The contents, consisting of several dollars in pennies and nickels, were taken.

It is stated that a man named Cole took his father from Lebanon to Stanstead, P. Q., a few days ago, and there abandoned him. He is a helpless old man, afflicted with palsy. It is said that the authorities of Lebanon hired the son to throw his father on to some other town.

George Hamilton, the negro brought from Louisiana on suspicion of being the murderer of A. C. Foster, is still in jail in Keene. There is said to be no evidence against Hamilton, and the authorities will only have to contrive some way to quietly let the darkey slide.

Political.

The Republican State Convention of Rhode Island on Thursday renominated all the present State officers.

The new postmaster at Petersburg, Virginia, is an active democrat, and is said to have been "the bitterest rebel in the place." Considering that the district is republican, and Petersburg the largest town in it, it is a matter of some surprise that a republican could not have been found capable of filling the position. —Indianapolis Journal.

The House of Representatives has illustrated its ideas of Civil Service by doubling the number of its officers and lessening their efficiency; by withholding the appropriations necessary to the proper conduct of the public business, and lavishing the treasury upon the rebel claimants, and upon investigations that have disclosed nothing, and whose only effect has been to give employment to democratic deadbeats and bummers. And this is the party that appeals to the American people for the power of the Government which it vainly attempted to overthrow in the field, and under which it now attempts to reap all the benefits that it lost in that failure.—Providence Journal.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. It is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial as being the most reliable preparation ever used; it is particularly adapted to lung and throat affections in children. Try one bottle. tmch23

By the exercise of the most judicious management, the Grand Central Hotel, New York, has very cleverly turned the tide of trade in its direction, not less by the sweeping reduction of its rates than through its excellent management.

Judicious speculation in stocks is as legitimate a business as any, and affords opportunities for large returns. But specu ators need to employ brokers who are experienced and honest. THE CITY.

The Board of Assessors on Wednesday evening organized with Isaiah Wilson as chairman, and Marcellus Bufford, secretary.

Sale of real estate, floating property, bank and railroad stocks, etc., by auction to-day, at Col. Hackett's office. See advertisement.

Mr. Richard H. Waldron, of this city, has been apppointed foreman of brass foundry and galvanzing shop in Department of Construction and Repair, at the navy yard.

On Wednesday, the schooner Alice, Capt. Fernald, cleared for Portsmouth, but was obliged to return to this port on account of the high wind prevailing. She sailed again Thursday morning.—Exeter News-Letter.

Mr. Harry B. Kent, clerk in the Boston custom house and son of Sheriff Kent of this city, met with an accident a few days since by slipping and falling on a railroad track, whereby he sustained a painful injury to his knee. He is now at his home in this city.—Times.

A grand reception in honor of Mrs. Melvino Marcy, (formerly Miss Susie M. Foster of this city,) was given in the parlor of Willard's Hotel in Washington on Monday evening, the 18th inst., and was attended by a large and brilliant assemblage. Mrs. Marcy proposes to take up her permanent residence in Washington next autumn.

"Du-da," the Kittery correspondent of the Times, whose partisan and personal spite against Naval Constructor Wilson involved the aforesaid "Du-da" in such a ludicrous "red-oak" muddle, has changed his name to "Hackmetack." He may know more about hackmetack than he does about red oak—and then not be very learned in the hackmetack line.

Washburn is a familiar name to all our amusement-loving people, and wherever the announcement is made that the veteran manager bearing that name is to visit Portsmouth, there is sure to be a "sensation." E. S. Washburn's latest and "Last Sensation" is reported to be the best yet, includes new faces and new features, and is advertised for this (Saturday) evening at Music Hall. See advertisement.

Do not forget that to-morrow night, at Music Hall, occurs the second charity concert by Harlow's Orchestra, assisted on this occasion by Miss Emma J. Flanders, soprano, Mr. Thomas Chase, tenor, Mrs. Bonnett, contralto, Mr. H. L. Harlow, basso, Miss Alice Hanscom, pianist, and Prof. J. D. Boothman, flutist. Reserved seats in parquette, twenty cents; gallery and balcony, ten cents. See advertisement.

We hear enthusiastic anticipations of the coming entertainment by Mrs. Bartlett and her friends, expressed on all sides. Such hearty appreciation of local talent is a healthy sign in a community. Many persons on leaving Franklin Hall after listening to the clear, distinct and pleasing declamations of the trio composed of Mrs. Bartlett, Miss Spalding and Mr. Foster, exclaimed, "how absurd to send out of town for entertainment when we have so much talent at home." We would remind our readers that the sale of tickets began on Friday at Preston's store. No extra charge for reserved seats; 35 cts. to any part of the house. A very large number of tickets were taken within a few hours of the opening of the sale.

PRESENTATION.

As has already been noted in these columns, the pleasant and gentlemanly Ticket Agent at the Eastern Railroad Station in this city, Mr. George F. Thompson, in humble imitation of our ancient ancestor, Adam, has "taken a rib." And although it would seem (to the uninitated) that this condition of things would be about all the bliss that is needed for the comfort of a naturally contented man, still our friend Thompson rejoices in the additional felicity of being a member and past officer in Newichewannock Tribe of Red Men, the members of which Order, despising the ordinary vocabulary of the pale faces, revel in the primeval North American dialect, and talk of suns and runs, moons and sleeps, hunts and breaths, wigwams and council fires, wampum and so forth.

Sympathizing with their brother, and cherishing a fond recollection of what a noble, whole-souled fellow he was, when moving among them as their Sachem in all the pride of virtuous bachelorhood, his brother warriors, during his absence on his wedding tour, thrust their hands into their wampum belts and contributed one hundred fathoms (dollars, hundred cents each—no short measure) for the purpose of purchasing something wherewith to express their affection and esteem. The testimonial selected was a French clock of exquisite beauty and ingenious mechanism, finished in the most elaborate style of modern art. On Friday evening, at the regular meeting, the present Sachem of the Tribe, Wm. E. Littlefield, presented this clock to Mr. Thompson in the following language:

In behalf of the members of Newichewannock Tribe, No. 4, you will allow me, as Sachem of this Tribe, to present you with this clock, as a token of our esteem for you and your Squaw that you have so recently captured while you were following the hunt. And as it marks the runs, may you be constantly reminded that F. F. & C., the three symbolic lights in our Order, should ever be your uppermost thought, for by them we are reminded that Freedom is for all, that Friendship should always exist among brothers, and that Charity, the brightest of all, is as extensive as the Universe. And now, Bro. Thompson, you will take this small expression of our regard and bear it to your Wigwam, with the best wishes of the Chief of this Tribe to yourself and Squaw; and may you live many Great Suns to enjoy it.

The whole affair was a complete surprise to the recipient, who was very naturally unable to respond with anything like a speech, though his brief assurance that he fully appreciated the spirit that prompted the gift was in good taste.

Mr. Thompson was also presented on Friday, a few hours before the occurrence of the above-mentioned incident, with a very handsome ice service of silver, from the Alpha Boat Club of Portland. He evidently does not lack friends.

SUPREME COURT, LAW TERM.

The following cases on the Rockingham docket were continued:

George R. Bennett, petitioner, vs. town of Danville et al.;

True M. Gould vs. town of Raymond;

Freeman E. Drake vs. town of North Hampton;

State by Att'y Gen'l vs. Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire and Eastern Railroad Co.;

Nellie M. Sawyer, admx., vs. Concord Railroad;

Sarah C. Peirce et al. vs. city of Portsmouth;

Trustees of Phillips Academy vs. town of Exeter;

Bennett vs. Bennett;

State vs. Herbert W. Nowell;

Lamprey vs. Donacour;

Sleeper vs. Nashua & Rochester Railroad;

Lyman vs. Boston & Maine Railroad;

Hillard vs. Noyes.

The decision of the full bench of the Supreme Court, in the Hanson murder case, rendered in Concord on Thursday by Justice Allen, was not wholly unexpected by the prosecuting officers of the State and by many members of the bar. The opinion of the Court is that Joseph Buzzell's acquittal by a jury on the charge of murder does not bar his trial as an accessory to the crime in the light of counselling, hiring and procuring a person to commit it. Buzzell will therefore be tried on the last indictment, connecting him with the murder as accessory. In regard to the decision rendered, the Court held that testimony could be used to prove a person accessory to a crime, even though the same evidence would go to show that he was the principal. The Senate chamber was crowded while Justice Allen was reading the decision, and eminent lawyers remarked at the close that it was one of the most important opinions on criminal law that has been rendered in the State. Charles W. Cooke, whom Buzzell hired to do the murder, is still confined in the jail in this city.

THE MARGINAL ROAD.

Ed. Chronicle: As soon as there is a prospect of doing anything to improve the city, the "dogs in the manger" begin to growl and whine, and thereby defeat, if possible, every step toward our advancement. The only trouble or hindrance to improvements in Portsmouth is the "Great and Varied Intellect of its citizens." We have pot-house politicians in our midst who in their own estimation are able to instruct the Secretary of the Treasury how to run the finances of the United States; and if an improvement is to be made in our sewerage system, and civil engineers are engaged who have spent their time and money in learning the art of accomplishing the object in the best and cheapest manner, lo! and behold! we find "Tax-payers" and "Stars" immediately rise up and denounce their recommendations, saying in one breath that "our sensible tax-paying citizens express their satisfaction" at the plan, and in almost the next line asking "Will not every tax-payer protest against this wanton waste of money on the one hand, and disregard of the life, health and prosperity of the town on the other?"

Now it is quite evident that "Tax-payer" has been looking out of his window only. If he will come out from his secluded condition and learn that the Board of Aldermen are moving in the line "the tax-paying citizens expressed their satisfaction over" he may be more enlightened in the eyes of others, if not in his own. He speaks of the poor "starving for work and being fed at public cost." Is he aware that the relief of the city's poor has cost less this year than it did in the years of "good times" in 1864 and 1865, or in fact any year since that time? It is now $1800 less than last winter, and $2100 less than the winter before that, and so on, decreasing about $1000 each year for the past five years. This simply shows that "Tax-payer's" article is liable to deceive in many ways, and cause other tax-payers to croak where they should feel proud that so few are actually suffering compared with the number in other cities of equal size, or even in this city in years gone by.

If "tax-payer" will post himself as to what dikes have done for the health and prosperity of other towns he may change his mind. Undoubtedly the idea of surveying a street in the bottom of Back Bay, Boston harbor, was a ridiculous idea to him; but how much less of an undertaking is this. If he were to have his way, all other "educated idiots" would croak at his plan as he now does at theirs.

Would it not be far better to let them in whose hands the matter is placed, and who have taken much time and trouble to investigate it, do as their judgment dictates, and only urge them to progression, rather than for each and every individual in the city to oppose, because the idea did not originate in their own fertile brain?

The Reform Club will hold a temperance meeting in Mechanic's Hall Sunday evening, having engaged Mr. John A. Nicholls of England, a popular temperance lecturer, and Mr. J. Carl Cheney, who addressed the meeting last Sunday night. Both of these gentlemen come to our midst strongly endorsed, and if one-half of what is said of them be true, they will render effective service for the cause here. Admission free to all. Doors open at 7. Praise meeting at 7 30.

THE VICINITY.

Newington proposes to bind the amount of her town debt, about twenty-three hundred dollars, at four per cent interest, within her own borders, and exempt the loan from taxation.

Albert Hutchings' house at Cape Neddick was burned on Thursday, with all the furniture; loss $1800; insured in Kittery and Eliot Mutual, $800 on house, $200 on furniture. Cause of the accident, a defective chimney.

By a fire in Exeter, Thursday night, the frame building on Water street, owned by the heirs of Hon. Alva Wood, together with the boot and shoe store of Henry Dow and the auction and general assortment store of J. P. Elkins, were destroyed, with part of their contents. Loss about $8000.

The barn of Thomas Boothby, in Kennebunk, took fire about ten o'clock Thursday forenoon and was destroyed, together with a cow, six tons of hay, farming utensils, etc. Loss about $600; no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. A tramp was seen lurking in the vicinity of the barn just before the fire.

The schooner Enterprise, Captain C. M. Perkins, of Wells, was driven on Squam Bar in a high wind Wednesday night, and will probably be a total loss, as she is badly stove. She had a mixed cargo of fish, eggs, and potatoes, and a deck load of wood for Boston. The crew of four men, and three passengers, were rescued by the crew of the adjacent life saving station.

Mr. J. B. Bunker, of Biddeford, on the 19th inst. captured a wounded wild goose in the river near that city.

Honor in His Own Land.

Says Comley in his recently-issued work, The History of New York State: "The day has passed when the benefactors of humanity were allowed to live in ignominious poverty — their sacrifices, their labors unrecompensed. To-day, the benefactors of the people—the men who devote their lives and energies to the interests of humanity—these are the men whom the world delights to honor, and whom it rewards with princely fortunes. As an earnest worker for the welfare of his fellow-men, Dr. R. V. Pierce has won their warmest sympathy and esteem. While seeking to be their servant only, he has become a prince among them. Yet the immense fortune lavished upon him by a generous people he hoards not, but invests in the erection and establishment of institutions directly contributive to the public good, the public thus realizing, in their liberal patronage, a new meaning of that beautiful Oriental custom of casting bread upon the waters. Noted in both public and private life for his unswerving integrity and all those sterling virtues that ennoble manhood, Dr. Pierce ranks high among those few men, whose names the Empire State is justly proud to inscribe upon her roll of honor. Ambitious, yet moved by an ambition strictly amenable to the most discriminating and well-balanced judgment, his future career promises to be one of unparalleled activity and usefulness, ably supplementing the work he has already accomplished, by a life at once noble in effort, enviable in its grand results." While Dr. Pierce's genius and energy have won for him so enviable a position on the records of a nation, having been elected Senator by an overwhelming majority, his justly celebrated Household Remedies have gained for him a yet more desirable place in the hearts of a grateful people. His Golden Medical Discovery and Favorite Prescription have brought health and happiness to ten thousand households.

—During the past thirty-seven years, fifty-six Atlantic steamers have been lost. The number of British vessels was forty-two; American, five; French, four; German, four; Belgian one. The causes of disaster are given as follows: Wrecked, thirty; burned, four; collision, five, with icebergs, two; foundered, two; lost in fog, two; never heard from, nine. No less than 4430 persons lost their lives in consequence of these disasters.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
IT IS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.
Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus healthy, wavy or curly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and arrested; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, and steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated, beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embalm a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became complexly closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tube," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable customer for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 101 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A friend recommended your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy; induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not take more than three-fourths of a second, nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By reason of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Severe Lung Agnties. As a Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and as a Tonic, properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, a yellow tinge of the white of the eyes, bitter taste in the mouth, pain in the side, or where you feel as if you had the blues, or have a cough, and have raising of phlegm, or have a bad taste, in mouth, internal heat or chills alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it will do the perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassa and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders, or eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who'e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation, and would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before could sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to do for years. I continued gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the clog of mucus in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince more of its victims that a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following their use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

BOSTON, Feb. 23, 1875. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

SUFFOLK, ss. FEB. 23, 1875.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

SETH J. THOMAS, Justice of the Peace.

Each package contains Dr Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price $1.00. For sale by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States. WEEKS & POTTER General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months the sufferer, I have by use of your Collins' Voltaic Plaster, caused by a former injury to my lungs, and for Pleurisy, I have found your prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physicians a recent relapse of my Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury to my lungs, and for Pleurisy, I have found your prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physicians a recent relapse of my Chronic Pleurisy, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and sore ness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them incomparable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

PORTLAND, Me., April 27, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs Irritations and Soreness of the Throat and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a Medical Plaster. Other, as seen in the papers, are sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

—A singular instance of death from fright is reported from Berryville, Mo. A young man who had watched with a sick friend was passing a graveyard on his way home, after midnight, when two men appeared to rise up, exclaiming, "There he is now; let us take him." He put spurs to his horse and got home all right, but was restless and unable to sleep, and just before day he was attacked with a convulsion in which he continued thirty-six hours and then died.

—At Sandusky, Ohio, in a recent case, a juryman who couldn't read or write, got a friend to prepare him a lot of "yes" and "no" ballots, putting one set in one vest pocket and the other in another, so that he could tell which way he was voting. But he got so absorbed in the testimony that when he came to vote "yes" he forgot which pocket held the right ballots and kept on voting "no" against the solid affirmative of his associates, until one of them found out how the matter stood, and the vote was made unanimous.

—An English clergyman has a weakness for clergymen of color, and on a recent occasion gave in honor of three or four of them a dinner, to which he invited some of his distinguished fellow-laborers in the vineyard to meet them. The dinner hour came and the white parsons, but though host and guest waited three-quarters of an hour, not a black one appeared. The host thereupon sends for the servant, and asks whether any one has called. "No one, sir, no one," is the answer, but after some time it occurs to the servant to say, "No one, sir, indeed no one has called except some Christy minstrels, and I soon got rid of them."

News and Notes.

The "responsible" editor of the Journal La Commune in Paris has been sentenced to one year's imprisonment and a fine of five thousand francs. Almost any editor could afford a year's imprisonment, but when it comes to a fine of five thousand francs—parbleu!

The telegraph informs us that Capt. Stoddard has succeeded in getting off the beach at Portsmouth, N. C., barque Henry Pelham, which went ashore thirty days ago. The vessel leaks but little and will at once be towed to Norfolk.

Jerry, Isaac and Jacob Childs, negroes, were hung on Friday at Abbeville, Ala., for the murder of Mrs. Young. An immense crowd was present. They all asserted their innocence.

Samuel Chambers and George Collins, negroes, were hung at Newcastle, Del., on Friday, for outraging one Kate Smith, alias O'Toole, in August last. The woman and her reputed husband, James Smith, were tramps, and the only witnesses against the colored men. Since the trial Smith has confessed that his evidence was false, and that the woman, instead of being his wife, was a common prostitute, and a consenting party in the acts for which the men were hung. But the Governor of Delaware declined to grant a pardon or a reprieve.

"Jimmy" Hope, one of the burglars who robbed the Dexter (Me.) Savings Bank in July, 1875, and who was recently captured, is held for trial in $10,000, and in default lodged in Bangor jail. A gentleman of this city not entirely unknown in detective circles says that Hope was unquestionably one of the gang of thieves that burglarized the Winthrop (Me.) Savings Bank—a crime which was "compromised" by the bank authorities—the gang engaged in that enterprise consisting of Jo Howard, Jim Brady, Sammy Twaddles, Jimmy Hope and Jim Powers; it was said that Tom Draper was in it, but he wasn't.

John Wallace has confessed the murder of his brother's wife and child, and the woman's niece, Miss Church, at Littleton, West Virginia. He exonerates his brother, but criminates a man named Villars, whom he says offered him $30 to kill Mrs. Wallace.

Hon. John Allison, Register of the Treasury since 1869, died suddenly Saturday morning, of apoplexy.

By the explosion of a boiler in a sawmill at Richmond, Va., Friday, a white man and two colored men were killed; also two young sons of the mill owner, who were playing in the engine room. Several other persons were badly hurt, two of them fatally.

Steamer Magenta blew up on the Hudson, Saturday; two men were killed, another blown overboard and drowned, and six badly scalded, one of them fatally.

Miss Elvira Follett, twenty-five years of age, was fatally burned at Gardiner, Me., Friday evening, by the explosion of a kerosene lamp.

Mr. Peter Dobson, of Vernon, Conn., a man of ninety-three, has just died. He is remembered for having published in 1826 an original theory in regard to glacial action, which moved Sir Roderick Murchison to say, sixteen years after, that "a previous acquaintance with it might have saved volumes of disputation on both sides of the Atlantic." Mr. Dobson's theory is the one now universally accepted as correct by scientists.

Dr. George A. Monroe, a graduate of Harvard Medical School, and a member of the Massachusetts Medical Society for the last eleven years, has been refused admission to the Rhode Island Medical Society, notwithstanding he was cordially recommended by the Board of Censors, the reason for the refusal being simply that he had published a professional card in the Providence Journal. The Journal severely condemns the illiberal spirit manifested by the Society.

President Baez of San Domingo, with his family, has arrived at Porto Rico, the San Domingo revolution having succeeded.

It is now stated that between 4000 and 7000 Cuban insurgents still hold out, and that but 1000 have surrendered.

Capt. Paul Boyton has succeeded in swimming across the Straits of Gibraltar, landing in Tangier bay after a terrible passage of seventeen hours. The sea ran very high and the night was intensely dark.

Father Walsh, pastor of the Catholic Church at Long Branch, has caused the arrest of two liquor dealers there for selling whiskey to a woman who went to his church drunk and danced the whole length of the aisle to the tune of "St. Patrick's Day," which was being played by the organ.

Bessie Turner has gone on the stage, her professional name being Beta Avery.

A formidable naval expedition of German ships has gone to Nicaragua to enforce redress for the outrages on the German minister some time ago.

Three girls, the oldest but eleven years of age, were arrested in Fall River, Mass., Friday, for having broken into Anthony's meat market. They broke open the money drawer, besides carrying away many articles.

Naval Affairs.

A resolution has been introduced in the House, as follows: "That apothecaries in the navy shall hereafter be warrant officers, and shall receive the pay now allowed that grade of officers; but no person shall be appointed an apothecary in the navy who has not been examined and found qualified by a board of naval medical officers designated by the Secretary of the Navy.' This bill ought to pass, for it is absurd to suppose that men fitted by education and experience for the important and responsible positions of apothecaries, will be willing to accept the low pay and inferior position of the enlisted man. Make the ship's apothecary a warrant officer, and there will be no trouble in getting competent men to take the places.

Commander Fred. Rodgers, commanding the Adams, reports officially to the Dept., under date of March 8, at Panama, the services of the officers and men of that vessel during the fire at that place on the 6th of March. The fire broke out about ten o'clock A. M. in the central and most important part of the town, burned furiously and rapidly until about two P. M., when it was gotten under control and arrested. At the request of the U. S. Consul and the authorities at Panama, Comdr. Rodgers landed as soon as possible fifty men, including fifteen marines. The party reached the shore about twelve o'clock, and under the command of Master S. P. Comley, rendered efficient aid. Comdr. Rodgers directed the operations. The Executive Officer, Lieut.-Comdr. Geo. E. Wingate, was very prompt in getting the detachment equipped and off from the ship. About sixty men were landed from the German ship-of-war Elizabeth, who also rendered great assistance. The men were all embarked before sunset of the same day, with the exception of the marines, who were left on shore until the next day for the protection of property about the Panama R. R. Depot. The value of property destroyed is estimated at half a million of dollars. The President of Panama, through the U. S. Consul, acknowledged by letter the valuable services of the officers and men of the Adams, and the gratitude of the Government and inhabitants of the place.

Political.

A gentleman with an antiquarian turn of mind has been examining the records of Congress on the doorkeeper question. He finds that since 1840 the democrats have had trouble with every doorkeeper of the House whom they have had the honor of electing. It seems to be one of the traditions of the party, and as a row about a doorkeeper and his paltry patronage is on the level of the understanding of the commonest member, the incentive to indulge is very strong. One of the troubles in the doorkeeping department of the House seems to grow out of the coupling of important duties with an insignificant title. Doorkeeper doesn't sound well when snorted through the convolutions of the trump of Fame. If the title of this office could be changed to something like Director of the House, Custodian of the House Barriers, or Sennel on the Watch Tower, a great amount of power and dignity would hedge the incumbent.—Washington Post, dem.

H. H. Smith, journal clerk of the U. S. House of Representatives, and H. B. Walker of the treasury, are charged with taking $500 from the widow of Col. Northedge, alleging that they were instrumental in obtaining a claim of $7500 due her husband for money spent in raising the fifty-ninth New York regiment.

—Linderman's eagle on the new dollar recalls the conversation at the show: Daughter—"Law ma, look at that beagle,"—"Vy, you bignoral gal, hit's a howl." Showman, polite—"Axes parding, mum, it's a 'awk."

—Napoleon once entered a cathedral and saw twelve silver statues. "What are these?" asked the Emperor. "The twelve Apostles," was the reply. "Well," said the great captain, "take them down! melt them, and coin them into money, and let them go about doing good, as their Master did."

The house of Mrs. Isabel Woods, in Nashua, was broken into Thursday night and a trunk belonging to Alonzo Howe, one of her boarders, was taken from his room out into the yard and broken open, and a tin box, which contained $510 in bills, a bank book, bonds, etc., was stolen. James Parker, aged sixteen years, Julian Clark, aged nineteen, and Frank Gilson, aged eighteen years, were arrested, and confessed to breaking into the house and stealing the money, and also to breaking into the telegraph office twice within a few days. They had spent a part of the money, but the remainder was hid in a barn near the house, in which place it was found by the officers.

Miss Charlotte M. Wallace of Lyndeboro' was elected superintendent of schools at the last annual town meeting, being the candidate of both the democrats and republicans. She accepted.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. It is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial as being the most reliable preparation ever used; it is particularly adapted to lung and throat affections in children. Try one bottle. tmch23

Auction sale of real estate at noon today. See advertisement.

The river is now open to navigation. The gondola "Alice" took the first load of coal (80 tons) to Exeter on Friday.

The Eastern Railroad has discharged Charles Ingalls, for many years master carpenter, John Hubbard, foreman of the car-shop, and Eben. Cleaveland, head blacksmith.

Schooner H. T. Hedges, which arrived at this port last week with coal, has been chartered by C. E. Walker & Co. to go to the Kennebec to load ice for parties in Philadelphia, and sailed on Saturday.

The schooner Sally B., which arrived at this port on the 13 inst., brought the first cargo of coal for this season. It was sent over the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad to Suncook, for the China Manufacturing Company of that town.

The programme for Mrs. Bartlett's entertainment on Wednesday evening is mainly of an amusing character; with the exception of a patriotic sketch of Patrick Henry, it will be nearly all mirth-provoking. There are still good seats which can be secured without extra charge.

Spring sports have commenced. The base ball players are hieing to the field, and the marble players are investing the side walks with their pin-boards. The first base ball match of the season was played on Saturday afternoon, between the High School nine and the South End Scouts, the score standing thirty-three to sixteen in favor of the High School boys.

The funeral of the late Thomas O. Rand took place on Saturday. A massive floral cross two and a half feet high, and a sheaf of wheat, were presented by his former associates in the Department of Steam Engineering at the navy yard, as a token of the esteem in which he was deservedly held by them; and wreaths and other floral offerings were contributed by other friends.

It is the intention, as soon as convenient to all parties, to have a battalion dress parade by all the military organizations in this city, probably on some evening. Why not send those new uniforms along for Company F, 2nd N. H. Regiment? The boys are taking considerable pride in their drill and have no little amount of it for their personal appearance, but not for their present uniform. Give them a chance to spread with the other companies.

We have been notified that on Friday, in Fall River, Boston, and probably other cities, a new and dangerous counterfeit note was put in circulation. The new counterfeit is a five-dollar note of the Pocasset National Bank, of Fall River, Mass., letter "C," dated Jan. 2d, 1865; it is well calculated to deceive, and we are requested by John S. Dye, (of Dye's Gov't Counterfeit Detector, Philadelphia,) to warn people in this vicinity against the fraud.

Mr. J. Dwight Rundlett having procurred a lot of the new silver dollars, on Saturday was busily engaged in paying them out in change to any patrons of his drug store who wanted them. We got one, and are free to say if the chuckle-headed girl on one side, with her chin sticking out beyond her nose, and her superabundance of jaw, is "Liberty," then we prefer Despotism; while the eagle on the other side is the very worst bird we ever experienced, being wholly unlike anything in the heavens above, the earth beneath, or the waters under the earth. It was left for high art to build such an eagle as that—nature was never equal to that job. The coin has not even a good finish to atone for its crimes against honesty, ntaure and the beautiful.

MARKET STREET HAT STORE.

Mr. Frank E. Dearborn, at No. 40 Market street, has one of the most attractive and capacious stores in the city Mr. Jonathan Dearborn, whom he succeeded, has been connected with the hat, cap and fur business for fifty-two years. In the year 1826 he commenced his apprenticeship with Mr. John F. Moses of Exeter, and in 1829 removed to Portsmouth and finished his trade with Mr. Daniel Knight, on Market street. After three years as apprentice and six years as foreman he bought in with Mr. Knight, and the partnership continued until 1859. In the fire of May, 1845, this firm was burned out, and during the rebuilding of their store located on Ladd street, but on its completion returned to the old stand. The improvement and extension of the building afterward occupied by Jones & Mendum took in their store, when they went into Congress Block, but soon returned to Market street, taking the stand vacated by Jones & Mendum when the latter moved into their new quarters. About this time Mr. Knight retired from the business, and Mr. Frank E. Dearborn became a partner. The firm remained there about a year, and then moved into the Moses Block, where they kept until February last, when they made a change to the present location. Mr. Frank E. Dearborn has been sole proprietor since 1864, and his increase of trade demanded a larger stock and more extensive accommodations; and the present conveniences afford ample room to exhibit the well selected stock. Mr. Dearborn confines himself to the regular branches of his business, and his selections of hats, caps, furs, etc., are from the stock of standard firms, and of the latest style and patterns. His old friends are sure to follow him, and the inducements he offers in keeping articles made from the best materials for sale at reasonable prices will secure to him a fair share of the transient trade.

AUCTION SALES.

At the sale by auction, Saturday, the following prices for stocks, etc., were realized:

Fourteen shares National Mechanics & Trader's Bank brought $104.50 per share; fifteen shares New Hampshire National Bank, $100; six shares First National Bank, $144; three shares First National Bank, $143; three shares Portsmouth & Dover Railroad, $51; ten shares P. & D. R. R., $50; five shares Portsmouth Trust & Guarantee Company, advertised for sale, were passed.

One-fourth of land and buildings on Market e[illegible] corner of Russell street, was sold to George Scott for $625.

One thirty-second of schooner Clara E. Simpson was purchased by Richard Walden, Esq., for $525.

One-sixteenth of schooner T. J. Trafton was purchased by John Walker, Esq., for $230.

Sale of cemetery lot was passed, and it is to be disposed of at private sale.

A CASE AT BAR.

Our readers will remember that at the last October term of the Supreme Court, held in this city, certain bartenders employed in saloons where intoxicating liquors were presumed to be sold in violation of law, were summoned to appear before the grand jury, and enquired of as to the selling or keeping for sale of ardent spirits by their employers.

Acting under the advice of what the liquor element regarded as the most eminent legal talent of the county, these servants or agents declined to answer certain interrogations put to them in the jury room, by the prosecuting officer. They were taken into court and told by the judge what they should answer, and their ingenious counsel had a law question raised as to the rights of a witness before the grand jury, and his exemption from obligation to answer certain questions, the answers to which might tend to criminate or degrade him. The case State against Nowell was not reached at the adjourned law term held last week, and the judges will have three months more time in which to reach a decision of the question raised.

The counsel for the recalcitrant witnesses take the high ground that the law which makes selling of spirituous liquor or keeping it for sale, penal, provides that no clerk, servant or agent of any person "accused" of violation of this law shall be excused from testifying against his principal for the reason that he may thereby criminate himself, and it provides that no testimony so given by him shall in any prosecution be used as evidence against him, nor shall he be thereafter prosecuted for any offence so disclosed by him. The learned lawyers contend that the attempt of this statute is to take away in the case of offences created by it, the exemption provided by the Constitution. They maintain that the legislature has no right thus to compel a subject of the State to hazard the chance and accept a protection from prosecution; that it does not preserve him from prosecution, but permits him to plead exemption. Another ground is that the witness may still be exposed to prosecution under other statutes, and liable in civil action for damages, or for suffering a tenant to occupy his estate where liquors are sold, or in divers other ways still, despite the guarantee, be put in jeopardy.

The counsel insist that this law is an attempt to evade and nullify an important provision of the Constitution of the State, and is entitled to no favor. It is designated by them as an attempt to carry inquisitorial powers into the private affairs of the citizen; to compel his servants to the commission of a kind of petit treason and unfaithfulness, antagonistic to the relations of master and servant; and in view of the confidential relations of the parties, is designated as being as much opposed to the settled principles of the common law, as it would be to compel the master to furnish evidence against himself. The ingenious efforts of the counsel have produced an able and elaborate argument, and from its careful preparation we are led to believe that the sacred rights of the cocktail compounders are well guarded by these legal expounders.

The decision of this question of course is looked forward to with no little interest, involving, as it does, a fundamental principle, and a primary consideration in future prosecutions for the offences mentioned in many instances. The Court will doubtless be equally enlightened by what is usually termed the "learned and able counsel for the State," and the question to be heard and decided will afford to many who anxiously watch its determination no little employment in its discussion until the final promulgation of the opinion of the Court.

THE MARGINAL ROAD.

Some of the CHRONICLE correspondents speak contemptuously of the proposed highway on the northerly side of the south millpond. Let us see: the recent high tides demonstrated the fact that if a sewer is to be constructed to the river, it must be laid very near the present surface of the marsh, or it will be below the tides and will not carry off the sewerage. If the sewer is laid, it must be covered sufficiently to protect it from the frost. The earth covering the sewer will be considerably above the level of the water at the highest tides; we shall then have an embankment from Richards avenue to Edward street, high enough to keep the tides from the flats, and wide enough for a footpath. When that is done a considerable portion of the road will have been constructed, and the remainder can be built of ashes, etc., as proposed, accupying a term of years if thought best. But this it not all. There ought to be a cart path to the cesspools in the sewer, and the embankment must be wide enough for that. All the land or marsh on this route is private property, and the city must acquire a right to lay and maintain the sewer, and the right to visit the same for examination and repairs to clear the cess pools, etc. This right must be perpetual; there will be more need of it fifty or a hundred years hence than there is now. The manner prescribed by law to require the right of way is for the City Councils to lay out the sewer and the Mayor and Aldermen to assess the damages, which must be paid by the city. Similar proceedings are had in the case of new highways, except that the Mayor and Aldermen lay them out, as well as assess the damages.

If a highway be laid out on the proposed route, and damages assessed and tendered to the owners of the land, a common sewer may be laid out on the new highway without additional damages. There will never thereafter be a question of the city's right to view, clear and repair the sewer, for it will be on the highway. A considerable portion of the material removed from the pond can be used in making the street; when washed by the rains, and covered with a coating of ashes or gravel, it will be perfectly pure and sweet; and if it be removed from the spot, the road will be a convenient means of reaching it.

FRENCH STYLE OF FISHING.

The fish hooks used by the French and American fishermen, as exhibited in the window of Mr. William B. Lowd's bookstore, are characteristic of the different methods of fishing adopted by the two nations. The French fleet leaves France early in the spring, generally arriving at the Grands Banks in March, and remains there until September. They number about three hundred sail, varying in size from two hundred and fifty tons to twelve hundred tons. While the American vessels carry six dories, two men to each, the French use only two boats to a vessel, of from six to eight tons each, and each manned by eight men. The latter boats are too unwieldy for rowing, and in setting their trawls (which will extend from three to four miles in length) the sail is used. They lay their trawls in the morning, one boat starting from the bow of the vessel, the other from the stern, changing their course several times before the trawl is placed, and keeping as near as possible to the vessel. The style of hook which they adopt is made of galvanized iron wire; the barb is merely a slit one-half inch from the point. The fish are never taken from the hooks by the hands, but are slashed (or "slatted") off as in mackerel fishing, the hook often straightening out, but being easily bent into shape again. Fish are often caught along our shores with both the French and American hooks in them, and while the American steel hook will be rusted out to a fine wire, the French galvanized iron hook will not be in the least affected by the salt water. The French fit-out in provisions is somewhat of the canal-boat style—a little salt pork and hard tack, and a good deal of brandy and wine. They say that water is "no good," yet they are never seen intoxicated. Our fishermen are generally on good terms with them, and often get a sup of the "vino" without paying duties.

JERSEY JUSTICE.

The New Jersey Supreme Court has rendered a very important decision, in holding that the Legislature cannot constitutionally alter ward boundaries in any city of the State. Could a similar decision be obtained in all the States, it would put an end to political gerrymandering, a consummation devoutly to be wished. In this State a good deal of such work has been seen; the democrats were always famous for gerrymandering, in every State; when the "old-line whig" won he tried his hand at it, and was every whit as unscrupulous as his democratic predecessor; and the republicans are not entirely innocent of having "readjusted" boundaries for political reasons, in an unjust manner. When the democrats gained temporary control of this State a few years since they at once constructed a map of the Senatorial districts that looked like a fish-flake that had been through a hurricane, chopped this city up into seven wards, and legislated out of office the men who had been put in by the people; when the republicans recaptured the State they returned the democratic compliment in a degree, though the repualican "gerrymander" was an absolutely just arrangement when compared with that of the democrats. But the whole system of gerrymandering is vicious in principle, as is nearly every other ancient democratic practice which has come down to modern times; and if the legislating out of office of men elected by the people is not illegal, it ought to be made so as quick as possible.

THE VICINITY.

The Senate on Friday confirmed the nomination of Ivory Lord as collector of customs at Saco.

The lumber mills of Samuel J. Colcord, about half a mile from Exeter, were burned Friday. Loss $3500; insured $1200.

An Epping correspondent of the News-Letter sends that paper the election returns of the town, closing with: "Average price paid for votes, $5."

An Old Folks Concert under the direction of C. R. Littlefield will be given at the M. E. Church at Kittery on Wednesday evening, March 27th. Should it be stormy on that date the concert will be postponed to the first fair evening.

Four tramps broke into Hayes' clothing house in Dover, Friday night. They were discovered trying on suits by a policeman, who captured one, the rest escaping. They obtained a small sum of money and a small amount of clothing.

Mr. George G. Lougee, of the Sea View House, and the owners of the bathing-houses at Rye Beach, have made an improvement by moving the bath-houses on a line, and a walk is to be constructed in front of them, and a bridge is to be built across the river on to the beach from the houses.

The Biddeford Times of Thursday says: "A special train of twenty-nine cars loaded with coal passed through this city this morning from Portland for Dover over the Boston & Maine Railroad. Evidently Dover parties find it cheaper to receive their coal by the way of Portland rather than Portsmouth."

A very pleasant entertainment was given at the residence of Mr. Henry Grover, at Beech Ridge, York, on the evening of Thursday, 14th inst., by the Ladies' Aid Society of the York Christian church, the proceeds of which were for the benefit of the society and for aiding their pastor, Elder George M. Payne. The entertainment was given at Deacon Grover's house on account of there being no hall accessible in the neighborhood, Mr. Grover presenting twelve seats at the table as his contribution to the cause; an admission fee of twenty-five cents was charged, and the attendance was very large. There was a "New England supper" of baked beans, clams, oysters, etc.; singing and declamation; music by the York Cornet Band; and a very interesting address by Elder Payne. Among the guests was Mrs. Elensar Grover, who is nearly ninety-seven years old, and the oldest person now living in York. She still retains all her faculties unimpaired and has led a Christian life for seventy-five years.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—Bayard Taylor says that the secret of his enormous power of work is an unfailing appetite, a capacity for smoking tobacco intermiuably, and eight hours' good sleep every night. So imperative has the habit of sleeping at a regular time become that when now and then he has to defer going to bed at the usual time and has tried to induce wakefulness by drinking two or three cups of the blackest coffee and by other means, he has nevertheless dropped asleep while working at his desk. Mr. Taylor appears thus to have enjoyed all the physical advantages of being a sleepy-head while escaping all the mental disadvantages.—N. Y. Post.

—They are not used to bear hunting in the City of Brotherly Love. A half grown black fellow escaped from a Brown street saloon one night, and, climbing to the roof a shed near by, stretched himself out for a nap, to the great consternation of the neighborhood. Police Sergeant Brown, coming to the rescue, discharged seven shots at brain without so much as disturbing his slumbers. Two shots fired by another officer took effect, and, maddening the bear, made things lively. A crowd collected; and all the guns and other weapons of the locality were brought into requisition, with ridiculously small results. One man grabbed an axe, and, with a "Now I'll show you a trick or two," brought it down with murderous force on the shed! After behonored with one hundred and twenty-six shots and various other assaults, his bearship lay calmly down and gave up the ghost.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaur, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, as a prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which most stimulate the fluids, refine the nerves and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Boyston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children, and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any other injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them induce it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its delicate and agreeable perfume, and retained for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" manufacturers (more dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 25 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, so that no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, slight hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was having and spitting seventeen ounces of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same source of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.
Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have yellow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MAPES, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 18, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, liching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucous from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but as his request postponed it. The concentrated inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a purge I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across the chest disappeared, the burning pain in my lungs ceased, my senses of seeling and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I witnessed a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following the advice, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * * *

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months been suffering with a very severe side, caused by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I had tried many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, I finally was persuaded to recommend one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I shall ever wear them hereafter, and all will please recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

A Joke on Senator Blaine.

He was suffering with an attack of gout when an invitation was received to dine with the Russian minister. An invitation to dine with a diplomat is as obligatory as an invitation to the executive mahogany. Mr. Blaine was assisted into his claw hammer, white choker, and more painful than all, his neatly-fitting dress boots. The agony was dreadful, but a public man cannot succumb to gout when duty demands martyrdom. Mr. and Mrs. Blaine drove to the legation and painfully ascended the long terraced steps from the sidewalk to the door of the house, which is one that the board of public works left fifteen feet above its original level. The mansion was dark, and, in answer to a ring of the bell, a servant without gloves opened the door. The guests observed there were no lights or evidences of an expected feast, and learned to their disgust that they had anticipated their invitation by a week. It is useless to state the feelings of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine, but, as they alone were responsible for the mistake, they quickly telegraphed to the coachman not to drive off. They returned home. It was Saturday evening, and no dinner had been ordered. The children's dinner was over, and there was nothing in the larder but the provisions provided for Sunday. A very slight and simple repast was all that could be improvised to meet the emergency.—Philadelphia Times.

—Mr. Durand commiserates himself that he is obliged to pay 1500 francs to procure a substitute in the army for his son, and exclaims in the simplicity of his grief: "How unfortunate that he is not the son of a widow!"

The New Plan for Paying Pensions.

The project before Congress now is to pay all pensions by check from Washington and to abolish Pension Agencies. When several of the New England agencies were recently consolidated, and the payments of pensions ordered to be made at points remote from the pensioner, it removed nearly every chance of the agents being able to judge of the authenticity of the vouchers presented for payment. Under the former system, when attorneys of the pensioners presented vouchers to local agents for paying pensions, there was an opportunity of judging as to the gnuuineess of the papers and even a possibility of the agents knowledge of the fact that the pensioner was living at the time of the execution of the papers.

The system of payment on vouchers, executed perhaps by irresponsible officers, and sent from remote parts of the country in quarterly avalanches to Washington, will doubtless, instead of proving a saving to the government, afford such inviting temptation to fraud, that in the end the government will be the loser by the change.

It is said that the expenditure for travelling expenses of special agents who are constantly going about watching the operations of pension agents will be saved. There is nothing in this. When the summer solstice sets in there will be lots of cases where the head of a division will suggest that a journey into a far country is needed, either for himself, or some favored subordinate. All these duties could be economically performed by some local official, but the clerks in the pension office not only want vacations, but also insist upon Uncle Sam's paying their travelling expenses. The proposed plan aggregates a large number of clerks at Washington, with government funds kept there instead of being distributed in the various government depositories about the country, as needed for local payments, (and to guard against misapplication of which, the system of payment by numbered checks, reports of agents and of the depositories, are so numerous, that a defalcation to any great amount cannot possibly occur;) centralizes, instead of distributes patronage; and worst of all, will delay the payments to the pensioners, who must wait the time consumed by transmission of vouchers to Washington, their examination in turn, followed by the usual routine of the How-not-to-do-it office at the Capital, before their checks can be received. These pensions could be far better paid by local agents, National banks, or officials designated for certain districts, than by the proposed mode. Still the plea of economy will perhaps be listened to sufficiently to cause the experiment to be tested. Then the Congressmen, with the patronage which this additional number of clerks will require, may in some degree quiet the clamor of the hangers-on for place; but that any real economical result will follow, or that any additional safeguards can be gained, either for the government or its beneficiaries, no one who has to any considerable extent watched the workings of these and kindred projects can for one moment anticipate.

Disasters at Sea.

The British ship Eurydice, a naval training ship for ordinary seamen, under command of Capt. Marcus A. S. Hare, R. N., a sixth-rate vessel of 921 tons, carrying four guns and from 300 to 400 men, was capsized and sunk off Dunrose Head, Isle of Wight, on Sunday, and nearly all hands lost. The Eurydice was under full sail when she was overtaken by a snow storm, accompanied by heavy squalls. The sun shone again brilliantly shortly afterward, but nothing was then visible, except a few boxes floating down the Channel. The survivers say they saw the ship sock down many as she sank. Five were picked up by a passing schooner after being in the water over an hour, but all have died except two. It is not probable that any others were saved, as a strong ebb tide was running. One of the survivors gives the number of men on board at the time of the disaster as about 300; another account says 400 lives were lost.

Schooner General Miller, Captain May, belonging to the Alaska Commercial Company, sailed from San Francisco February 16th for Alaska, having as passenger Col. Wood, United States Collector of Customs for the Territory of Alaska. A day or two ago the schooner was discovered bottom up a few miles up the coast from San Francisco, and all on board were undoubtedly lost. The vessel and cargo were valued at about $50,000.

Steamship Strasburg, arrived at New York on Sunday from Bremen, reports that on March 15th, when about 1200 miles from the coast, at a distance of seven miles sighted a large ship on fire; kept off and found her abandoned; there were no boats in the neighborhood. The vessel was apparently an American three-master, whether a full rigged ship or a barque could not be ascertained owing to the loss of the mizzenmast. She was painted black, had a hurricane deck, and deck houses abaft the fore and mainmasts, a masculine figure-head in a running position, yellow masts and spars, and white painted blocks. She was burning forward and aft. Was free of fire between the fore and mainmasts, and had all square sails set except the mainsail and fore top-gallant sail. Her cargo was probably a compressed one, perhaps cotton, as the fire did not blaze at all, but kept close over the deck.

The "Reform" Doorkeeper.

We think the democratic House of Representatives ought to permit Hon. Frank Jones to have a more extended influence in the appointment of the subordinate officers of the House. Contrast the high-toned integrity of Jenness of Rye, and Rowe of Portsmouth, (who have not been at the Capital long enough to become corrupted,) with the condition of Polk, the rebel reform door-keeper of the House, the successor of the notorious Fitz-Hugh, of Texas, and that other very bad democratic statesman, Patterson. The charges against him are, that he had employed sixty-three more assistants than the law authorized him to hire; that he carried upon the pay-rolls a large number of dead-beats and loafers; that he compelled his appointees to divide their pay with those who wanted their places; that he was himself in the pay of notorious lobbyists, and personally interested in numerous jobs and steals, and guilty of general malfeasance and mismanagement in his office. The committee which has had his case in charge is composed of a majority of democrats, but the charges against Polk have been so conclusively proved that the committee (with the exception of two or three confederate brigadiers, who appear to think that stealing is the legitimate business of all their tribe,) have agreed that Polk be turned out of office. The report of the committee contains a table, showing the appointments by Polk. From this it appears that of his appointees four are from Alabama, two from Arkansas, five from Mississippi, four from Texas, three from West Virginia, five from Maryland, eight from Missouri, three from Louisiana, three from Pennsylvania, four from Tennessee, four from Georgia, four from Kentucky, five from Virginia and three from North Carolina, while the whole of New England furnishes but two democrats worthy a place on Col. Polk's roll, and these are classed as "laborers" and paid $720 a year.

News and Notes.

Three Molly Maguires were hung in Bloomsburg, Penn., on Monday.

A series of burglaries was committed in Amesbury on Saturday morning. Several stores, a billiard hall and one residence were broken into and considerable property was carried away. The burglars left no clues behind them.

Light weight silver dollars of the new design have already appeared, containing about ten grains less silver than dollars from the mint. The spurious issue is said to be a very perfect imitation so far as design and workmanship is concerned, the only difference being that there is only about eighty cents' worth of silver in the spurious dollars.

Two thousand dollars' worth of milliners' artificial flowers, which arrived in the steamship Herder, at New York, were seized on Saturday, on suspicion that an attempt had been made to defraud the revenue, they having been invoiced fifty per cent. below value. They are supposed to belong to a Fifth avenue modiste.

Burglars on Sunday broke into the store of Joshua Gray, in Providence, forced open the safe and packed $12,000 worth of gems and jewelry into carpet-bags, which were placed in an alley back of the store, doubtless to await carrying off. The proprietor entered his store in the forenoon, found it had been robbed, and alarmed the police; the property was soon discovered, but there is no clue to the thieves, who left behind them a splendid set of burglar's tools.

John Wallace, the confessed murderer of his brother's wife and child, and her niece, at Littleton, West Virginia, was taken from jail at an early hour Sunday morning by twenty-five masked men, who took him to a tree at the edge of the woods, and hung him.

Patrick Corrigan, a sober, industrious laborer, was so beaten Saturday night with a fire shovel in Jersey City, by Mrs. Lizzie Durancy, who was drunk, and had harbored his wife, who was also addicted to liquor, that he will die.

An eccentric old woman known by the people of east New York as Ruth Ann Ross, was found dead Saturday in her house, which she owned. It is believed that she starved herself to death. In her rooms were found about $5000 worth of personal property.

The New Orleans Picayune says the report that Judge Leonard was poisoned in Havana has no foundation in fact. Sufficient details of the last days of the unhappy gentleman have been received at New Orleans to show that he died from a sudden attack of fever.

The U. S. S. Wyoming, Capt. J. C. Watson, which sailed from New York for Havre on the 16th inst. with goods for the Paris Exposition, put back to New York on the 24th. Five hundred miles out they found the vessel leaking, and fearing the approach of heavy head winds and an increase of leakage, concluded to return to port for repairs. The Wyoming will probably go on the dry dock for repairs, which can be completed in two days. The captain has gone to Washington for instructions. The Sun says the ship would have put into the Boston navy yard had there been sufficient dry dock facilities there.

It cost Stephen McIsaac $25.95 to send a bogus notice of marriage to the office of the Middleboro' (Mass.) Gazette for publication.

The failure of Messrs. James W. Emery, Joseph H. Converse and Estes Howe, three of the heaviest stockholders of the Caledonia Coal and Railway Company, has led to the embarrassment of that corporation, the mines of which are in Cape Breton, where the company has facilities for mining between five and six hundred tons of coal per day. The coal is used principally for making gas, but the state of trade has been such that only a small portion of the product has been disposed of. The liabilities are reported at $250,000, while the assets are nominally in excess of these figures.

Thompson, our economical Secretary of the Navy, has discovered that sending a few goods by a man-of-war to the Paris Exposition is an expensive mode of transportation.

Mr. Beauchamp, consul at Cologne, the man who tendered his "hole hart" to a young lady travelling in Europe, has been removed by the President, and Mr. George E. Bullock is appointed in his place. Mr. Beauchamp's spell in office was a short one, but it was horrid while it lasted. It is to be hoped that Mr. Bullock will leave his heart behind him to be made into mince-pies, instead of advertising it abroad, as did his predecessor.

The friends of Phelan, the billiard table man, deny that he has absconded. It is conceded that many of his creditors are out of "pocket."

The Postmaster General has issued an order amending the regulation of the Department governing the transmission of printed matter, which is very important in its bearings, inasmuch as it overrules a long-established practice in the Department. Heretofore nothing but a business card was permitted upon the wrapper of printed matter. The Postmaster General now has given instructions that any matter in print which may be transmitted within the enclosure may also be transmitted at the same rate if printed upon the wrapper or envelope. This includes business cards, directions for returning, and any printed matter on the outside of the wrapper or envelope. Postmasters, however, are instructed not to regard such requests for the return of such matter unless stamps to pay the return postage are presented.

On Saturday the New York police were informed by Mr. Walters, a wealthy paper dealer, that his step-son, John Delmonte, seventeen years old, had stolen jewels valued at $2500 from his mother, and ran away; he has been devouring dime-novels for a year past. Three other boys, one aged fourteen and the other two seventeen, started from their homes in New York for the plains of the far west earlier in the week, armed with carving-knives; this trio of juvenile idiots were also noted patrons of dime-novel literature.

The international pedestrian contest in Agricultural hall, Islington, England, ended on Saturday evening, and was won by O'Leary, the American representative.

—Quilp says that Lent is a season set apart by the church for the female members to get their dresses ready for Easter.

The Telephone.

That which would have seemed impossible and miraculous a few years since, is now regarded as the legitimate fruit of our mental development and inventive genius. The telegraph, sub-marine cable, and telephone, have each in its successive turn been thought the crowning marvel of the age. That a speech pronounced in Boston should repeat itself over the wires to an audience in Brooklyn, and a hymn played in New York should be audible in Washington, is indeed wonderful. But is it not equally wonderful that R. V. Pierce, M. D., of Buffalo, N. Y., can, through his peculiar system of diagnosis, and without seeing the patient, obtain as accurate and perfect a knowledge of most chronic diseases as though he had made a personal examination? And is it not reasonable to suppose that as great progress has been made in the occult sciences as in the more tangible and readily-demonstrable problems of metaphysics, where each new invention is but the logical sequence of the one that precedes it? The failure of physicians to fulfill their promises has created a wide-spread feeling of distrust; but is it right to condemn all physicians because the greed or ignorance of a few induced them to do wrong? Many are prejudiced against Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines, and erroneously fancy them to be "cure-alls," but has not the Doctor repeatedly disclaimed their ability to cure cancer, or give other than temporary relief where the lung was half wasted away? By dealing fairly with the people, he has earned their confidence, and built up a practice so large in the treatment of chronic diseases that the erection of the Grand Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y., to accommodate his patients, became a necessity. At an expense of nearly half a million dollars he has erected the largest and most complete sanitarium in the world.—Buffalo News.

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

Mr. Josiah H. Morrison has gone to Washington on a brief visit.

E. F. Sise & Co., claim receiving the first cargoes of coal this season, per schooner A. K. Woodward, with 206 tons, and the W. H. Thorndike with 225 tons.

William C. Ham, Esq., of this city, who for the past year and a half has been city messenger, has received an appointment to a clerkship in the Boston custom-house, in which duty he is now engaged.

The houses numbered one and two on Parker street, with the lot of land on which they are situated, and the outbuilding attached, were sold on Monday by Auctioneer Morse for $1610, subject to two mortgages.

The two temperance lecturers, Messrs. Nicholls and Cheney, gave good satisfaction on Sunday evening at Mechanic's Hall. Both are earnest and eloquent speakers for the cause of temperance, and they deserved larger audiences.

The arrivals at P. & C. R. R. wharf on Monday were the schooner J. G. Drew, with 380 tons of coal for the Insane Asylum at Concord; the brig Benjamin Carver, with 257 tons of coal for G. S. Locke, Concord; and the schooner Commerce, with ninety tons of pig iron for Manchester.

We have received from Captain J. Albert Sanborn, of this city, now at the Black Hills, files of the "Black Hills Daily Pioneer," published at Deadwood City. The number for Feb. 22d (Washington's Birthday) is eminently patriotic in appearance, the outside columns being printed alternately in red and blue inks.

The President on Friday nominated First Lieut. G. Frank Towle, U. S. A., of this city, to be captain. Capt. Towle is a good fellow and a gentleman, a brave soldier, and an experienced and capable officer, and fully merits his promotion. His war record during the rebellion was amongst the best. Captain Towle has been granted four months leave of absence.

The tickets for the entertainment to be given at Music Hall to-morrow evening by Mrs. Bartlett and her friends, have sold at a rate which shows that a rich treat is expected by the public—expectations which we have not the slightest doubt will be more than realized. All the seats are not taken, though most of them are, and persons who intend going had better be at Preston's early this morning.

On passing by the flour and grain store of Mr. Henry A. Yeaton on Market street our attention was attracted by the quantities of eggs ready for shipment. On enquiry we were informed that this has got to be quite an important item of business; there are several firms in this city who are sending away hundreds of dozens weekly, Mr. Yeaton disposing of about sixteen hundred dozens per week. The price is lower this spring than it has been for years; twelve cents a dozen is given by the large purchaser; retail price, fourteen cents.

Sunday was a very mixed-up kind of a day, as to weather. In the morning the sky was clear and the temperature warm enough for comfort; later in the day there were some brisk showers of rain; and before dark a tearing nor'wester was blowing, and the temperature had fallen low enough to stiffen the mud in the streets. During the night the clatter of loose blinds and awning flaps, and the creaking of signs, was like a first-class catfight. The thermometer stood at seven degrees above zero on Monday morning at sunrise—so we are told, for we did not get up to see.

There were two very poorly-attended entertainments at Music Hall last week—Hon. James W. Patterson's lecture on the "Tour of Great Britain," Thursday evening, and "Washburn's Last Sensation" on Saturday evening. The first-named entertainment merited a full house, for nothing at once so interesting and instructive as Mr. Patterson's lecture has been given in the new hall, and is not likely soon to be again; but the Saturday evening show had quite as large an audience as it deserved, for it was nothing to speak of—that is, to speak favorably of. There were some very good athletic exercises and jig-dancing, and that was about all of the show that was even fair; there was no singing worthy the name, the wit was as pointless as it was vulgar—which is saying a great deal—and the best piece of the evening, the "baby elephant," is old enough to be a full-grown rhinoceros now, for it was a baby elephant when we were a boy. We received on Monday a note from Winchester, in this State, signed E. S. Washburn and dated March 23d, as follows: "The show advertised at your place under my name is a fraud on your people. I have no connection with it whatever, and you will confer a great favor on me by informing your citizens through your paper, who have always showed me great kindness whenever I have been there. I have had nothing to do with the show business since last July, at which time I was paralyzed in my right side."

Schooner J. R. Bodwell arrived at Sise's wharf on Monday with 267 tons of coal. This vessel has netted her owners a handsome return this season; she left Rockland, Me., on the first of January, with a load of massive blocks of granite for the General Thomas monument, erecting at Washington, for which she received $650, on her return bringing from Alexandria to Boston a cargo of coal at $1.75 a ton. Her second trip was from the Kennebec to New York with ice, and return with coal to this port at $1.70 per ton, realizing $1700. The difference in the rate of freight since February (eighty-five cents on a ton) is owing to the small quantities of coal now being shipped. During the low prices of last fall the buyers made large purchases, and the small quantities since sold, owing to the mild winter, leaves them a good supply on hand.

Secretary Thompson recently suspended a contract for timber, to be delivered at Norfolk for seventy-five cents, which could be purchased at two-thirds of that price. The contractor admitted that fifty cents was a fair price, but he was asked to bid for seventy-five cents, to be delivered at Kittery; and the contract was afterward changed, as to place of delivery, to Norfolk, and the difference of twenty-five cents paid to one William White, of Virginia.

We are glad to learn that there is a prospect of our having soon a true musical treat; a concert by artists of the very highest standing. Music Hall has been secured for this purpose for Easter Monday, and we hope our citizens will show that their taste and appreciation of good musical talent is as high as it has been demonstrated to be in the matter of theatrical and elocutionary exhibitions.

At the auction sales of stocks in Boston on Saturday, Great Falls Manufacturing Co. sold at $96.50; Newmarket at $400; Nashua Railroad at $90.25; Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire at $33.25; Eastern Railroad at $7.

Rev. Wm. H. Alden, D. D., preached in the First Baptist church at Manchester on Sunday. Rev. James DeNormandie preached in the Dorchester District of Boston.

NAVY YARD REGULATIONS.

The Navy Department, under date of March 14th, has issued the following circular:

Section III. and Section IV., Chapter XXIII., of Navy Regulations, are hereby annulled and the following is substituted therefor:

Section III. Captain of the Yard.

1. There shall be attached to each Navy-yard a captain of the yard, who, under section 1469, Revised Statutes, will be the aid or executive of the commandant, and who in the absence of the commandant will act in his stead.

2. He will have special charge of the police, and the enforcement of police regulations; of the fire and other tugs, and will direct the fire department—of all fires and lights in the workshops, and after working hours he will satisfy himself that there is no danger of fire through the night.

3. He will have charge of the walks and grounds, of mooring and mooring vessels, and will visit and observe all parts of the Navy-yard and its establishments, and make such reports as will enable the commandant to be fully informed as to the working of the various parts of the station under his command.

4. A regular journal will be kept under his direction, which he will sign daily and submit monthly to the commandant for his approval. In it shall be entered the time when all officers report for duty at, or shall be detached from the yard, when any vessel is received for repairs or put in commission, the number of mechanics and others employed, the arrival and departure of all vessels of war, and of vessels with stores of any kind for the yard, the time when any vessel is taken into or removed from the dock, the state of the wind or weather, as well as the barometer and thermometer, and other principal transactions of the yard.

5. He will cause to be scrutinized all articles and packages passing into or out of the yard. All which may be suspected are to be stopped and examined, when, if found to be of an important character, they are to be detained and a report made to the commandant. Each morning all passes presented at the gate during the preceding day will be delivered to the captain of the yard for inspection and report.

6. Should the captain of the yard be absent, his duties will be performed by the line officer next in rank.

7. Other line officers, of inferior rank, may be attached to the yards as subordinate aids to the commandant, for the purpose of assisting the aid or executive, and for general experience and observation in the duties of their profession.

Section IV.

An officer not above the grade of commander shall be detailed to perform the duties of equipment officer.

The office of aid to commandant, at present existing, shall be abolished from the date of the receipt of this regulation.

R. W. THOMPSON, Sec. of the Navy.

In January Oliver Wright of Seabrook, while engaged with a party of men drawing hay from Nudd's Island on the Hampton marshes, became separated from his companions and nothing was seen of him until Saturday, when his body was washed ashore in Seabrook.

York river was clear of ice to its head waters about the 19th inst., having been frozen over only about two months in all during the winter.

At Dover, Sunday evening, Oscar Roche upon finding Walter Drew talking with his wife in the street, drew a revolver and fired at Drew, not inflicting any serious wound, but blowing the powder in his face. This same Roche stabbed a man for the same offence a short time ago. Roche and his wife separated some time since, owing to her actions. She bears no enviable reputation. Roche was arrested.

We think we voice the sentiments of a large majority of the people in saying that the general disposition apparent in Congress toward experimental legislation bodes no good to the country.—Boston Post.

CAUTION.

The great popularity of "ASTRAL" OIL has induced some unprincipled persons to sell worthless and dangerous imitations for "ASTRAL," while others palm off inferior oils, representing them as good as "ASTRAL." To prevent this fraud, purchasers should demand "ASTRAL" and take no other.

MARCH.

March, the old buster,
Is full of his bluster,
Its winds and its dust they are horrid.
Better April with showers,
Or May with her flowers,
Or even July hot and torrid;
Better August, September,
October, November,
Or even December so harsh,
Than the wild, ranting roar,
Of this hateful old blower,
Detestable, blustering March.

Meat for Farmers.

The cheapest meat for farmers is mutton. It may be freely said to cost nothing, as the fleece from a sheep of a good breed will amply pay for its keeping. Then, for additional profit, there is a lamb or two, the pelt of the animal if killed at home, the excellent manure, and the riddance of the pasture from weeds, to which sheep are destructive foes. With the exception of poultry, mutton is also the most convenient meat for the farmer. A sheep is easily killed and dressed, by a single hand, in an hour, and in the warmest weather it can be readily disposed of before it spoils. Science and experience both declare it the healthiest kind of meat, and a foolish prejudice alone prefers pork, which whether fresh or salt, is the unhealthiest of all. When people gain more wisdom, farmers will keep more sheep.

—A heavy failure—When the elephant died.

—Professor Peirce of Harvard College thinks that the day of big telescopes has gone by. He says that the instrument at Cambridge, a fifteen inch refractor, has proved richer in results than the one at Chicago, an 18 1-2 inch refractor, or the naval observatory telescope, a twenty-six inch refractor; that atmospheric disturbances interfere with the largest instruments; that there are only two or three nights in the year when the Cambridge telescope can be used to the best advantage, and that a glass of ten or twelve inches is more serviceable than a larger one.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and stringhalt horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6imay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the fading of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thin or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; thinning locks checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great thoroughfare, in the confident belief that there is no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. The passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and Southwest without one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable fact that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes life and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKFORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embalmzon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages become completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way consistent with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three months of a second nor in one of a third year, but in less than eight months I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Remedy I used also the best Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach; I also kept my bowels active and free regularly by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same path of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.
Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Chologogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrotula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or (Old Sores); Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearances on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for six years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated nostils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my hearing was impaired and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not took known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils to their very soon ceased to trouble me. The sorenes across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I am well aware a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the nature of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained so relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury, and having used the Chemical Liniments, Tinctures and Ointments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider this invaluable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious disease of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a light Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Ancient Tramp.

The Christian Union recently made an interesting study of the way in which this class was treated by the Jews, whose policy made the concentration of wealth in a few hands difficult, and the impoverishment of the many unlikely, while it provided for both the honest and the dishonest: "For the honest poor, gleanings were to be left in the fields and the orchards; even they were to have only what they gathered, that is, what they worked for. The dishonest poor, the man who stole and pleaded hunger as a palliation, was to be sold into a temporary slavery, and so given the work which he declared himself unable to obtain. Criticise it as you please, it was a crude way of furnishing the Hebraic tramp, three thousand years ago, just what we must furnish the American tramp of to-day—compulsory labor. The brotherhood of man, the rights of the individual, political equality, a large number of small land owners, discouragement of the credit system, compulsory labor for dishonest poor, and considerate compassion for the honest and the worthy, these are the lights the Hebraic constitutions throw on the labor problem. They are worthy of more careful study than has been given to them by either legislature or moralist."

—The Hartford choir visiting Moody and Sankey at Boston were expected to go through Springfield on a certain train. They did not come at that time, but a troupe of Ethiopian minstrels were on board, and when the Springfield revivalists thronged the depot and asked the conductor where "the singers" were, he honestly directed them to the smoking car.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 1878.

A Democratic Authority.

Col. Bailey, the enterprising editor of the Boston Globe, on the morning after the election in this State, not only elected Marcellus Eldredge, the defeated democratic candidate for Senator in this district, but had the unblushing hardihood to state that Carpenter, the poorest candidate in this section, was chosen by the democrats Councillor in District No. One. The democrats have not become accustomed yet to the Globe, but the few that saw it hereabouts began to utter curious sayings. The democracy carried the district and the office thrown away upon a man that none of the faithful cared to have elected, and who was only nominated as a proper subject for phlebotomy! awful. We assured all of these gentlemen who honored us with a call the next morning, that it was only a bit of playful irony on the part of the spirited Colonel, and the later returns would show the re-election of Mr. Smith, the republican candidate. The official returns show that Councillor Smith is re-elected by 1250 majority, and the democracy can now judge pretty justly how much reliance they can place upon either the predictions or the returns of the Globe in relation to the New Hampshire election. It has been a time-honored custom for democratic papers out of the State just before every election in New Hampshire to predict a democratic triumph, but in giving results they have generally good-naturedly come down to the hard pan of fact without unnecessary prevarication.

Congress.

In the Senate, Monday, Mr. Howe of Wisconsin made a sharp attack on the President's policy, and assailed Schurz with great bitterness. The correspondent of the Providence Journal says "a good many republican Senators seemed to sit down to the entertainment as if to a feast, and there is no disguising the fact that the majority of the audience both below and above appeared to be in pretty full sympathy with Mr. Howe."

Lewis E. Parsons, nominated by the President as U. S. District Attorney for the northern district of Alabama, was rejected by the Senate by a vote of 22 to 17. One republican and Stanley Matthews voted for Parsons, and several democrats voted against him.

The House on Monday refused to suspend the rules to pass Springer's bill providing for the free coinage of silver, which virtually settles the question of free coinage for this Congress—and it is hardly possible another Congress so mean will ever be scraped together again, even in this country. The vote was 140 to 102, and as such a bill would meet a veto from the President, so as to make a two-thirds vote necessary to make it a law, free coinage is regarded as a dead measure. A proposition to discharge the coinage committee from the consideration of a less objectionable bill received only two more votes than Mr. Springer's, and the suspension of the rules was refused by 142 to 96. The silver men generally admit that the chances for any further silver legislation are very slight.

News and Notes.

Philadelphia had an $800,000 fire Monday night. New York had a $500,000 fire the same night.

The Order of Knights of Pythias now numbers over 108,000 members, with thirty-four Grand Lodges and 1650 subordinate lodges, exclusive of fifty-four lodges in the Dominion of Canada and other countries. The total amount of money paid by the Order during the year 1877 for the relief of needy brothers, their widows and families, was nearly $1,000,000.

A. A. Sheridan, keeper of the Manitou (Mich.) light house, and his wife and baby, were drowned last week by the upsetting of their boat. They clung to the keel for over an hour and then dropped off and sank, the baby first dying in the mother's arms. Richard Kitchen, who was with them and survives to tell the story, was picked up after clinging to the boat for four hours.

Geo. M. Weiman, patentee of Weiman's patent pump and proprietor of the Columbus Steam Pump Works, was shot and instantly killed in Columbus, Ohio, Monday night, by his father, Geo. Weiman, while on his way home from work. The father committed suicide a few moments later. Business complications led to a misunderstanding between the parties some time ago, and the dissolution of partnership and a lawsuit was soon followed by this murder and suicide.

Mrs. Janette Putnam, who killed her reputed husband, Wm. Ide, in Foster, R. I., last week, is dying of the injuries she received from her brutal paramour. Ide enticed her away from her husband ten years ago, when she was but fifteen years of age, she having been married at thirteen. On the night of the murder he dragged her around a pasture by her hair, and terribly beat and kicked her; and after he fell into a drunken sleep the wretched woman crawled to the house, got a double-barrelled gun, put the muzzle to his head and pulled both triggers at once. The gun went off, and so did most of Ide's head.

An infant child of John Connelly, residing in Brooklyn, died Monday from suffocation, caused by the father playfully blowing tobacco smoke in its face.

In 1801, during the French occupation of Egypt, the English cut the Alexandria canal dykes and let the Mediterranean into Lake Marcotis, destroying 150 villages on the shores of the lake and turning the plain into a morass. A Dutch company has obtained from the Khedive a concession to drain and cultivate the swamp. It is expected that 75,000 acres of land can be reclaimed, which will be turned into vineyards, where it will be sought to cultivate the once famous Marcotis grape.

The dividends of the Boston banks announced as payable April the first are at small figures.

Grace and Blanche Ritchie, two little Missouri girls, have just been awarded $10,000 in a suit against the Missouri Pacific railroad for the death of their parents, who were killed near Big Bend last August. One of the children had previously obtained a judgment of $3,000 against the road for personal injuries.

Many naval officers are reported as being desirous of receiving orders for the polar expedition. It is quite natural that these officers should seek to be as far removed as possible from the democratic House of Representatives.

Annie Jones and Mrs. Atkinson, two sisters, aged seventy-six and seventy-eight, have for some years lived together in Lawrence, Mass. Frequent quarrels occurred, and a week ago Mrs. Atkinson summoned the neighbors, saying her sister had fallen in a fit and was dying. Investigation has raised a suspicion she was murdered by her sister. The two were supposed to be poor, and have been aided by the town and by individuals. Since Miss Jones' death it has been discovered that they owned the house they lived in, had stock in the Boston & Maine Railroad, and had $1600 in cash in the house besides.

The novel spectacle of selling a negro to the highest bidder was witnessed in the streets of Hickman, Ky., on Saturday last. Mr. James Barksdale was the auctioneer, and as the negro man stood on the block, and the voice of the auctioneer rose and fell crying the bids, it revived reminiscences of the old and by gone days. The colored people all crowded around in anxious expectancy. The negro sold was John Cooper, who had been previously tried and convicted as a vagrant, and the verdict of the jury was that he should be sold into servitude for six months, as the law provides and directs.

The Boston Herald favors the bell-punch and a State tax of one cent a drink in Massachusetts, after the fashion in "Old Virginny." A strict enforcement of such a law would afford to temperance reformers some interesting statistics of dram-drinking.

A new story, founded on army life in America, has been written by Captain Frederick Whittaker, author of the "Life of General Custer," and will soon be published by Sheldon & Co. It seems very strange that no distinctively American military novel has yet been written, while Lever and Grant in England and Dumas and Erckmann-Chatrian in France have written numerous and successful tales of military life. We are not a military people, and yet but a few years have passed since we had nearly three millions of men in arms, and scarcely a family in the country but counts its soldier and remembers his exploits. Captain Whittaker has therefore a new field to work up, full of interest and freshness. The idea of the story doubtless occurred to him while writing the life of General George A. Custer. The daily experience of our soldiers on the frontier is full of romance. While the book is avowedly fiction, it will be none the less a truthful and realistic picture of a remarkable phase of American life.

Political.

Barnaby, the democratic Leopold Morse of Providence, declines to be assessed for the empty honor of running as democratic candidate for Governor of the Providence Plantations.

The Hartford Courant says that the democratic Congressman from that district, Mr. Landers, has made an old soldier who had a $1200 appointment sign a written agreement to divide with one of the Congressman's friends whose place isn't worth so much.

Montgomery Blair has had several conferences with democratic leaders in regard to reopening the Presidential question, and as a result, a bill has been prepared looking to this end, which will be offered in the House as soon as some additional information is received from Louisiana. David Dudly Field and Senator Thurman are credited with having prepared the bill, which provides that all the United States Circuit and District Judges shall assemble in Washington, and shall have delivered to them the records of the votes cast in Louisiana and Florida, as returned to, and not by the Returning Boards. These votes shall be counted, and the result declared. Blair thinks he has a Presidential scheme which will yet succeed in placing Tilden in the White House.

Perley telegraphs to the Boston Journal the following concerning a reported "mysterious disappearance:" "Colonel Vance, a democratic representative from Ohio in the last Congress, who has so mysteriously disappeared from Cincinnati, was prominent among the investigators and was the leader in the crusade against Congressional Printer Clapp. It is now rumored here that Col. Vance has been notified that some private transactions of his might be investigated in a court of justice, and that he will find it convenient to be out of the way for a while."

Postmaster-General Key suggests that the democratic Congressmen, in their efforts to be economical, will do well to propose to cut down their own salaries. He says: "Clerks' salaries have not been raised since the grades were established, twenty years ago or more, when a man could live on one-half of what it at present costs him. Congressmen at that time got $8 per day; now they get $5000 per year. Why not reduce their own? Then there will be consistency. A man residing here with his family cannot get along on $1200 a year."

Temperance.

The subject is old, and yet it is not so old but what it can be renewed every day; and, unless it is renewed all the time, the enemy is gaining ground. Every one is either for temperance or against it; there is no half-way in this matter; therefore as temperance men and women we should use every means in our power to prevent this great evil, intemperance, gaining ground. Need we remain inactive? God forbid that we should calmly fold our arms and let the demon ravish our homes and lay our friends low in the dust, not only to be blasted in this world but in the world to come. Some may say it is none of their business, as long as they keep from it themselves, but I say it is their business. Bear this maxim in your mind, that the height of virtue is to serve mankind; and are we serving mankind when we see them falling around us every day, and do not stretch forth our hands to save them? No, most assuredly no. Then let us be up and doing; let us work with a will. But perhaps some will ask: how are we to work for this object? how are we to accomplish this great end? The mind of every true lover of temperance will point out a way in which he can save his brother from the worst of all evils on the face of the globe. It is not necessary that we should all become temperance lecturers, to accomplish this; the work is not confined to temperance lecturers alone, but of all of us, whether we be rich or poor, in our every-day life God demands it; duty to our fellow men demands it. I would not condemn a man who has fallen half so quick as the man who stood calmly by and saw him fall without stretching forth a friendly arm to save him. In my opinion God holds that man accountable as much and more than he does the man who has fallen. We can never over do in this work; it is impossible to do too much while the least remnant of intemperance remains in our land; and when we are willing to arm ourselves for the fight and come out boldly on the side of right, then with God's help and our own stout hearts we are sure of victory; then and not till then will the work be accomplished; and when the work is done our land will rejoice and our jails and poor-houses will give way to higher institutions, that will elevate mankind instead of crushing him out of existence. Look at the poor criminal behind those iron bars. Who knows but what he would have been saved, and filling a high place in society to-day, if some one had only spoken one word of encouragement, one word of entreaty to throw off the curse that was destroying both soul and body? Is it to be wondered at, when a man has fallen and looks for help from his fellow-men and no help comes—is it to be wondered at if he sinks deeper and deeper in misery? He is placed in a position where he needs the help and sympathy of all mankind; he cannot rally by using his own strength alone; he needs the help of those around him, and without that help, in many cases, men are lost. Who knows where the demon will strike next? He may come near home to many of us, and then we shall need the help of all to fight him off. Once more let me remind you to gird tighter the armor of temperance, and stand firm to your purpose until this great evil is driven from our land. J. M.

—Russia has a wonderful Swedish gun ready for use in its fleet. It is worked after the manner of pianoforte playing, moves to and fro in a section of a circle, and sweeps all the ground that it covers in a most marvellous manner. It is something like sweeping a lawn with water from the jet of a garden hose moved right and left by the operator, and can be carried up into the maintop for firing on the enemy's deck and inside fortifications. In close quarters it would sweep the enemy's deck of combatants.

THE CITY.

Schooner T. J. Trafton has sailed for the Kennebec, to load ice for a southern port.

A large number of persons are to be baptized at the Middle street church next Sunday. The baptistry will be used.

The insurance men say that the hazard in grinding malt is just as dangerous as the cotton pickers, and malt houses and breweries will be put up as to rates.

The grand entertainment in aid of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals takes place at Music Hall tonight. The audience will be a very large and fashionable one, and we shall be very much astonished if the entertainment is not one of the most pleasing ones yet given in the new hall. Tickets 35cts. to all parts of the house, with no extra charge for reserved seats. See advertisement.

The Massabesic Hose Co. boys have some pretty gay times in their cosy hose house on Nashua street. Last week they secured the services of a darkey from Portsmouth, whose early education in singing and in learning the old-fashioned breakdowns had not been very sadly neglected. He together with several of his colored friends in the city, furnished an entertainment that rivalled Callender's Georgia Minstrels in point of originality.—Manchester Times.

The following pieces of music have recently been published by Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston: "I'll meet you, my love, with a kiss," a very pretty song by H. P. Danks; "My Sailor Love," by Diehl; "Two Little Lives," a ballad, by Malloy; "Johnny Morgan Galop," by Fernald, including an air from the "Man in the Moon;" "Norwegian Bridal Party," a humoresque for the piano; and "The Editor's Waltz," by Winterstein, which may be commended to any of the fraternity in need of graceful exercise. We have also received, from the author, "Yawcob Strauss" and "Der Drummer" by C. E. Adams.

Last evening a large concourse, estimated at about one hundred and fifty persons, assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. de Rochmont at Newington, to do honors to the anniversary of their golden wedding. To say that all had a good time is speaking very mildly about this joyous occasion. The worthy pair received the amplest evidences of esteem from their relatives, townspeople and friends generally, and all present will long remember the happy occasion. It is a somewhat singular fact that Mr. de Rochemont has a brother who will also celebrate a like anniversary within a month.—Times, 26th.

"NO PLACE LIKE HOME."

Thomas a Kempis, a feline of the male persuasion, being fully persuaded in his own mind that there is, indeed, "no place like home," refuses to leave the fine old mansion, in one of the most Pleasant of our streets, where he is fortunate enough to have a dwelling place, when his master and mistress go on far distant jaunts of months in duration,—even if it be, as once, around the world. Such is the development of his bump of locality, declining the hospitality offered to him by kind neighbors and friends elsewhere, even if put in a bag and transported at midnight to the most remote region

"From Christian Shore to Newcastle Bridge, Or Fuddle Dock to Gravelly Ridge," he would find his way back by daylight next morning to his old quarters. Then, too, he gives such a welcome to the heads of the household on their return, however long their absence; metaphorically killing a fatted calf for each, and bringing forth for them the best of robes, and the most brilliant of rings to deck the hands that lovingly smooth his soft fur garment of nature's providing. The past autumn and winter, before their departure on another extended journey a most comfortable retreat, snug and warm, was provided for him on the back piazza, where he could stow himself away in a shelter and bed that many a houseless wanderer might have envied him the possession, and where "a good square meal" was brought to him daily, that might be expanded into half a dozen, and to which he doubtless invited others of his kind, less fortunate than himself, to partake; as he has been known to do at other times, and watching meanwhile to see that the object of his benevolence was not disturbed until his repast was finished. So much is he better in appearance than others of the species his kindness of heart draws around him, the old saying is reversed of one "being known by the company they keep." COM.

HEWING "HACKMETACK."

KITTERY, ME., March 25th.

"Hackmetack," in a recent article published in the Times, makes it an occasion to malign Constructor Wilson and to eulogize Mr. Daniel Littlefield, under the pretense of defending Geo. Hammond. Among the false accusations and insinuations he mentions a book, of which Mr. Wilson is the author, as "borrowed." This much is true, that Mr. Wilson is the author of a work on Naval Architecture, and a sufficient proof of its merits is the high commendation it receives from scientific men who use it, together with the fact that it is now passing through the second edition. Constructor Wilson, as an honorable man, accords due credit for all matter not his own; and if "Hackmetack" would exercise the same ability, industry and perseverance in mastering its contents that Mr. Wilson did in compiling it, he would be a wiser and more useful person—useful to Mr. Littlefield as draughtsman, thus saving him the inconvenience of sending to Massachusetts for a man to lay down vessels. Useful occupation would have a salutary effect on his soured temper, and also have a tendency to lead his diseased mind into healthier channels. Mr. Littlefield acquired his reputation as "builder" without the puny aid of "Hackmetack," and if he cannot retain it without the assistance of his feeble efforts through the press, it will not long continue to be envisible. In conclusion we would advise "Hackmetack" to ponder the words of the wise man who said: "Half the wisdom of the world consists in being silent." JUSTICE.

YORK LETTER.

YORK, ME., March 25th.

To the Gazette: The result of our town election was as follows: For Moderator, Joseph Bragdon, [Mr. Bragdon not having taken a quantum suffeit of Elixir Guarana, was confined to his room by sick-headache—and what can be worse?] Mr. Bragdon was excused, and Edward C. Moody was elected. Clerk, N. G. Marshall (no opposition); Selectmen and Assessors, Josiah D. Bragdon, James A. Bragdon, George W. Currier; Treasurer, Joseph Bragdon; Collector of Taxes, J. Frank Paul; Agent, Washington Junkins; Overseers of Poor, C. C. Barrell, Willard A. Grant, Joseph H. Moody; Superintending School Committee, (three years,) George M. Payne, (one year, vacancy,) Almon H. Merrow; Auditor, G. W. S. Putnam. Voted to raise $2500, to reduce the debt; for support of schools, the amount required by law; for ordinary expenses, $3000. Roads received a due amount of voting, fun and argument. The day was a bad one—only 144 votes were cast. A chief of police, with nine assistants, were chosen—a new era in the management of town quietude. Several constables, with other minor officers, were chosen. The Auditors report for 1877 (at a cost of $52 for printing and $12 other expenses) shows a reduction of the town debt of $2619.29. The present indebtedness as shown to be is $7703.57, with an error by his honor the Auditor of $450, making really $8153.57. The Auditor in his magnanimous generosity heaps laurels upon the head of our Collector for the past year, (which laurels were well earned and properly due,) and even offers his sage advice to the citizens of York, that the services of Mr. Paul may be retained as Collector by re-election, which advice was duly accepted by the unanimous voice of the meeting. However well and honorably intended, this kind of advice and instruction to the people of Old York is entirely unprecedented, and in this particular instance is rich. P.

THE VICINITY.

The Senate on Monday confirmed O. B. Warren as postmaster of Rochester, and George L. Leavitt as postmaster of Exeter.

The condition of County Solicitor William B. Small, of Newmarket, remains precarious. His reason left him on Saturday, and on Monday Dr. Bancroft, of the Insane Asylum at Concord, visited him professionally, and after a diagnosis stated that it was a serious case. He may rally, although with impaired intellect; and should he entirely recover, of which there is only the slightest chance, it will take months.

An eagle with bell attachment has been reported along the Maine coast. He was first seen near Bath, and last Friday appeared to a Mr. Thomas near Fortune's Rocks, Biddeford Cove. Mr. Thomas heard the tinkling of a bell and looked around some time to discover whence the sound came, and finally his eyes rested upon an eagle circling high in air, from whence the sound of the bell evidently came. This aristocratic bird has since been seen at Wells Beach.

How Young Folks' Eyes are Made Near-Sighted.

A prolonged and steady looking at an object or at objects near the eye, though at proper distance, without rest or frequent change of the visual focus, as in long and absorbed novel-reading, intense study, or persistent diligence in needlework; the practice of reading or otherwise using the sight at too short range, are causes of near-sightedness. This latter results, in part, from insufficient light, or from its faulty direction, so that the direct rays fall upon the eye, causing undue contraction of the pupil, while the page is in shadow. It results also from improperly graded desks, from small and poor type and inferior printing-ink, and from faulty color and quality of printing paper; also from pale writing-ink—pale when used—and from the substitution of the lead pencil for the pen, and especially in the evening. A prone or forward position of the head too long maintained, or frequently repeated and becoming a habit, is another cause. This results from reading or studying with the book in the lap, and from the use of desks not graded to the height of the pupil. Donders says: "In the hygiene of myopia the first point is to guard against working in a stooping position." He favors high, sloping desks, and indicates "rectilinear drawing on a flat surface" as a class of work which is especially objectionable. Reading and studying in railroad cars is known to be a fruitful source of injury. But insufficient light, perhaps more than any other cause, produces diseases of the eye and derangement of the vision. This is not confined to the schools. Sadly frequent as it is found to be there, it is believed to be yet oftener illustrated at home, both by daylight and in the evening, in preparation for the school and otherwise. Artificial illumination is faulty at best, but even in the most favored homes the elder group is apt to monopolize the shaded drop-light or student lamp, while the school-boy, with his text-books, is found somewhere in the outer circle.—Popular Science Monthly.

—Wait for the wagon—A very heavy load.

—A Tom cat is a more independent animal than man. When a man comes home at two or three o'clock in the morning he slips in as quietly as possible, but a Tom cat don't seem to care. The later the hour, and the nearer the house it approaches, the louder it will yell.

—A Lowell man who lost his good character some time ago was severely hauled over by some of his former friends. "I know it, boys, I know my character's gone, lost entirely. And," he added rather pointedly, "it's too confounded bad, for it was the only one in the place worth saving."

—Jones, the pink of politeness, having forgotten to take formal leave of Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins at their last party, returns to do so. The other guests have gone, and Jones is somewhat disconcerted to discover his host and hostess embracing each other, and crying out with enthusiasm, "Thank goodness, it's all over!"

—A fatal accident occurred in the English foot-ball field, the other day. A lad was charged violently by a man named Bradshaw, who jumped at him with protruding knee and struck him in the stomach. The lad died soon after and at the inquest Bradshaw was committed for trial for manslaughter, the jury also expressing the opinion that the rough game "ought to be erased from the pastimes of England."

—A tube 100 feet long runs through a line of hitching posts in Rockville. A farmer was hitching his horse at the end post the other day, when a boy at the other end shouted through the pipe, ordering him to take his horse away. He unhitched, and looked around to see whom he had offended, but seeing no one, he concluded that he wasn't the man, so he tied the halter again. The mysterious voice again ordered him off, when the bewildered man hastily jumped into his wagon and rode away.

—I asked an English lady, who had just been to a "swell" fancy ball, who it was that took the "shine" off of everybody else in the way of costume. She replied that it was "Young America" who attracted the most attention. To begin at the dancing part, the lady was dressed in blue satin boots, with silver buttons. White satin skirt (short,) over which was gracefully draped a silk American flag, caught up at one side by a metal eagle. The bodice was blue silk, covered with silver stars, over which she wore a very effective metal cuirass, on the front of which was the American shield, the eagle coming out beautifully. For ornaments, she wore bracelets and necklace of gold dollars, very neatly made. On her head she wore a crown of thirteen stars in brilliants, the hair being down the back. I felt a National curiosity to know who this striking figure of the ball-room was, and found it to be Kate Field.—London Corres.

Bob Ingersoll to the Widow Van Cott.

Widow Van Cott, the revivalist, in an interview in the Buffalo Sunday News, called Col. R. G. Ingersoll "a poor barking dog." He retorted by the following letter:

BUFFALO, Feb. 24.

MRS. VAN COTT—My Dear Madam: Were you constrained by the love of Christ to call a man who never injured you "a poor barking dog?" Did you make this remark as a Christian, or as a lady? Did you say these words to illustrate in some faint degree the refining influence upon women of the religion you preach. What would you think of me if I should retort, using the language, changing only the sex of the last word? I have the honor to remain yours truly,

R. G. INGERSOLL.

—One day, after Mark Twain had been on the San Francisco Call six months, the managing editor remarked to him that he was out of his line as a reporter, and was capable of better things, and that, in fact, he didn't suit. "Yass," said Twain, "I'm surprised you didn't find that out five months ago."

—A young Englishman, who thought to elude the vigilance of a prospective mother-in-law by establishing telephonic connection with the room of his adored one, was considerably surprised, one morning, when he came down to breakfast to find the "pencillings of the evening" in an envelope on his plate. Mamma had attached her private wire.

—Hector Malot, a free thinking Parisian, once had an audience with the Pope, who knew his character well. "What shall I give you?" asked he. "I desire to present my homage to your Holiness," said the journalist, trying to dodge the question. "O, everybody asks something of me; you must, too," replied the Pope. M. Malot was embarrassed; he didn't wish to be disrespectful, and he couldn't consistently with his belief ask for a benediction. The Pope enjoyed the situation for a few moments, then said:—"Well, if you won't ask for my blessing, you shall have it all the same," and blessed his visitor.

—The Detroit Free Press says that when Thomas drove up to a house on Elizabeth street the other day, to deliver the usual quart of mixture, the gentleman of the house kindly inquired: "Thomas, how many quarts of milk do you deliver?" "Ninety-one, sir." "And how many cows have you?" "Nine, sir." The gentleman made some remarks about an early spring, close of the Eastern war, and the state of the roads, and then asked: "Say, Thomas, how much milk per day do your cows average?" "Seven quarts, sir?" "Ahum," said the gentleman, as he moved off. Thomas looked after him, scratched his head, and all at once grew pale, as he pulled out a short pencil and began to figure on the wagon cover.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D.

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for sprained, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR.

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus weak or slightly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humours, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE AND UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction and Equipment

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By profession a former merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported roots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "washes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for (in my successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three months of a second-hand cold in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my system. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers; Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness. Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as its effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, make a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humers in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome diseases. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When these are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to my everlasting Dr. Sanford to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted a physician surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but as his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years, and secured instantly to arrest the discharges. A sopper my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation, and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have written this explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that there is a remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following their use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

BOSTON, Feb. 23, 1875. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

SUFFOLK, ss. FEB. 23, 1875.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by the subscribed is true. Before me.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months suffered with a very lame chest, caused by a former injury and strain, I have tried many remedies, lotions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician finally recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them invaluable, and shall will believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Peter Cooper's New Project.

The well known philanthropist has left New York, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Hewett, for a trip to the South. The principal object of his visit is to view the beautiful section of country at and near Spartansburg, S. C., for the purpose of purchasing about eight hundred acres of land, including several large buildings, known as Limestone Springs, where he purposes establishing an "Institute of Science" for the daughters of the South, although this project does not contemplate excluding northern girls, if they choose to avail themselves of its advantages. Mr. Cooper said to a reporter that his plan was for all the pupils to pay their own board and defray their personal expenses, while the instruction, of the most liberal character, should be free. He added that it would be some time before his scheme could be in active operation, even if he made the purchase contemplated. His stay in the South will be of uncertain duration.

—We read of a poor boy in New Bedford who was washed overboard recently and killed. We cannot warn mothers too strongly against washing children overboard; if they would only wash them at home with tepid water and soap and dry them thoroughly afterwards, all danger would be averted.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Congress.

On Tuesday, in the Senate, Mr. Blaine asked that the correspondence on the fisheries award recently sent in by the President be referred to the committee on foreign relations, and took occasion to make a few more remarks, to the effect that the award was only the beginning of trouble. In five years the privilege of shore fishing would have to be negotiated anew, and he thought it was the duty of Congress now to show that the rate of payment fixed by the Halifax Commission was unjust. After establishing that fact, he would advocate the payment of the award. [This seems to be the only plain way out of the trouble; we were undoubtedly over-reached by England in the appointment of Delfosse on the commission, and the award is out of all proportion of justice; but we accepted the tribunal, and cannot honorably refuse to abide by its decision because we are satisfied it is unjust.]

Another Administration nomination was defeated on Tuesday. It was the nomination of Dunn to be United States District Attorney of Delaware. Mr. Bayard opposed the nomination vigorously, on the ground that Dunn was unfit for the place. Mr. Matthews and others tried to defend him, and the debate was protracted until nearly five o'clock, but the democrats followed Bayard's lead almost to a man. The anti-Hayes Senators voted against him on general principles, and Dunn was rejected by a large majority.

In the House, Tuesday, Fernando Wood reported the bill to advance the interests of foreign manufacturers at the expense of the American people, jocosely called a tariff reform bill. After a prolonged struggle, April 4th was fixed on for consideration of the bill, by a vote of 137 to 114. Of the 137 affirmative votes only 16 were thrown by republicans; of the 114 negative votes only 10 were democratic. The republican vote of New England was solid against the motion; the democratic vote was solid for it. Delaware, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas voted solid for it. All the southern votes against the bill were from republicans. Judging from this vote, it is not likely that Mr. Wood will be able to earn the gratitude of the British manufacturers at this session of Congress, by ruining the American manufacturers and producers.

In the Senate, on Wednesday, Mr. Hoar presented a memorial signed by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, all the members of the Executive Council and the Secretary of State of Massachusetts, expressing an opinion that the efficiency of the Life Saving Service would be greater if left under control of the Revenue Marine Bureau of the Treasury Department, instead of being transferred to the Navy Department. Good!

Railroad Law-Suits.

The Boston & Maine railroad was indicted in the Supreme Court for Belknap county, and convicted, for killing a man upon the Dover & Winnepiseogee railroad, which is leased to and operated by the Boston & Maine. The statute provides that if the life of any person not in their employment shall be lost by reason of the negligence or carelessness of the proprietors of any railroad, or by the unfitness or gross negligence or carelessness of their servants or agents, in this State, such proprietors shall be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars nor less than five hundred dollars, and one-half such fine shall go to the widow and the other half to the children of the deceased. If there is no child the whole shall go to the widow; and if no widow, to the heirs according to the law regulating the distribution of intestate estates. The statute also provides that the term proprietors shall include the corporation to which any railroad was originally granted, or into whose hands it has subsequently passed, the assignees or trustees to whom any railroad has been mortgaged for the security of debts, and any company or persons to whom it may have been conveyed. This, as a common sense proposition, it would be supposed, would make the corporation into whose hands a railroad has passed the proprietors for the purposes of responsibility in the case indicated. But the railroad can escape the payment of five thousand dollars to the heirs of the deceased man, if the indictment can be held bad. The legislature long since enacted that indictments should not be reviewed for error where the case may be rightly understood by the Court. The Boston & Maine corporation contend that the Dover & Winnepiseogee railroad were the proprietors of the road, and should have been indicted, because there was no evidence at the trial that the Boston & Maine had ever taken a lease or made any other contract for the road, though it was shown that the road was operated by the Maine road. The Boston & Maine also, in this case, attack the decision of our Court established five years ago, in a case against the Manchester & Lawrence road, and with an assurance of respect for the Court as then constituted, and for the learned Judge who made the decision and is now again at the bar, undertake to assert that the Lawrence road case was decided wrong. If all the erroneous decisions of our Courts are to be reviewed, the lawyers are likely to be the best employed persons in the State.

In the action of Hook vs. Nashua & Worcester Railroad, decided at the law term, the Court made a decision in a case where a man has a pasture adjoining a field, and also a railroad and a farm crossing in the pasture, secured by bars on either side of the railroad, and where the owner's colts escaped from the pasture (through the bars at the crossing, which the owner neglected to replace after passing through) on to the railroad track and were killed, there being no controversy as to the sufficiency of the railroad fences or bars at the crossing, and no claim made that trains were not properly run at the time of the accident. The Court held it was the duty of the owner to keep up the bars, and if the owner, or those in his employ, permitted the bars to remain down and the colts went on the track and were injured by such leaving the bars down, the railroad will not be held liable. In other words, owners of horses must do their share in keeping their stock in their enclosures, and if railroads fence properly, and keep bars, etc., they are not to be held liable for the killing of land owners' horses; i. e., railroads are not live stock insurance corporations.

News and Notes.

Things look very squally in Europe, both England and Russia being determined to have their own way at all points.

The Broadway Savings Bank of Lawrence, Mass., has suspended,

A decision was given in the U. S. Dist. courts on Tuesday, March 26th, in the suit of the United States against Ex-Gov. Samuel J. Tilden to recover some $150,000 income tax. The decision was against the demurrer set up by Tilden, and the case is now to proceed to trial by jury on the question of the amount of the income of Tilden during the years in which he made no return himself. It is more than probable that Tilden's counsel will appeal the case to the United States Supreme Court.

The United States Supreme Court has decided that a telegraph can be built along any line of railroad over which United States mails are carried, since this is practically a post road. A decision was then rendered in favor of the Western Union Company in Florida, in which a State law conflicted with the Federal law.

A New England lady has in her autograph album a characteristic inscription by Benjamin Wade. A young southern admirer had written—presumably after an evening passed in her company—"12:40 A. M. Time was made for slaves." Beneath it Ben. Wade wrote: "And eternity for slave-owners."

The trustees under the will of Samuel A. Way, a deceased wealthy man who formerly resided on Beacon Hill in Boston, have applied to the Supreme Court in Boston for instruction as to the manner of carrying out the provisions of the will of the dead millionaire. The Court has made a decree, probably on the ground that "where there's a will there's a way."

Colonel Thomas A. Scott has brought in his account to the Pennsylvania Legislature for last year's riots. The loss to the property of his company he puts at $2,000,000, and when merchandise is included, at $5,000,000. This was the damage done to a single corporation, and yet this was only a fraction of the whole loss by destruction of property, and the latter total was a small amount compared with the loss to workingmen in wages and merchants in business, all over the country. Now, what was gained by the strikers? Not a penny.

Will. Lister, a young man in Cedar county, Nebraska, was a while ago "living in clover," engaged to half a dozen young ladies, and would have been yet if they hadn't begun inviting each other to be bridesmaids. That broke up Lister, and the young ladies went in a body and set fire to his homestead, burning everything.

Stolen bonds, stock certificates and securities, valued at a quarter of a million of dollars, were found in the trunk of parties arrested at Petersburg, Va., for the robbery of Mr. Young's office in New York; also, $51,000 in United States registered bonds.

Bessie Turner, the former member of Tilton's family, is now an actress travelling in the "Celebrated Case" troupe. She goes by the name of Beta Avery.

Schooner Highlander, Capt. B. I. Wood, of Ellsworth, Me., was wrecked March 21st on Shovelful Shoal, while on the voyage from Amboy for Salem with a cargo of coal. The crew stuck to the wreck all night, and were in the morning taken off by the lifeboat of Station No. 13, Monomy beach, and after walking three miles in the sand arrived at safe quarters. The captain tenders his heartfelt thanks to Capt. G. W. Baker and his crew for their timely assistance, which was quite difficult under the circumstances. Capt. Wood writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Capt. Baker. Whoever may have the misfortune of being shipwrecked and the good fortune of falling into his hands will find a friend and a home. I was necessarily detained at his quarters, and could not have been better treated by a father. If any one thinks the life-saving service a useless expense they should be shipwrecked as many times as I have been. I pray it will not be transferred into other hands."

Judge Cleaves of the Probate Court of Cumberland county, Me., rules that the bankrupt law of the United States suspends the operation of the insolvent law of that State, passed by the last Legislature, as to all cases within the provisions of the National bankrupt act, and that insolvency proceedings in such cases cannot be instituted in the State courts while the United States bankrupt law is in force, and if commenced under the State law, would be null and void.

Mr. Briggs, Representative from the Second N. H. District, has presented to Congress the petition of Moody Currier and other citizens of Manchester against the revival of the income tax.

Mrs. George H. Colby, of Littleton, died on the morning of March 20th, after great suffering, from malarial poisoning, caused by drinking impure water. She left three children, the youngest nine months old.

The Governor and Council, at a meeting in Concord, on Tuesday, March 26th, refused to pardon Thomas Weir, who was sentenced in October, 1864, to thirty years' imprisonment for killing Caleb Dyer, a prominent member of the society of Shakers at Enfield.

A meeting was held at Concord on Tuesday, 26th inst., in relation to State militia matters, when it was decided to at once disband the First and Second Regiments of Infantry; the companies attached thereto, together with those unattached, to be re-organized into three regiments. The first regiment will be under command of Col. John J. Dillon of Manchester, where its headquarters will be, and will consist of all companies located in towns and cities south of Concord and east of the Merrimack river; the second regiment will be commanded by Col. D. M. White of Peterboro' and consist of companies west of the Merrimack; the third regiment will be composed of Concord companies, and all companies north of that city; field and staff officers to be selected hereafter.

Political.

The New Orleans Democrat says that the decision of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, in the Anderson case, has been generally commended by the bar of the State. The Democrat itself is very unhappy over it.

It is rumored that Ex-Gov. Fenton may soon be nominated as Collector of the port of New York, with Gen. Dix as Naval Officer, and that during a recent visit to Washington by Mr. Fenton he received assurances from Senators that he could be confirmed.

A year ago it was said that all that Louisiana needed to restore her old time prosperity was a democratic governor and legislature. It has both, and the result is an increase of taxation and a greater paralysis of industry and morality than ever before. Evidently democrats in Louisiana are like the great majority of them elsewhere, totally unfit to be trusted to guard the public finances or the public morals.—Portland Press.

Louisiana submits that she is entitled to peace after her decade of incessant political agitation, and no one will deny the justice of her claims. Whether she is quiet or not depends largely upon herself. If her inhabitants will drop politics and attend to business, all will be well. In the terse language of a philosopher in the office of the Indianapolis Journal, what they need to do is to "raise less hell and more sugar.—N. Y. Tribune."

Naval Affairs.

It is rumored that Secretary Thompson will retire from the Navy Department about the first of July, and be succeeded by Albert G. Porter, recently appointed Controller of the Treasury.

Commodore Robert H. Wyman, Superintendent of the Hydrographic Office, will, it is understood, relieve Rear-Admiral Preble of the command of the South Pacific station. Rear Admiral Howell will remain in charge of the Bureau of Yards and Docks until the close of the present fiscal year, when he will assume command of the North Atlantic fleet.

Old Time Chronicles, No. 168.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

The first session of the Legislature, as it is now called, held in Concord, was in 1782, thirty-four years before the State House was built. The war had not closed and it was under the Constitution of 1776. Meshech Weare of Hampton Falls was President of the Council, and was to all intents Chief Magistrate. The Council usually consisted of twelve. At this time the members were the following: John M. Clary, Epsom; Enoch Hale, Walpole; Woodbury Langdon, Portsmouth; George Frost, Durham; Wiseman Claggett, Litchfield; Benjamin Bellows, Walpole; Timothy Farrar, New Ipswich; Jacob Abbott, Wilton; Thomas Sparhawk, Walpole; Charles Johnson, Haverhill. No list of the House is at hand.

The sessions in other towns were sometimes held in meeting houses. At that time there was but one in Concord, that of the society now called the North church. The place provided for the Legislature was a hall over Judge Timothy Walker's office. It stood near what is now called the Walker house or mansion, which was the house of Rev. Timothy Walker, the first minister. It is now standing, but considerable additions have been made to it. It is on the east side of Main street, perhaps half a mile north of the State House. The principal committee room was the south parlor of the Walker house, while the north parlor was occupied by the President and the Council.

The session commenced March 13, and closed March 27, lasting 15 days. The Speaker was Hon. Judge John Dudley, of Raymond. There were four other sessions the same year. One of 17 days, ending June 27, one of 5 days, ending Sept. 14,—these two at Concord; and then one of 12 days, ending Nov. 23, at Exeter, and one of 11 days, ending Dec. 28, at Portsmouth. In all the Legislature was in session that year 60 days. In 1808 Concord was made in effect the capital, and from that time the sessions were held there. The State House was built in 1816.

—London girls receive one cent for embroidering the "clock" on a stocking.

—A greater than Daniel Lambert has appeared in England. He keeps a public house at Newcastle-on-Tyne, and is not yet twenty-two. He stands six feet four inches in height, and weighs 730 pounds. He measures eight feet around the shoulders, seven feet around the waist, and three feet around the calf of his leg.

—The city treasurer of Pittsburgh bestirs the tax-payers in a peculiar fashion. He hires a big wagon, decorates it with banners, puts a brass band into it, and six horses draw the wagon, music and banners all over the city. On the banners appear in large letters the words, "Pay your taxes before the 1st of April if you desire to save ten per cent."

—A comical incident recently occurred at Booth's theatre, New York, showing that metropolitan temples of dramatic art are not wholly exempt from annoyances connected with the bad working of stage machinery. The tragedy of "Lear" was played, and in the storm scene of the third act an attempt was made to present the effect of a tree struck by lightning. This is what happened: A crash of thunder came first; then the tree fell over, in such a way as to expose the mechanism used; and finally, after the process of apparent destruction was complete came the flash from the clouds. Instead of the hush of awe that should come over the audience, there was an explosion of laughter and ironical cheering which evidently astonished Mr. Booth greatly, the failure of the thing not being clearly observed at the moment.

—"Hail Columbia" has been christening a new schooner in Jacksonville, Fla. She was escorted to the bow by a clergyman, and then, throwing aside her long gray cloak and heavy veil, stood revealed as "the Gem of the Ocean." Her raiment was of the finest bunting, red, white and blue—a loose dress, belted at the waist, over which hung a large cape of the same meterial. The sleeves were white, rather small, with narrow bands of red and blue about the wrists, and edged with lace. A collar of lace ruffle surrounded her neck. Her brown wavy hair was gathered behind with a knot of red, white and blue ribbon, and flowed down her back. A goddess' cap of blue, decorated with gilded stars, surmounted her head, and in her right hand she held a flagstaff, from which floated the stars and stripes. The bottle of champagne was handed to her, and broken when the boat started, and the General F. E. Spinner was christened. No craft on the coast has an honester name than that.

—Recently, as a lady of Portland was passing some small boys, one of them opened his hand to display some fine agates to his companions. They looked at them admiringly, and presently one of the boys turning to the fortunate owner said, "I owe you a licking, but give me one of those agates, and I'll call it square." The little fellow looked up in the other's face, hesitated a moment, and then, selecting a marble, silently passed it over, after which all the lads went on with their play as if nothing unusual had occurred, the little marble-owner seeming to think the bargain a fair one.

Liver and Blood Disease Cured.

BEAVERTOWN, OHIO, July 15, '77.

DR. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—I was an invalid for years; my stomach, liver and blood became affected. The more I doctored, the worse I became. In my despair I commenced the use of your Golden Medical Discovery and Favorite Prescription. In two months' time I was restored to health. Many regard my cure as miraculous.

Very respectfully yours,

THE CITY.

We are indebted to Hon. Jacob H. Ela for valuable pub. docs.

Mr. James Janvrin is putting in a cellar for a house on Richmond street.

The Granite State base ball club and a picked nine in this city are developing their muscles for a match game at the Plains on Fast day, April 11th.

The steamer Clara Batemen went on the ways at Badger's island on Wednesday, for repairs. She will probably be ready for duty again in about a week.

"A celebrated case" will be presented at Music Hall on the evening of Wednesday, April 3d, by the Union Square Theatre company of New York. See advertisement.

The House committee on commerce has completed the river and harbor bill. It appropriates $4400 for the improvement of the Cocheco river, but does not mention Portsmouth harbor.

A bill has passed the House of Representatives granting a pension to Mrs. Susan L. Watson, widow of Adolphus E. Watson, late pay director in the navy, and is now before the Senate.

Mr. Moody it is said includes Free Masonry and Odd Fellowship among the evils to be avoided by young converts, classing them with novel-reading, horse-racing, card playing, theatres, etc.

Our old friend Cedric Laighton, of Appledore, has won a great political victory, having just been elected constable of the town of Kittery. He was elected much more than common, too, his name being on both tickets.

The performance at Music Hall, Wednesday evening, attracted a very large audience of the most cultivated residents of the city; and the entertainment afforded fully merited the generous patronage bestowed.

The up train from this city to Boston on the evening of Monday, 25th inst., struck and instantly killed an unknown man who was walking on the track at North Beverly. The man was apparently a tramp about thirty-five years of age. He stepped aside to avoid a train going in an opposite direction. His body was taken to Salem.

The arrivals of fish are now very light. The only fares brought into this port this week, up to Wednesday, were by the Annie H. Mason, 12,000 pounds, and the Johnson, 4300 pounds. Randall & Caswell have stopped buying fish to salt; their wholesale and retail trade in fresh fish, which is very extensive, is supplied from catches by the shore boats.

Frank Hiland, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Manchester, and a brother of Surgeon Hiland of the navy, formerly stationed at this navy yard, is under treatment at the asylum for the insane at Concord, and though in the possession of the best physical health his brain seems completely wrecked; he recognizes no one, not even his most intimate friends. We learn that the physician cannot yet tell what the chances for his ultimate recovery may be.

An insatiable Boston audience called Mr. Booth before the curtain six times, on his recent benefit night. The enthusiasm of such an audience, contrasted with the quiet demeanor and proper deportment of our average Music Hall assembly, encourages the actor to do his best; while with an undemonstrative auditory the most talented performer may be in doubt as to the impression he is making, or perhaps feel despondent at the apparent apathy of his hearers.

CLARK'S PROVISION STORE.

Mr. Henry M. Clark, provision dealer, No. 25 Congress street, claims a position among the oldest and standard merchants of Portsmouth. His education in mercantile affairs he commenced in the capacity of a clerk with Mr. James Place, grocer, (whose place of business was on Bow street, and is now used as the office and store rooms of the Eldredge Brewing Co.,) and continued it with Mr. William Simes, on the corner of Market square and High street. In the year 1837, at the age of twenty-one, he started in the grocery business for himself (without one cent of capital) on the corner of Market square and Church street, with a stock valued at six hundred dollars; the rent of the store being about one hundred dollars. In March, 1841, he left there and formed a co-partnership with Mr. Samuel J. Dodge, occupying the building on the corner of Market and Hanover streets. In 1843 he dissolved partnership with Mr. Dodge and went into the store where for years the late Lafayette Laighton kept, and there started as a general provision dealer,—the first establishment of the kind in the city. In the fire of 1845 he was burned out, and transferred his stock to the corner of Daniel and Penhallow streets. In 1852 he with others bought the "Old Bell Tavern" (then so called) and removed to it. In the year 1867 this building, which had almost lost its identity by its being converted into stores, saloons, etc., was burned; during the intermediate time (four months) between its being burned and the rebuilding, Mr. Clark was in the Treadwell Block on State street. His present stand, where he has been without interruption for the last eleven years, is one of the most attractive on the street; two additions have been made to it, which include the office and a room containing an engine built by the Swamscott Engine Manufacturing Co., with the Allen Governor patent. It is of six-horse power, six-inch cylinder and fourteen-inch stroke, and used exclusively for the making of sausages, nine tons of which have been disposed of within the last six months. He has also tried out 3000 lbs. of lard. Most of the delicacies and substantials in the eatable line can be found there, in and out of season. In his specialty of trade, provisions, the purchaser can find the early fruits, greens and vegetables of spring, beef, mutton, lamb, wild game and domestic poultry, all arranged with a compactness and neatness that refreshes and enlivens the appetite of the passer by. His stock of groceries is extensive, embracing the choicest qualities. Mr. Clark has won his trade and reputation by giving to the business his personal attention, and dealing in only the best of imported goods and domestic produce.

THE VICINITY.

The fiftieth anniversary of the Congregational church in Newmarket was observed with appropriate services, Sunday, March 24th. In the forenoon the pastor, Rev. Isaac C. White, preached an historical sermon; in the afternoon Rev. Eliot C. Cogswell, who was pastor of the church from 1848 to 1855, preached a most impressive sermon appropriate to the occasion.

At the town election in Kittery, March 25th, the republican candidates were chosen, as follows: moderator, Calvin L. Hayes; town clerk, Dennis M. Shapleigh; selectmen, assessors and overseers of the poor, J. R. Philbrook, T. H. Bond and T. J. Pettigrew; treasurer, Jesse E. Frisbee; town agent, Moses A. Safford; sup. sch. com., C. L. Hayes; auditors, John Wentworth, E. F. Safford; collector, C. W. Parker; health officer, M. F. Wentworth; constables, Daniel H. Nason, James Jones, Cedric Laighton.

About noon, Monday, Daniel Moore, a man about forty years of age and in the employ of Messrs. Mason, Ballou & Co., at their stone quarry at West Gloucester, started for his home, some distance from the quarry, accompanied by his son, a lad of ten or twelve years old. As they neared a portion of the road known as the "Four Corners," he complained of feeling ill and told the boy to go on to the house and advise them that he had one of his "spells;" seating himself at the same time upon a rock by the road-side. The boy did as he was desired, and upon his return with help, which was inside of half an hour, he was found to be dead. The medical attendant who was summoned pronounced it a case of heart disease. The deceased belonged in Kittery, Me., where his remains were taken. He leaves a wife and three children.—Cape Ann Bulletin.

—The local editor of the Atchinson (Kan.) Champion has donned the red ribbon, and a rival journal in dire sarcasm exclaims: "Another soul snatched from the drunkard's grave, and a few more saloons closed for the want of business."

MARINE CHRONICLE.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

ARRIVED March 27.

Sch Ida E Latham, Potter, Philadelphia.

Sch Concord, Gray, from Rockland for this port, arr at Portland March 25.

Schooner J D Williams, of New York, from Perth Amboy for this port, with a cargo of railroad iron, during the gale of March 23d lost sails, rigging, etc. She was taken in tow by the revenue cutter Dallas and taken into Rockland on the 25th, where she will repair.

Sch Sallie B, Bateman, cld at Philadelphia March 25th for this port.

The new barque Harvard, Capt Pray, is being rigged at Newburyport by a gang of riggers from Boston. She is expected to be ready to proceed to Boston early next week.

Ship Dashing Wave, Morton, sailed from San Francisco March 17th, for Tacoma.

U. S. S. Supply, Kirtland, from New York Feb 25 with exhibits for Paris Exposition, arr at Havre March 26.

San Francisco, March 19.—An accident occurred at the ship Gov Goodwin yesterday. The stevedores were engaged in discharging a turn-table sweep weighing about five tons. Heavy purchases had been rigged from the mainmast head, and the heavy iron casting had been run up nearly two blocks and swung out over the dock, when the tackle parted and down it came on the dock, breaking the casting in two. It was very fortunate that it did not fall on the vessel as it would have damaged her badly, and it was also very fortunate that no one was injured. The cost of a new casting, which will have to be paid by the stevedores, will be in the neighborhood of $600.

Advices from Sourabaya, of Feb 2d, say that Capt Tucker of the ship Midnight chartered the American ship Oliver Baxter, Baxter, to take his cargo on to Japan, and proceeded with her to Amboyna Jan 21.

Portsmouth Chronicle

A Terrible Fellow.

One of those instances where Mr. Hayes, in bestowing patronage, has selected the right man for the right place, is the case of the nomination of Colonel Alexander Charlemagne Botkin to be United States Marshal for the Territory of Montana. The requirements for efficiency in this office are familiarity with the peculiar customs of the wild border, courage in confronting desperate emergencies and skill in the use of deadly weapons, all of which accomplishments are combined in Mr. Botkin to a degree not known since the death of Wild Bill. Mr. Botkin is six feet four inches high in his bare feet, and weighs, when fully armed, 217 1-2 pounds. His ordinary belt arsenal consists of three English dragoon revolvers, self-cockers, calibre .557, and one sixteen-inch Bowie-knife, while his pockets are fortified with two five-shooter Derringers of the bull-dog pattern and a six-inch Scotch dirk, with automatic clasp. His skill with the revolver is simply miraculous. One of his most commonplace feats is to take his three immense revolvers and play at triple-toss with them over head, over back, keeping two of them in the air all the time, catching the third as it comes down in rotation and firing it on a fly. He has been known to discharge all the shots of his three revolvers in this manner, putting the entire eighteen bullets through the same hole at a distance of twelve paces. His appointment will prove of incalculable advantage to the cause of reform, inasmuch as the terror inspired by his mere name will cause all the road agents, claim-jumpers and timber thieves of Montana to decamp for the British possessions in order to be near Sitting Bull, who is a much less dangerous neighbor than Mr. Alexander Charlemagne Botkin. It may be proper to remark incidentally that Mr. Botkin's warlike accomplishments were mainly attained during his wild and romantic career as city and managing editor of the Chicago Times.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Samuel Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Chest Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniments. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. otmay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus lending weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expansion; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, disease of the scalp can not exist.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft, lustrous and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great railway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction and Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a solid foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its sumptuous parlor cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noted:
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

THE GREAT
FALL RIVER LINE, BETWEEN BOSTON AND NEW YORK.
THE MAMMOTH STEAMSHIPS
Bristol and Providence,
Of this Line, are the Largest, Handsomest, and Most Costly in the World!
Trains leaving Boston from the OLD COLONY Railroad Station at 4:30 (Accommodation) and 6 (Steamboat Express) P. M., connect with these "Floating Palaces" at Fall River daily (Sundays excepted), arriving in New York at 6 A. M.
No line can offer the accommodations presented by this favorite route.
ONLY 49 MILES OF RAIL.
Passing through Narragansett and Mount Hope Bays by daylight—
NO DISAGREEABLE NIGHT CHANGES,
But affording passengers a full night's rest, and having an open water route, avoids the intricate and perilous river navigation incident to other routes.
Grand Promenade Concert on each Steamer every evening during the summer.
New and Elegant Drawing-Room Cars on Steamboat Express Trains.
BROOKLYN ANNEX STEAMER connects with this Line only at Pier 24, North River, New York, arrival of steamer from the East. Passengers and baggage for Brooklyn transferred free.

NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supercede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I tried Dr. Sage's, relief came of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydraulic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight months I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver and bowels regular by the use of one of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.
Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Liver Complaint; and Chronic Laryngitis. His Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Bilious ness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have a sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternating with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humers in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearances on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Itch or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leuchorrhea arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh!

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head led so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this point, I decided six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and ulcerating of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and know to confidence many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as prescribed by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

BOSTON, Feb. 25, 1875. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, caused by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and have tried most approved prepara tions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without any permanent relief, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider it a remarkable, and shall WILL always recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a light Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

BALLAD OF THOMAS A'KEMPIS.

"When the cat's away,
The mice will play."

Mary had a little cat,
His fur was dappled grey,
Whenever Mary didn't go
That cat was sure to stay.

When Mary traveled far and near
To visit distant lands,
The cat was well provided for
By white and queenly hands.

He lingered patiently about
The nack of the old house,
Content if now and then he found
A lingering rat or mouse.

On moonlight nights upon the roof
He sat and watched the sky,
And answered other wandering cats
Whene'er he heard their cry.

When Mary did come home again
He showed his feline joy;
Smoothing his silky, furry coat,
She called him a good boy.

"I've caught the mice and all the rats
That dared to show a head,
I've fed the neighbor's hungry cats,"
In plaintive news, he said.

But not a word did Mary hear
Of moonlight nights abroad,
Of boot-jacks from a neighbor's hand,—
Oh pussy, what a fraud!

FATHER FLYNT'S JOURNEY TO PORTSMOUTH, From Cambridge, in 1754.

Of Father Flynt's Journey to Portsmouth and back to Cambridge, Æ. 80. Olim meminisse juvabit.

In the month of June, 1754, after the Senior Sophisters, agreeable to the usage of Harvard College in those times had left off attending and reciting to their tutor, and were making the necessary arrangements for graduating in July then next, the time of commencement, Henry Flynt, the senior tutor of the institution, who had then the care and instruction of the senior class of undergraduates, sent for me to his chamber, in the old Harvard Hall, on Saturday afternoon, and told me he intended to take a journey to Portsmouth, N. H.; and, being informed that I was an excellent driver of a chair, he wished to know if I would wait upon him in that situation, and return home for a few days. I replied, the poposition was to me new and unexpected, and I wished for a little time to consider of it. He replied "Aye, prithee, there is no time for consideration: I am going next Monday morning." I paused about a minute, and then replied that I would wait upon him in the journey.*

I afterwards learned that he had applied to T. Atkinson,† a student from Portsmouth, who had declined, and who had recommended me as a skilful and careful driver of a chair. In those days a single horse and chair, without a top, was the usual mode of conveyance. A covered chair, then called a calash, was very seldom used.

After my consenting to attend Mr. Flynt, he says, "go to the President (Holyoke), and give my service to him, and desire him to give leave for you to return home," that I might attend him in his proposed journey. I accordingly went and obtained leave of absence, and was then directed to go the journey.

On Monday, after breakfast, I went with the horse (which was a pacing mare) and chair to the college yard, from whence we proceeded on the journey across the common, and up the Menotomy Road, until we came to the cross road, passing near the Powder House to Medford, and from thence through Malden to Lynn. The first stop we made was at the noted public-house kept in that day by landlord Newall, where we oated the horse; and, as it was a warm forenoon, Mr. Flynt had a nip of milk punch; after which Mr. Flynt took from a leather purse (of considerable bulk, filled with small silver change,) a small piece of money, and gave me to discharge the reckoning, with this injunction: "Be careful, and take the right change." Which being done, we proceeded through Salem plain to Danvers, by the country seat of King Hooper (so called) of Marblehead, through Ipswich, and a little before sunset we reached the dwelling of the Rev. Mr. Jewett of Rowley; where we called, and Mr. Flynt acquainted him he meant to tarry there that night. We were cordially entertained, and at bed-time we were introduced to a chamber where was only one bed; upon getting into which, says Mr. Flynt to me, "You will be keeping well to your own side" (an injunction I had no disposition to disobey). The next day, Tuesday, we passed through Newbury, over Merrimack River, at the ferry called Salisbury Ferry. He conversed freely and sociably on many topics (a thing then unusual for a tutor with an undergraduate), and, among other things, that he had lately sold a farm to cousin Quincy, for £500 or thereabouts; but, as he had no present need of the money, he had taken his security for the purchase sum, payable at a future period on interest.

Mr. Flynt intended to call and dine with Parson Cotton‡ of Old Hampton; and as we came to the road that led from the post-road to Cotton's house, we met the parson and his wife walking on foot. Upon which Mr. Flynt informed Mr. Cotton that he intended to have called and taken dinner dinner with him; but, as he found he was going from home, he would pass on and dine at a public-house. Upon which, says Mr. Cotton, "We are going to dine, upon an invitation, with Doctor Weeks, one of my parishioners; and Mr. Gookin§ and his wife, of North Hill, are likewise invited to dine there; and I have no doubt you will be as welcome as any of us; and, besides, the Doctor has a son who he intends shall enter college next commencement; and I will with pleasure introduce you to Doctor Weeks." After pausing a small space, Mr. Flynt agreed to go, provided Parson Cotton would pass on before us, and make the necessary explanation to show that we were not interlopers. Upon which Mr. Cotton and wife passed on before us, and I halted the chair, and moved on slowly behind them (about 100 rods) to Dr. Weeks'; and Mr. Cotton introduced us to him, where we were cordially received and hospitably entertained. After dinner, while Mr. Flynt was enjoying his pipe, the wife of Dr. Weeks introduced her young child, about a month old, and the twins of Parson Gookin's wife, infants of about the same age, under some expectation of his blessing by bestowing something on the mother of the twins (as was supposed), although no mention of that expectation was made in my hearing; but it produced no effect of the kind. ‖

* David Sewall, the writer of this journal, was about nineteen years of age when he made the tour which he so nicely describes. He graduated in the following year, in the same class with John Adams. His home was in York, Maine; and probably one inducement he had to accompany his old tutor to Portsmouth was the opportunity it offered of a visit to his native town during vacation. But, as Portsmouth was the end of Mr. Flynt's journey, Sewall was obliged to "foot it" the rest of the way home. Sewall became a distinguished man, "a learned and upright judge;" and died only nine months before his friend and classmate, John Adams, at the age of ninety years.

† Theodore Atkinson, Jr. He was of the class of 1757, and died in 1769.

‡ This was Rev. Ward Cotton, a great-grandson of Rev. John Cotton of Boston. He was ordained at Hampton, in 1734, and was removed in 1765.

§ This was Rev. Nathaniel Gookin, minister of the church in North Hampton (1739-1766), formerly constituting the parish called "North Hill," in Hampton.

‖ One of these twin daughters is said to have been the mother of Colonel Upham, the present (1831) United States collector of customs for the port of Portsmouth, N. H.—Sewall's note.

(Concluded to-morrow.)

Daily Chronicle

FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1878.

Economical—but Judicious.

The legislative appropriation committee of the House of Representatives displays a judicious discrimination most commendable. The House is a "democratic House," as we have been told; it is also a "reform" House, and economical to the last degree (in everything except furnishing candidates for positions under the doorkeeper;) and the legislative appropriation committee is also of course democratic, and "reform," and economical. But this committee, in addition to its other virtues, is judicious, which neither friend nor enemy will lay to the charge of the "democratic House;" hence, to carry out the true principles of democratic "reform" and economy, the committee aforesaid has in the estimates cut down the pay of every employe of the Senate—the Senate employes being republicans; but being also judicious, the committee has not cut down the pay of a single employe of the House, all the House employes being democrats, and most of them ex-fighters for the "lost cause." Verily, democratic "reform" is as fearful and wonderful a thing as that other reform, surnamed the "swivel-service."

Congress.

In the Senate, Wednesday, the Pacific Railroad sinking-fund measures were discussed. Mr. Hill of Georgia made a vigorous speech in opposition. The diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was amended considerably and then passed.

In the House the bill for the prevention of the introduction of contagious diseases into the United States was introduced, amended and passed. The Dean-Field contested election case (from the Third Massachusetts Congressional District) came up, and a vote was taken, the question being on substituting the minority for the majority report. Every member voted, or was otherwise accounted for. Gen. Butler voted for Dean. The Speaker exercised his right of voting, thereby making the result a tie. No vote was reached on the majority report.

On Thursday Mr. Field, elected to Congress by the people of the Third District of Massachusetts, was voted out of his seat by the "democratic House," and Mr. Dean, who was not elected, was voted in—by a vote of 124 to 123. The House refused to take up the report against doorkeeper Polk.

The War Cloud.

The news from Europe, Thursday, was warlike in tone. English consols are slightly lower, and there is a heavy decline in Russian securities. The Russians are making great efforts to secure an alliance with Austria, but so far, it appears, without much success. The English government is hurrying up its preparations for war. Russia has recently purchased immense quantities of quinine in the American market, and the price has advanced from $3.25 to $5.50 a pound, and is scarce at the latter figure.

New Hampshire Items.

La Page is now suspected of the murder of two women, a mother and daughter, at Saint Alexandre, Canada, ten years ago, under circumstances very similar to the Langmaid and Ball murders.

Up to the evening of March 27th the Nashua Common Council had taken two hundred ballots for a President, but failed to elect one, the parties being equally divided.

Hon. Charles H. Bartlett has been appointed by the Supreme Court co-assignee of the City Savings Bank of Manchester, with William B. Johnson. This appointment is made to satisfy outside parties, Mr. Johnson being a trustee of the bank. The assignees propose to convert the available assets into cash, and declare a first dividend as early as possible, leaving the balance to be adjusted as soon as can be without prejudice to depositors.

The law prohibiting the sale of cider in quantities less than ten gallons was adopted at the recent election in Croydon.

A prominent and highly respectable citizen of Lebanon, seventy-eight years old, and two years a widower, lately led to the hymenial altar a charming young widow of twenty-two.

The dead-lock in the Nashua Common Council was broken Thursday forenoon on the 206th ballot, when Frank D. Cook, republican, was chosen President; Henry H. Davis, democrat, was chosen Clerk.

Mr. Blair has presented to the House of Representatives the petition of O. C. Hatch of Littleton and 37 others for the repeal of the bankrupt law.

Ebenezer Wyman of Contoocookville was arrested Wednesday morning, by United States Marshal J. N. Pattersen, on a charge of sending obscene letters through the mail. He was arraigned before Commissioner Bartlett of Manchester, waived examination, and gave bail for his appearance at the next term of the United States Court.

Miss Lucretia A. Eastman, of Fryeburg, Me., died recently, aged sixty-one years. She was a daughter of the late Major John Langdon Eastman, an officer of the war of 1812, and a direct descendant of Ebenezer Eastman, the first settler of Penacook, now Concord, in this State.

Wendell Phillips delivered the closing lecture of the People's Course at Claremont, Wednesday evening, before a crowded audience. His subject was "Charles Sumner."

News and Notes.

Thomas P. Fisher, another of the Mollie Maguire murderers of Morgan Powell in 1875, was hanged at Mauch Chunk, Penn., on Thursday.

Hon. John Morrissey has arrived at his home in New York, from the south. He is still feeble, though out of danger.

Courtney, the American oarsman, has received word from Trickett, the Australian champion and winner of the championship of England, stating that he would come to this country and row on the terms originally agreed upon—$5000 a side, $1500 expenses. Courtney accepts. The race will probably take place at Ensenore early next fall.

Patrick Murray, of Newport, R. I., lost the sixth and last of his children on Wednesday by diphtheria, all having died within a month. A Sutton, Vt., family named Page lost a daughter by diphtheria a few months ago; a few weeks since the mother died; still later, another child; and now there are two other members of the household at the point of death.

A Lewiston, Me., man recently became scared at the numerous failures of institutions of trust, and drew $1500 out of a savings bank. Not knowing what to do with it, he hid it in a sly corner and the next morning when he went for it he found that the rats had eaten it up.

Miss Sarah Herring, daughter of the wealthy sheriff of Hackensack, N. J., was on Tuesday, 26th inst., married to Charles Fournyer, a young Frenchman, twenty-one years of age, who was for some time her father's coachman, but was discharged in February last. Sheriff Herring went to Trenton on business on the day of the wedding, and while he was gone the young fools got married. After the ceremony the groom was so scared that he proposed to run away, but on being told that his father-in-law could not legally injure him he concluded to remain; so he went to his own home, and his bride returned to her father's.

Rumors of an immense gathering of Indians under Sitting Bull and Red Cloud, in readiness for a summer campaign against the whites on the western frontier, come from Fort Walsh, within one hundred miles of which it is said are from 5000 to 7000 warriors, splendidly armed and equipped.

By an explosion in the Opedall colliery at North Staffordshire, England, on Wednesday, thirty-five persons lost their lives.

A shocking accident occurred in the hunting field, by which Mrs. William Crawshay, of Riverdale, Newnham, Gloucestershire, and wife of Mr. W. Crawshay, iron-master, was killed. Lord Fitzhardinge had a by-day with his hounds at Norton. Mrs. Crawshay, who was very fond of hunting, was following the hounds and when near Tewkesbury Park her horse jumped a hedge and came beneath a somewhat low apple tree. The lady stooped to avoid the branches, and her head came violently against the trunk of the tree, and her neck was broken. She fell from her horse, and died instantaneously in the arms of Capt. Kennard's groom, who was in attendance on her, and was the only person near at the time. When the sad news reached the field they at once desisted from the chase. Deceased was a young and beautiful woman, and the daughter of Mr. Gordon Canning, of Harpury House, near Gloucester.—English paper.

—A great amount of nonsense about ministers' wives was summarily disposed of by the late Dr. Bethumn, who, when the qualifications of his wife for official duty were inquired into, asked the brethren if they "intended to pay her a salary."

—A number of American women sent to Worth, the Parisian modiste, asking him "What costume can be devised that will be perfectly healthy and at the same time beautiful?" He replied: "I have to make the same answer to you that I have made to the women of Europe. The costume of the Persian women is the handsomest upon the face of the earth. It consists of a loose waist, short skirt, and trousers not too loose. I have made this costume beautifully and hung it up in Paris, but the women will not wear it. I can do nothing more. They must suffer until they are willing to adopt it."

—There has always been a mystery attending the fate of decorations, such as triumphal arches, etc., after they have served their purpose in celebrating certain men or events, but it seems that some of them, at least, after having done service in one quarter of the globe are transported to others to grace other festive occasions. At the recent celebration in Havana of the King of Spain's wedding, one of the most striking features of the festivities was a triumphal arch, bought in London for $5000, which had previously been used in that city on the return of the Prince of Wales from India, and seemed none the worse for wear.

THE CITY.

The Portsmouth Heavy Artillery have received from the State forty-five breech-loading Springfield rifles, calibre .45, pattern of 1873.

The concert to be given in Music Hall on the evening of Easter Monday, April 22d, is to be under the management of Miss Carrie W. Rockwood of Newton, Mass., who, during the past winter, has been connected with the Adelaide Phillips troupe. Of the talent already secured we are permitted to give the following; Miss Laura Schirmer, soprano, Clarence Hay, basso, Wolf Fries, violincellist, and Arthur Fotoe, pianist. Several others are to appear.

Dr. John E. Tyler, for many years superintendent of Somerville asylum for insane, died last week of pneumonia. He for many years practised medicine in this State, and decided several years ago to settle in Portsmouth, and was "improfessional" enough to advertise in the CHRONICLE, and the very next day, we believe, received the appointment of Supt. of Concord Insane Asylum—which shows the benefit of advertising, especially in the CHRONICLE.—Weekly.

The schooner Triton, which has been in winter quarters at Kittery Point, came up the river on Thursday morning to go on the ways at Neal's yard at Kittery Foreside. On the way she grounded on the rocks between Pumpkin island and the navy yard, where she had to await the next flood-tide to float her, laying quite comfortably meanwhile. The repairing of her forefoot is about all she needs done to her, she having received no injury from grounding.

"TIME."

We have heard very many complaints that the entertainment at Music Hall was not "on time" Wednesday evening; in fact, we have received several communications upon the subject. It is true no hour was fixed for the entertainment to begin, yet every one supposed the hour would be at a quarter to eight.

Again, many people at the usual hour of opening found the doors closed, and had to take refuge from the chilly air of out-doors, in the more genial warmth of the hotels, stores, and houses of their friends; and when the doors at a late hour were opened, there was an uncomfortable rush.

The worst feature, however, was keeping the audience in waiting for the performance to begin to such a late hour. Those who sat near the aisles smiled at the grim joke contained in the programme, (distributed to a few while they waited for the rise of the curtain at twenty-five minutes past eight,) informing them that the entertainment would begin at 7:45! There may have been good and sufficient reasons for all of this, but the public cannot submit to lose so much time, and audiences will not patiently wait thirty-five minutes after the advertised time, without the benefit of orchestral sound "to soothe the savage breast." The rule should be to advertise a time for opening doors, and a time when the performance will begin and conclude, stick closely to the advertised time, and every one will then be accommodated. In the amateur performances in Franklin Hall, heretofore, a careful manager has always had things more on the date; there should be no exception to this rule.

"THE FEARLESS DeCOURCEYS."

Editor Chronicle: Miss Spalding's fine recitation of the rare and elegant poem, bearing the above title, on Wednesday evening, at the Music Hall, having excited a desire in many to know more of the hero of it, I send you the following. Sir John De Courcey distinguished himself under Henry II. in the wars in England and Gascony, and for the part he bore after being sent to aid in the government of Ireland, in attaching the province of Ulster to the British monarchy, was created Earl of Ulster. When King John came into power, his rank and splendor exciting the envy of Hugh De Lacy, whom he appointed Governor of Ireland, De Courcey was seized and sent to England, where the king not only condemned him to perpetual imprisonment in the Tower, but bestowed upon De Lacy all his possessions in Ireland, the latter being but a mere creature of his will upon whom he was ready to bestow any desired benefits. After De Courcey had been imprisoned a year, the king needing a champion in a difficulty with the king of France regarding the Duchy of Normandy and the murder by John of Prince Arthur, which was referred to single combat, and no one of his nobles being willing to take up the gauntlet for him, the gallant Earl of Ulster, being liberated for that purpose, was induced to accept the challenge, and came off conqueror, for which service King John restored to him his title and estate, besides the privilege to him and all his race of being permitted to stand covered in the presence of the then reigning monarch and all his successors upon the British throne; a privilege that is claimed by those entitled to it to the present time. It will thus be seen by those who heard it on Wednesday evening, how accurate is the poem to the history. COM.

A "VICTIM" REMONSTRATES.

Mr. Editor: Mr. Tom Brown* is in town, and resists the "twenty-eight dead-head" device for making Music Hall unpopular with foreign shows; but I have a private and particular grievance, which I think it would be well for the "proprietors" to guard against in the future. Recently I unfortunately bought tickets for seats which chanced to belong to the sacred twenty-eight, and when I presented them I was confronted with persons holding the right of pre-emption, and had to take seats in the gallery. Is it too much to ask of the proprietors of the hall that they will put on the plan some kind of a mark—a black mark, for instance—over the seats not for sale, so that the unwary may not fall into the error of buying, three days before an entertainment, seats o which no cash tickets will entitle them? VICTIM.

[Note.* Mr. Tom Brown is the energetic and capable advance agent of the "Celebrated Case" company from the Union Square Theatre of New York, and engaged to pay seventy dollars for the entire hall, rather than pay fifty dollars (we believe that is the price) for the hall with twenty-eight seats reserved from public sale for the use of the proprietors. Our correspondent "Victim" has a genuine grievance in being sold tickets to seats thus reserved; such an occurrence should not be allowed to take place, and we presume it will be guarded against in the future. But we can hardly detect the propriety of terming the owners of the hall "dead-heads," because they reserve seats for their own use; there are two prices for the hall; if the higher price is paid, the owners reserve no seats; if the lower price is paid the seats are reserved—the difference between the two prices being the payment therefor. This may or may not be a judicious business regulation, (and the price of the hall may be too high—we do not own the hall, nor wish to hire it, so we are not directly interested,) but to us it seems a perfectly legitimate business transaction; the proprietors say, "There is the hall; you can have it for seventy dollars a night; if you reserve twenty-eight seats for our use we will take twenty dollars off the price. 'You pays your money and you takes your choice.'"—Ed.]

A COMPLIMENTARY NOTE.

We copy from the New Orleans Picayune the following letter from the Mayor of New Orleans to Comdr. Remey of the "Enterprise," which will be of interest to many of our readers, Comdr. Remey and other officers of the ship being well known here, and Lieut. Lyman G. Spalding a native of this city:

CITY HALL, March 20, 1878.

Commander George C. Remey, commanding United States corvette Enterprise:

Sir—I have the honor to state that the survey of the river, for which your vessel and crew were kindly placed at the service of this city by the Secretary of the Navy, has been concluded in a successful and satisfactory manner, and I take pleasure in offering to yourself and the officers and crew under your command the thanks of the City Council for the zeal and ability with which the survey has been conducted. Our thanks are especially due to Lieut. L. G. Spalding and Master M. F. Wright for important services. Wishing you health and prosperity, and a return to our city at a day not far distant, that you may note the realization of a prosperity upon which your services have had an important bearing. I remain your obedient servant,

E. PILLSBURY, Mayor.

OBITUARY.

James N. Tarlton, Esq., died in Boston on Wednesday evening of erysipelas, after an illness of about ten days. Mr. Tarlton will be remembered as one of the most energetic and hard-working business men of this city for many years. In early life he was associated with his father, Mr. Thomas Tarlton, in the fishing business at Newcastle; removing to this city, he went into business as a ship chandler with Mr. Joseph F. Pierce, under the firm name of Tarlton & Pierce, subsequently buying out Mr. Pierce's interest, and removing to the store now occupied by Rider & Cotton, at length disposing of his store and business to his brother, Mr. William Tarlton. He then went into the flour and grain trade in company with Thomas Neil and James N. Tarlton, Jr., under the firm of Neil & Tarlton; this partnership continued five years, when it was dissolved. Mr. Tarlton left Portsmouth for Medford, Mass., in 1870, and moved from there to Middleton, Conn., where he bought a grocery business; he remained in Middleton a few years, and then removed to Boston, where he died. He was at one time a director of the New Hampshire National Bank, and was President of that institution for a short time previous to engaging in the flour and grain trade; was part (and managing) owner of ships Granite State, New Hampshire, Levi Woodbury, and Portsmouth, and interested in several smaller vessels; and also at one time dealt largely in salt.

FISHERMEN.

Schooner Wm. Seavey, of Portland, which has laid up during the winter at Newcastle, is to fit for the fishing season under command of Capt. Robert White. The Wm. Seavey is the only schooner now fitting for bank fishing at the island, where thirty years ago at the spring of the year over thirty vessels were preparing for this business.

At Doane's wharf there is considerable activity. Schooners W. H. Y. Hackett and Light of Home have been supplied with salt from schooner Golden Gate, and will complete their loading and be ready for sea this week, when the other vessels of the fleet now at moorings will be hauled in to the wharf preparatory to taking in stores for the cruise.

The Times of Thursday says: "A small whale, weighing about five hundred pounds, was brought into port at Newburyport yesterday by the schooner Josie Johnson, Thurlow. He was alive when caught, off the Isles of Shoals." That five-hundred-pound "whale" was of the variety called "porpoise," and was caught on one of the Josie Johnson's trawls.

THE VICINITY.

The dwelling of Clement Noble of Kennebunk was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. Loss over $1600. Insured.

Rev. J. M. Laighton of Biddeford, Me., has been called to the Unitarian church at Fairbaven, and will enter on his duties next month.

Sheriff Kent on Thursday evening received advices from a son of County Solicitor Small, announcing that his father on the previous night rested well, ate a hearty breakfast in the morning, and was "entirely conscious."

John Burns, of St. Albans, Vt., left that town for Dover on Monday, March 25th, in good health, to visit his father, (from whom he had long been estranged on account of having married against the father's wishes,) at the latter's earnest and repeated request. On Thursday Burns' friends in St. Albans received a telegram that he died suddenly in Dover on the previous day, and they telegraphed back to the authorities of Dover not to permit burial till the matter is thoroughly investigated. Burns leaves a wife and five children.

Three deputy sheriffs in Biddeford made quite a haul of liquors on Wednesday, the 2 th inst., at the house of a Frenchman named Chignon, or something that sounds like that. A large crowd gathered in and about the place, and jeered and derided the officers as they unsuccessfully searched the den, until they entered a clothes-press, when immediately the crowd changed its tune and began to slink away, which satisfied the officers they had at last struck the right track. After considerable search a small hole was discovered concealed under one of the cleats to which clothes-hooks were attached; one of the officers had a bit of wire in his pocket, which he formed into a loop, put up in the hole, hooked on to something, and pulled—and open came the whole side of the clothes-press, letting the officers into a closet in which they found six five-gallon kegs—several of them filled with liquor. Near by were tunnels and half a dozen body-cans, (the name bestowed in Maine on large flasks intended to be carried on the person by peripatetic rum-shops,) some of them well filled. All these things they seized and carried off, to the intense disgust of the chop-fallen crowd of bummers that had at first been so derisive. The officers were highly elated, as they had evidently struck a wholesale department of the rum traffic, from whence "movable saloons" went about the city. The seized spirit was stored in the Saco jail.

—"Now, my boy," said the examiner, "if I had a mince pie and should give two-twelfths of it to John, and two-twelfths to Isaac, two-twelfths to Harry, and should take half the pie myself, what would there be left? Speak out loud, so that all can hear." "The plate?" shouted the boy.

—The Count Johannes cleared $10,000 by his performances during the winter.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

In lower harbor, March 28th, a large three masted schooner, coal laden, bound up, and several lumber laden schooners put in for a harbor.

Sch Clara E Simpson, Talpey, arr at Baltimore March 27th from Boston via Wood's Hole.

A letter has been received at San Francisco from Capt Libbey of the ship Triumphant, lately arrived at Callao from San Francisco. It will be remembered that this fine ship had to undergo extensive repairs at Friscisco, and Capt. Libbey thus expresses himself on their work: "Since our repairs at San Francisco our ship has been in tip-top condition, and the fine Oregon spars stand like the Eddystone Lighthouse. All the work done at San Francisco—carpenters', blacksmiths' and riggers' —has proved most excellent. We had some strong breezes, with a crank ship, but nothing gave out." The Triumphant made the run from San Francisco to the Equator in 11½ days, sailing 2375 miles, a fit to be not only "the best in Maury" but the shortest ever made by any sailing vessel. She crossed 30 south in 22 days out.

A Blind Doctor.

A blind man was made a Doctor of Medicine at Chicago recently. R. H. Babcock was afflicted with inflammation of the eyes when quite young, and eventually lost his sight. He resolved to work his way through the world and to study medicine. He has been one of the most promising students in the Medical School, and was graduated with high honors. His sense of touch is so acute that by running his fingers over his book-shelves he can pick out a volume he wants before his "reader" can find it for him. He has made a thorough study of anatomy by means of his fingers, and can dissect nerves with the utmost precision. His sense of hearing is so acute that he can distinguish the voice of every one of his classmates on catching the faintest syllable, and detects sounds within a man's chest which nobody else hears. He intends to make a specialty of throat and lung diseases, and to confine himself to office practice.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D.

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for sprained, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. dmay1

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the fading of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves, both the hair and its beauty. Thus treated, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its application is safe and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and healthy. Under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, imparts a lively expression, falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its application is safe and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and healthy. Under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety, and no expense or refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must be a PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns. ufeb20 79

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and prosperity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. Dr. Pierce's superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. The business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling tube" nuisance (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way possible by with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. I am using the Catarrh Remedy, Douche, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternate with hot flashes, low spirits and a gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Yellow Dock, with the iodides of Potassa and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear. Such as Dyspepsia of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

a meal. After dinner, Mr. Flynt was accommodated with a pipe; and, while enjoying it, Mrs. Whipple accosted him thus: "Mr. Gookin, the worthy clergyman of North Hill, has but a small parish and a small salary, but a considerable family; and his wife has lately had twins." "Aye, that is no fault of mine," says Mr. Flynt. "Very true, sir; but so it is." And, as he was a bachelor, and a gentleman of handsome property, she desired he would give her something for Mr. Gookin; and she would be the bearer of it, and faithfully deliver it to him. To which he replied, "I don't know that we bachelors are under an obligation to maintain other folks' children." To this she assented; but it was an act of charity she now requested for a worthy person, and from him who was a gentleman of opulence, and who, she hoped, would now not neglect bestowing it. "Madam, I am from home, on a journey, and it is an unseasonable time." She was very sensible of this; but a gentleman of his property did not usually travel without more money than was necessary to pay the immediate expenses of the journey, and she hoped he could spare something on this occasion. After some pause, he took from his pocket a silver dollar, and gave her, saying it was the only whole dollar he had about him. Upon which Mrs. Whipple thanked him, and engaged she would faithfully soon deliver it to Mr. Gookin; adding, it was but a short time to commencement, when it was probable Mr. Gookin would attend, and she hoped this was but an earnest of a larger donation he would then bestow upon Mr. Gookin. Father Flynt upon this replied, "Insatiable woman, I am almost sorry I have given you any thing." ††

Soon after which we pursued our journey, and riding over the sandy road to the ferry, the easy motion of the chair lulled the old gentleman into a sleep for some time; upon which I carefully attended the boot of the chair, to prevent his being thrown from the carriage a second time, in case of the stumbling of the horse. We passed through Newbury and Rowley, without calling upon the minister of either of the places, and reached Ipswich toward evening; when we stopped at the dwelling of Mr. Rogers, the clergyman of the old parish, who seemed much pleased with the visit, and introduced his wife (who, I understood, was a daughter of President Leverett); when Mr. Flynt accosted the lady, "Madam, I must buss you," and gave her a hearty kiss.

We enjoyed a social evening; and, upon his being asked some questions about the scholars, related the following anecdote: "One morning my class were reciting, and stood quite round me, and one or two rather at my back, where was a table on which lay a keg of wine I had the day before bought at Boston; and one of the blades took up the keg and drank out of the bung. A looking-glass was right before me, so that I could plainly see what was doing behind me. I thought I would not disturb him while drinking; but, as soon as he had done, I turned round, and told him he ought to have had the manners to have drank to somebody." And this was all the reprimand made on this occasion.

We again slept in the same room together. In the morning I arose before him, and he slept on until breakfast-time, when I went upstairs to acquaint him of it. We had toast and tea. He was interrogated by Mrs. Rogers whether he would have the tea strong or weak, that she might accommodate it to his liking. He replied, he liked it strong of the tea, strong of the sugar, and strong of the cream; and it was regulated accordingly.

Breakfast being over, we departed, and passed through the hamlet now called Hamilton, to Beverly, and a ferry (where a toll-bridge is now erected), into Salem, and stopped at the house of Mr. Browne, an opulent merchant of the place, where we dined. This Mr. Browne was related to my classmate, William Browne; and, from the conversation which passed during dinner, I found he was a great genealogist. After dinner was over, we proceeded on our way without any other remarkable occurrence, until we reached Cambridge, and finished the journey.

† William Parker, Jr., was the son of William Parker, graduated at Harvard College in 1730, and afterward lived in Exeter. For many years he was judge of the Court of Common Pleas, and registrar of probate for Rockingham County. His sister, Mary, married the writer of this journal, David Sewall. The sister who furnished the court-plaster to Tutor Flynt, and who afterward married Captain Adams (the annalist of Portsmouth), was Elizabeth, who died Nov. 20, 1815, aged eighty-one years.

 John Wendell, the son of John, was born in Boston, in 1731; graduated at Harvard College in 1750, and then removed to Portsmouth, where he married,—first, June 29, 1754, Sarah Wentworth, daughter of Capt. Daniel, son of Lieutenant-Governor John Wentworth; second, Aug. 20, 1778, Dorothy Sherburne. He was a man of high consideration in Portsmouth, and died there April 26, 1808.

†† Madam Whipple's second husband was Rev. John Lowell, of Newbury, after whose death his parishioners settled an annuity of $100 on her during her life; and in the latter part of her life she lived with Mrs. Brackett at Portsmouth, where she died, upwards of ninety years of age.—Sewall's note.

—The George Washington sociable, of men who could not tell lies, was abandoned. The only guests who came were two insurance agents.—Rome Sentinel.

—An absent-minded Monroe (Conn.) man went to church the other morning with his overcoat, as he supposed, on his arm, but the laughing of people in church called his attention to the garment, which was a pair of trowsers, whose suspenders were dangling about his legs.

Daily Chronicle

SATURDAY, MARCH 30, 1878.

A Big Job.

The Nashua Gazette has laid out a big job of work for its political friends in this State to do next November—nothing less than to take the field "with their usual energy and determination," and "win all three of the members" of Congress! The strength of the two parties in the three Congressional districts, taking the late vote for governor as a test, is as follows: In the first district the republican plurality was 299, in the second district it was 783, and in the third district it was 432. The democracy would be very glad to feel assured of carrying one Congressional district, but they don't feel any such assurance. Hon. Frank Jones, who has twice carried the first district, has not yet issued public instructions to his constituents to nominate him for a third term; and if he should order such a nomination he would get beaten at the polls. Caleb Moulton, of Hampstead, won't amount to much as Congressman-maker this year; he used up his usefulness two years ago.

Found More Than He Wanted.

Glover, the great democratic "reformer" and general investigator of republican doings, on the part of the "democratic House," recently quite unintentionally and much to his astonishment, while investigating a case against the Treasury, set up by his chief assistant, ex-Special Agent Moore, stumbled on a witness who proceeded to expose Moore himself while Moore was helping conduct the examination. Part of the story came out and Glover did not push for the rest, but papers in the Treasury give it. It seems that Moore got twenty-five hundred dollars of the secret service money under the pretence of using it to detect smuggling. Two detectives went to Canada, bought a large lot of goods and had them smuggled to New York, but caught no one. The goods were then seized with a great flourish there, and subsequently sold for a very small sum. The merchants in Canada report that these agents swindled them out of a personal purchase on their credit as government officers of some eleven hundred dollars, and that they attempted a large purchase in addition, and offered in payment a check for $13,000, but the merchant saved himself by telegraphing the bank on which it was drawn, and ascertaining that they had no funds there. But Glover did not push matters in this case, as that was not the kind of evidence he was looking for, these same swindlers, having been kicked out of the service by the republican authorities for their rascalities, being now Glover's main reliance.

Congress.

The Senate on Thursday confirmed Glenni W. Scofield as Register of the Treasury, and Charles P. Ramsdell, of Petersburg, Va., as U. S. Marshal for Eastern Virginia. The Senate rejected the nominations of Robert M. Reynolds of Alabama, to be First Auditor of the Treasury, vice David W. Mahan, and of Joseph W. Huston of Boise City, to be United States Attorney for Idaho.

It is said Doorkeeper Polk is much encouraged by the action of the House in refusing to take up his case Thursday, and now thinks he will be able to retain his place. There are indications that Polk has so lobbied his case that he could secure a majority vote in his favor, even if the report is pressed to a vote.

News and Notes.

Mr. Abner Stetson, of Damariscotta, Me., with his co-owners, has asked Congress to remunerate him for the loss of ship Alleghanian, captured and sunk in Chesapeake bay in 1862 by armed boats under the command of John Taylor Wood, an officer of the confederate navy. The remuneration prayed for they ask shall be taken from the unappropriated money of the Geneva award.

The condition of U. S. S. Wyoming, now lying in the dry dock at Brooklyn navy yard, proves to be much worse than was anticipated. From the load line down to the light line she is absolutely rotten. The leaking instead of being in the starboard bow only was found to exist in a dozen different places. After the old copper was stripped off, several pieces of planking, forty feet in length, were taken out, so rotten that they fell apart while being removed.

A man-of-war, sunk over a century ago in Arnold's Bay, on Lake Champlain, about seven miles from Vergennes, is still visited by relic hunters, who extract cannon and musket balls from the timbers, and carry off pieces of the hull for canes and ornaments, while a heavy cannon is said to be in sight at very low water.

Statements that Theodore Tilton is endeavoring to effect a reconciliation with his wife, but that the latter will have nothing to do with him unless he publicly retracts everything he has ever alleged detrimental to her character, are again made in the New York papers. Judge Morris, one of Tilton's counsel in the Beecher prosecutions, has become disgusted with his client, and recently said to a reporter, "I make no secret of my contempt and loathing for Theodore Tilton. Henry Ward Beecher guilty is a thousand times more of a man to me than Theodore Tilton innocent—and Tilton is not innocent, either."

Great Britain has discovered that our cigars in their way are as good as beef and oysters and has begun to import them on an immense scale.

Henry A. Elliott, well known in theatrical circles, and who was also in charge of Tilden's "Liberty street literary bureau" during the Presidential campaign, died recently from an overdose of morphine taken to relieve neuralgia.

Frank Queen, of the New York Clipper, announces that he will give a flag worth $100 to the base ball club winning the International Association pennant of 1878. He also offers nine gold badges, suitably engraved and inscribed, to the individual players of the clubs in the International championship who shall make the best fielding record in each position respectively. The prizes are valued at $150.

The War Cloud.

England seems to have finally decided that a peaceful settlement of the contest with Russia is impossible. Lord Derby, Secretary of State for the Foreign Department, has announced his resignation, and the English Government has called out the first class of its reserves. All hope of a congress of nations has been abandoned. The attitude of Germany and Austria is still uncertain, and Italy is leaning toward Russia.

New Hampshire Items.

The Grand Jury at Hanover have found indictments for breaking and entering to commit an assault against C. M. Cooke and I. G. Burnett, the ringleaders of the "bazing" affair, for whose arrest President Bartlett offers $200. The other two who were arrested were accepted as State's evidence.

A new light has been thrown upon the curious assault in Hopkinton, on the 30th of Dec. last. It appears now the motive of the assault was probably wholly personal.

An elm tree cut on the land owned by Charles A. Holden, of Langdon, is said to have been the largest one in that section of the State. By the grain the tree was 325 years old, and it would average four feet in diameter for forty-eight feet, making twelve cords of wood, and by mathematical calculation weighing fully eighty-five tons. It belonged to the white elm variety, which is very hard to split.

The Nashua Telegraph says one of the democratic candidates for representative, in that city, spent $900 to secure his election, and then got beaten.

Milford has had a female barber several years—a colored woman, who, with her husband, James Bell, wields the shears and razor with dexterity and skill.

Edward Wheeler, late of Nashua, who had all his life been a most economical person, lately astonished everybody by the directions which he left for his burial. He had acquired $11,000, and directed his executors to spend $5000 on his funeral, including the cost of fitting up his burial lot. Whether they were able to do this or not is not stated, but the body of Mr. Wheeler reposed in a heavy black walnut coffin, covered with broadcloth and mounted with silver rods. It was placed upon woollen blankets, at Mr. Wheeler's particular request. Before his death he had a gold coffin plate made at a cost of $80, with $20 worth of engraving on it; but this was not used, as he willed it to a friend. He gave his native town of Merrimac $600, and the town of Nashua $100.

Mrs. LaPage has been interviewed in regard to a report from Canada that her husband was the villain who in 1867 murdered and outraged a mother and her daughter near St. Alexandre. Mrs. La Page has no reason to believe that her husband had anything to do with the crime.

Political.

The call for the democratic State convention of Illinois invites the participation of all who are opposed to the policy of the party in power. We could understand the meaning better if those who issued the call had told us (1) which party is in power, and (2) what "policy" it has, if any.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Ex-Attorney General Taft has been nominated for judge of the superior court in Hamilton county, Ohio.

Our reconstruction brethren have already presented claims amounting to $150,000,000. They say they want a peace, but it looks as if they were after the whole.—Lowell Courier.

It is sad to think that Whitaker's revenue defalcation in New Orleans will be investigated for the benefit of the democracy—particularly when it is known that the heaviest alleged revenue defaulter in that locality was a carpet-bagger from Ohio, and is a democrat.

The democrats of the Ohio legislature having made a man who has been convicted as a bounty-jumper and perjurer, chairman of the military committee, the republican members of the committee have all resigned. Decent democrats of Ohio say the prominence given this criminal by their party will cost them 10,000 votes next fall.

Representative B. F. Butler, of Massachusetts, was the solitary republican to vote in favor of putting Mr. Dean into the seat to which he was not elected—and his vote put him there, too. Having no influence with the rest of the Massachusetts delegation in Congress, Gen. Butler probably thought he might as well own a Congressman, and took that method to buy him.

There seems to be an increasing democratic apprehension that the party may lose its majority in the next House at the same time that it gains control of the Senate. The southern brethren are the most anxious on the subject. They are very solemn in their warnings against seating any more Congressmen who were never elected, because that way of gaining votes is short-lived, and full of reactionary force. They see that the date for securing southern claims will be indefinitely postponed with a republican House; hence this sensitiveness on the subject. The northern brother is by no means calm over the outlook. He swears under his breath every time anybody says "southern claims" to him, and sits in his chair uneasily, as one who would only have his worst fears realized if another extract from those Confederate archives were to burst under him at any moment. —Tribune.

THE CITY.

Governor Prescott was in this city on Friday.

The Journal says the party of which Miss Fannie A. Mathes of this city is a member, arrived safely in England after a passage of only nine days.

Rev. Lyman Whiting, formerly of this city, latterly of Reading, Mass., has gone to Charlestown, West Virginia, to supply the Presbyterian church there.

At the South Parish, Sunday, the pastor will give the 13th sketch of the "History of the Parish"—being an account of the ministry of Shurtleff. The subject of the morning discourse will be "Present Punishment."

July 5th, 1826, fifty-two years ago, Ammi R. H. Fernald, Charles E. Laighton and John G. Adams together took the degree of Master Mason and joined St. John's Lodge in this city. The three are still living, the first two in Portsmouth and the latter at New Orleans. —Journal.

The quickest time on record between Boston and Portland was made by a special train over the Eastern railroad, taking to Portland the directors of the Maine Central railroad living west of that city, to attend their late annual meeting. The train left Boston at ten minutes past nine o'clock in the forenoon, and arrived in Portland at forty-three minutes past twelve, three hours and thirty-three minutes from the time of starting.

For several days past a large number of admirers of floral wealth from near and far have visited Mrs. Pearson's greenhouse on Broad street to see that rare running plant known among florists as the Bougain Villea Spectabilis,—a magnificent bloomer. It covers a space of over fifty square feet and is one mass of superb bell-like blossoms, of a purplish pink tint, almost impenetrable in its profuseness, and forming a gorgeous picture. There are less than a half-dozen of these rare plants in this country, and none of them, as far as we are able to learn, have ever blossomed with any such perfection as this one. It is indigenous to China, but for some unexplained reason was banished from that "Celestial" country. It is found at the Sandwich Islands, though rarely, and ranks with the "Flower of the Holy Ghost."—Times

The Weekly quotes from the Times as follows: "The first oyster bed in Great Bay was discovered in 1863. This market is regularly supplied with luscious bivalves from that quarter." And the Weekly then comments: "Is that so? who sells 'em? We have been unable to find any this winter. But we got oysters in Great Bay ourself more than ten years before 1863, and others were certainly fished up more than fifty years ago, and judging from the piles of shells on the shores, have been known there indefinitely." We used to go oystering on "Nanny's island bar" in Great Bay fully thirty years ago, and the existence of extensive oyster beds in the deeper waters of the bay was well known then to the dwellers on its borders; but the beds were not fished any at that time. And probably the earliest settlers knew of them, for no doubt oysters had something to do with giving Oyster river its name.

"A Celebrated Case," which is to be given in Music Hall on Wednesday evening next by the Union Square Theatre Company of New York, is said to be one of the most effective of modern plays. It abounds in striking scenes, arising from peculiar but not unnatural conditions, and throughout the interest is remarkably sustained. The play is the work of the authors of "The Two Orphans," and like that appeals strongly to the heart of the auditor and spectator. In both, innocent persons are made to suffer, and in both, the final exercise of justice brings overwhelming joy to those who have been racked to the edge of death by the pains endured. "A Celebrated Case" held the boards at the Union Square Theatre a very long time, and it is said the management netted from $500 to $800 a night. It is this play which the managers of the Boston Theatre tried to prevent being produced, claiming that it was substantially the same as "The Exiles," and, as a result, a lawsuit is now pending. It is said to resemble "The Exiles" very much. The company which is to appear here Wednesday night is now making an extensive tour over the United States, and is reported to be a very excellent one.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

At the Universalist church, Rev. E. M. Grant, pastor, services every Sunday at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.; Sunday school at 2:45 P. M. A cordial welcome to all.

At the South Parish, morning service, at 10:30, vespers at 7:30. Sunday school at 2:45 P. M. Preaching by Rev. Jas. DeNormandie, the pastor.

At St. Mary's (Catholic) church, Children's Mass at 8:30, Solemn Mass at 10:30 A. M.; Sunday School at three o'clock, P. M.

At St. John's (Episcopal) church services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. every Sunday,—except the first Sunday in each month, when the Children's Choral Service and public cathechising, commencing at four o'clock, is substituted for the usual one at 7:30; seats free at this service.

THE VICINITY.

Rev. S. B. Bowdish, pastor of the Christian church in Rye for two years past, is about to sever his connection with the society and leave town.

Rev. George W. Christie of Wiscasset, Maine, late pastor of the Congregational church at Kittery Point, who has accepted a call to Salmon Falls, in view of the interest prevailing in Wiscasset and with the concurrence of the inviting church, has decided to postpone his removal till June.

John F. Janvrin, of Seabrook, alias J. H. Chase of Epping, who has made himself noterious by unlawful conduct, and gotten himself indicted for an offence against the laws of the State and of morality, has sold out his store in Epping to A. D. Brown, the former owner of the business.

A majority of the tramps who pass through Hampton refuse to accept the accommodations provided for them, but after taking one look at the interior of the town "tramp house" conclude to travel on to the next town, in search of something softer than a pine board on which to sleep.

Arrangements are in progress for a musical festival in Dover, beginning Tuesday, April 26th, and closing on the following Friday evening. Handel's oratorio, "The Creation," will be rendered, with an orchestra and chorus of 150 voices. Among the expected leading artists are Mrs. Martha Dana Shepard and Mrs. West.

A warrant has been posted in Greenland calling a town meeting, to see if the town will vote to exempt its bonds from taxation; also, to see if the town will vote to sell or lease the town farm, which has been an outset to the town for several years, this past year being behind nearly three hundred dollars, with only one "pauper" outside of the tramps.

The coroner in the case of John Burns, who died suddenly in Dover on Thursday afternoon, decides that an inquest is unnecessary, there being no evidence of foul play, the man dying of hernia or perforation of the intestines, caused probably by excessive drinking, and the only suspicious circumstances in the case being simply that eleven years ago the father and son had some trouble because the latter married, and when the wife heard that he had died upon reaching home her suspicions were aroused, as he left St. Albans apparently in robust health.

The Exeter News-Letter says: "On Wednesday night our town was visited by some of the most enterprising burglars whose deeds have yet been reported. They seem to have begun operations at Shadrack Drew's shop, where they entered through the window and took an inch-and-a-half chisel. Nathaniel Weeks' grocery store was opened with a jimmy and some crackers and cheese stolen, together with $15 in money. Thompson's restaurant was entered in the same manner, also Dunn & Murdock's grocery store, on Middle street, where $4 in money was taken, and Garland's market, where they got fifty cents. They tried, without success, Malloy's and Ricker's stores and Mrs. Emery's barn." It is also said an attempt was made Wednesday night to break into the bank at Exeter, but the burglars failed to overcome the obstacles and left.

Apples of Gold in Pictures of Silver.

"A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." When the body becomes diseased, the mind is thereby necessarily influenced. National wars, State dissensions, neighborhood broils, and family differences, are more frequently than otherwise the result of diseased and disordered constitutions. When the body is suffering, the mind, acting in sympathy, will become irritated and perplexed. When the physical system is in health, the mind perceives things in their true light, and the disposition assumes a very different phase. Nothing more directly tends to destroy the happy, cheerful disposition of a woman, and render her peevish, nervous and fretful, than a constant endurance of uterine disorders. The diseases peculiar to woman take away the elasticity and bouyancy of health and reduce her body and mind to a mere wreck. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a real peacemaker in a family. No woman suffering from uterine disorders can afford to be without this remedy. The Favorite Prescription saves unnecessary doctor bills, prevents divorces, wards off suicides, brings back buoyant joyous feelings, restores the woman to health, and her family to happiness. It is sold by all druggists.

Inquisitive.

"What makes that noise?" asked a little boy on the train, recently.

"The cars," answered his mother.

"What for?"

"Because they are moving."

"What are they moving for?"

"The engine makes them."

"What engine?"

"The engine in front."

"What's it in front for?"

"To pull the train."

"What train?"

"This one."

"This car?" repeated the youngster, pointing to the one in which they sat.

"Yes."

"What does it pull for?"

"The engineer makes it."

"What engineer?"

"The man on the engine."

"What engine?"

"The one in front."

"What is that in front for?"

"I told you that before."

"Told who what?"

"Told you."

"What for?"

"Oh, do keep still; you are a little nuisance!"

"What's a nuisance?"

"A little boy who asks too many questions."

"Whose boy?"

"My boy!"

"What questions?"

The conductor came through just then and took up the tickets, and the train pulled up at the station before we could get all of the conversation. The last we heard, as the lady jerked the youngster off the platform, was "What conductor?"

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from least of those so remarkable are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We Know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr., A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. Rose & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. otiway1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and agreeable; dry hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its graceful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specified in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that the religious, the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot compete with a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (many dollar-grabbers) would like to see if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 28 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, I did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect a cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternate with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassa and Iron, makes a combinational cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Tetter or Ringworm, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucchorrhea arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation, would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head finally irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I persevered gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a purge I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils to their healthy state, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the nature of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

BOSTON, Feb. 23, 1875. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

SUFFOLK, ss. FEB. 23, 1875.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

SETH J. THOMAS, Justice of the Peace.

Each package contains Dr Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price $1.00. For sale by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very large side, caused by my duties as Express Messenger, which I found to be an injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without any relief, my physician recently recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in relieving Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combining Electricity or Voltaic Power with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Savings Banks.

The new Piscataqua Savings Bank commences operation to-morrow morning.

The primary object of a savings bank is the gathering up the small savings of persons who without such aid as this would not begin the process of accumulation, and with such care and prudence as conservative men give to concerns of this nature, have the same preserved and increased for future use.

The savings bank system has in its plan very many salutary features, and it is only when there has been a departure from the wholesome programme at the first instituted, that there has been any failure of success.

To make a bank successful, there must be first a confidence in the managers: that they are men of sufficient character not to desire to manage a bank for any incidental advantage that may result to themselves, and that the investments of the depositors' funds are made in good faith. Savings banks must make their deposits earn the wherewith to pay depositors the stipulated interest, the taxes, and the expenses of banking. In order to do this the bank seeks an investment in bonds, mortgages or long loans with adequate security. This money cannot be recalled in a day, because it is invested for a specified time; and the profit to the bank is, simply, the difference between what it pays its depositors for their money, which it hires payable on demand, and the rate at which it lets it, or invests it, upon a long term of time.

For a long series of years the first savings bank chartered in the State, the present Portsmouth Savings Bank, has been managed in a prudent and cautious manner, with safety to its depositors and credit to its trustees. It has upon deposit about two and a half millions of dollars, and its record is especially gratifying as a well managed, safe and carefully administered institution.

The recent attempt at a run on the Five Cents Savings Bank in Boston, which had twelve millions of dollars upon deposit, was regarded by many to be as beneficial to the bank as it was injurious to the depositors, who felt that if the bank could not pay on demand they wanted the money, but if it really was on a solid basis they did not wish to disturb their savings. The large sum on deposit was regarded by many sound men to have become too great in amount to be kept under one management, and subject to the whims of such a large number of depositors; or in other words there seemed to be a limit to the amount of responsibility to be assumed by the trustees. The bank is the stronger for the test of its strength, and its good fortune in paying its depositors when there was a dull market for money.

Savings banks, like any corporate or individual business, thrive only by a strict adhesion to certain immutable laws; a departure from this course, no matter how tempting may be the possible advantage, is the first step toward deterioration, loss of confidence, ill success and bankruptcy.

Everything, therefore, depends upon the personnel of the managers. Their name should be a synonym of combined integrity and ability. Without both these traits, controlling their every action, the experiment must be of short duration and unmistakably disastrous as to its result.

In every community there are men selected for these delicate and difficult trusts, and where such men are found, with an unselfishness that devotes time, experience, talents,—in short, every valuable and rare trait which is required for business success,—to the good of their less favored fellow citizens, who can care for the widow and orphan and not seek to devour the widows' houses or waste the substance of the fatherless, there will be found sound and carefully managed banks. No rumors of idle or careless reports affect the confidence of cautious and intelligent depositors, but like the everlasting hills of our grand old State, the istitution stands as a monument of the stability of sound financial views and public confidence.

Such should be the character of the managers of our savings banks. These trustees should be investors, not borrowers. They should be found on but one side of the counter, neither seeking to use the funds of the bank, nor favoring any project save such as are approved by prudence, caution, experience, knowledge of men and things, an estimation of property at its true value, and a vigor of intellect that keeps pace with the age and which neither rushes on to new and untried paths of speculation, nor lies down under the incubus of too conservative notions, but in a healthful and proper spirit, is able to cope with the difficult, changeful, and at times dangerous problems of finance, at which so many fail, and where so few, very few, achieve the true measure of success.

Democratic "Retrenchment."

The New York Tribune indulges in a severe criticism of Congressional "economy" of the democratic brand. It recites the undeniable facts that in their first Congress, having first intrenched themselves by turning out every republican they could reach and installing democrats in their places, they set out on a course of retrenchment for their opponents upon a scale so vast and sweeping that they came near bringing the whole machinery of government to a dead stand-still by stopping the supplies. They cut and bruised and hacked and hewed, and left nothing standing but their own salaries and those of their placemen. They economized the army and navy out of several months' pay and pretty nearly out of existence, making it necessary to call an extra session of Congress to make appropriations for them; and they whittled down appropriations to such a point that millions of deficiencies had to be made up at the end of the year. They boasted of having saved many millions to the government, and showed the record for it, and the millions they "saved" appear in the deficiency bills of the succeeding session! It was a magnificent showing, and they did it all on as cheap a basis as the parsimonious man "enjoyed religion for twenty years" —it "didn't cost them more than thirty-seven and half cents, all told." They never so much as touched with tweezers the first salary or emolument or perquisite of their own. There was never such discriminating economy.

Boy Murderers.

A rival of Jesse Pomeroy is found in Carolina county, Va., in a boy of fourteen years named William Dillard, who dug a grave on his father's farm, called a negro boy and pushed the latter into it. When his victim attempted to get out he struck him with an axe, nearly severing the windpipe, and leaving him for dead. The young fiend says he "had to do it," being forced to attempt the murder by uncontrollable impulse. Dillard, like Pomeroy, was a greedy devourer of dime-novels, and such wretchedly trashy papers as the Boys of New York. And as long as such crime-engendering trash is allowed to be freely sold, boys with morbid impulses will often be found "having to do" deeds of violence and murder for the sake of "getting their names in the picture papers," until society will finally "have" to hang a few of them—which will to a certain extent stop the epidemic of such juvenile crime. Hickey, the young wretch who shot a little playmate in South Boston not long since, and was convicted of the crime, was "allowed to go on probation" by the Court, from sympathy with his youth; but last week the friends of the "poor boy" took him again before the court, requesting that he might be taken care of, as they could do nothing with him. When the sympathizing public learn that a person old enough to plan and carry out an atrocious crime is old enough to be punished for it, and that the innocent victims of criminals are quite as much entitled to sympathy as the criminals are, we shall hear less of the Pomeroys and Hickeys and Dillards; but as long as such wild beasts are made heroes of, in just the way they crave, so long the supply will equal the demand.

The War Cloud.

The London Pall Mall Gazette on Friday said: "We fear that it must be assumed that diplomacy has said its last word. England and Russia are too definitely committed to the positions which they have respectively assumed, to allow any withdrawal. The difference is so essentially one of principle, that it is impossible for any third power to suggest an acceptable compromise. The advance of Russian troops to the Bosphorus and upon Gallipoli may be immediately expected." These words acquire great significance when it is considered that the Gazette is the property of Right Hon. W. H. Smith, First Lord of the Admiralty.

The Russian government has stopped the exportation of grain from Toulcha and Custendje on the Black Sea.

The Russian newspapers state that many advantageous offers for letters of marque, in case of an Anglo-Russian war, have been received from the United States and elsewhere, but none have so far been accepted.

Naval Affairs.

The U. S. S. Enterprise has left Pensacola for Norfolk.

Commander Henry Erben is ordered to duty as equipment officer at Portsmouth navy yard.

Passed Asst. Paymaster John W. Jordan, attached to the U. S. S. Portsmouth, was "left over" (together with the steward and all the fresh provisions) when the ship sailed from New York for Havre, having been summoned to testify before a Congressional committee in relation to the acts of a consul on the Asiatic station. Paymaster Jordan swore that while lying at Shanghai forty sailors of his ship were arrested by Vice Consul Bradford and fined sixteen dollars each, which, amounting to six hundred dollars, he paid, stopping it from the pay of the sailors. This sum should have been turned in by the consul, but search at the Department shows that it was never accounted for. Sailors on the Kearsarge were fined to the amount of three hundred dollars, of which only vouchers for twenty-five dollars can be found. These are only samples of a large number of similar peculations which the committee have unearthed.

A naval order has been issued by the Department, as follows: "Commanding officers of vessels in offering rewards for the apprehension and delivery of stragglers or deserters from their respective commands, shall distinctly state, in the offer of reward, that it will only be paid for the apprehension and delivery of the offender on board some United States vessel within the limits of the port in which the man deserted, and within three months from date of offer. Commanding officers of vessels at naval stations within the United States are never to receive on board stragglers or deserters from other vessels, unless so ordered by the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting."

News and Notes.

J. B. Knight, of New York, an expert, after an investigation, pronounces the Keeley motor a fraud, the so-called "vapor" being nothing but compressed air. Keeley, however, proposes a public exhibition to prove the ability of his invention.

Valentine Baker, having once been ostracised by English high society has been received into its arms again, having recently been given a semi-public dinner by the Duke of Sutherland, at which two representatives of royalty were present, Prince Teck and Prince Edward of Saxe Weimar. This comes of fighting for the Paynim, just as, in other days, a man purged himself of a crime by going to the Crusades and fighting against him.

Adolph Sutro has brought a suit in the United States Circuit Court of Carson City for the possession of the Bonanza mining claims, claiming that the ground now being worked by the Bonanza companies belongs to the Sutro Tunnel by reason of said tunnel's grant by Congress, allowing the Sutro Company 2000 feet of ground on each side of the tunnel not previously located under the mining laws. Sutro claims that the ground at present worked by the Bonanza companies was not included in their original location, and, per consequence, is the property of the Tunnel Company.

At Eastville, Northampton county, Va., on Thursday, Sidney Pitts and A. P. Thorns fought with pistols to settle a dispute. Two rounds were fired by each man, and as they stood only six feet apart, Pitts was killed and Thorns received a ball in the head, from which he will probably die.

The steamship Crescent City, while in the dry-dock at New York, toppled over, crushing the dock seriously, but not injuring the vessel. The dock was damaged about $15,000.

A man just returned from the peach district of Delaware states that the peach buds were not harmed by the frost, and that the peach crop this year bids fair to be the largest ever known.

United States District Attorney Coghlan, at San Francisco, has received instructions from the Attorney-General directing him to act in conjunction with the collector of the port to prevent the steamer Pelican leaving port. It is understood that the Pelican has been sold to Guatemala; that she is being armed and equipped as a war vessel, manned and officered by American seamen, and that she is to be used for the destruction of the Costa Rican commerce and seaports. The Pelican, until recently, has been running between San Francisco and Humboldt Bay, and was formerly a blockade runner.

George Baker, for an outrageous assault at London, Ont., on a young girl, named Mary Penny, has been sentenced to jail for two months, during which period he is to receive forty lashes, and thereafter to be imprisoned in the Central Prison for twenty months.

Two men were hanged at Cookville, Tenn., and one at Live Oak, Fla., on Friday, for murders committed. All three were colored.

The Boston Board of Trade, at a meeting in the Merchants' Exchange, Friday, unanimously resolved "That, in the opinion of the Boston Board of Trade, it is both inexpedient and dangerous to take the management and control of the Life-Saving and Coast Guard Service from the Treasury Department, where it now is and has been since its formation, and vest it in the Navy Department." Among the most earnest advocates of the resolution was Capt. R. B. Forbes, who considers that the proposed change, if carried out, would ruin the efficiency of the life-saving service.

The dividends of the Boston banks the past six months are the poorest ever recorded.

In many households all over the land the weekly appearance of the Living Age has come to be indispensable to a comfortable existence. The numbers for the weeks ending March 23d and 30th, respectively, have the following valuable contents; Precious Stones, British Quarterly; The Telephone, Westminster Review; How the Turks Rule Armenia, by Dr. Humphrey Sandwith, of Kars, Nineteenth Century; Within the Precincts, by Mrs. Oliphant, from advance sheets; Quevedo, Gentleman's Magazine; Benedict de Spinoza, Nineteenth Century; A Ring of Worlds, Cornhill; Erica, translated for the Living Age from the German of Frau von Ingersleben; Lay Figures, Examiner; Macleod of Dare, by William Black, from advance sheets; The Mobility of Asiatics, Spectator; with choice poetry, etc. A new volume begins with the first number of April. For fifty-two numbers, of sixty-four large pages each (or more than 3000 pages a year,) the subscription price ($8) is low; or for $10.50 any one of the American $4 monthlies or weeklies is sent with the Living Age for a year, both postpaid. Littell & Gay, Boston, are the publishers.

Ship Property in England.

The depression of ship property in England is quite as marked as it is in this country. Speculative building has ceased, and both sailing vessels and steamers are freely offered at twenty-five per cent. below the prices current five years ago, with few buyers. All this is logical enough. There are more ships than business, and freights are so low that even with the strictest economy it is difficult to make them pay. The navigation of the Baltic has remained open, and very large shipments of grain have taken place from the Russian ports and Konigsberg, some of which have found their way to Marseilles and other Mediterranean ports. This, with the American trade, has for some time past been the main reliance of English ship-owners. The bockade of the Black Sea was raised on the 4th of March, and there has already been a large influx of steamers chartered at fair rates. But aside from this, business is very bad and the prospect on the whole discouraging.—N. Y. Shipping List.

—"I'm a yard wide and all wool" is the Kentucky way of describing a high state of hilarity.

—A Granger stood curiously watching the peanut man as he methodically turned the crank of his roaster. After expectantly waiting until patience ceased to be a virtue, the unsophisticated tiller of the soil blurted out: "Hullo! you feller, why don't you play suthin'?"

The patronage among the first-class hotels in New York is constantly changing from one hotel to the other. The Grand Central hotel has recently incited the direct wrath of its competitors by offering the same accommodations for one and two dollars per day less than the others.
